a Drubbing.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—The next Hearst

According to the best information and member of the executive committee of the present body, is to be the target at which the Hearst guns will be aimed. The founder of the Independence party has made casual references to Mr. Taggart in former speeches, but this time the Indiana statesman is to be the text.

given away by her father. Among those in attendance were Miss Ethel

Lakes Michigan and Huron at Grand Haven and Saginaw,

Water association was organized here by delegates from six cities along the route of the proposed

Saginaw rivers.

PEACE MAY END PAPER STRIKE

Companies Send Men to Confer With Pulp Workers.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 30.—After a session lasting the greater part of the night, representatives of a number of local unions of the National Brotherhood of Pulp Sulphite Workers and Paper-makers from New York and New England states who are meeting here to discuss the strike against the International & Great Northern Paper company adjourned early today without having come to any definite understanding. They will hold another session.

MISSING ONE IS FOUND IN ASYLUM

St. Cloud, Minn., Sept. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—The mystery surrounding the whereabouts of William Holst, who had resided here many years, being employed by N. P. Clarke, who dropped out of sight three months ago, when he departed for Portland, Or., to make his home with his daughter, has been cleared up by his being located in the state asylum for the insane at Warren Springs, Montand.

DIVORCEES MUST WAIT YEAR, IN WISCONSIN.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 30.—By a decision of the supreme court yesterday divorced persons in Wisconsin are prehibited from marrying again within a year after the date of the divorce.
This decision was rendered in a case in which a divorcee who went to Michigan before the expiration of a year, married again, and returned to Wisconsin. The court ruled that such marriages must not be recognized by the courts of Wisconsin.

WARSHIPS AT GIBRALTAR.

Gibraltar, Sept. 30.—The American battleships Alabama and Maine arrived this afternoon, from Naples. As they entered the harbor they saluted the garrison with the flag of Rear Admiral Goodrich, commander of the British naval establishment at Gibraltar. These salutes were returned. The American warships will coal here preparatory to sailing for Horta, Azore Islands.

Kern in Michigan.
Battle Creek, Mich., Sept. 30.—John W. Kern, Democratic nominee for vice president, spent an hour in this city today, en route to Saginaw, where he will speak tonight at a meeting preliminary to the Democratic state convention, to be held there tomorrow.

SAME HALL, BUT OH! A DIFFERENT CROWD

Denver, Sept. 30.—Today, the regular business sessions of the American Bankers' association opened in the city auditorium and the vast hall, which echoed with the cheers of the Democrats, when in national convention, they adopted a platform favoring guarantee of bank deposits by national law, or if this is impossible, the establishment of postal savings banks, witnessed a scene of a body of men, representing the wealth of the nation, repudiating these ideas as dangerous to the prosperity of the country. Already the savings bank section, the clearing house section and the trust company section, had gone on record against guaranteeing bank deposits, and had either voted against or shown by their attitude that they were unalterably opposed to the establishment of postal savings banks.

STRIKE ENDS; CANADIAN PACIFIC MEN NUMBERING 20,000, RETURN TO WORK

No Terms Announced as Yet, But Trouble is Ended.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 30.—At midnight the residents of Winnipeg were startled by the furious blowing of locomotive whistles, which was the signal announcing that the Canadian Pacific mechanics' strike, which started
Aug. 4, had been declared off.

The strike involved 20,000 men.
The terms of settlement have not yet been announced.

It was decided to declare the strike off in the West first and this will be followed by a similar declaration in the East.

FIRE BLAME UPON STATES

Washington, Sept. 30.—An aggregate loss of $1,000,000 a day during the months when forest fires have been prevailing in various parts of the United States, is estimated by W. J.
McFie, the erosion expert of the department of agriculture.

GOVERNOR AGAIN ON THE STUMP

Winona, Minn., Sept. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—Governor John A. Johnson, who has recovered from an attack of illness, supposed to have been caused by ptomaine poisoning, is now on a week of campaigning through Southern Minnesota. Because he is still in a weak condition, Mrs. Johnson is accompanying him.

On Monday evening the governor spoke for an hour and a half to an audience of 1,600 people, which taxed the seating capacity of the huge Philharmonic hall, last evening. He was met at the depot by a committee of prominent local Democrats and a band, at 7:55 p.m., and escorted to the hall, where the crowd was in waiting. His speech was along the lines of the one with which he opened the campaign at Montevideo. He said he had fulfilled every promise he made four years ago, and not even the opposition papers have charged that he has not.

ROOSEVELT WILL MAKE NO REPLY

Washington, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt will not reply to the latest letter of William J.
Bryan, given out by him last night at Rock Island, Illinois.
Secretary Loeb stated today that the president felt that inasmuch as Mr. Bryan's letter was simply an attack upon him personally, there was no reason why he should answer it.

CORPSES BY HUNDREDS

India Fears Pestilence Will Follow the Great Floods.

Hyderabad, India, Sept. 30.—It is feared pestilence will follow the floods that have occurred in the Hyderabad and Deccan districts, as a result of the unprecedented rainfall of the past few weeks.

The waters subsided yesterday, and the country is strewn with unburied bodies, estimated to number not less than 1,000. Most of the corpses are those of women and children. They are decomposing already, and as it will be impossible to get them under ground promptly, an outbreak of illness is feared. Many elephants are at present employed in removing the dead.

SHORT, PLUMP BACILLI IN CONSUMPTION PROBE

Washington, Sept. 30.—Johannes Libbet, M. D., professor of pathology and anatomy, University of Copenhagen, addressing the international congress on tuberculosis today, said: "Studying the forms of the bacilli when cultivated, we have examined fifteen human and thirteen bovine cultures on glycerin bouillon.
Undoubtedly, as pointed out by Theobald Smith, the most cultures isolated from man contain long and slender bacilli, while the members in characteristics isolated from cattle most frequently are composed of short, plump, straight rods. But this difference is not constant.
Among seven cultures isolated from human sputum we have,
as an example, found one containing short and plump bacilli, and two cultures from cattle containing short and plump bacilli of the type usually found in human cultures."

He was in a certain city be-sawing Jesus, fell on his face and besought him, saying:

'Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst

ately the leprosy departed from

POLITICAL ADDRESS IN BASEBALL LANGUAGE

Champaign, Ill., Sept. 30.—A large crowd of students of the University of Illinois at Urbana, "rah" raved themselves hoarse when "Nick" Longworth, as they delighted to call him, spoke to them on campaign issues, using baseball smilies to adorn his striking points. He declared that while the presidential nominee, James S. Sherman, whom they greeted as "Sunny Jim."

Mr. Longworth, who is a baseball fan, was right at home in likening Bryan to the celebrated Casey, famous in song. He declared that while the Casey had struck but once, Mr. Bryan had already been struck twice and now, as the result of a third ball pitched from the "White House," he thought it would be three strikes and out.

SHERIFF CHAINS ENGINE TO TREE

Altus, Okla., Sept. 30.—Sheriff Hensley of Jackson county, attached a St. Louis & San Francisco freight engine, chaining it to a tree, in an attempt to force the payment of $2,280 in taxes said to be due the county from the railroad.
The train crew was forced to abandon their train and the railroad and the county are threatening suits.

ANTI-SALOONIST CUTS LIQUOR MAN

Gallipolis, Ohio, Sept. 30.—After Gallipolis and Gallia counties had voted "dry" yesterday by 1,740 majority, Dr.
Charles Harker, president of the County Anti-Saloon league, had a fight with John North, a saloonkeeper, over the election. Harker stabbed North

ALFRED AUSTIN HAS A NEW POEM.

New York, Sept. 30.—Alfred Austin, poet laureate of England, has broken forth into verse. His latest effort entitled "Until the Last," will be published tomorrow. Here are some of the lines:
When the plow flags
Over the lifeless
And the woodpecker taps
On the rotting bark
When the starved rook picks
On the rotting grain
And the tattered nest
Flicks the leafless bough;
Then, they will see how Life, and still no less
When the trees wave alone
My dreaminess?

WASHINGTON	0	2	0	0	3	0	0	0	5	7	3

With Chicago leading the National league by a single point over New York and only four points over Pittsburgh and only seven points separating Detroit and Chicago, respectively first and third in the American league race, the closing days of the baseball season are fraught with ever increasing interest. By forcing its way to the head of the National league column yesterday, through winning its game with Cincinnati, while New York split a double header with Philadelphia, Chicago dislodged New York from a position it has held more than a month. With the turn over of yesterday, and with Pittsburgh pressing so closely that a single day's play may bring about a complete change in the position of the three leading teams, it is expected that from now until the end of the season, interest will be maintained at even a higher pitch than it has been in the recent past. Supporters of the New York team are much disheartened by the injuries which befell Bresnahan and Doolin yesterday. The games in the National league scheduled for today are: Chicago at Cincinnati; Philadelphia at New York; St. Louis at Pittsburgh; and Brooklyn at Boston. The standing of the three leading National league teams before today's games was:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Chicago	94	54	.635
New York	92	58	.614
Pittsburgh	94	55	.631

While there was no change in the relative positions of the leading teams in the American league yesterday, the race for supremacy there is almost as close as in the National league, Detroit maintaining its lead by only four points over Cleveland, while Cleveland has only three points advantage over Chicago for second place. Only two of the leading teams in the American league are to play today. Detroit will meet Washington in Detroit, and Philadelphia and Cleveland will play at Cleveland. The stand ing of the leaders before play began today was:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Detroit	86	61	.585
Cleveland	86	62	.581
Chicago	85	62	.578

HOW THEY STAND NOW:

MONTANANS SEE TAIL OF A COMET.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 30.—What apparently was the tail of the comet, very distant, was witnessed here from 9 to 10:30 last night, when clouds obscured further observation. The phenomena was viewed by hundreds. It first appeared as a slender white streak, gradually widening and lengthening, extending across the zenith like a silvery rainbow. The streak showed no vibrations. The phenomena was also observed in Missoula.

The Soo road will begin work next week preparing for its water front terminals at the Head of the Lakes. Four or five dredges will be employed in filling operations, and it is expected the preparations preliminary to the erection of buildings, will be completed by the time the bay freezes over.

Dredges will be put at work at the end of Connor's point in Superior installing cribs to make place for two warehouses, 80x1,600 feet each. At Tenth avenue west in Duluth, where the passenger depot will be located, there is considerable filling to be done also.

The yards of the company will be located on Rice's point and the shore line will be extended considerably on that account. A large force of men will be employed and the work rushed.

TO HEAT CAR.

Additional Comfort for Patrons of the Aerial Bridge.

A proposition for heating the aerial bridge car will be before the council Monday night for action. Up to the present time the car has not been properly heated.

Some of the city officials and others interested are wondering why the board of public works, in its search for an expert to see what the car with the structure, does not consult with City Engineer McGilvray, who built the car, while an outside expert would command a high salary. "I have not been asked anything concerning the bridge, so far as the city is concerned," said McGilvray, "but I have over to Duluth in good condition more than two years ago," said Mr. McGilvray.

Grand Forks, N. D., Sept. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—Oskar Larson, employed as a bartender in East Grand Forks, was held up and robbed of $12 and a gold watch on South Third street, shortly before midnight, Monday. Larson was coming from Minnesota avenue and at a point near the hall hotel two men, both of whom wore masks, sprang out and one of them covered him with a revolver. The man with the gun then struck Larson on the jaw with the revolver and forced him to give up his valuables. Larson hurried to police headquarters and told his story. received in the accident to his aeroplane at Fort Meyer, Va.

Miss Fitzpatrick

We wish to announce to the ladies of Duluth and vicinity, that we are now prepared to show a complete line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Fall Millinery.

We now occupy the two buildings located at 502-504 East Fourth street, and can boast of having the largest exclusive millinery house in the city.

In presenting this invitation to the ladies especially, we do not wish to exclude your husbands; we often find that men have much better taste than women when selecting real fashionable millinery.

Come in and see us at any time, and we assure you that you will be pleased with our showing. It is a pleasure for us to show you our goods, whether you purchase or not.

THE HEATER YOU SHOULD BUY

Is the one that gives you the most heat from a ton of coal—we have that heater. No other heater is made like it—no other heater has the heat radiating surface that our heater has. We can prove it.

Gives Twice as Much Heat as Any Two Flue Construction.

Radiates One-Third More Heat Than a Three Flue Construction.

With the ordinary two-flue construction the smoke flues cover only two-thirds of the back—therefore only two-thirds of the back radiates heat.

In the ordinary three-flue construction, one-third of the back radiates no heat. This system takes a stronger draught—it consumes more fuel.

Our Heater is the Most Powerful Heater Ever Built.

The Ordinary Heater Is Good. This Heater is the BEST.

The cost is not as much as other stores ask. Every heater is fully guaranteed. It is the heater for you to buy. It saves fuel, gives more heat than the others. Why isn't it the heater for you to buy?

The Majestic Malleable Range

Is the leader. There are other Malleable iron ranges—none of them are practical as hard coal burners—none of them are made of charcoal iron—none of them are as well made as the Majestic—yet you have to pay just as much for the inferior kind. A Majestic costs you no more—it is not high-priced.

The body is lined with heavy asbestos board—not paper. The body is made of charcoal iron—it won't rust, corrode or leak at the joints—because it is one entire piece of metal—with no joints. Charcoal iron adds 300 per cent to the life of a range.

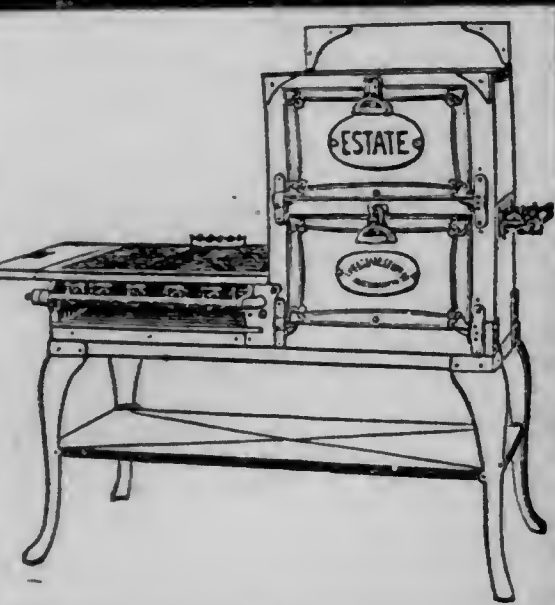

The oven is riveted to a heavy angle iron frame, making it absolutely air tight. Other range ovens are riveted or bolted to the range body. You can pass a knife blade through the joint—it will leak air.

Come in and see the Majestic—we'll show you many more good points than other ranges don't have.

A Splendid Gas Range

A Fuel Saver—Perfect Action—Good Baker—Economical to Buy.

This range has a fine oven, good broiler, excellent burners, self-adjusting gas attachment—it is a perfect gas range—one of the largest—finest values on the market. If you are thinking of a gas range for your kitchen—come in and see this one.

It Will Cost You $25.00

MILK BEST DIET FOR CONSUMPTION

Tuberculosis Congress is Told of Different Food Opinions.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Dr. Richard Cole Newton of Monclair, N. J., speaking on "Diet in Pulmonary Tuberculosis" at the international congress on tuberculosis, said in part: "The aggregate number of inmates in certain institutions was 4,880. The largest had 1,515 patients and the smallest 19, twenty-nine establishments provide three meals a day, two furnish five, one furnishes four, one furnishes two, and one furnishes only one full meal daily. All but three furnish one or more lunches, varying in number from one to four. Fourteen forbid eating between meals and seventeen forbid eating at night.

"Twenty prescribe no regulations as to the manner of eating, proper mastication of food, etc. Nearly all use artificial aids to digestion. Fourteen forbid all forms of alcoholic liquors, including wine and beer. Three permit their use very rarely. Most of the remainder allow alcoholics only on prescription and in moderate quantities.

SUFFOCATED BY SMOKE.

Body of Missing Man Found in Northern Wisconsin.

Ashland, Wis., Sept. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—While several men were going through the woods near Drummond Monday morning, they made a ghastly discovery. Lying face downward in the mud was the body of a man which evidently had been lying in the same position for quite a while. Later it was found that he was an employee of the Toot Owen Lumber company of Drummond, who has been missing ever since the 15th of this month, thirteen days in all. It is presumed that he was suffocated by the smoke of the forest fires which were raging madly in that region last month.

FIRE CAUSES DEATH AND $200,000 LOSS.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 30.—Fire caused the death of Fireman J. H. Parr, the serious injury of five other firemen and a property loss estimated at $200,000, in the heart of the business district here, shortly after the fire was discovered on the second floor of the building occupied by H. J. Blakeney to the west of the establishment of L. Craddock & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, on Elm street, an explosion occurred in the liquor house which sent a shower of glass to the street below and shook the walls of the burning structure. The fire then spread to the furniture establishment of William Kelley and the Egan-Farry Electrical company's storerooms. When the firemen had crowded into the Craddock building in order to reach the blaze in the heart of the block, the entire second floor fell upon them, bearing with it its enormous weight of barrel goods.

The Craddock, the Peacock, the Egan-Farry Electrical company and the Blakeney Furniture company buildings are completely gutted.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

John Butylski and Joseph Adams, arrested in a saloon at 2024 West Superior street last night, pleaded guilty to the charge of disorderly conduct in municipal court this morning, and were each fined $10 and costs. It developed in court that the dispute did not arise out of a discussion of religious matters, and that church affairs were not mentioned at all.

John Butylski, one of the proprietors of the saloon, was not arrested at all, as was stated in the first report. He was not in the building at the time the fight occurred, and knew nothing of it until it was all over with. Neither was the battle so fierce as was pictured in the morning paper. One police officer had no difficulty in stopping the fight and arresting both men, instead of it taking three officers to do the job, as first reported.

Ashland, Wis., Sept. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—The provision of the law of Wisconsin against admitting death-bed statements in trials resulted in the dismissal of the case against William Mallory, who was being held on the charge preferred by Miss Olive Avery's father that he ruined the girl, resulting in her taking her life by poison. The funeral of the unfortunate victim of the tragedy was held yesterday and was largely attended.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT BEGINS

Frank Gospeter Sues D. M. & N. Railroad Co. for $50,000.

Was Fireman on Engine Which Ran Through Wrong Switch.

One of the heaviest damage suits on the calendar at the present term of district court was begun this morning, before Judge Dibel. The action is brought by Frank Gospeter against the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad company, to recover $50,000 damages, claimed as a result of injuries sustained while in the employ of the road.

The suit is the result of an accident on the tracks of the railroad, just west of the ore docks, Oct. 13, of last year, when an ore train ran through an open switch and collided with a train of cars standing on the track, overturning the engine and sending several cars down the bank. The accident occasioned considerable damage to the property of the company.

Gospeter was a fireman on the engine, which ran into the standing train. He claims to have been crushed between the tender and the cab, was badly scalded by escaping steam, and was injured internally and visibly, so badly that he has been under medical care since, and has been unable to work.

The complaint charges negligence on the part of the company, in not having the ore dock switches in charge of proper persons, and in not employing a sufficient force to allow men to guard the switches at all times and prevent such accidents. Gospeter asks damages in the sum of $50,000 for his injuries. W. H. Prawley and T. F. Frawley, of Eau Claire, Wis., and Morton Barrows, of Duluth, appear for the plaintiff, and Baldwin, Baldwin & Langer for the railroad company.

A COUNTY TREASURER RECOMMENDS CAS-KA

This Weather will Prove if Cas-Ka is Good for Rheumatism.

The following is a sample of some of the mail orders we receive for Cas-Ka from people living outside of Duluth: Langdon, N. D., Nov. 12, 1907.—Office of County Treasurer, Cavalier county, F. J. McMillan—Dear Sir: Enclosed find $1.25 for which send me 3 more bottles of Cas-Ka. It has been a great help to me for rheumatism. Respectfully, Thomas Sheehan, County Treasurer.

This is the kind of weather that will prove to the people whether or not Cas-Ka is good for rheumatism, as it is the changeable weather that brings on the rheumatic pains. If you know any person that has been taking Cas-Ka for a week or ten days, ask them if their rheumatic pains are the same this kind of weather as formerly.

Another good test for Cas-Ka is to show how Cas-Ka takes the impurities out of the blood. If people who are troubled with pimples on their face will come and try Cas-Ka a few days they will see the great difference it makes in their appearance in a few days' treatment. And when Cas-Ka cures those pimples on the face why should it not cure those scurvy sores in the head that cause that dropping of the hair?

Now if it only takes a week or ten days to show you the above is true, start today and take Cas-Ka for ten days. It costs you nothing. Get one of the hand bills and see the names of Duluth people helped by Cas-Ka. Two more bottles of free treatment and sale of $1.00 bottle for 36c; 3 for $1.00; you can use part or the entire bottle and if it does not help you we refund the money.

Boyce's Drug store, 323 West Superior street, sole agents for Duluth. F. J. McMillan, Manager for Cas-Ka company.

RAILROADS EXTENSION TO DULUTH

Another Link in Rainy Lake Road to be Built.

Money Said to be Available for Building Line.

The Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg road will begin construction work on its line from Virginia to this city in the near future, probably within two weeks.

This is the story that is rumored today upon very good authority. It is stated the money to finance the work has been secured, and the road is already surveyed, the only thing that remains is, to begin the actual construction work upon the grading of the roadbed.

It is said that the deal was consummated last week. At that time Vice President and General Manager Pennington of the Soo road, President W. F. Fitch of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic, Mr. Cook and others interested in the construction of the link between this city and Virginia, inspected the Rainy Lake road and the possibilities for the link to this city.

It is rumored that the construction of the new link will be financed by the Soo. It is further stated that all financial arrangements have been completed and that everything is clear for the construction work to begin.

The route of the new link has been surveyed for some time. The road will come through the ravine, back of the old McMillan homestead, in Oneida county, and pass under the bridge at Forty-ninth avenue west, on Superior street, and will come into the city at the tracks of the Wisconsin Central.

It has been known for some time that the officials of the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg contemplated building their own line from Virginia to this city. It was not thought, however, that the line would be built here until some time in the remote future. The officials of the Rainy Lake have long wished to have a line from Port Frances, their northern terminus, to this city.

At the present time they are running over the tracks of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern from this city to Virginia. The road upon a fertile country, and it was only a matter of time until the officials of the Rainy Lake would consummate arrangements whereby they could secure a line of their own from their northern terminus to this city.

RATES INCREASED.

Additional Charge is Made for Southern California Points.

The round trip rates to Los Angeles and San Francisco, that will go into effect Nov. 1, will be higher than the round trip, all winter tourists rates that were in effect last year.

The increase is due to the charging of full rates by the Southern Pacific road from Portland on to Southern California points. Formerly the Southern Pacific granted a pro rata discount. This will be done away with this year, which accounts for the additional charge.

The rates that will become effective the first of November, will be $109.50 round trip rate, by way of the Missouri river. One way by the northern route and one way by the Missouri river route, will be $119.75. Last year these rates were $105 and $115 respectively.

States to north Pacific coast points will remain unchanged by the action of the Southern Pacific. The round trip rate to Seattle and north coast points will be $80.

POPKIN VS. COHN.

This Case Will Follow Case of Cohn vs. Popkin.

When the case of John Cohen against Sam Popkin is finished, the case of Popkin against Cohn, will be tried before the court. Each principal is suing the other for $1,000 for injuries alleged to have been sustained in a fight. Each claim the other started the fight.

Needs More Money.

Secretary Morrison, of the board of the city health department, yesterday announced that it would take $15,000 to run the city's health department for the ensuing year. Last year the board was allowed $12,000, but it will exceed that amount by several hundred dollars. The estimates from this department, and of the various city departments as to the cost of the city, will be handed over to the city controller, Oct. 1, and by him submitted to the council next Tuesday evening.

Cruelty is Charged.

Humane Agent Kellogg has sworn to a complaint, charging Ole Larson, who lives about nine miles from Solon Springs, with over-driving and beating his horse. Deputy Sheriff Hughes yesterday went to Larson's house and arrested him on the charge and brought him to Superior for trial.

Superior will be represented at the thirty-fifth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Wisconsin, to be held at Wausau, starting Oct. 2, by Mrs. J. F. Tostevin.

Care of The Refrigerator.

Too great care can scarcely be used in keeping the refrigerator perfectly clean. All crumbs should be removed and if liquids are spilled they should be wiped up at once. In summer especially frequent and thorough cleanings are required. Empty the water pan and remove all food, covering it from the dust. Remove shelves; scrub them with brush in hot water made by dissolving a tablespoonful of Gold Dust washing powder in warm water. Dry with a cloth or in the sun, if possible. Scrub all parts of the food chamber, even the inside of the door with the hot water; rinse in clear water, wipe dry and leave open to air. Scrub the chamber thoroughly with Gold Dust washing powder. Scrub water pan and replace the parts. It is necessary to clean food chamber more frequently than ice compartment.

MARRIAGE DID NOT COME OFFMichigan City Girl Meets With Disappointment in Duluth.

In a bout between Cupid and poverty yesterday, the latter won hands down, and Miss Ada Jones of Michigan City, Ind., who arrived in the morning to become the bride of Fred Monroe of the Star theater, returned home on the night train, and her name was still Miss Jones. Her intended husband said he was too poor to marry, and when he showed her his empty pockets, and told her what he was earning, she quite agreed with him.

The girl arrived at 8:40 a. m., and was disappointed when her lover did not appear to meet her. He says this was a mistake, and that he did show up at the 9:59 train, thinking she was due to arrive on that. Miss Jones went to the Star theater immediately, but no one was around at that hour in the morning, and for the morning she had been forsaken, the girl went to the police station and told her troubles to Chief Troyer. He soon rounded Monroe up, and the three held a conference, which resulted in an agreement that Miss Jones had better return home, which she did, after sufficient money to pay her expenses had been wired.

ADAMS NOW IN THE LEADGains Eleven Votes in the Morning Recount of Ballots.*These Place Him Five Ahead of John H. Norton.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon C. E. Adams' lead in the county attorneyship recount was five votes. The original official returns gave John H. Norton a lead of five over Adams. Conditions are now just reversed.

This morning's recount of primary election ballots placed C. E. Adams two votes ahead of John H. Norton in the race for the Republican nomination for county attorney. Mr. Adams showed a gain of eight votes this morning, placing him two in the lead.

In the recount of the Fourth precinct of the same ward there was another gain for him of three votes, and in the First precinct of the Fifth ward still another vote was credited to Mr. Adams, making a total gain of eight for the morning. As Mr. Norton was only six to the good at the close of yesterday's recount, Adams now leads by five.

C. E. ADAMS, Who Is Now in the Lead for County Attorney.

Yesterday's count, he is now behind his opponent.

In yesterday afternoon's count Norton gained one vote in the first precinct of the Third ward. This was offset by Adams gaining five votes in the second precinct of the same ward. The fourth precinct of the Third ward Norton the advantage of one vote. In the First precinct of the Fourth ward Adams gained one and then lost it in the Third precinct.

Three disputed votes, two for Adams and one for Norton, were sealed and the board will have the court make a decision on them.

DIRECTORS STRAW MEN

Held But 175 Shares of Butte & Superior Stock.

But They Closed Deals for Options and Privileges for Company.

With a ruthless probe, J. B. Richards, attorney for John McAlpine, in the suit of the Butte & Superior Copper company against McAlpine, for $2,000 claimed to be due on a promissory note, for part payment of a subscription to 1,000 shares of the stock of the company, made Feb. 1, 1907, brought to the surface the inner workings of the Butte & Superior Copper company in district court this morning.

The testimony covered the period of the proceedings of the board of directors, which the authorization was given to Mr. Lamson to close the deal with Messrs. Wolvin, Killorn and Davis.

The resolution passed at that meeting authorized the purchase from Messrs. Wolvin, Killorn and Davis of all right, title and interest held by them in the Four Johns Ramon Constitution, Black Rock, 28-36 interest in the Niagara and the interests in eight other claims, all in Silver Bow county, Mont., and also any options or rights those men might have to acquire the Jersey Blue claim, owned by the Helena & Butte Mining company.

The company was also to have the right to any money held in the First National bank of Butte in the name of A. B. Wolvin, subject to the orders of Oscar Rohn, superintendent of the Four Johns, who was to pay the debts incurred in the operations on that property.

In consideration, the president was authorized to pay Messrs. Wolvin, Killorn and Davis $67,500 in cash, which had already been advanced subject to the ratification of the board, and 207,180 shares of the capital stock of the company. The company also agreed to assume several minor obligations of the three men.

Of the 207,180 shares, 106,130 shares, included in numerous certificates specified by Messrs. Wolvin, Killorn and Davis, were to be placed in the First National bank of Butte, and the remaining 101,050 shares was to be issued in one or more certificates to such persons as might be designated by Messrs. Wolvin, Killorn and Davis and all to be deposited in the First National Bank of Butte to be held in escrow until the company had sold a sufficient number of shares of stock at not less than $4 a share to pay the remainder of the money due on all properties and complete the options. The president and secretary were also authorized to issue stock authorized previously to be applied for the purchase price of different properties and given to fee owners, the total being 225,000 shares.

Mr. Richards' deed at some length with the witness on the fact that although only three members of the board of directors held stock at the

Thursday morning will see the opening of our Semi-Annual Sale of Proprietary Medicines, Druggists' Sundries, etc., but in name only, is there any comparison possible between this and any other event of a similar character—past or present!

For months we have labored towards making this an event that would eclipse all competition, that would even put to shame any of our previous efforts—and how well we have succeeded, may be seen here tomorrow!

And remember! The articles on sale are not remnants of goods sold during the past six months, but are new, fresh stock. Tons of it yet unpacked, because the excess stock rooms are crowded to the doors!

PRICES? Lower than ever before, in comparison to the cost. Lower than anywhere else, of that you can convince yourself by comparing the list below:

RELIEF FUND FOR FIRE SUFFERERS TOO LARGE

Fire Sufferers Need Only Half of Money Subscribed.

The Relief Work is Progressing in Fine Shape.

So liberal have been the contributions to the Northern Minnesota fire relief fund that there is about twice as much cash on hand now as it needed, and the surplus may be returned to the donors. This fact was brought out at a meeting of the relief commission, appointed by Governor Johnson, which was held late yesterday afternoon in Mayor Haven's office.

Members of the local relief committee of Chisholm, and others assisting in the relief work there, were on hand at the committee meeting, and their reports showed that a splendid system of distribution of supplies had been put into effect, guaranteeing help to all who actually needed it, and preventing aid being given where people were trying to take advantage of conditions and get money which they did not deserve.

The total necessary cash expenditure in relief work will not exceed $40,000, and the sum remaining at the disposal of the committee from the fire fund will be almost equally as large. This may be returned, or it may be decided to make it the nucleus of a permanent state relief fund, to be used in emergencies, such as forest fires, cyclones, etc.

200 Families Cared For.

Almost 200 families will have been cared for when the plans of relief, which were adopted yesterday, have been carried out in detail. The condition of having too much money was never before known in relief work in the West, and it is something of a problem to decide what to do with the surplus money. The advisability of retaining an emergency relief fund for distribution to poor families in case of possible need during the coming winter was considered by the committee, and as soon as the present relief plans have been carried out, this may be done.

The committee remembered the fire sufferers along the north shore in its calculations, and those whose household effects have been destroyed, or who otherwise have been placed in destitute circumstances because of the fire, will be rendered the needed financial assistance.

Members of the committee who have not been actively engaged on the scene of relief at Chisholm yesterday expressed their entire satisfaction and gratification at the manner in which the work had been conducted. Those present included Mayor Haven, A. L. O'Brien, Millie Bunnell, A. C. Weiss, Hamilton M. Peyton and Martin Hughes of the relief commission appointed by the governor; Judge Edward Freeman and C. A. Munro of the local relief committee of Chisholm, and Eugene T. Lies, general secretary of the Associated Charities of Minneapolis, who has been doing great work in the stricken district. His assistance in managing the relief work has been of the utmost value to the committee, for he has had much experience in matters of this kind, and is entirely capable.

Mr. Lies, in telling of local conditions about Chisholm, said that 370 records of fire sufferers had been taken under his direction by the Chisholm committee, and each one of these had been revised at least once by the local advisory committee, headed by Judge Freeman.

One hundred and sixty-one records were revised a second time, to make sure that no mistake had been made.

On recommendation of the men from Chisholm, who have been looking after relief work on the ground, the general committee authorized the distribution of 233 beds, springs and mattresses, 144 good, serviceable kitchen stoves, 77 chairs, 129 tables, 294 dressers and 800 double blankets. The blankets were shipped today. In the 147 instances new furniture was ordered distributed to families, according to their size and needs, and this will be shipped to Chisholm before the end of the week. In eight cases cut lumber will be given to families for the building of small houses by the men in the families. There will be twenty-eight two-room houses and twenty-five three-room houses.

It was reported that only in three instances had cash relief been given out, and the entire sum thus distributed amounts to only $500. One hundred and thirteen families will be given furniture to the value of from $25 to $100, according to the size of the house and the needs of the family. This does not include 100 sewing machines, which will be given to as many housewives. Seventy-five baby carriages, or go-carts, were ordered by the committee.

Mr. Lies furnished the committee with the following figures, showing the total cost of the different items needed: Material for building, sewing machines and furniture, $24,000; construction of the houses and clerk hire at the warehouse, $6,000; drayage and miscellaneous expenses, $1,000, and $4,000 for covering future recommendations by the local advisory committee. This brings the total of the expenditures authorized at the meeting yesterday to $35,000. In addition to this there has been about $5,000 distributed for provisions and other immediate necessities since the relief work was started. That brings the entire proposed expenditures up to $44,000, and it is calculated that the relief to be given the north shore and other fire sufferers in Northern Minnesota will bring the disbursements up to $50,000. He suggested, however, that provision be made for emergency cases during the winter. No attempt will be made to cover business losses in the burned districts.

But Little Illness.

Reports showed sanitary conditions at Chisholm to be fairly good. A few cases of diphtheria have been discovered, but these are being carefully watched, and there is believed to be no danger of the contagion spreading. Trained nurses are on the ground, and there are also plenty of doctors to look after the needs of the people in this direction.

Since the removal of the militia last Sunday the police force at Chisholm has been increased to three times its normal size. The saloons are open again, and some of them are doing a good business.

Martin Hughes of Hibbing favors making the surplus money and making his day in court—this is the first great maxim of law-made liberty and liberty-made law. This is the foundation of the people's respect for and obedience to the courts. When the meanness man beneath our flag is denied that right, the Republic ceases to be free. As a general rule, no injunction should be issued without notice; and once issued it should speedily be heard.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, accompanied by Mrs. Redmond, Joseph Devlin, M. P., and John Fitzgibbons, chairman of the congressional district.

The Duluth fund given yesterday was swelled by two contributions amounting to $1,000. One check for $1,000 was sent by John M. Longyear of Marquette, Mich., and another for $500 came from Hiram W. Sibley of Rochester, N. Y.

BEVERIDGE IN LABOR PLEDGE

Says Injunction Abuses Would End, With Taft Elected.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 30.—Senator Albert J. Beveridge opening the Republican national campaign in Indiana last night, said in part:

Before President Taft's administration is one year old we shall end the abuse of the injunction in labor disputes. On this great question there are extremists on both sides—both wrong, as extremists always are. There are those who declare that the power to enjoin has never been abused—but the American bench and bar know that it has been abused; workmen know it; the whole people know it. Injunctions have been issued without notice, hearings not given, the trouble has passed; men punished for disobedience without their day in court. These abuses are not many; but there have been enough of them to prove the evil, to arouse a sense of injustice in the breast of labor, to create unrest throughout the nation.

WARNER-BRADLEY WAR KEPT FROM CONVENTION.

Detroit, Sept. 30.—No manifestation developed in the state Republican convention of the bitter fight between Governor Fred M. Warner and Dr. James B. Bradley for the Republican nomination for governor at the recent primary election. The feature of the session was an address by Governor Charles F. Hughes of New York. The convention nominated:

For justice of the supreme court to fill a vacancy, Flavius L. Brooke, Detroit; secretary of state, F. C. Martin, Detroit; attorney general, J. F. Bird; state treasurer, Alex. F. Sleeper, Lexington; auditor general, Ormuel K. Fuller, Delta; comptroller, state land commissioner, Huntley Russell, Grand Rapids; superintendent of public instruction, Luther L. Wright, Ironwood; member of state board of education, William J. McKone, Albion.

Republican College League.

New York, Sept. 30.—Eastern headquarters of the National Republican College league were opened in the office of the Republican national committee here today. Herbert M. Myers of Columbus, Ohio, for several years president of the Ohio Republican College league, is in charge. The league claims a membership of 100,000.

"There's a Reason"

DEMOCRATS ARE ACTIVE

Rousing Meeting of the County Committee Held at St. Louis Hotel.

County Will be Thoroughly Organized for Coming Campaign.

A meeting of the county Democratic committee was held last evening at the St. Louis hotel. It was the largest committee meeting ever held in this county, according to men who have attended many, and the enthusiasm was in keeping with the large representation.

There were more than forty in attendance when Chairman Andrew Nelson called the meeting to order. In asking for reports of progress over the county, the chairman started something that even he, optimist that he is, did not anticipate. The reports from every side were of the brightest nature. The candidates for office, most of whom were present at the meeting, were all confident of being elected. Martin Hughes of Hibbing, stated that there was no question of the strong Democratic sentiment in the county. Speaking for the range, Mr. Hughes stated that it was stronger than ever before. Mr. Hughes stated that there was an overwhelming sentiment for Johnson, a steadily growing sentiment for Bryan, and the best chance the local Democrats have had for years to elect candidates to county offices.

Joseph Ward Reynolds, candidate for the legislature in the Fifth district, told of the promising indications he had seen for the success of the party candidates, and predicted that this was the year for the Democrats to break into the courthouse. Mr. Reynolds stated to the committee that he was making a strong campaign and was meeting with flattering assurances.

Dr. O. A. Oredson, candidate for legislature in the Fifth district; John Cashin, candidate for register of deeds; P. H. Nelson, of Hibbing, candidate for state treasurer; Dr. Jern, candidate for coroner; John Lowe, candidate for county commissioner in the Fifth district; Emil A. Tessman, candidate for county commissioner in the First district; Charles Jensen, candidate for sheriff; and Mr. Thompson, candidate for clerk of the district court, were present at the meeting. Each candidate said a few words expressing the belief that with the proper work on the part of the committee, he could be elected.

Each candidate stated that there was a decided trend toward Democracy in the district, that Democracy was the air, and that this was the best opportunity that the party has had for years to select its ticket.

The committee will go into the campaign in earnest this week. A headquarters will be secured, with Austin Connolly, assistant secretary of the committee, in charge. The campaign in the county will be placed upon a systematic basis, speakers secured, and a thorough canvass of the county by precincts made.

A Young Men's Democratic club will be organized in Duluth. A motion to that effect was carried. Steps in this direction will be taken very soon. A Democratic club will also be organized in West Duluth. In that part of the city there is, according to the information brought to the chairman of the committee last night, a very decided sentiment for the entire Democratic ticket.

Governor Johnson will be brought to Duluth. Chairman Nelson will get into communication with the state central committee and will make every effort to bring the governor here at an early date. Other speakers will also be brought to Duluth and the ranges. An attempt will be made to bring some speakers of national prominence here. If the committee is successful in this effort, part of the speaker's time will be divided with the range.

Martin Hughes, Hibbing; Frank Duran, Hibbing; George Mulligan, Eveleth; Charles d'Autremont, James Walsh, Joseph Sharrell, John Jensen, P. L. Ryan, Louis Levine, Alfred Jacques, B. W. Getchel and T. T. Hudson were appointed an executive committee, which will at once assume active work in the campaign. The officers of the county committee, Andrew Nelson, chairman; Emil A. Tessman, secretary; and Frank Craseweller, treasurer, will also be members of the executive committee.

From now on the Democratic county campaign will be a lively affair.

Some of the members of the Republican county committee also held a meeting in the auditor's room at the courthouse last night. No organization was effected and no definite date was set for the next meeting. Plans for the campaign were discussed, however, and several impromptu speeches of an optimistic nature, were made.

HELD FOR RUSTIN MURDER.
Charles Davis Bound Over; Mrs. Rice is Released.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 28.—Charles Edward Davis has been bound over to the district court to answer the charge of murder in the first degree for the killing of Dr. Frederick Rustin. Ball was fixed at $10,000 and furnished by brothers of the defendant. Mrs. Abbie Rice, who has been detained since the shooting, will be released on nominal bond for her appearance as a witness.

GOMPERS SCORES THE TRUST LAW DECISION.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 28.—Before an audience which filled Tomlinson hall, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, attacked the Sherman anti-trust law and the recent decision of the United States supreme court that declares that labor unions came within the definition of organizations in restraint of trade. Among other things he said: "Why, do you know that you people here who toil and who are members of unions that you are members of a trust? And you officers, you men who direct the unions, do you know you are trust magnates?"

A stove is something that is purchased but once in a lifetime, if care is exercised in the choosing of it. So when making your selection of a HEATER this fall, choose with care, examine and compare the different stoves, point for point, and when making this comparison do not fail to take the Imperial Universal Base Burner into consideration. Compare it carefully, study it closely—and point for point you'll find it superior in every way to any other make of base burner on the market.

The Imperial Universal has more square inches of radiating surface than any other base burner. It will give you more heat with less consumption of fuel than any other base burner.

Read what Mr. J. A. Calien of No. 417 Twenty-seventh avenue west, Duluth, says regarding his heater:

My Imperial Universal is a perfect heater. It heated a large six-room flat (ground floor) during the winter of 1906 and 1907, from Nov. 1st until May 1st, using only three tons of mixed pea and nut coal. During this last winter (1907-8), from Oct. 1st till April 15th, it only burned 2½ tons of nut coal. This was sufficient in keeping all rooms warm at 70 degs., which I think will give your patrons an idea of the good heating qualities of the Imperial Universal. Signed, J. A. CALIEN.

Pretty convincing proof, don't you think?

SULTAN NEED NOT DISAVOW HOLY WAR.

Paris, Sept. 30.—Having received replies from all the powers to their joint note on the Moroccan situation, France and Spain are engaged in preparing a reply in which it is expected the reservations made by Germany, Austria, Hungary and Italy will be met satisfactorily. The notification of Muli of Morocco by the dean of the diplomatic corps in Tangier will be conceded, and no formal disavowal of the holy war will be exacted of him. The negotiations regarding the reimbursement of the expenses incurred by France and Spain at Casa Blanca are proceeding amicably.

Passengers Are Safe.
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 30.—No attempt was made during the night to flood the steamer Humboldt, which went ashore yesterday off the Vancouver Island coast. It will be necessary to lighten the vessel before she can be pulled off the rocks. The passengers, numbering thirty-eight, were transferred to the fishing steamer Edith and returned to Seattle.

CHILD IN PLAY FALLS ON KNIFE

Blade Inflicts Wound in Breast; No Serious Results Feared.

While playing with an open pocket-knife late yesterday afternoon, John Mathewson, the little son of D. Mathewson, 122 South Fifty-seventh avenue west, accidentally tripped and fell upon it, the blade piercing the lad's breast between the fifth and sixth ribs on the left side, and making what appeared to be a very dangerous wound.

Medical assistance was immediately called and the cut, which was about an inch and a half long, dressed. The doctor told the worried parents that they need have no great anxiety, as the child was in no danger, though he had narrowly escaped wounding himself very seriously.

MEETING WELL ATTENDED.

West Duluth Division of Sunday School Association Formed.

The Duluth Sunday School association met last evening at the Westminster Presbyterian church, and the subject of training Sunday school teachers was discussed. Rev. J. A. McLaughlin of the First Methodist church made addresses. This was the first meeting of its kind ever held in West Duluth, and it was very well attended, representatives from many of the different Sunday schools of the city being present.

For being the best represented Sunday school at the gathering, the Westminster Presbyterian school was awarded a banner offered by the state association. To secure this banner they must have the largest representation at two consecutive meetings. The following officers of the West Duluth division were elected for the coming year: J. G. Wallin of the Ashbury M. E. church, president; Charles Towne of the Westminster Presbyterian church, secretary.

Repairs Are Made.

The much needed repairs on North Central avenue have been made and for the present at least the street is in fair shape, though there is still room for improvement. There were two very dangerous places on the avenue, one at Elmer and Central and the other in front of the Irving school. These have been fixed, so that they are no longer a menace to drivers and the children at the Elv school.

WOULD RETIRE THE GREENBACKS

President Powers Addresses Bankers' Association; Topic, Panic.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 30.—President J. D. Powers, in his annual address to-day before the American Bankers' association, devoted practically his entire time to the recent panic and its opposition to the proposition to guarantee bank deposits, which he said would not have been heard of in the present political campaign had there been no financial panic.

Of the panic he said that few financial storms occur without attending benefits, frequently greater than the disaster wrought. The unhealthy conditions that surrounded many banking institutions in New York required just such heroic treatment to ally the money-mad fever which had possessed them. The banker suffers by allowing the borrower rather than the lender to fix the price of collateral pledged for loans.

"Now that the panic is behind us," he said, "let us look to the needs of the present. Let us do this by a calm and dispassionate examination into our general banking and financial policy and especially our currency system." He did not believe this could be done through the ordinary channels of mere legislation. It must be the work of experts and not of theoretical financiers. "They should be advised," he declared, "men who understand the necessity for and importance of ridding the government of the dangerous legal tender greenbacks by their final redemption and retirement; by a sane and safe means of gradual change from our bond secured currency to a system that proved sound by the experience of other countries."

ROOSEVELT MAY TAKE THE STUMP

But Loeb Says He Does Not Now Intend to.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Secretary Loeb today said President Roosevelt has no intention at present of making a speaking tour in behalf of Taft. Many invitations have been received by the president, but he has never stated that he will take the stump.

When asked whether, if the situation took such a turn that the president might consider that making a speaking tour would materially aid the Republican cause, Mr. Loeb said the president in that event might take the stump.

SCORES PROGRAM OF SOCIALISTS

But Woodrow Wilson Admires Basic Principles of Socialism.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 30.—President Woodrow Wilson, in a Princeton address the American Bankers' association Friday said: "The abstract principles of Socialism it is not difficult to admire. They are, indeed, hardly distinguishable from the abstract principles of Democracy. The object of the thoughtful Socialist is to effect such an organization of society as will give the individual his best protection and his selfish segregation, and society has so reacted from it that almost any thorough-going program of reintegration looks hopeful and attractive. Such programs cannot be thrust aside or defeated by mere opposition and denial; they can be overcome only by wiser and better programs, and these it is our duty as patriotic citizens to find. The only forces that can save us from the one extreme or the other are those forces of social reunion and social reintegration which every man of station and character and influence in the country can in some degree and within the scope of his own life set about. We must open our minds wide to the new circumstances of our time, must bring about a new common understanding and effect a new coordination in the affairs which most concern us. Capital must give over its too great preoccupation with the business of making those who control it individually rich and must study to serve the interests of the people as a whole. Taft in Bryan's State. Wayne, Neb., Sept. 30.—William H. Taft began the second week of his campaign through the North and West, by an advent into the home state of his chief opponent, William J. Bryan. This afternoon and evening will be devoted by the Ohioan to the Nebraska home town, Lincoln, where Mr. Taft will make five speeches.

DULUTH SOCIETY

Represented in Caste of "Town Talk."

Duluth society took a prominent part in "The Talk of the Town," an amateur theatrical entertainment given at the Grand in Superior last night. Representatives from this side of the city appeared to advantage both on the stage and in the audience. The proceeds of the entertainment go to the Superior Children's home.

Some of the most pleasing numbers of the evening were given by Duluthians. The singing of Mrs. Lucia Judd McAllister, the winsome stage presence of Miss Clara Collier and the dancing of Miss Marie Agatin were highlights of the piece, and a number of Duluth young men were in the chorus.

Some of the numbers—three shows—made an entirely new show, feature numbers and ensembles—were excellently Duluthian. In one number Miss Collier, singing "I'm a Fickle Maid," was seen driving Allan House, James McLennan, Gilbert Cutler, Grover Fitzgerald, Charles Fitzgerald, Walter Kennedy and William White, Jr., around the stage, with blue ribbons for reins. Mrs. McAllister and chorus sang "The Song of the Wood Witch," from "The Merry Widow," and a duet with Frank King, "Heavenly Love You." Little Miss Marie Agatin had a dainty "quarrel song" and danced with Donald McDonald, director of the entertainment, and several other numbers. Other selections which made hits were "Put a Bet Down for Me," "Shower" and "The Kissin' Cousin."

The chorus, composed of Superior young ladies and (mostly) Duluth young men, was very good to look upon and stunningly costumed.

Among the Duluth people seen in the audience were Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leach and party, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall and party, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Thorn-ton and party, Frank Fee, the Misses Fee and party, A. L. Agatin, Rose MacDonald and many others.

DANISH EVENING.

Enjoyable Social Given at Jensen Home.

The Danish evening, the first of a series of national socials, which will be held during the winter by the congregation of St. John's English Lutheran church, took place last night at the home of Mrs. George M. Jensen, of 212 Eleventh avenue west, and was a thoroughly delightful affair. A large number of the church members and their friends enjoyed the carefully planned evening.

The hosts at the various socials will be natives of the land to be represented, or descendants of those who lived under the Danish flag. The details true to the customs and conditions of the country. Last evening the hosts had decorated the rooms in the Danish national colors, and a large Danish flag of Denmark occupied a prominent place in the decorations. Folk songs of the country, "Little Karels," "The Soldiers," and "Faro" were sung, and a piano solo by Miss Alice Jensen. Miss Nielsen read a piece entitled "Customs and Traditions of Denmark." The refreshments were dishes especially prepared for the occasion. The waitresses were given in the national costume. Those who assisted were Misses Gertrude Hansen, Hanna Miller and three young daughters of the hosts, Misses Alice, Olga and Louise Jensen.

The evening was a great success and it is expected that the series of socials will be instructive and enjoyable affairs.

The first meeting of the Matinee Musicale will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. D. Scott. of the stable, and she thought him even handsomer than the one she had met in his semi-hunting garb. They quickly sped away from the crowded streets and when they came to a road that was free, Carter let her out. In a way that was intoxicating to Cleo.

Then he slackened up, and they talked on a great many subjects. She said, truly, and he believed her, that she had never said to meet anyone like this before.

"He is young and unsophisticated," he thought, "and she came out with me for the mere love of a lark, but I wish she could come to me as I do for her. I can't expect that."

"He is simply grand," she thought, with a little thrill of recollection when she was safely back in her own room, "but he's so much older than I am, and I have seen so much of the world. Oh, I love him now, but of course, he did not stop and ask her to ride, since he was alone. Before he had gone very far his car stopped, and he came on up to him.

"Something wrong?" she asked, shyly. "He turned with a pleased, surprised air."

"Not much out of gear. I will adjust it in a moment. May I take you home?"

"Certainly," she replied, joyously. "Can't we ride out into the country?"

She asked, entreatingly. "He thought they could, and when near the close of the afternoon, they came to a little country hotel, she scolded his invitation to stop for supper.

"They think at home I am spending the afternoon and dining with friends, so I won't be missed," she explained. "And we can't have anything to eat," he asked, eagerly.

She assented and they rode on out into the open country, where speed limit laws were not enforced. They came home more slowly and sentimentally.

"I wish," he said, as they were parting in the garden that night, "that I could tell you that I was the owner of the house, and I knew only as such could I meet you, not guessing your position. Meet me usual place to night, please, and let me say again what I said last night. You will bring me great joy. Yours always, 'CARTER'."

After a heavy meal take a couple of bowls of the soup, and a hot atomizer, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulate bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

"There is a little summer house in our garden," he said, wistfully, as she came to the rear of the stable that night to tell him how disappointed she was. "Can't we have a little visit there?"

In the cozy little arched house, listening to the soft music of the summer rain, Carter's feelings reached a climax. Cleo felt and half dreaded the coming revelation. Nervously she rose to go. In the doorway he slipped his arm about her.

"So Cleo," he murmured, "I love you!" But he had slipped from him and sped across the lawn.

He did not dare call after her, and he spent a wretched, wakeful night, dreading lest he had offended beyond redress.

And she? She spent the night crying over the inditing of a letter which she handed to him over the hedge the next morning, dreading again as swiftly as she had left him the night before. With beating heart he opened the missive and read:

"I have just had you tell me that last night. It's all a mistake (the grew strangely white, but read on). 'The first time I met you I guessed what you thought—that I was one of the family. I don't know you, and I don't know you. I am away in the mountains with a party of girls who are roughing it, and left the maid at home. It was wrong to deceive you, but I knew you would drop me when you found out my station, and I enjoyed being with you. It didn't harm your reputation, as no one saw us on the one time we were out together in the house. I didn't know you cared so much till last night. Forgive me.'"

When he finished reading the letter he went into the house.

Presently a messenger brought a note to Miss Cleo Rivers.

With trembling hands she opened and read:

"Dearest Cleo: I am the chauffeur! Only the servants have moved in here as yet. I, too, deceived you. I saw at once you thought I was the owner of the house, and I knew only as such could I meet you, not guessing your position. Meet me usual place to night, please, and let me say again what I said last night. You will bring me great joy. Yours always, 'CARTER'."

"There is a little summer house in our garden," he said, wistfully, as she came to the rear of the stable that night to tell him how disappointed she was. "Can't we have a little visit there?"

In the cozy little arched house, listening to the soft music of the summer rain, Carter's feelings reached a climax. Cleo felt and half dreaded the coming revelation. Nervously she rose to go. In the doorway he slipped his arm about her.

"So Cleo," he murmured, "I love you!" But he had slipped from him and sped across the lawn.

He did not dare call after her, and he spent a wretched, wakeful night, dreading lest he had offended beyond redress.

And she? She spent the night crying over the inditing of a letter which she handed to him over the hedge the next morning, dreading again as swiftly as she had left him the night before. With beating heart he opened the missive and read:

"I have just had you tell me that last night. It's all a mistake (the grew strangely white, but read on). 'The first time I met you I guessed what you thought—that I was one of the family. ter of Macbeth, with its weaknesses, easily led by the ambitions of his wife, and yet containing many human traits, was most satisfactory.

The famous soliloquy, beginning "If it were done when 'tis done," was faultlessly given, both in word and action, and the banquet scene where the ghost of Banquo, unseats Macbeth's mind, has evidently been given a most careful study by the actor. He transmits successfully his horror at the sight of his murdered victim, to the audience, in a way that cannot easily be forgotten, even on leaving the playhouse.

Ethelbert Haies, whose splendid reading in the role of Edmund, in "King Lear," was noted by Monday evening's audience, was seen to good advantage as Banquo, and once again his work stood out prominently. Fritz Lieber also gave a very meritorious interpretation of the role of Macduff.

The scenic part of the production is of a very superior character, and the many difficult scenes are well handled. The scene of the three witches on the heath conveys the gruesome effect that the author intended, instead of being merely, ridiculous, as it is too often made in second rate productions of the play.

Tonight "Hamlet" will be presented, and this afternoon "The Merchant of Venice" will be the bill.

NEW TRADE-MARK.
Rengo Is Guaranteed. You Eat It Like Fruit or Candy.

The Above Pictures Prove There Is No Longer Any Excuse To Be Fat and Sloppy. Rengo Will Do It.

There has become known a remedy for fat, the use of which has already resulted in enormous benefit, and most probably in the saving of many lives. This remedy is commonly called Rengo. The rate at which this remedy will reduce fat and do it harmlessly and surely is truly remarkable. A pound a day is ordinarily the loss recorded, being done by compelling perfect assimilation of the food and sending the nutriment where it belongs. The most remarkable feature of Rengo is that you can take all you want of it without running the slightest risk of harm. It can be chewed like candy and is pleasant to the taste. Many physicians, who before were a loss to know how to cure obesity, are now prescribing Rengo with remarkable success. It is a great nerve-strength producer, an appetite stimulant, and induces a general exhilaration of mind and body. Wrinkles which appear in nearly every case of reduction of fat where injurious drugs and starvation processes are tried, do not occur where Rengo is used.

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full-sized box, or by mail prepaid, by the Rengo Co., 3325 Rengo Bldg., Detroit, Mich. BRYAN TWITS ROOSEVELT WITH THE WHITEWASHING OF PAUL MORTON'S CASE

Replying to President, He Says Laws Against Offenders Will Not be Suspended Even for Cabinet Officers.

Washington, Sept. 30.—President Roosevelt, this morning, read William J. Bryan's letter, issued from Rock Island, Ill., last night, in reply to the president's reply to him. The Bryan letter says:

A brief reply to your last letter is all that is necessary to call attention to your attempt to shift the issues raised in your letter attacking Mr. Fowler, who inserted an attack upon Governor Haskell, and attempted to use the charges against him to connect the Democratic party, and me as its candidate, with the trusts. I asked you to name a tribunal before which the charges could be investigated, or, if you would not do that, offer to leave you to my whether, in your judgment, the charges justified Mr. Haskell's withdrawal from the organization. You did not design to suggest a tribunal, but proceeded to pass judgment upon him. He immediately resigned his position, that he might be more free to prosecute those who brought accusations against him. Thus, his connections with the organization ended. I had no authority to submit, and I asked you to submit the question of his guilt or innocence for final decision. Even the president cannot deny to the humblest citizen of the country the right to protect his reputation and vindicate his name in courts established for the purpose, where witnesses are examined and evidence submitted, according to the rules of law. In my first letter to you I resented the imputation that any charges made against Governor Haskell could be justly construed as connecting the Democratic party, or me, as its candidate, with any trust or law defying corporation. You replied that the charges were a matter of general notoriety, and I asked you why Mr. Taft did not mention them in his recent speech against Mr. Haskell in Oklahoma. You at once endeavored to connect me with new matters which arose after the Denver convention, and I am conscious that those charges were insufficient, you have since given wings to accusations that I do not desire to repeat. You would make against another without investigation. I am willing that all your charges against me shall be submitted to the voters of the country, and with your charges I submit my denial of any knowledge or information that I have in the past, or in the future, connected with any trust monopoly or law defying corporation.

Torturing Animals To Assist Science

In A Cruel Method to Follow, But It Has Saved Many Human Lives.

Prof. Pawlow, of Russia, was engaged for many years in experimental work, trying to learn the workings of digestion, especially the digestive glands.

He, with able assistants, operated upon dogs, cats, guinea pigs and other animals. His methods were seemingly painful, but he gave to science a work which won the Nobel prize and made for him an undying fame.

Science penetrated the secrets of nature. Prof. Pawlow saw animals die from every part of the digestive canal and stomach under all conditions of digestion. He spent years of ceaseless study amid the howling and dying beasts, but he won, and science today looks upon him as a great man.

To do a great right do a little wrong. Shakespeare said, and Prof. Pawlow obeyed this rule.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are prepared by the most scientific process. They are produced by modern appliances, and meet the demand of 20th century chemistry.

They give man the means to correct his infirmities of stomach and digestive organs. They enrich the blood, give nature the juices and fluids she lacks, stop the formation of noxious gases and the fermentation of food. They neutralize powerful acids and alkalies which irritate and devour the stomach. They prevent and relieve bowel and intestinal trouble and soothe the nerves. They should be used after every meal whether one has dyspepsia and stomach trouble or the stomach be naturally healthy. By their use one may eat at all hours and whatever one desires to eat, and the system digests or throw off such food. They are thoroughly meritorious as their judgment upon that point is illustrated by the following testimonial.

Every drug store has them for sale, price 50c per package. If you would like to test their merits free, send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail without cost. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

According to the rules of law. In my first letter to you I resented the imputation that any charges made against Governor Haskell could be justly construed as connecting the Democratic party, or me, as its candidate, with any trust or law defying corporation. You replied that the charges were a matter of general notoriety, and I asked you why Mr. Taft did not mention them in his recent speech against Mr. Haskell in Oklahoma. I am willing that all your charges against me shall be submitted to the voters of the country, and with your charges I submit my denial of any knowledge or information that I have in the past, or in the future, connected with any trust monopoly or law defying corporation.

Points to His Record. My record is sufficient answer to your insinuations. I have lived in vain if my insinuations lose me the support of the party. I challenge you to name a trust official who is supporting me, and, after searching, you will produce the name of one man, not a trust official, but the local attorney of a trust. Without inquiring whether the votes for me because of his connection with a trust, or in spite of it, or because of his "fear of business and society," I will accept his statement that he will vote for me as conclusive proof that I am in league with the trusts, although you admit that trust officials are supporting the Republican ticket.

You compliment me when you measure me by a higher standard than you do by your political associates, for you insist that Mr. Rockefeller's campaign fund was no reflection upon him, and I take it for granted that you do not criticize Judge Taft's recommendation of a Standard Oil attorney to the federal bench, a place where the judge might have to pass upon charges against the very trust for which he had been attorney. While the trust attorney to whom you refer is not an official of a trust, I will warn him through him his clients, that if I am elected, I will not only vigorously enforce against all offenders, the laws which we have enacted in compliance with the Democratic platform, but that I will also vigorously enforce existing laws against any and all who violate them, and that I will enforce them, not spasmodically and intermittently, but persistently and consistently; they will not be suspended, even for the protection of cabinet officers.

Ingenious, Not Sound. You refer to the attitude of many men of large financial interests, who you "in expressing the belief that being prosecuted under the law by Mr. Taft is greater than their fear of general depression" under me, will support me rather than Mr. Taft. You have attempted to word that statement in such a way as to claim the support of all the trust magnates, and yet put it on the ground that they are supporting my party for patriotic reasons, rather than for the promotion of a selfish interest. That is ingenious, but it is not sound. The trust magnates are supporting the Republican party and the lie offers an explanation: "The ox knows his owner and the ass his master's crib." You admit that you gave permission to the steel trust to absorb a rival, and you expect that the honest sentiment of the country will rebuke the party whose convention refused to endorse any kind of publicity that are candidates for the highest office in the people should know until after the polls are closed what predatory interests have been active in support of the Republican party.

GOVERNOR HASKELL'S SUIT TO BE FILED IN KANSAS CITY

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 30.—A special from Guthrie, says: "Governor C. N. Haskell is preparing to bring suit in the next few days against William R. Hearst because of the latter's charges concerning Governor Haskell's alleged connection with an attempt to bribe Frank S. Monnett for the Standard Oil company. The suit will be brought in Kansas City. E. C. Simral of Mexico, Mo., is here as attorney for Governor Haskell, preparing the petition."

New York, Sept. 30.—That the Standard Oil letters affecting Vice President John D. Archbold, Senator Foraker of Ohio and others, and recently read by William Randolph Hearst, were stolen from the Oil trust's offices at 26 Broadway, is the direct charge made by Mr. Archbold. His statement follows:

"In response to my inquiries as to the theft of letters from my files, the following may be made:

"Over three years ago a report reached me that certain of my letters had been offered for sale to newspapers of this city, and I immediately sent a man to investigate. Examination showed that some of the letters were missing and that they could only have been taken by some one, not only familiar with the office, but highly trusted. The party upon whom suspicion fell stoutly denied all guilt. A little later, however, a man, who represented himself as acting between the thief and those to whom the letters had been sold, proposed to return immediately the letters for a consideration. His story was that the idea of the theft had been conceived by his brother, who had at the time been in the company's employ, and that his brother had induced the employee already suspected, to accomplish the theft."

"According to the go-between's story, he had disposed of the letters, or some of them, to two men, who purchased them, but he refused to carry off one of the letters. The books, the go-between said, were returned after forty-eight hours. It is impossible to say how many were stolen and sold in this way. The thieves worked with leisure. It is not thought necessary to say more at present, or to mention the names of the go-between's story of three years ago, lay in his return of some of the correspondence at the time of the collection of the stolen letters by Mr. Hearst is further corroboration now."

"Obviously among such a coterie, authenticity of their output is not to be lightly accepted. The opportunities for falsification, suppressing of context, distortion of passages are many."

WEAVE WEB ABOUT HAMILTON Houghton County Sheriff Thinks He Has Case Against Accused. Houghton, Mich., Sept. 30.—(Special to The Herald.)—The primary election of Geo. Hamilton, who is charged with assault with intent to kill, the specific charge being the sending of Sheriff August Beck last July of an infernal machine, will take place in Justice Caspar Brand's court next Friday morning. Sheriff August Beck returned Monday morning from a trip to Minnesota and Wisconsin, and says that he has names of witnesses to appear in court and testify against the accused, who was brought here from Duluth, and is confident that the witnesses secured will be of sufficient number and strength to insure Hamilton being held for trial in the circuit court at the November term.

Witnesses from Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota have been subpoenaed, and he expects that it is not probable there will be at least one witness from Canada. The officers claim they are slowly weaving a web around Hamilton, which will send him to the state penitentiary for his alleged attempt upon the sheriff's life.

PRISONER FOR SEVENTY YEARS

Turtle is Released From Beneath Lock In a Canal.

Findlay, Ohio, Sept. 30.—After being a prisoner for seventy years, a turtle at Grand Rapids, Ohio, has just emerged from its long confinement, showing that it is good for that many years more. The prisoner was released from beneath a lock in the Miami and Erie canal. The workmen who liberated the turtle believe it was imprisoned in a box of heavy oak timbers in 1838, at the time the lock was constructed. When it again saw the light of day it was covered with moss, but was as fat as though it had enjoyed three square meals a day ever since it suffered imprisonment. It is supposed that crawfish and other animal life came in to the turtle through crevices which were too small to permit the turtle to escape. The timbers were under the water and perfectly preserved.

GIRL FAMINE IN DULUTH

Many Positions for Women Offered; Nearly All Go Begging.

Wages Are Good; Still the Girl Question is Unsolved.

Women workers are at a premium in Duluth just now, judging from the numerous places that are open daily to girls and are never accepted.

While men crowd the employment agencies in search of work and are often turned away, jobs for women go begging. At the Minnesota State Free Employment agency, yesterday, in the women's department, there were eighteen calls for female help, and only two of the orders were filled. Nearly every day from eighteen to twenty orders are received by Miss Pearl Bittiger, who is in charge of that department. Yesterday was but an average day in that respect, though sometimes, more women call and take positions. It is seldom that the supply meets the demand.

It is not so hard to fill hotel orders as it is for private homes. Dishwashers, waitresses, chambermaids, and even hotel cooks are easier to find than girls for general housework and cooks in private residences. Except in the case of hotel cooks the wages are about the same at the hotel as they are where there are only the wants of one family to take care of. A hotel cook draws from $35 to $50 a month, according to her ability. A cook for a private family gets from $20 to $30.

For general housework the wages range from $12 to $25 a month. There seems to be a girl famine in Duluth just now. There seems to be no reason for it, at least no one knows of any. During the summer when the girls were scarce, it was thought that it was because many of the working class had left the city for their homes on farms, or to work at summer cottages or resorts. But the reason for summer outtings is over and still the girl question is growing daily more serious.

James Walsh, manager of the Duluth branch of the Minnesota Free Employment bureau, says the business in the men's department is good and that the bureau is filling more jobs now than it has for some time.

WEST END ARE AFTER THE BIG MEN

West End Republicans Will Have Prominent Speakers at Rally.

Plan to be Active During the Coming Campaign.

Either Jacob F. Jacobson or Frank M. Eddy will be secured by the West End Republican club for the rally it is planning to hold in the course of a week or two.

At the last meeting, a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a big rally in the West end, but that body is holding off a little on the plans, pending the organization of the Republican county committee.

"Mr. Jacobson will undoubtedly speak at a meeting under the auspices of the West End Republican club, when he comes to town during the present campaign," said George M. Jensen, president of the organization, but we have not found out as yet whether he will be able to be present at the rally we are planning for the immediate future.

"However, we will have some prominent Republicans to talk. Frank M. Eddy will be secured for the next rally and there will be a number of local speakers."

The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday evening in Sloan's hall, when plans for the rally will be perfected. By that time, it is expected that the county committee will be down to work.

"We intend to be very active during this campaign," declared President Jensen, speaking of the West End club.

LIVELY SALOON FIGHT.

Religious Discussion Leads to Fight and Several Arrests.

Differences of opinion in the matter of religion led to a bloody free-for-all fight in Mantal & Co. saloon, 2024 West Superior street last evening. Kaites seem to have been the popular weapon.

When the police arrived on the scene, they placed under arrest John Budzinski, Joe Meszynski and Jo Adamick. Budzinski, although bleeding from several ugly cuts, resisted the interference of the police in so far as he was able. He was returned to the station in a police car.

Meszynski was also cut. The wounds were attended to at headquarters.

Joe Mantal, one of the proprietors of the saloon, was very angry at the participants. He said he was pelted with rocks when he tried to bring about peace negotiations.

OIL TRUST IN DENIAL

Standard Lawyers Refute Charge of Preferential Rates.

Say Combine Has Paid Same as Other Companies.

Government Renews Effort to Have the Monopoly Dissolved.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Standard Oil company attorneys presented evidence today before Judge Franklin Ferris in support of the contention that the oil company has not been the recipient of preferential rates from the railroads in different sections of the country. The hearing was in the Federal building in Judge Bethune's court room, adjoining the court room in which Judge Landis pronounced his judgment that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana should pay a fine of $29,000,000, and is a phase of the attempt of the government in a suit in chancery to have the Standard Oil company dissolved and cease to exist as a corporate entity. Special Government Attorneys Frank B. Kellogg and Charles E. Morrison, former United States district attorney in Chicago, represented the government, and attorneys John S. Miller and Morris Rosenthal both of whom appeared for the oil company in the spectacular fine case represented the company before Judge Ferris. Henry E. Pelton, general traffic manager of the Standard Oil company was the first witness called to the stand and will be the principal witness to be examined in the Chicago hearing. HASKELL IN CASH APPEAL

Governor Asks for Money to Overcome His Enemies.

Salary Barely Enough for His Family, He Says.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 1.—Governor Haskell yesterday made a public appeal to the people of Oklahoma for money to aid him in overcoming his enemies, whom he declares are enemies of the people. Governor Haskell's appeal says: "As for myself, I am not possessed of wealth and receive a salary but barely enough for the expense of my family and myself. I am giving my entire time to the welfare of Oklahoma. I can make the fight against all these interests and win with the support of the people. "I not only want the moral, but also some small financial assistance of the people of Oklahoma. Postage, paper, labor and other items of expense can only be incurred when I have the means to meet them. I am standing firmly for honest government and against graft, greed and corporate oppression. I ask assistance, not in large amounts, because a few thousand dollars will be a start for the fight, but I ask that the multitude which this fight and render such financial assistance as they deem proper."

WAIT HOURS FOR TICKETS

Three Hundred Chicagoans Stand in Line All Night.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Three hundred men and boys shivered in the chill wind from the lake as they stood in line at daylight today, at the Great Northern theater, waiting for an opportunity to exchange credentials issued to members of the Chicago Association of Commerce for tickets to the banquet, Oct. 7, when William Howard Taft, Republican candidate for the presidency, and William J. Bryan, his Democratic opponent, will sit down at the same table, and later address the guests and members of the association. All in the line had kept their places through the night, and looked weary and haggard. Because of the demand for seats at the banquet, the association issued credential cards to each member which, in the order of their receipt when the doors were opened today, were exchanged for numbered tickets, entitling the holders to his choice of a seat at the banquet. A huge chart, showing the arrangement of the tables, facilitated the selection. Through the night the line was composed of office boys, under clerks and porters, each of whom was provided with a check covering the cost of the ticket. Long before the hour of opening the line was augmented until it stretched to State street, a block distant, and replaced their weary representatives.

DEFENDS BANKERS FOR PANIC ACT

Alexander Gilbert Says They Could Not Honor All Demands.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 1.—Alexander Gilbert, president of the New York clearing house, addressing the American Bankers' association, said in part: "New York bankers have been severely criticised because they did not more fully respond to the demands of country correspondents by shipping currency against balances, in the recent panic. To have fully honored the demands that were pouring in from all sections of the country would have dissipated our banking reserve in a fortnight. How could it be replenished? Were the interior bankers sending currency to New York? What would have been the effect upon the country if the New York banking reserve had been entirely depleted? It would have intensified the panic, feeling that widespread commercial disaster would have resulted. It was of the highest importance that New York in its cash resources, should keep reasonably strong. To sustain public confidence—to provide the pay rolls for its own industrial organizations and those numerous large corporations scattered throughout the country whose headquarters are in New York—to provide the cash for payments to the government for duties and interests. "The $25,000,000 deficit in our banking reserve occurred in less than two days after the failure of the Knickerbocker Trust company, and was caused by the shipment to interior institutions of the larger portion of that amount in that short time. We kept the door on our treasure house wide open until for the good of the whole country, it became necessary to partially close it. I never have fully closed. Currency shipments continued in a restricted way throughout the panic and a large number of our banks kept up their counter payments as usual."

PANIC CRY BY SHERMAN

Nominee Says Beware Disasters of Wilson-Gorman Enormity.

Clinton, Ill., Oct. 1.—The speech-making campaign via trolley to this city that is being conducted by the Republican vice presidential candidate, James S. Sherman, reached this place early today from Decatur. A rousing reception was tendered to the party by the Young Men's Taft club. Mr. Sherman, who was vociferously greeted by banner and voice, as "Sunny Jim" was much delighted as was also Congressman Longworth, who was hailed as "Nick" and "Teddy's boy." Mr. Sherman in his speech discussed the tariff. "One of the things certain," declared the speaker, "is that a revision of the tariff will be entered upon next March. Mr. Taft declares that if elected he will call a special session of congress at once for the purpose. Let there be no risks that the foes of protection shall get power to destroy that policy. Beware of the ruin of the Walker tariff; avoid the disasters of the Wilson-Gorman enormity. Stand for the system which has made this the foremost manufacturing nation in all history. Choose a congress as well as a president, to prove a sure defense." Mr. Sherman sharply denounced the policy of free trade, closing his address by saying: "Mr. Bryan's oratory cannot destroy the force of the facts. He would, at our airports, set our home products handicapped by city, town and state taxes, to compete with foreign wares that come scot free of such charges. If he were guilty of no other offense, this single crime calls for his condign punishment at the polls." From Clinton, the party went to Bloomington, where Mr. Sherman talked again on the tariff. Tonight a big demonstration has been arranged for Peoria, which place the party will reach at 5 o'clock.

G. O. P. ROW IS WELL ON

Roosevelt Takes Hand in New York State Campaign.

Washington, Oct. 1.—It was learned here today that President Roosevelt had sent a confidential friend to New York to look into the workings of the Republican national committee headquarters there. Dissatisfaction has arisen regarding the conduct of the campaign and reports have reached the president to the effect that the national committee has not been working in harmony with the Republican congressional committee. Chairman Hitchcock is expected in Washington tomorrow for a conference with the president. It is believed the president sent for Hitchcock for the purpose of having him explain why the two committees are not working well together. In some circles it is said that the older men of the party rather resent the way in which the younger men at national headquarters are running the campaign, and claim that considerable disorganization exists.

"TAFT PACT?" NO"—HEARST

Denver, Oct. 1.—In a speech containing less than thirty minutes W. H. Hearst, chairman of the Independent party national committee in Denver, renewed his charges against Senator Foraker and Governor C. R. Haskell, and read additional letters and affidavits. Mr. Hearst paid his respects to President Taft, who he said, was compared the action of the president in repudiating Senator Foraker with that of Mr. Bryan, who he said, was willing to take the responsibility for Governor Haskell's connection with the Democratic national committee. Resuming his comments on President Roosevelt, Mr. Hearst said it was not true that he and the president "have altered our opinions of each other and are now working hand-in-hand," as the Democrats charged.

New York's National league team, after regaining top place in the league standing yesterday, when Pittsburgh took second place and Chicago dropped to third, played two games today with Philadelphia, at Philadelphia. These two clubs had four games to play in three days, and it was agreed that the double header necessary should be played on the first day of the series. Although the Quakers have been out of the running for first honors for some time, interest in the pennant race is intense and a huge crowd turned out to see the Philadelphia give battle to the Giants. The teams have played eighteen games together before today, New York winning fourteen. With two games to play, New York today had an opportunity either to strengthen her lead or to again drop back among the followers at a stage of the play when every point in the percentage column won or lost has a material bearing on the race for the season's prize. The race in the American league continues almost as excitingly close as in the National. There was no change in position among the three leading clubs yesterday, Detroit maintaining its lead by a margin of only four points. As on yesterday, there were only two games in the American league today, the three leading teams and St. Louis laying off. Washington played New York at New York, and Boston and Philadelphia met at Philadelphia. The relative position of the leading American league teams before play began today was as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Detroit	87	61	.588
Cleveland	87	62	.584
Chicago	85	62	.578

In the National league, Chicago again tried conclusions with Cincinnati at Cincinnati. Pittsburgh and St. Louis rested today, but will play a double header tomorrow. The position of the three leading National league teams before today's game was:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
New York	93	52	.637
Pittsburg	95	55	.633
Chicago	94	55	.631

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—There was plenty of heart disease in the New York Giant-Philadelphia Quaker double-header, at National league park today. The first game was anybody's until the last man went out, and what with a tremendous crowd, a good deal of "sass" on the part of Catcher Dooin of Philadelphia, which finally resulted in his being expelled from the game, and a change of pitchers to shut off a batting streak on the part of the Giants, there was much doing. New York had Matthewson and Needham at the points, and Christy was in good form although weak at times. The locals put Corbitt in the box and Dooin behind the bat. Later, Jaskisch took his place. Klem and Johnston umpired. The opening inning was a hitting carnival out of which New York, which went to bat first, netted three runs and the locals two. This aroused the crowd to intense enthusiasm, and many fans wildly deserted their own team to root for the Giants on the principle "Bennant East, no matter who gets it." Score, 3 to 2. Matthewson settled down in the next inning and pitched pretty ball, but the local management was afraid to trust him further, so put in Kieley, who did better and held the visitors down so that none failed. Score, 3 to 2. Neither side scored in the third, but in the fourth, after New York had drawn a blank, Philadelphia tied the score with one run. It was in this play that Dooin talked too much to the umpire and was sent to the bench. Jaskisch took his place. Score, 3 to 3. Philadelphia started in the fifth, due to superb fielding at critical times, but in the sixth New York again went ahead by one run. In the seventh quick work cut off runs and nobody on either side reached home. Score, 4 to 3. With errors evenly distributed at an apace the game ended in the ninth as registered in the seventh, 4 to 3 for New York, no more runs being scored behind the bat. Later, Jaskisch tried for the plate in the wind-up, but to no purpose. Second Game. For the second game, which was played before an even greater attendance, New York had Witte and Needham at the points and Philadelphia put Dooin back behind the bat. Covaleski going into the box. The home team brought forth blanks for both sides. In the second inning, which was a brief affair, no one got beyond the initial sack. Score, 0 to 0. Philadelphia started the ball rolling in the third. After retiring the Giants in one-two-three order, they fell on Dooin back behind the bat. Covaleski hit, scored three runs. Score, 3 to 0. Both sides drew blanks in the next

MORE CARS ARE TRACKED

Business at Duluth Terminals Shows Increase for September.

Figures given out this morning by the Lake Superior Car Service association show that the month, which closed yesterday, was a big one in freight business at the Head of the Lakes.

The tremendous wheat movement was a big factor. Last month there were 42,271 cars tracked at the terminals of Duluth and Superior. September of 1907 showed 33,363 cars. This was one of the last big months before the falling off in traffic receipts, due to the general slump in business, came. That the month just closed should show an increase over the same month last year, when general traffic was heavy all over the country, indicates the heavy movement of wheat to this Duluth and Superior terminals.

The present wheat movement is the greatest for the past ten years.

While this movement of wheat has been the chief cause in the great increase in the local traffic, other railroad business has shown a very fair increase. The hauling material that has been shipped to this city for the court-house, the dome and other public buildings, has materially increased the receipts. The coal movement has really just begun, but the shipments for the past two days indicate that the westward movement of coal will be heavy from now on.

With a general improvement in business and a tremendous movement of men on the car situation throughout the country will present a decided change from that of last winter. At that time there were three or four thousand idle cars upon the side tracks of the country. At the present time there is use for nearly every car, and the prospects are for a still heavier traffic.

PICTURE FAKERS AGAIN IN DULUTH

Agents selling crayon pictures are again looking for easy money in Duluth. About once a year, in spite of all that has been said in the newspapers exposing them, they show up in this city in search of the annual crop of suckers, and they generally succeed in finding what they are looking for.

Just now they are getting $4.50 for a picture that is worth about 30 cents. They are smooth talkers, and on the face of it their proposition looks good to many women. They offer a crayon enlargement of any photograph for $1.00, and the remainder of $3.50 upon delivery of the picture. The work turned out is of a very inferior grade, and the crayon is applied in such a manner that a finger rubbed across the picture will spoil it entirely. A cheap baking powder company would hardly dare put the enlargements out as a premium for buying their product.

There seems to be no way to get at this class of men by means of the law, for their cleverness enables them to keep within the law in disposing of the pictures. The good sense of the general public should be a sufficient barrier to the operations of the picture fakers.

In most cases a contract signed by the prospective purchaser has to buy the picture whether he wants to or not, after the first dollar is paid. Needless to say, it is signed before the picture is seen.

IF YOU would have your home ready for winter before snow flies—then we would suggest that it is high time you were giving it your prompt attention. The long winter evenings beside your fireplace are close at hand, and to best enjoy them, the room itself must be attractive—the walls, the ceilings and the floors must lend satisfaction and comfort to the occupant, and warmth and good cheer to the visitor. Poor Board Sidesteps It.
The county poor board, which held a meeting at the poor farm Wednesday afternoon, refused to mix in the debate between Rev. J. T. Moody of the Bethel and the Salvation Army. Ward Ames brought the matter to the attention of the board, but the members refused to discuss it. The debate was opened by the statement in the Bethel Record, written by Mr. Moody, stating that the Salvation Army gets all the old clothes from the city and instead of giving them away, sells them at a profit.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT, AS BATTLE FOR VOTES GOES ON

TAFT IN HOME TOWN OF BRYAN

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.—Only the poor condition of his voice marred Taft's visit in Bryan's home town.

When the Taft special reached Lincoln it was greeted by an immense crowd. Without alighting, however, the candidate was switched out to Havelock, where are located the repair shops of the Burlington system, and here he delivered to the workingmen employed there his address on labor.

He was brought back to Lincoln before 5 o'clock and escorted at once to the state university, where at a meeting of the students presided over by Senator Burkett, he gave a short talk and met the student body. A concert and general jubilation on the part of the students was the next feature and then the candidate was taken to the auditorium which was crowded with women, president over by Mrs. Sheldon, wife of the governor. Here Mr. Taft made one of his characteristic talks which was received most enthusiastically.

After a dinner at the home of Governor Sheldon he returned to lead a parade, which escorted him again to the auditorium, where the speech of the day was delivered. At the capital grounds demonstration the principal speech was and heartily cheered for his position regarding Republican policies.

What Taft said on public policy follows:

"Mr. Bryan challenges me to take this position that President Roosevelt takes with reference to the time when public policy should be made of campaign contributions and I accept the challenge."

"I take exactly the same position that the president takes."

"I have always been in favor of a law which will require publicity of both contributions and expenditures immediately after election. Mr. Bryan seems to favor the publication of contributions before the election, but postpones the publication of expenditures until after that time. I confess I see no reason why, if contributions are to be published before election, expenditures should not also be published. I think that the character of expenditures is quite as important as the character and source of the contributions. I don't know of any other law, either in this country or abroad, which requires the publication of contributions or expenditures before the election. The law of Nebraska on this subject only requires the publication of contributions and expenditures after the election. This was the law which in Nebraska so flagrantly violated by failing to return the receipt of $15,000 to Mr. Thomas P. Ryan. The most drastic law in this country on the subject is that of New York, which also makes the time of publication after election."

"The proper object of a publicity law is to prevent the use of money for bribery and other improper purposes, and to enable the law officers of the government and the public to determine whether the contributions made are properly expended for legitimate purposes. The requirement that the names and amounts of the persons contributing should also be shown is for the purpose of enabling the public and the prosecuting officers of the government to judge whether subsequent official action has been properly affected in favor of the contributors by the successful candidate. In the heat of the controversy the motives of those who contribute to pay the legitimate expenses of the campaign will be misconstrued, perverted and misrepresented. The candidates in whose behalf the contributions are made will be charged in a most unfair way as being completely under the control of those who make the contributions."

"A rigid law requiring the publication in detail of contributions and expenditures within ten days after the election, so that the public may know where the money came from, how much came, how it was expended, and for what it was expended, is all that public policy requires."

BRYAN IN FRESH ATTACK ON TAFT

Knoxville, Iowa, Oct. 1.—Speaking to a big crowd at Oskaloosa today W. J. Bryan after discussing publicity of campaign contributions and election of senators by direct vote, took up a recent statement by Mr. Taft regarding the amount of the Republican campaign fund. He quoted the following from Taft:

"Mr. Bryan says that we may not expect anything from the Republican party because it is governed by the protected interests and that they contributed to the campaign fund. If they did do so I am glad to advise you that the campaign is no different and that no campaign has been carried on more economically than this campaign."

Bryan invited his hearers to notice the fact that Taft did not deny that they accept contributions from the protected interests.

"He does not deny my indictment," said Bryan. "He simply says that if the protected interests do govern that the fund is not flatter than this year. But what does Taft call a flatterer? He and the public might as well call the public a flatterer. He is not willing that the public shall know how much of a campaign he has carried on from whom he has received more than $15,000. He is afraid that you will not vote the Republican ticket if you know where the campaign funds come from? If so, he means that you will be sorry you voted the Republican ticket when you find out how much of a fund they have and where it comes from."

"Is this political honesty? What do the rank and file of the Republican party think of the Republican leaders who conceal the amount and sources of their campaign fund and refuse to allow their campaign methods to be known?"

Upon his arrival here Bryan received a rousing reception. It being homecoming week, a large crowd was on hand to greet him. He was provided with a special cow-boy escort. His speech, delivered from the courthouse steps and made by him in a classification of Taft. In part, Bryan said:

"Mr. Taft says that I have not done anything but talk, while he has been putting his ideas into practice in an administration way. While it is true that he has held office more than I have and before he has had more opportunity to put ideas into practice, I have had more opportunity to see my ideas borrowed. What idea of his own has he put into practice with success? He was a judge on the bench. Was the rank and file of the Republican party think of the Republican leaders who conceal the amount and sources of their campaign fund and refuse to allow their campaign methods to be known?"

Upon his arrival here Bryan received a rousing reception. It being homecoming week, a large crowd was on hand to greet him. He was provided with a special cow-boy escort. His speech, delivered from the courthouse steps and made by him in a classification of Taft. In part, Bryan said:

"Mr. Taft says that I have not done anything but talk, while he has been putting his ideas into practice in an administration way. While it is true that he has held office more than I have and before he has had more opportunity to put ideas into practice, I have had more opportunity to see my ideas borrowed. What idea of his own has he put into practice with success? He was a judge on the bench. Was the rank and file of the Republican party think of the Republican leaders who conceal the amount and sources of their campaign fund and refuse to allow their campaign methods to be known?"

WEST END LIBRARY IS ATTRACTIVE.

Reading Room at St. Luke's Church is Proving Popular.

Now that the shorter days and the chilly evenings have come, the reading room and library in the basement of St. Luke's Episcopal church, is proving a very popular place.

More than a hundred people are now borrowing books from the library, and the plan of lending is the same as that in use at the city's public library up town. The collection of books is said to be very good.

The reading room is open Tuesday and Friday evenings, at present. The bookshelves are in charge there, to lend books, and there are also in the room, the latest magazines and periodicals, for the public to read. The room is well-lighted and cozy.

"The reading room is free for the use of everybody in the West end, and especially desire the young men to take advantage of it," said Rev. R. J. Mooney, rector of St. Luke's today. "The room affords a warm, attractive place to spend an evening and there is a great variety of literature on file there, so that everyone can find something to interest them."

JOE PEACOCK FINED HEAVILY

Assailant of William Murray Must Pay $100 and Costs.

Joseph Peacock, who nearly killed William Murray by striking him over the head with a marlin spike, on board one of the big ore carriers in the local harbor two weeks ago, was fined $100 and costs, with an alternative of ninety days in jail, by Judge Winden, in municipal court this morning. The charge against him was assault in the third degree.

Peacock and Murray were both employed on the same boat. They visited Duluth on shore leave and had a good time up town. Before they returned to their vessel, however, they had an argument, which resulted in a fight. Peacock was badly wounded in the encounter, and the following day he came up behind Murray when the latter was not looking, and struck him over the head with a marlin spike. Murray fell senseless to the deck, and it was thought for a time that he was dead. He was removed to St. Mary's hospital, where he is yet. He will recover.

HOSPITAL PLANS BEING PREPARED

Work on the Contagious Ward Will Soon be Begun.

Plans for Duluth's proposed contagious disease hospital are now being drawn up, and work on the structure will be begun shortly. It is hoped to have the foundation completed before winter sets in earnest, although the building itself will not be completed until next year, because of lack of funds.

There is now $3,500 cash on hand for hospital purposes, and the council has provided $5,000 more, which will be available from the tax receipts next year, being taken out of the permanent improvement fund. The contagious ward will be completed early in the summer, it is expected.

Fatal Fall from Hay Loft.—John Christensen of Duluth, 55 years of age, fell from a hay loft in a livery barn there and was so badly injured that he died at a local hospital a short time after being brought to the city.

AN UNPAID BALANCE

Butte & Superior Company Owed $836,933.31 on Feb. 11, 1907.

Contract Prices of Options Brought Out in Detail in Court.

An avalanche of figures descended this morning on the heads of the unsuspecting jurors hearing the case of the Butte & Superior Copper company against John McAlpine in Judge Engstrom's court. The court room was turned into an accounting room for the time. The Butte & Superior officials had supplied an additional lot of books, a day-load or so, and they were scattered about while witnesses and attorneys figured. The computations were numerous and varied and little actual progress was made in the trial of the case on account of the time consumed in figuring.

Through D. T. Jenkins, secretary of the company, and J. B. Becker, assistant treasurer, Attorney Richards for the defense established the amount paid out for current expenses by the company up to Feb. 11, 1907, the amount paid on properties up to that date and cash on hand on that date. He also brought out the contract prices of each property and the amount remaining unpaid on the total of Feb. 11, 1907.

On that date, on which Mr. McAlpine claims representatives of the company claimed that all properties were owned in fee by the company and thus induced him to subscribe for stock. Mr. Becker stated that $336,933.31 was still due on Feb. 11, 1907, of the total amount of $3,935,893.53, in cash and stock on the basis of $5 a share, which was the contract price of the different options and leases.

Mr. Jenkins resumed the stand on the opening of court this morning and in answer to questions of Mr. Richards stated that 237,000 shares of the stock of the Butte & Superior company had been issued to fee owners of purchased property up to Feb. 11, 1907, and the certificates had been mailed to the First National Bank of Butte to be held in escrow. He said the company had expended $28,032.79 prior to Feb. 11, 1907, exclusive of cash paid on options and that there was a cash balance on hand on Feb. 11, 1907, of $93,611.72. With the $336,933.31 paid on options, the company had then handled $174,341.81 from its organization up to that time. Subscriptions for 175,558 shares of stock had been received up to that time, but the money had not all been paid in.

The details of the different contracts between the company and the fee owners and holders of options were gone into by Mr. Richards with the witness and the books of the company. According to the testimony and the exhibits the company had agreed to pay for the properties as follows: The stock valuation being on the basis of $5 a share, Niagara, $288,000 in cash; $67,500 in stock; Constitution, $24,500 in cash; Black Rock, $155,000 in cash and $50,000 in stock; Ramon, $165,000 in cash and $105,000 in stock; Johns, $140,000 in cash; Jersey Blue, $150,000 in cash and $150,000 in stock; Laura, $5 in cash; Enterprise, two-thirds interest, $120,000 a cash; Admiral Dewey, $5,000 in cash; Black Rock Mining company, buildings and mine, $10,000 in cash; syndicate of Wolvin, Killorn and Johns, $47,192.50 in cash and $1,038,400 in stock; making a total of $1,130,482.50 in cash; $2,813,400 in stock, or a grand total of $3,943,882.50.

Mr. Becker was called to the stand for a few minutes to compute from his own memoranda the amount remaining unpaid on the options on Feb. 11, 1907. His figures were $836,933.31. Mr. Jenkins was recalled to identify some papers and he was still on the stand when court adjourned at noon.

Yesterday afternoon was given over to the examination of the exhibits. Attorney J. B. Richards, for the defense introduced twenty-five exhibits in all, including books of the company, agreements between the several parties interested in the deals for property, options and leases.

D. T. Jenkins, secretary of the company, was on the stand all afternoon producing the papers for which Mr. Richards asked him to identify them, and papers of the company in court. He was able to hand over nearly every thing requested.

Mr. Richards sought to establish George H. Crosby's connection with the company, but failed to do so by the witness. Mr. Crosby had accepted Mr. McAlpine's note, which is the cause of the suit, and the books showed a list of subscriptions made by different people and changed to Mr. Crosby, but nothing else could be found by Mr. Richards.

Mr. Richards went into the amount of money paid by the company on its properties prior to Feb. 11, 1907, and established that $252,666.69 had been paid in cash on the different options, but the witness did not know how much stock had been given to either the fee owners or the previous holders of the options.

The monthly report of the building inspector shows that 199 electric meters were tested last month; five elevator licenses were issued; four electric signs permits granted and eight permits for moving houses were given out.

SUPERIOR NEWS

YOUNG GIRL IN ROAD HOUSE

Former Superior Saloon-Keeper Being Held on Serious Charge.

Clyde Sawyer, aged 33, formerly engaged in the saloon business on lower Tower avenue, Superior, and lately manager of a candy store and pool room on Third street, is being held at the police station on the serious charge of having induced Mamie Reed, 14 years old, a clerk in his store, to leave her home and enter a resort at Eveleth. The girl is also held at the station pending investigation.

It is alleged that Sawyer introduced the girl to a woman, who took her to the place at Eveleth. That was more than a week ago. The parents of the child became worried over her long and unexplained absence from home, and two days ago notified the police. Early yesterday morning a telegram was received by the police that the girl had been located in a roadhouse ten miles from Eveleth. Lieut. Spon of the Superior police force yesterday brought the girl to Superior. It is alleged that she broke down when she was arrested, telling the story of her betrayal and what part Sawyer had taken in it. District Attorney Foley is investigating the details of the case.

SUDDEN END TO HEARING

Suit for $50,000 Against D. M. & N. Railroad Company Settled.

The suit of Frank Gosper against the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad for $50,000 damages, for injuries sustained Oct. 13 of last year, when the engine on which he was fireman, ran through a switch at the ore docks in West Duluth and collided with a train of cars standing on the track, was brought to a sudden termination this morning, when the attorneys announced that a settlement had been reached and stipulations of dismissal were filed.

There were rumors of a disposition to settle yesterday, and after the jury had been secured, an adjournment was taken to this morning, ostensibly to allow physicians to examine the plaintiff. During the interim, the attorneys got together and this morning they asked for the dismissal of the case. The terms of the settlement were not made public. W. H. and T. J. Fraley of Eau Claire, Wis., and Morton Barrows, of Duluth, appeared for Gosper and Baldwin, Baldwin & Dancer for the railroad company.

The case of Nick Papilovich against the Oliver Iron Mining company, was then called before Judge Dille. Papilovich sues for $15,000 for injuries sustained while in the employ of the mining company, at the Canisteo mine, at Coleraine, June 20, 1908. He was dumping cars and had the middle finger of his right hand pinched off entirely and the first and third fingers were badly crushed. Negligence is charged in failing to provide proper means of dumping the cars, it being claimed that the use of a six-foot crowbar was made necessary by the conditions and the method was unsafe.

SMALL BOY A MATCH

Probably Caused Fire That Destroyed International Falls Cafe.

Fire Chief Riley Falls During Fire, Being Seriously Hurt.

International Falls, Minn., Oct. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the worst fires that has raged in International Falls in a long time broke out in the capital cafe yesterday and for a time threatened adjoining property. Efficient work on the part of the department headed by Chief Riley, who led his men into the thick of the fire, saved adjoining buildings and perhaps prevented a widespread conflagration.

The brave chief was seriously injured during the fire and his condition is causing considerable worry. While attempting to reach the roof of the building, Chief Riley, who is a heavy man, fell twenty feet. He is now in a precarious condition and is reported in bad shape. The contents of the building were destroyed and the structure badly gutted.

It is believed that a small boy and a match are responsible for the fire.

"One of the great evils and tendencies toward intemperance is the practice of treating and it is urged that anti-treating societies be founded."

The following officers were elected for the district: President, George Gerlach; secretary, J. P. Juenemann; treasurer, Frank Erling; members, J. Leonard, St. Paul, and George Steitzle, Minneapolis. The next meeting of the affiliated societies will be held in Winona.

WENT NORTH WITH PEARY.
Now He is Doing Time in St. Paul Workhouse.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Three years ago a member of the Peary expedition, which, leaving the United States in 1905 in the Roosevelt, reached a latitude of 87 degrees 6 minutes, or 200.36 statute miles from the pole, the farthest point north ever reached by an American explorer, Joe Fulford is today serving a fifteen day sentence at the St. Paul workhouse for vagrancy, Saturday night was this thing called fate.

Fulford left with the expedition and remained with the interior of the workhouse during the long and perilous trip during which the party, sledging over ice until the summer of 1906, was subjected to great exposure and privations. Twice he was dangerously ill, recovered and returned to the states.

But his health was shattered and he found himself unable to stand the strain of the railroad work which he took up. He began to drift around the country and last Saturday night was arrested in a box car in the Milwaukee yards at Midway by the Prior avenue police.

He told Judge Hanft he was looking for work in the Soo shops in Minneapolis, but had lost his way and wandered to St. Paul.

WOLVES KILLING SHEEP.

Beasts Getting Troublesome in Aitkin County.

Aitkin, Minn., Oct. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—Wolves are killing sheep in Waukenabo and Logan townships, and are getting to be so bold that farmers are selling their flocks to save them from the predatory animals. James E. Ryan, of Waukenabo, was in town recently, to dispose of a load of sheep. Wolves got two of his sheep last week, making fourteen in all that he has lost.

On Sunday night, last, Howard Ladd lost one, and E. Rhodes lost a blooded ram. Jack Welch's pens were leveled upon for three on Tuesday night, and Hans Hanson reports a wolf killing his flock has been taken by wolves this season. Mr. Hanson lives in Logan township, and reports a wolf killing a sheep on the road in broad daylight between Waldeck's house and the saw mill site, in plain view of the house. Waldeck being an unwilling witness to the slaughter, and she sent a man to drive the wolf away.

It is in this section the talk of organizing a wolf hunt.

Eighty-six million pounds of butter was produced by the creameries in 1906 and in 1907 they turned out 94,455,469 pounds. In 1904 only 46,146 cows contributed to the supply and only 55,729 farmers profited from the sale of butter fat to the creameries.

For Dyspepsia and Indigestion

If you suffer from Indigestion or Dyspepsia; if you are annoyed with gas on the stomach, fullness after eating, belching, sour stomach, heartburn, etc., a few doses of Kodol will relieve you.

If you know as well as we do how good a preparation Kodol is for indigestion and dyspepsia, it would be unnecessary for us to guarantee a single bottle.

But to get you to know how good it is as well as we know, we practically will purchase a single bottle for you.

You wonder, perhaps, how we can afford to make such an offer—it is because we have absolute confidence in the honesty and fairness of the public.

We know there are thousands of persons who suffer from indigestion and dyspepsia, who would be grateful to us for putting them in touch with Kodol.

That is why. Furthermore, we know that after you have used Kodol your faith in the preparation will be equal to ours.

This proposition we make is not altogether unselfish, but it is actuated by the knowledge that this use of Kodol by you will benefit you as well as ourselves.

How could we afford to make such an offer to the public, and how could we afford to spend thousands of dollars to tell you about it unless we positively know and were sure of the merits of Kodol?

We couldn't—it would bankrupt us. But we know the merits of Kodol and we want you to know.

Use Kodol as directed and it cannot fail to help you.

BANKERS SHOULD NOT SHOW THEIR HANDS.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—"Too much talk," said a prominent banker in referring to the fight that is being made by the bankers of the country against the plank in the Democratic platform which advocates a guaranty deposit law.

"I fear the continued discussion in regard to how providing for the guaranty of bank deposits will result in defeat for the bankers. It is a serious thing, and the bankers should use the right kind of tactics to win out. As it is, the outcome is becoming gloomier all the time," he said.

Dandierine

and we can PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes:
"As a result of using Dandierine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the vital organ in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention and treatment. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow, when the root is diseased and the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon in a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Dandierine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair roots or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes,

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON, OCT. 4.
2 Samuel, 6:1-12. David brings the Ark to Jerusalem.

By Rev. J. S. Kirtley, D. D.

THE CONNECTION.

All the tribes of Israel were vassals to the Philistines till now. But now that David is strong enough to unite his own people under him, he attacks the Philistines, who try to retain their away, but are defeated in two fierce fights and driven out of the country. Then David moved his capital to a point nearer the center of his country, almost impossible to encircle, on the mountain top which afterward became the center of the city of Jerusalem. This was the "Salem" where Melchizedek lived in the time of Abraham. Here the Jebusites had had a fortress for years and still did not know that David had captured it. When David captured the city, he established his residence there, and soon made it the civil, social and religious center of the nation.

Then he resolved to bring the ark there. The ark used to be kept in the rear room of the tabernacle, but the latter was at Nob and the ark had been at Kirjath-jearim for seventy years. Eli's sons, after suffering from the ark, the Philistines, had, in desperation, sent the ark out in the front of the battle, which God would protect it, and on that account give the people victory. But it was captured and sent back to the ark at Abinadab, where it remained for seventy years.

The ark was a little chest of chittim wood, containing the two tables of the law, the golden pot of memorial manna, and Aaron's rod that budded. It was overlaid with gold, which constituted the mercy seat on which the blood of sacrifice was to be sprinkled by the high priest once every year, while over it stood the cherubim, symbols of God's presence. David felt the need of religious culture and wanted all the aid possible.

THE LESSON.

How the Ark was Brought—1-5.
"And David gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, 30,000. And David arose, and went with all the people that were with him, from Baile-judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, which is called by the name, even the name of Jehovah of hosts, that sitteth above the cherubim. And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was in the hill, with the ark of God; and Ahio went before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel played before Jehovah with all manner of instruments, made of wood and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with castanets, and with cymbals."

We note the greatness of the event. It was a national, not a tribal or local, event. Therefore David gathered together the chosen men of all Israel. All the tribes were represented. It was an event of a high moral character, for they had the "chosen men." It was great in the size of the crowds—"thousands." It was a religious event, and was designed to draw men together. So does work at a common task. David was gratifying his deep religious nature, and at the same time was showing far-sighted statesmanship. David was one of the people of that day, as he joined in all the abounding joy and good will of the occasion. King and peasant mingled in informal fellowship, to the credit and benefit of both.

The place is mentioned—Baile-judah, indicating Kirjath-jearim, a town about seven miles west of Jerusalem, where Abinadab lived. It had been lost sight of for years, and David learned its whereabouts only after diligent search. In mentioning the ark, our writer says it was called by the name of Jehovah. The most important things were the cherubim, for they were supposed to represent God. Being most important, they gave their name to the whole ark, the name of God. God was supposed to sit between the cherubim as an abiding presence, and they pronounced His sacred name in speaking of the ark. David first did this. Then others did. They were engaged in a task fraught with great moment, bringing up this chest of wood containing such treasures and supporting such symbols. In Psalm 132 we are told "the ark of God in the field of the wood," neglected and hidden.

2. Notice their method of handling it. In Numbers 4 there were instructions that the priests shall cover it, but not touch it "lest they die." Somebody blundered in not knowing or in not being particular about it. God was merciful to their heedlessness or ignorance and saw that David and the people had a good spirit, even if Ahio and Uzzah had grown so used to seeing it lying about like old rubbish, that they handled it without reverence.

3. The procession was a joyful one. All these words mean that they had musicians with their instruments, as the procession with its would have a band of music. Probably they massed them and had them at the head. They sang and danced and instruments, and they sang. But suddenly something happens.

the people. He was also displeased with himself, no doubt. He was soon filled with a wholesome fear of God. At first he might have been vexed with God, and on the impulse stigmatized the whole occasion by calling the place Perez-Uzzah, "breach of Uzzah." Then as fear came into his heart, he felt that the ark could never come to him. It appears he would have dropped it there, for the procession had halted, the music had ceased, and their faces were blanched with fear. But he thought it would be wrong to leave it there, and he carried it to the home of a foreigner, a Gittite, who had become a member of Israel. Perhaps he thought God would deal gently with an ignorant heathen.

III.
Finally Brought to the City, 11:12.
"And the ark of Jehovah remained in the house of Obad-edom, the Gittite, three months; and Jehovah blessed Obad-edom and all his house."

"And it was told King David, saying, 'Jehovah hath blessed the house of Obad-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God.' And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obad-edom into the city of David with joy."

It was borne according to the law this time. David was encouraged to do so by the fact that he brought to the home of Obad-edom, as he reverently cherished the symbolic mechanism. Their joy was sincere and pure, and it had no interruption. The music was accompanied by dancing about in high delight. David had prepared a tent for it on Mount Zion, and when it was put in its place, the people went to their homes with his benediction and with a conviction that they were a united, strong nation at last.

GOVERNOR HASKELL SAYS ROOSEVELT TOOK BRIBE; $260,000 FOR CAMPAIGN

Oklahoman Challenges President to Have Him Tried in Court--Attacks Secretary Cortelyou.

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 1.—Renewing his attack upon President Roosevelt, Governor Haskell gives out another statement of which the following is part:

"You have clearly demonstrated by hearsay document and conjecture, by one charge to another, by admitting that various of your charges were without information, and therefore abandoned and yet without displaying the manhood to apologize for the former untruthful statement, you seek another issue. It leads me to assert that I shall seek justice against you before the people and in the court not subject to your domination. Frankly speaking, I could have arrived at no other conclusion than that you in your recklessness and partisanship, and disregarding the rights of others, would pick a court or fix a jury."

"Your attack upon me finally rested upon my conduct on the Prairie Oil & Gas company, in this state. I have said that you were responsible for granting a franchise to a corporation, thereby creating vested rights. You seek to evade the issue and create wrong impressions. You said the Interior department had no power excepting an Indian reservation. You would have induced me to believe that the Indian Territory was then conducting its own government and that only parts of the same were under federal control. You know it is not true, you know all the land was Indian land without county, township or territorial government. What a halo of integrity surrounded you last week, which like the mist, has faded away, and this morning you are holding the record which convicts you."

Franchise $260,000.
"You granted the franchise at the solicitation of State Deputy and a few days thereafter received $260,000 in cash for your campaign fund."

"You charged me with having attempted to bribe the attorney general of Ohio. That was presumably nine years ago. Charles E. Tate says that his paper that no evidence was ever produced that would convict me of the charge."

"In touching on the State university question, you pretended to quote from the Outlook magazine, but how dishonestly you quoted. You said the magazine article, which article charged me with substituting Democratic for Republican professors for political purposes, to be false, but I charge you with trying to enlarge on that magazine article and give the world the impression that we were improperly using the money of the state."

"You charge that I vetoed a child labor law you have not apologized for, notwithstanding that you knew that I did it with the approval of union labor. I have shown the constitution, which you said was 'so bad your opinion of it would not look well in print,' contains more detail and is recommended to the New York legislature as governor, to the congress of the United States as president, and that I had approved fourteen acts of our legislature passed at the solicitation of union labor."

Without Apology.
"You said in your first statement that I had made brought against me to recover title to Creek Indian lands. I overwhelmed you on that statement. Adopting your usual policy, you flee from that statement without just apology and adopt the statement now that it was government townsites lots that you charged me with being sued for."

"Yes, I believe I am a defendant as to certain government townsites lots in one of nearly 10,000 sites that you have brought against as many defendants, honorable and high-minded citizens of this state. I am not undertaking to deny that petty politics for the purpose of Republicanism, was your sole motive for having those suits brought; and I charge you with knowing that there has been no delay in these cases, except that occasioned by the court by its deliberations taken by himself, as time he deemed necessary to consider whether or not there is any merit in the petition filed by your attorney."

"You say that on that land question you will see that I get a hearing in court and I will see that I get a hearing. Call to your assistance all the power that your high office commands, present your case in any form you like. I am ready to meet it and benediction and with a conviction that they were a united, strong nation at last.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.
David had the sense of something missing. A capital, a house, and a united people were not sufficient. God must be in the center of all to consecrate and to bless. What was missing had been really lost for three generations. The ark had to be found. A beautiful home with all that refinement can give is not sufficient unless there is a prayer-room somewhere in the house.—J. R. Brown.

A rose will fill a room with perfume, and a canary will fill it with song, whether the inmates smell and listen or not; but you may lay a Bible on a sitting room table, or hang the motto 'God bless our home' on the walls, and leave them there for a generation, and they will affect you as little as the figures of the carpet, unless you put forth some effort to get the good out of them. And so, if God blessed Obad-edom and his household, it was because they appreciated the ark and revered it, and made use of it.—Goss.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.
1. That the deepest need of men and nations is religion.
2. That the most profitable investments are the religious.
3. That exact obedience to God is our safety.
4. That punishment for sin is best for all.
5. That a renascence of reverence is needed.
6. That a man's worth is shown in his worship.
7. That God's presence in the home is its preservation.

Woman Tells Tuberculosis Congress Home Gardens Are Helpful.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Speaking before the tuberculosis congress, Mrs. Henry Parsons of New York, in an address on "The Value of Children's Gardens in Congested Districts, to Children With a Tendency Toward Tuberculosis," thus summarized the value of such gardens:

Value of such an attractive open-air space near the home.
Value of its gentle activities.
Value of the watching of living green things and insect life in keeping little sufferers' minds off of their pain.
Value of a beautiful picture left in their mind to be thought of in the dismal hours of pain at home.
The possibility of teaching hygiene, within the children's comprehension, by simple experiments with plants in their own plots which will lead them to see why fresh air, cleanliness and sunshine are absolutely necessary to life and vigor and which will lead them to demand such surroundings in their own homes.

The Age of Progress.
We live in an age of progress. "Former things" have literally "passed away," and instead of meekly submitting to calamities, as messengers sent from above to chasten us, we have learned to look about for a reasonable cause of the trouble, and stamp it out. For instance, people who are troubled with indigestion take a glass of golden grain beer before each meal, which enables them to eat the things they like, and eventually effects a cure. Order of your nearest dealer, or be supplied by Duluth branch Minneapolis Brewing Company.

COMMITTEE COMPLIES.
Commercial Club Will Investigate Street Paving With Council.

The public affairs committee of the Commercial club will comply with the request of the city council, that a joint investigation be made of the pavement of the city by a council committee and a committee from the Commercial club, and suggests that the public affairs committee will be ready for the investigation at the pleasure of the council committee.

The request for the investigation came as a result of the charges of the public affairs sub-committee against the condition of the city streets. The two committees, according to the present plans, will make a thorough inspection of the streets, in an endeavor to suggest some improvements that can be made.

CHIPPWEAS CELEBRATE.
Fifty-Fourth Anniversary of Treaty With United States.

Odanah, Wis., Oct. 1.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fifty-fourth anniversary of the signing of the treaty with the United States government was celebrated by the Indians on the Bad River reservation yesterday. The exercises began with a parade here at 10 a. m., in which the braves paraded in full Indian costume.

Speeches were made by James Blackbird and Moses White, and these were followed by a feast gotten up in the old, original Indian way. After the feast a pow woy of the tribe took place and the younger braves indulged in a game of lacrosse, the Indians of Red Cliff and Odanah being pitted against each other. A square dance was another feature of the celebration. A number of Chippewas from the different reservations in Northern Wisconsin attended the celebration.

TO PROTECT MILL HANDS

John Holmwood Has Patented a New Lath Saw Guard.

He Claims It Will Prevent Operators From Being Injured.

John Holmwood of 5815 Wadena street, has invented and patented a device to protect persons working in a saw mill, from being injured by the

the machine only one movement is required. It also requires only one man to operate it.

Mr. Holmwood has had the idea of such a device in his mind for some time, but did not decide to work it out until the personal injury case of Victor L. Jacobson against the Merrill & Ring Lumber company made him realize that there was a pressing call for such a contrivance as he had in mind. The case was on in which Jacobson sued the lumber company for $10,000 for injuries sustained by one of his arms coming in contact with the saw of a lath machine. The device is in the form of a guard which protects the saw when not cutting laths. When in the act of cutting the teeth of the saw protrude through a narrow slit in the guard which is lowered over it. A machine, which is used to cut off the ends of laths, consists of a buck on which the laths to be cut are laid and two saws. This buck is held with a lock which is released by the foot, when it is wished to make the lath to come in contact with the saws. It was on this lock or catch that Jacobson is alleged to have tripped falling against the unprotected saw. By Mr. Holmwood's patent, the catch by which the buck is released is at the top of the machine instead of the bottom, and the saws are guarded on either side as described, so that it is impossible for the saw to be reached when the lock is released. These guards in no way interfere with the cutting of the laths. To operate

GAME IS UP IN THE AIR

Minneapolis Central Has Called Off the Duluth Football Contest.

Duluth Management Having Hard Time to Arrange Schedule.

And now the Minneapolis Central refuses to play the Duluth high school team at football. They say they cannot give the locals a date because their schedule is all framed up, and to try to pry one a date would mean that the entire list would have to be gone over. They say they are sorry, that they would like to play Duluth this season, but that at this time it seems impossible.

This, and more, was what the letter said, that was received this morning by Manager Phillips of the Central from the manager of the Minneapolis team.

In the first place, a game was arranged with the Minneapolis team some weeks in advance of the opening of the football practice season. Minneapolis a few weeks later wrote that the date was impossible and asked for the twenty-fourth of October. The Duluth schedule was changed about, and Manager Phillips wrote that the date was perfectly satisfactory to the Duluth boys.

Now Central comes back with the statement that they cannot play at all this season. It does seem queer that every other year or so the Minneapolis

BEVERIDGE FLAYS STANDPATTERS IN HIS OWN PARTY, AT FARGO, N. D.

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 2.—United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana addressed a Republican meeting here last night. In his speech he took a full and complete flaying of the standpatters, as follows: "The tariff is the most intricate, delicate, far-reaching of fiscal problems. The building of a tariff means the expert knowledge of every industry in the country and its relation to every other industry—a knowledge of the tariff systems of every other nation and of their relation to our own. It is impossible that a committee of congress, working for three or four months, can find out these necessary facts; more impossible and absurd that they can make the required classifications. And tariff classifications are as important as tariff duties themselves. America is the only modern nation in the world having no scientific classifications. A straight-out revenue tariff would not classify any article; the tariff we have does little better. "For example, we now classify buttons and stoves together; bullets and buggies; lanterns and automobiles; farm implements and gold boxes, carriages and dress trimmings, enameled portraits and railway cars. Because of this classification all must pay the same duty. Yet the standpatters in our own party insisted on keeping the tariff as it is, and they did not and will not study. Both are intolerable; both should be rejected. And that is what the Republican party asks you to do. Those who have fought this battle and will have won, ask for a modern tariff that gives no man advantage and all men justice; and that is all the average American asks or has a right to ask."

BUTTER IS STRONGER

In Price Only, However; Eggs Have an Advance.

Hogs Are Received in Greater Numbers, Declare the Packers.

The rise in butter has been the principal feature of the local produce market this week. There is no denying that butter is strong. This refers to its relative position in the market, and not to any of its inherent qualities. Butter has been rising at this time of the year. The advance is as inevitable as the falling of the leaves, after the first frost. With the advent of colder weather, the process of making butter is more expensive and why? Because the cows are bound to produce less milk, and the cost of maintaining her increases, and that there are other considerations which make it necessary for the butter-maker to increase his prices. Creamery prices are now wholesaling at 27 to 28 cents a pound, whereas a few days ago they were on the 25 to 26 cent basis. Tubs have advanced to 25 and 27 cents a pound. There is also a stronger tone to the egg market and the price has gone up a cent during the last week. They are quoted now at 21 cents a dozen. The colder weather responsive in a large measure, for the higher egg prices. Cheese is unchanged in price from a week ago. There has been both a rise and fall in the grape market this week. Concord grapes are higher. Their season is nearing a finish, the colder weather hastening the end of this week. Concord have gone up from 18 to 21 cents a basket. On the other hand, Tokay grapes are lower, whereas, last week they were to be had only at 12 cents a box, but now they are marked down to 11. California peaches are cheaper than they were. Last week they could not be had for less than $1.20 a box, but now they are marked down to $1. Cranberries have undergone a bulge. Receipts have been lighter than they were and prices have advanced a dollar, the berries being quoted today at $5.50 a barrel. The berries are still coming from a considerable distance, some of them hailing from Cape Cod and New Jersey. Otherwise the fruit market is steady and unchanged. In fact, there have been very few startling fluctuations in the market this week, despite the fact that it has turned cold after a long spell of warm weather. The advance in butter provided practically the only fireworks of the week. In the vegetable market, cabbages are cheaper. They have been on rather a high level and this week they settled back on a lower basis. They are quoted at $2 a crate. Potatoes are steady and unchanged. The ordinary white tubers are selling at 75 cents a bushel. Sweet potatoes are quoted at $1.50 a bushel. The market is well supplied with other staple vegetables and prices remain the same as last week.

The strength in the poultry market continues, a decline in the price of spring ducks being the only indication of an easing off, which has come to the notice of the trade. Spring ducks have been marked off from 13 and 20 cents a pound, to 16 cents. Other fowls are still perching high up.

The calm of the fish market has not been disturbed during the week. The demand has been fairly good but the supply has been ample to care for it without despoiling quotations. In the meat market, pork loins are off half a point. This decline is due to the fact that the packers are coming into the killing centers. During the rush of harvest days, the farmers are expected to ship the porkers to market, so engrossed were they in caring for the grain—but the packers declare they are now coming in greater numbers, which warrants the marking off of half a cent in prices. Veal is somewhat easier and the other meats are unchanged.

Saved His Boy's Life. "My 3-year-old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative, and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. GEORGE E. BARSTOW.

Albuquerque, N. M., Oct. 2.—The National Irrigation congress today elected President, George E. Barstow of Texas; vice president, H. D. Loveland of San Francisco; second vice president, L. D. O'Donald of Montana; secretary, B. A. Pierson of Arizona.

RAISE FREIGHT RATES TO AVOID BANKRUPTCY.

St. Louis, Oct. 2.—C. C. Halle, vice president and traffic manager of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway, testified before the interstate commerce commission here, that freight rates will be advanced on all lines in the territory of the Western trunk lines committee, and on all roads in the territory of the trans-Missouri committee. The former embraces Chicago and the section of the country between the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, and the latter embraces the country west of the Missouri river, as far as Utah. An increase in freight rates, said Halle, is imperative if the railroads are to escape bankruptcy. The amount of the approaching advance has not been settled, though a general understanding seems to be that it will not exceed 10 per cent. When the advance is to become effective was not brought out.

A WARM MONTH.

Average Temperature During September Was Higher Than Usual.

September was warmer than the average, according to the monthly report of Forecaster Richardson of the local weather bureau. The mean temperature for the month was 60 degrees, above zero, where the average for the past thirty-eight years has been 56.7 degrees. The sudden weather changes Duluth is sometimes subjected to, were demonstrated on the twentieth of the month, when there was a change of 32 degrees in the temperature between daylight and dark. The precipitation during September amounted to 3.55, while the average for September in the past has been 3.75 inches. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the northeast, and the maximum velocity was forty-nine miles an hour on Sept. 3.

There were seven clear days during the month; seventeen partly cloudy and six cloudy.

He Waited Too Long. St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Although he claims he has absolute proof that several illegal votes were cast at Holding and Avon during the recent primary election, N. J. Resler of St. Wendel, the defeated candidate for county commissioner in the Second district, is unable to secure any redress. It appears that the defeated candidate waited too long before he made complaint.

MORE PASSENGERS, BUT LESS REVENUE

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—The twenty-seventh annual report of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad shows a decrease in the total operating revenue for the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1908, of $1,062,492.72, as compared with the previous year. The freight revenue decreased $2,244,277, while all the other revenue for transportation showed an increase of $76,743.40. The report shows an increase of 18.19 per cent in the number of passengers carried, while the passenger revenue decreased 1.40 per cent.

BUYS CHEAP FIBER.

One Reason State Can Make Twine So Cheaply.

Stillwater, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—One reason the state prison is able to make the best binder twine in the country and supply it to farmers of Minnesota at lower rates than other manufacturers, is because Warden Wolfers buys fiber in the markets of the world at the lowest possible prices, affording the assurance that the twine will be paid promptly and at discount rates on account of short time. This fact was illustrated by an incident at the prison yesterday.

J. C. Burns, senior member of the big fiber establishment of Auckland, New Zealand, and residing in that city, was a caller upon the warden. He came to make a personal effort to sell fiber and incidentally to learn why he had not sold more fiber to the prison the past season as his firm had in former years.

Warden Wolfers convinced him that price as well as quality cuts a figure. For the past season fiber has been secured for the prison at prices lower than the Burns firm had offered and that, too, with a saving in freight, as the material could be secured cheaper in this country than abroad. For the ensuing season the warden stated that prices are an important consideration.

Foraker, in Fresh Outburst, Reminds Accusers Courts Are Open.

"Let Somebody Proceed Against Me," the Senator Says.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 2.—In a fresh public statement, U. S. Senator Foraker, says, in part: "The questions in this whole matter (the Hearst charges), in which the public is concerned, are:

"Whether I was employed, which was never conceded or denied, and,

"The character of that employment—whether it had any relation to my duties as senator, or influenced me in any manner in regard thereto.

"These points I have answered fully in my former published statements. I have not until now spoken of the compensation I received, because if the employment was improper, it would be no defense to show that it was a small sum, but if on the other hand, the employment was proper, the compensation concerned only the company and myself—nobody else. If my former statements are true, as I know them to be, the employment was entirely proper and legitimate, and therefore, the question of compensation is one I do not feel called upon to discuss with Mr. Hearst.

"All lawyers understand that when professional services have been rendered and have been paid for, all obligation ceases on both sides, and no lawyer is bound by any of the previous employment to show any favor at any subsequent time as attorney, as public official or otherwise, to any one who may have been his client.

"If I committed any offense against the law, let somebody specifically point it out and proceed against me. The courts are open, and, although they have been criticized, yet they have been confident in them and will accept and be satisfied with their judgments. If there be any just basis for the reckless, wholesale defamation and attempted assassination of character, let it take some tangible, open and fair form of procedure, where all interested can appear and be fully heard."

YOUNG "PIRATES"
COME TO GRIEF

Run Into Port for Supplies and Are at Once Arrested.

Munising, Mich., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Because they ventured into the harbor at Michipicoten, Ont., after sailing across Lake Superior in a small boat, Fred Paine and Dennis Masse, the "pirates" of Grand Marais, have come to grief.

Their heads turned as a result of reading dime novels, it is said, the youths are credited with a series of exploits of such boldness as to create a considerable furor in the region which was the scene of their operations. Looting a general store of goods and sailing away with their plunder in a stolen launch, only to return the following night and make an exchange of boats, while the lake was being secured by pursuing craft, and then to set out for the Canadian shore and reach it without detection or mishap, is a summary of the deeds charged to the boys, and which have caused a great sensation in the Alger county town.

Had the youthful "pirates" not been too bold and run into Michipicoten, they would doubtless have escaped arrest for a long time to come. Their supplies of provisions, munitions and clothing, along with a paraphernalia of various kind, were sufficient for the maintenance of the boys for a year or more. One youth is aged 16 and his companion is only 14 years old. What is to be done with them has not yet been ascertained.

In Midst of Revival, Husband Calls Evangelist to Account.

Pana, Ill., Oct. 2.—"Come unto me all you who are weary and heavy laden, and I will rest you," was the cry of the Rev. Albert Carl Atherton of St. Louis stopped in the midst of his dramatic exhortation at the revival tent last night with his familiar Biblical quotation.

A man in a back seat had arisen and started down the aisle.

"I have something to say," he said.

"My name is Frank Lemon and my home is in St. Louis. I have a wife and three children. She is here" (pointing to the platform) "and her place is in St. Louis."

"This man, this evangelist, with his cant and his talk of saving souls, has left home and wife to assist this man in what she calls his 'holy mission'."

"I have asked her to return and she has refused."

"I ask her again before all you people to return to me."

The woman designated as Mrs. Lemon, visibly embarrassed, slowly shook her head.

"You wrong me," she said. "My place is here."

"Then I wish to say," shouted Lemon, "that this man is an impostor, that he has lured my wife from home."

"Sir, you are going too far," declared the Rev. Mr. Atherton. "You are doing both yourself and your wife wrong by putting us in a false light."

A policeman interfered at this point and led Lemon from the tent.

CONDUCTOR PENSIONED.

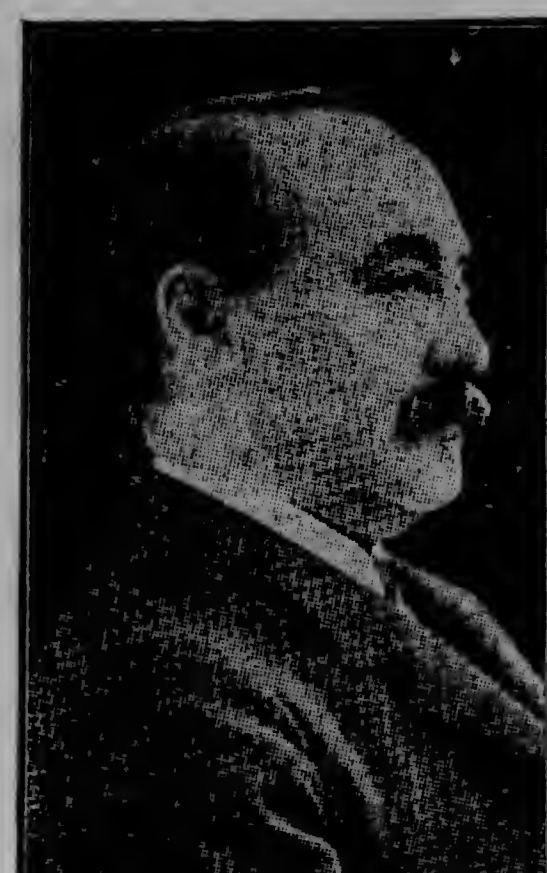

Paine Had Charge of Train Which Kate Shelley Saved.

Marshalltown, Iowa, Oct. 2.—Conductor "Fred" Paine, for fifty years a Chicago & Northwestern conductor, has been pensioned by the company.

Paine began railroading in 1860, and was in charge of the train which, in 1883, was saved from going into a creek near Moline by Kate Shelley, known as the Iowa heroine. Miss Shelley, who is now aged of the company at Moline, said that the bridge had been washed away. Crawling on her hands and knees in the dark for over a mile, she reached the station just as Paine was giving the signal to start his train.

BIG SHAKE-UP IN LAND OFFICES

President Appoints Bartlett of Buffalo Register at Cass Lake.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The president has appointed Lester Bartlett of Buffalo, Minn., as register of the land office at Cass Lake, to succeed Egbert S. Oakley, who resigned to become assistant United States attorney in place of Paul Ewert, late candidate for congress in the second district.

Mr. Bartlett will begin his duties as soon as his bond is filed.

It has developed that the administration is rigidly applying its rule of requiring men in government service to resign their positions if they want to run for elective offices.

Within the past few weeks resignations of not only Messrs. McGueary and Ewert in Minnesota, but also of several officers in the land office have been given a "hunch" to resign as a result of their nomination for national and state offices.

These include Mr. Wilson, register at Bozeman, Mont., who is running for a state judgeship; Elmer E. Eddy, register at Billings, Mont., who is running for another state office; Thomas R. Hammer, register at Blackfoot, Ida., nominated for congress, and Harry E. Meyers, register at Little Rock, Ark., also nominated for congress.

The successor of none of these men has been selected and Secretary Garfield has announced a new policy in making his selections.

He will insist that men appointed registers of land offices shall have legal qualifications and receivers shall have knowledge of accounts. They must pass on legal questions relating to land entries and the latter keep accounts in their respective offices, and the secretary believes both should be technically qualified for these positions.

Success of Beltrami County Fair Prompts That Desire.

Beltrami, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Owing to the fact that the recent fair of the Beltrami County Agricultural association was a splendid success, there is a unanimous demand for the re-election of W. B. Mackenzie to the office of secretary for next year.

Mr. Mackenzie financed the fair and arranged the program for a farmers' fair, and despite the fact that the weather, on two of the days was very disagreeable, he pulled the association through in fine shape. The board of directors will hold a meeting in a few days, when Mr. Mackenzie will be asked to again serve as secretary.

Fearing He Might Hurt Himself, Unfortunate Appeals to Court.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—Erlick Nelson of Nelson Park went voluntarily before Judge of Probate Holm Monday, and asked to be committed to the insane hospital at Eveus Falls.

The unfortunate man is 33 years of age and single. Although he appears to be very rational, yet he said he has felt mental trouble coming on him for years and that he has spells when his mind gives way. At such times he is afraid that he may do himself bodily harm and he thought it the safest thing that the authorities take him in hand before any trouble is accomplished.

MANY MEN WORKING ON GREENSBURG EXTENSION.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—A large number of railway laborers are at work on the extension of the Greenburg line of the Great Northern railway north to Lake of the Woods.

Great quantities of rails and ties are passing through this city daily for the line. That the road will be one of the best branch lines on the Great Northern system there is no doubt, for it passes through one of the richest and best settled portions of the Red River valley.

Tailored Suits for Women

$25, $29.50, $35.00, $39.50, $45.00

Just now, it is a question of "how soon can I get my suit."

The past few days has witnessed an inpouring of suit buyers that has kept us on the jump. Women are talking about the superiority of the S. & B. Suits, in a way that demonstrates where the satisfactory styles are to be found.

It is not because of cheap prices or worthless styles, but the ever-prevailing opinion among women who know—if you want the correct fashions, the dependable qualities, go to "Silberstein's."

Take, for instance, the Suits we are offering at $25.00, we mention but one convincing feature which has decided many women, and that is the quality of the materials—leaving out the other advantages of the best tailoring, the fit and finish, etc., this one fact stands pre-eminent when comparisons are made. At $29.50 and $35.00, there is a greater variety of the better class of Suits gathered here than you'll find in any other city in this section of the Northwest.

Is it a plainly tailored suit of serge, chevron, diagonal or broadcloth? the showing is ample—or a richly trimmed suit in some handsome imported novelty weave?—you'll find it here. At $39.50 and $45.00 there are exclusive lines that are unsurpassed in style, originality and perfection of fabric and materials. By all means, be satisfied with nothing short of the perfection combined with the S. & B. label.

Beautiful Fall Coats

$15.00, $19.50, $25.00, $29.50, $35

We have just received a large number of advanced styles in Winter Coats, garments designed specially for the rigorous climate of Duluth. We've never shown such becoming styles, such perfectly tailored creations—custom tailored garments, every one. Coats that adjust themselves to your figure when the proper size is tried on. Another strong feature with particular women is the lining. Our Coats are lined with guaranteed materials, good for two seasons of wear. There's no disappointment after a few months' wear. But, have a look at these new arrivals tomorrow! We have a right good Tailored Coat at $15.00, a still better one at $19.50, and at $25.00 the lines are such as will please the most exacting woman. At $29.50 and $35.00, we have the more elaborate creations. Coats that will overmatch the output of those who charge twice the price to make them. See for yourself, comparison best tells the story.

Fall Hats of Character

Larger hats are growing in popularity, and the S. & B. Co. are following closely in the lead of fashion creators. Have you looked thru our splendid showing of Large Hats very recently? If not, make it a point to do so tomorrow, whether you intend buying or no. That we're proud of the display goes without saying, we desire your opinion, your approval. And the prices are reasonably low, quality and style considered. $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50 will purchase a hat that will meet your requirement in style and appearance.

Farmer Takes Gun From Son and is Wounded in Hand.

St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Barthelmy, a Luxemburg farmer, accidentally shot himself through the hand with a 44 Colt revolver Tuesday. The bullet tore a large hole in his hand. Mr. Barthelmy took the cartridges out of the gun a few days ago and laid them on a shelf. A young son secured the weapon, and after filling it with cartridges, began playing with the firearm. The father came in and took the gun away from the lad. Not knowing that it was loaded, he began working the trigger. As a result he was shot through the hand.

It also developed that Nelson was a very heavy drinker, and a constant drinker, and Dr. Alexander explains that the symptoms of chronic alcoholism sometimes resemble those caused by strychnine poisoning, but after talking with the members of the family and with the neighbors thereabouts, he arrived at, namely, that Mr. Nelson had died of chronic alcoholism. This was Dr. Alexander's opinion, and Coroner Vincent could find nothing which would cause him to believe that an inquest and autopsy were necessary.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT.

Rev. James Sankar Will Make His Headquarters in Duluth.

Rev. James Sankar, the new district superintendent of the Red River Valley district of the Norwegian-Danish Methodist Episcopal church, will arrive in Duluth this evening and will make his headquarters here during his superintendency. He will reside at 125 Twenty-eighth avenue west.

Rev. Sankar is an able speaker, an excellent administrator and is well adapted for his work in the district, which is a very broad one, taking in parts of North and South Dakota, Minnesota, and part of Wisconsin.

He came to this country when a boy with his parents. He taught school for several years in Illinois, and later when he had graduated from Northwestern university, he went to Norway, where he served as pastor in a Methodist church. For six years he was superintendent of the theological seminary at Christiania. In 1889, he returned to America and was appointed pastor of the First Norwegian church in Chicago. He was appointed district superintendent of the Minneapolis district in 1905, which office he held until this year, when his term expired. He then was offered the superintendency of this district, which had been offered to and declined by Rev. H. K. Madsen of Duluth. Rev. Sankar accepted the position and will arrive here this evening to take up his new duties. He will preach at the First Norwegian church, corner of Twenty-fourth and Third streets, on Sunday Oct. 5, at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 7:45 o'clock in the evening.

Farwell Reception.

Rev. H. K. Madsen, who retired as superintendent of this district of the Norwegian-Danish conference, was given a farwell reception at the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church last evening.

Rev. H. K. Madsen and a number of others gave talks and Mr. Madsen expressed his regret at leaving Duluth. He goes to Racine.

West End Shortfalls.

W. N. Berg is at Foreston, Minn., where he was called by the death of his brother, Peter Berg. The funeral was held in that place yesterday.

Rev. H. K. Madsen is planning to have a number of prominent Duluthians deliver lectures on different subjects at the midweek meetings in the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, corner of Twenty-fourth and Third streets, after spending several days in the West end, on business.

A meeting of the West end district of the Duluth Sunday school association was held last evening in the Central Baptist church. Plans were made to hold classes for the teachers, who are to brush up on their knowledge of the Bible and its teachings and on methods for training the young mind. CHANLER SERVES NOTICE THAT NO BOSSES SHALL RULE HIM

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 2.—In accepting, at Rokeby, the ancestral Chanler estate, twenty miles from here, the nomination of the Democratic party for governor, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, present lieutenant governor of the state, caused a stir among his hearers by promising his speech with a statement to the effect that State Chairman William J. Connors had "betrayed" him. He "betrayed" him in an interview Wednesday, to dictate what the policy of the Democratic party in the coming campaign in New York should be, and he emphasized further along in his speech the statement that "I free from all hampering obligations of every kind. I shall know no master but the people's will and the people's interest."

Chairman Connors sat just behind Mr. Chanler during the speech. With Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall and other representatives of the New York city and Brooklyn Democratic organizations, he arrived just before the exercises of notifying all the nominees of the Rochester convention's action, which they had taken immediately after their conclusion. There was no consultation of these leaders with Mr. Chanler.

Women's Fall Suits—Captivating Styles That Will Attract Immediate Attention

During the Opening Week, we have shown scores of elaborate tailored suits and gowns as ornate and beautiful as the art of the modiste ever created. And the great variety assures a satisfactory comingness to individual requirements.

But we took great pride in our remarkable display of moderate-price suits, we purchased especially. All the conspicuous details of a conspicuous mode have been modified to meet the idea of that vast majority—the women of refined taste and limited means.

Perhaps no better illustration or more convincing demonstration can be given of the attractive values in popular priced suits than our showing at $25. The continued activity in these suits brings in new arrivals daily—hardly a day passes but what some new style is introduced.

For tomorrow's selling in suits at $25.00 we are showing several very attractive models in 36 and 40-inch coats in tight and half-fitted styles, with gored and flare skirts. The materials are broadcloths, serges, worsteds and fancy cloths. All are beautifully tailored and are much in common with high class models. Suits worth up to $32.50. EXPOSURES MAY RESULT

Trial of Superior Man May Show Up White Slave Traffic.

Claimed That Duluth and Superior Are Recruiting Grounds.

There is a likelihood that some of the methods employed by the traders in young women at the Head of the Lakes will be exposed in the coming trial of Clyde Sawyer of Superior, who is charged with inducing Mamie Reid, 14 years old, by misrepresentation, to leave her home in Superior for an evil resort at Mountain Iron. It is claimed that Duluth and Superior are recruiting stations for the resorts on the ranges. Sawyer is held under bonds of $2,000 for the present term of court, having waived examination.

M. J. Reid, the father of the girl, has sworn to the complaint against Sawyer, and Mamie Adams, proprietress of an alleged resort at Mountain Iron, who is charged with the same offense. The Adams woman, at the request of the Superior police, has been arrested by the police of Eveleth, and will be brought to Superior for trial, should the entire reputation papers.

The Reid girl, who is detained at the Central police station, tells a story of how she was lured by Sawyer and the Adams woman, though she professes to be sorry for the former. She says that he introduced her to Mamie Adams, who claimed to be looking for girls to work at good wages for her, in a hotel. The girl went with the woman, and spent the night in a hotel at Duluth, where they met two other girls, who were to go to Mountain Iron with them to work. At the hotel, she claims that the Adams woman took her watch from her so that she would not change her mind and return home. On the train in the morning, on the way to the range town, the woman explained to the three girls that she conducted a boarding house, and that she paid good wages to her employees.

It was not long after their arrival at Mountain Iron that the girls discovered what kind of a boarding house they had been taken to. The other two girls stayed but two days, and ran away at the first opportunity they had. Mamie Reid was not able to go with them, having no money. Later she claims she raised $5 on her watch and was about to make her escape when the police came and took her away. She had been an inmate of the place less than a week.

Sawyer denies that he knew of the whereabouts of the girl after she left Superior, but the police claim they have information that he visited her after she had been placed in the resort at Mountain Iron. He appeared in court yesterday without counsel and did not have anything to say, other than to ask to be bound over to higher court. Afterwards he went to Attorney Cooper, and they held a short conference.

It is alleged by the police that the Adams woman and Sawyer are old acquaintances and that Sawyer knew for what purpose she was hiring girls when she came to Superior.

NEIGHBORS SAY RUSDAHL IS SANE

Claim He is the Victim of a Piece of Spite Work.

Charging that Ole Rusdahl, who has been committed to St. Luke's hospital to await examination as to his sanity, is the victim of a designing relative, the town board of the Township of Normanna has submitted a lengthy and vigorous protest to Judge J. B. Middlecott of the probate court. The members of the board deny the charge that Rusdahl has attempted to kill himself and his six children and ask that he be returned to his home at Nea, as he is harmless.

The communication gives what are purported to be the true facts in regard to Rusdahl's troubles. According to the statements made Rusdahl worked at getting out pulpwood and ties last winter and on account of an early spring was subjected to considerable worry and financial loss. Then his wife took sick and died in the spring and that added to the mental strain on him. He had prepared for the funeral, the members of the board say, when Andrew L. Hoverson of Duluth, a relative of the dead woman, went to Nea, took the body and brought it to Duluth, forcing Rusdahl to ride on top of the "dead wagon," which happened to be a sleigh at that time. Rusdahl was nearly frozen on account of the ride, they say. Hoverson attended to all of the funeral arrangements and the people of Nea thought he would also stand the expense, but some time afterwards Rusdahl is said to have received a bill for the entire amount, this adding to his worries by the necessity of raising the money.

Hoverson has made the complaint against Rusdahl and the people of Nea claim it is merely a piece of spite work. They say that Rusdahl is merely sick and when he recovers, three of his six children, who are unable to care for themselves, need his care.

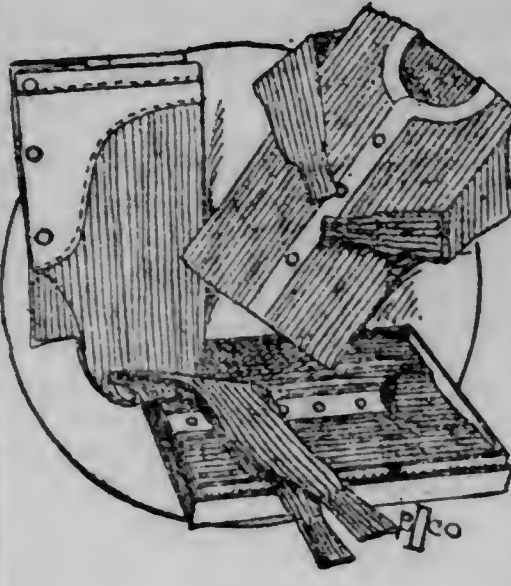

Dr. Eklund, who is attending Rusdahl at the St. Luke's hospital, says the man will be well in a few days, when he will be given another examination. If he proves rational and harmless, he will probably be returned to his home.

In the Ladies' Suit Department.

We have specialized for Saturday's selling three lots of ladies' Tailored Suits—at $17.50, $25.00 and $29.50—the suits in each lot will be found to be better values than are shown anywhere else in Duluth. Of course, there's a reason! We don't get our business in doubled prices at the season's commencement, and depend on 1/4 or 1/2 prices to clean up the balance of the stock at the season's end. Our goods are marked RIGHT—right from the start. Come in and look at these tomorrow. They are convincing arguments.

At $17.50 Our assortment of ladies' new Fall style Suits is especially large. The jackets are mostly of the popular semi-fitted model 36-inch length—trimmed neatly with buttons and lined throughout with satin. Skirts are in the new circular gored style—trimmed with a deep fold of self cloth—well tailored and finished—materials are serges and broadcloths, and they come in shades of brown, blue, black and fancy stripes.

At $25.00 We take particular pride in our suits at this price, and have endeavored to make this line so much superior to suits shown elsewhere at the same price that competition would be impossible. You can see for yourself how well we have succeeded. There are suits in the fitted and semi-fitted styles; coats in 34 and 36-inch lengths, lined with silks and satins—materials are Broadcloths, Serges, Herringbones, Cheyrons and Worsteds, in either solid colors or fancy stripes—both plain tailored styles and the braid and satin edged and trimmed models. They are absolutely unmatched at the price asked—$25.00.

At $29.50 Our Suits will more than compare favorably with suits shown elsewhere up to $35.00. Many of these garments show the Directorate tendencies—large lapels, slashed coats, satin and silk braid bindings and trimmings, etc.—others again are plainly and perfectly tailored. The materials used are fine Broadcloths, Serges and imported Worsteds. In all the season's new popular shades, as well as the staple colors—in a word, suits of quality, at $29.50.

A Skirt Special at $4.98

For Saturday we are specializing fine Skirts of all-wool Panama. They are of the new full pleated model—trimmed with buttons and three bands of silk—perfect fitting garments—well tailored and finished. They are really $6.00 values, for $4.98.

No Cases of the Disease
Now Exist in City.

Other Contagious Diseases Are Now Well
in Hand.

For the first time in nearly two years, Duluth is entirely free from smallpox. There is not a single patient at the pest house, and there are no cases under quarantine in the city proper.

The disease has been slowly losing ground for several weeks and during the month of September there were only three cases reported to the health department. These were taken care of, and the afflicted ones have been discharged as cured.

Other contagious diseases are also pretty well in hand in Duluth. There were more diphtheria cases than any other contagious disease during the month of September. In all 101 cases of this disease were reported and taken care of by the health department. There were only five scarlet fever cases during the month, according to the monthly report of Health Commissioner Patton.

EXPULSION BECAUSE SHE WENT RIDING

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 2.—It being the twenty-fourth anniversary of his marriage, W. J. Bryan yesterday gave over much of his time to a celebration of the event. It is not generally known, and the fact has never been published before, that Mrs. William Jennings Bryan—before she became Mrs. Bryan—was once expelled from school on account of taking a carriage ride with Mr. Bryan.

Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal church

at Brockton, Mass., accompanied them on that memorable ride. The future Mrs. Bryan was then attending Jacksonville Presbyterian academy in Illinois. Bryan and Wadsworth were students at Illinois college in Jacksonville.

The academy was a very strict institution, and the girls were not allowed to associate with the boys. A meeting was arranged, however, and the drive was taken, and she who afterward became Mrs. Bryan was expelled from school. She was later reinstated and became a member of her class as Mr. Bryan did of his. They later became engaged.

LYCEUM—Robert Mantell in "Richard III."

"OTHELLO."

Larger Audience Hears Mantell in Shakespeare's Famous Tragedy.

With a substantial increase in patronage to encourage his art, Robert Mantell gave a splendid interpretation of Othello at the Lyceum last night. His Moor was a literal reproduction of Shakespeare's lines. Othello was as black in body as the Bird of Avon painted him, as black and as white in soul as the lines and the necessity for changing passions called for. To a beautiful, young Desdemona loving the Moor is incredulous, yet there is nothing offensive in that love as portrayed by Mr. Mantell and his company. Shakespeare's ideas are carried out with absolute fidelity to every detail, yet with a delicacy that makes the audience forget the incongruity of the love in interest in the action of the play.

Mr. Mantell and his company, as in every play they have produced this week, showed a proper conception of the lines. There were few slips in the lines, none in the action, and the play was made to move more smoothly than any the company had previously done. The dragging scenes, with which Shakespeare's plays are replete, were few in Othello, which is a relief to a modern audience, accustomed to a celerity of action on the stage.

Fritz Lieber's Iago was also a conscientious effort. His playing upon Othello's jealousy alone and, though he stumbled over his lines at one or two points, the better passages were perfect and received proper appreciation from the audience.

File Election Expenses.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 2.—Attorney General Gilbert has ruled, in answer to an inquiry by Senator Isaac Stephenson, that candidates for the nomination or election as United States senators are not required to file statements of campaign expenses until after the election by the legislature in January. It is expected that some of the candidates for the United States senate will not file their statements until after election by the legislature in January.

Here's Luck for You!

Another big purchase. New York maker's surplus suits. Good conservative styles, choice cloths, on sale at $18.50, tomorrow, at Gray-Tallant Co.

There was little to enliven the proceedings this morning in Judge Engle's court, where the suit of the Butte & Superior Copper company against John McAlpine for $2,000 on a promissory note is being heard. Mr. Richards, for the defense, occupied the entire session in introducing options covering the properties acquired by the Butte & Superior company, each option being read in its entirety to the jury. D. J.

Jenkins, secretary of the company, continued on the stand, identifying the different papers introduced.

The attorneys had a rather impassioned argument over the question of introducing in evidence a copy of a memorandum of agreement between Amasa Pease and John E. Tracey, as trustees, the original of which could not be produced by the plaintiff. Mr. Richards contended that since the original could not be produced, he had a right to introduce a copy, but the plaintiff fought the motion on the contention that there was no evidence to show that an original had ever been signed by the parties purporting to have made the agreement. Judge Engle took the matter under advisement.

The trial is expected to drag out the greater part of next week. Witnesses for the defense have been brought from Butte, Mont., and will testify in regard to conditions on the property. The rebuttal of the plaintiff is expected to be long drawn out, also, as the case of the plaintiff was presented with but one witness, and an effort will doubtless be made to disprove the claims of representation made by the defendant.

A. M. Chisholm, one of the men who originally conceived the idea of forming the Butte & Superior Copper company, and one of the directors elected Jan. 3, 1907, was called to the stand, yesterday afternoon. He gave some facts in regard to the early history of the organization, but his memory was rather hazy.

He said he visited Butte in September of 1907, prior to the organization of the company, and put up some money, which he supposed went to fee owners of the properties the company desired to secure. He said he later subscribed for 15,000 shares in the

RHEUMATISM DRIVEN FROM THE BLOOD

A Remedy Which Assists Nature Produces a Cure Which is Permanent as This Case Proves.

Every sufferer from rheumatism wants to be cured and to stay cured. The prospect of the return of the same old rheumatism every year is not attractive to anybody who has gone through one siege. Most treatments aim simply to "keep down" the rheumatic poisons in the blood. The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has proved by hundreds of cures that it builds up the blood to a point that enables it to cast out these poisons through the regular channels of excretion, the bowels, kidneys and the skin. When this is done the rheumatism is permanently cured and as long as the blood is kept pure and rich the patient will be immune from attacks of rheumatism.

Mrs. W. H. Amburge is the wife of a prosperous farmer living on R. F. D. No. 2, Lancaster, N. H., and about four miles from that city. She owes her recovery from rheumatism to this treatment and her statement should interest every sufferer.

"I have not heard what brought on the rheumatism," she says, "but I suffered agonies from it for about two years and for five months of that time my condition was very serious. I had severe pains through my hips, in my limbs and in the small of my back so that I was unable to stand up straight. I felt weak and despondent and lost in weight."

"Two Lancaster doctors treated me but I didn't get any better and as I had seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills mentioned in my home newspaper, I stopped using all other medicines and began taking them. After I had taken the first box I felt that they were benefiting me and after a few more boxes had been used I was entirely free from the rheumatism. This was two years ago and I have had no return of the trouble. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to my friends and know of one in which they brought great benefit."

With the fact in mind that the rheumatism is in the blood, it will readily be seen how useless it is to try to cure it by rubbing liniments on the skin. External applications may give temporary relief from pain, but to cure rheumatism you must treat it through the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured more cases of rheumatism than any other prescription and no sufferer should allow any prejudice to stand in the way of giving these pills a trial.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be mailed, postpaid, on receipt of ten cents. Six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

"IN WYOMING" BIG SUCCESS.

Duluth's Own Show is Greeted by Full Houses.

"In Wyoming," the western play put on the road by H. E. Pierce & Co. of Duluth, is meeting with even better success than its promoters expected. It will be back in its home town, at the Lyceum, next Monday evening, with a record of full houses all along the line, and local actors are being urged to give it the reception it deserves.

Duluthians take a friendly interest in the production, for not only is it backed by Duluth capital, but it was written by Willard Mack of the Mack-Leone company, who has secured wide popularity at the head of the Lakes.

Frank Patton is the only member of the Mack-Leone company in the cast of "In Wyoming," as staged under the present management. All the actors were brought here from the East, and were picked because of particular qualifications for the parts they are now playing. So very encouraging is the reception accorded the play, that the management is contemplating sending it west next season.

Man Elected Bishop.

A HARD CASE

Imagine a man so low with kidney disease that he had to sit up at night and day. He even had to sleep sitting up, being unable to lay in his bed or stand on his feet. Yet such was the final condition of W. R. Marquis, the well-known business man of Bartow, Fla.

He went to a sanitarium in Memphis, where he was attended by three physicians. They gave up the case and advised that he go home.

On his return he heard of and sent for the new, efficient treatment. The fourth week the heart and dropsy began to mend, and the fourth month he was walking all over the town without cane or crutches, and he permits this reference.

No matter what kidney disease is called—whether kidney trouble, Nephritis or Bright's disease—it is inflammation of the kidneys, and as the old-time futile kidney medicines are kidney excitants, you can see why they failed in his case as they have in yours.

Fulton's Renal Compound is the first successful renal emollient thus reducing Renal inflammation, and kidney disease is now curable for the first time. Even serious supposed incurable forms yield as above. Literature mailed free. John J. Fulton Co., Oakland, Cal.

IN DEFENSE OF HASKELL

Oklahoma Man Tells Facts About the Standard Oil Case.

Says Attorney General West Was Playing to the Galleries.

The following letter is from M. C. French, formerly of Superior, who is now secretary of the chamber of commerce at Okmulgee, Ok., and is a member of the Mid-Continent Oil Producers' association.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Governor Haskell would have been mobbed by a justly irate people if he had not acted as he did in the Standard Oil case in Oklahoma, and every commercial organization of the north half of Eastern Oklahoma petitioned and prayed him to do just what he actually accomplished, and that was to allow the Standard to proceed under its charter granted by the secretary of the interior, to build pipe lines in Oklahoma to take care of the oil production which had grown to such colossal proportions that more pipe lines were needed to take care of it. Attorney General West was playing to the galleries when he attempted to stop the Standard from building additional pipe lines, and the supreme court of the state sustained Governor Haskell in his contention, and the president, who has done many things to commend him, either grossly and knowingly misrepresented the facts in his letter, charging Haskell with being a tool of the Standard, or he used the dignity and prestige of his position in a very careless manner. If the charges made by Hearst and the president are all on a par with the one charging Haskell with being a tool of the Standard in Oklahoma, the influence of either gentleman in the campaign from now on ought not to be very great with fair-minded people.

Only Did His Duty.

It is not my intention to point out in this letter any violations of ethics or the prostitution of the high office of president, but to say to you that Governor Haskell only did his duty for which he is entitled to neither praise nor censure. The Mid-Continent Oil Producers' association, of which I am a member, and this association represents upward of $120,000,000 invested in developing this great industry, and a valuation of nearly one billion dollars' worth of oil properties in the Southwest. The oil men were suffering losses every day the matter was held up in the courts, and it meant bankruptcy for hundreds of them and it affected every wage earner, every farmer in this section, and every business man, to greater or less degree. Every commercial organization of this section of Oklahoma was aroused at the time, and every means was employed to bring relief to the oil situation. It was a fight-or-die proposition with us, and Governor Haskell stood by us, and the attack on him was a cowardly one and is condemned by every fair-minded and right-thinking man in the oil sections of Oklahoma, which cover better than one-third of the entire state. The Standard Oil Company, which has been the cause of the supreme court, which sustained the governor, the Standard Oil Company, has expended over $10,000,000 to build extensions to all parts of the field, and also the oil men of Oklahoma will get a market for their oil.

Attitude Fair and Just.

The attitude of Governor Haskell toward the oil men has been preeminently fair and just, no more or no less, and since the oil men have been in the interior department in the handling of oil matters in that part of Oklahoma which were known as the Indian Territory and over which they had control. A senatorial committee sent to Oklahoma in 1906 to hear complaints and look into the conduct of Indian affairs and the leasing of oil lands for the wards of the government expressed a surprise that the oil men had come into the country to develop the oil industry so damnable were the oppressions put on oil operators by the rulings of the interior department and sustained by the president. Their policy was one of now-you-see-it and now-you-don't-see-it and the result was at all times tending in the direction of confiscation. If anyone ever played into the hands of the big capitalist in the oil business it has been the interior department. Ask any small oil operator what show he had here in leasing oil lands, except those which had been sold after restrictions had been removed to white men, and the small oil operator suffered and the Indian suffered by taking away that much competition for his lands. A white man's land would always bring twice as much in bonuses as the Indian's and the interior department was responsible for this condition.

Increased at President.

We act as law-abiding as any people, but I would not care to say what would happen if the president came into this section and made the statements he made through the newspapers with reference to Governor Haskell's action in the Standard matter, in allowing them to build pipe lines. It is sure that neither Hitchcock nor Garfield would come here after they made some of their odious rulings and from which they were forced to back water. When Garfield was appointed just prior to statehood, and when the campaign was on for statehood, he visited us and was very profuse in his promises of what he would do, and after election he outdid Hitchcock in the most outrageous rulings ever promulgated in any republic and on a par with some of those issued in Russia.

Bear in mind they are not sending Garfield or Hitchcock to Oklahoma to campaign, and I believe it wise if they want to maintain the semblance of Republican organization in Eastern Oklahoma they had better not send the Standard Oil Company to Oklahoma. The president's intention is to shake a red rag in front of a male bovine to bring up anything about the oil business. The president's intention is not a very agreeable subject to discuss in this neck-of-the-road.

The Imperial Universal Base Burner

The Finest Hard Coal Base Burner Made—It Has Over 300 More Square Inches of Radiating Surface
Than Any Other Base Burner

And the greater the source of radiation the greater the heating power of the stove. In the Universal, as in no other three-flue stove, the flues that remove the cold air from the floor are entirely surrounded by hot air flues—no outside cold air to work against the stove.

The cut illustrates the advantages and increased heating capacity of the flue construction in the Imperial Universal. The heat travels down the two descending flues around both sides of the bottom to the extreme front of same, then uniting and returning through the center bottom flue and up the ascending back flue, thus being equally distributed over the entire back and bottom and giving it more direct radiating surface than any other Base Burner.

The hot air circulating flues are between the descending and ascending back flues, and the heat passes over all four sides of same, which is a feature found only on the Imperial Universal, and greatly increases the hot air circulation, making it the best floor heater ever made.

Read what Mr. A. Asher of Proctor says regarding his Imperial Universal:

I have used the Imperial Universal Base Burner in my home now two seasons and I can highly recommend it to others. It is a fuel saver and a good heater and always looks nice. As for the nickel, I think it has no equal. It is easy to clean and never tarnishes. The Universal heater will pay for itself in a short time in fuel. Yours truly,

A. ASHER, Proctor, Minn.

Our guarantee back of every stove—You run absolutely no risk in buying a Universal.

Easy Terms of Payment on Any Universal You May Wish to Buy.

We will take back your old stove as part payment on any Universal you may wish to buy. The balance can be paid in small weekly or monthly sums, arranged to suit your convenience.

TAFT SAYS MINNESOTA IS HIS; BRYAN PUSHES PUBLICITY ISSUE

Omaha, Oct. 2.—"I am going to be elected." This statement by William H. Taft sums up in a word what the candidate thinks of the effect of his speech-making tour this far. The belief is based, Mr. Taft explained, on the manner of his reception in states thus far traversed, in which there was no real opposition, and it meant bankruptcy for hundreds of them and it affected every wage earner, every farmer in this section, and every business man, to greater or less degree. Every commercial organization of this section of Oklahoma was aroused at the time, and every means was employed to bring relief to the oil situation. PROSPECT NOT BRIGHT Light Demand for Railroad Ties Means Fewer Camps.

The Season Will be Active
With Pulpwood
Dealers.

There will be a big falling off in tie-cutting operations the coming winter, as compared with the season of 1907-1908. So many railroad ties were left over at the end of last season, and there was such a slump in prices towards the close of the winter, owing to the fact that railroad building and improvements came to a practical standstill, that the men in the tie business suffered losses, and will hardly feel like getting into the game again this winter. Thousands of ties were piled along the tracks last spring, for which there was no demand. Those that were taken by the railroads went at greatly reduced prices, and the hoped-for profits of the season went glimmering. Early in the fall of 1907 the prospects for a heavy demand for ties, with good prices prevailing, was so very bright, that more than the usual number of camps became engaged in the industry of cutting ties. This season, however, there is still enough of last year's supply left over to supply a good part of the demand. Pulpwood camps are already being established, and there will be no falling off in the number of men employed in this industry in the Duluth district. Be the times good or bad, the demand for pulpwood is always heavy, and high prices prevail. Paper is a necessity, and the mills must turn out a certain amount every year, no matter what the price of the raw product may be. Often pulpwood and ties are secured by the same camps, but this winter the attention of men in these camps will be confined almost entirely to pulpwood.

COMMENDS THE RELIEF WORK

No Room for Criticism
at Chisholm, Says
Mayor Haven.

Mayor Haven yesterday stated very emphatically that relief work in the Chisholm district had been carried on in a most commendable manner, and that there was no ground for criticism. The local advisory committee has the work directly in hand, and has investigated the needs of the people who were burned out, and none of those who lost homes or furniture have been overlooked in the plans for relief, said the mayor. The committee has made provision for the necessities of the sufferers in such a thorough manner that many of the families whose homes were destroyed will be more comfortably situated in the new buildings than they were in the old homes. The fact that some of the new houses which are to be built by the relief committee will not contain a large number of rooms shows excellent judgment on the part of the committee. There will be plenty of opportunity for persons desiring to do so, to enlarge the buildings later on.

OUTCOME IN DOUBT

Result of Presidential Election Cannot be Clearly Predicted.

Odds in Taft's Favor Still Slumping in
New York.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 2.—Fred Stark says in a New York special to the Enquirer: Any man who can foretell to a certainty the result of the national election, and is able to demonstrate with mathematical precision that his forecast is correct, should come to New York and make a fortune.

There is at least $1,000,000 in it for him, and he can find it all in this town, where splendid opulence brushes elbows with abject poverty, and general delirium reigns supreme over all. Six weeks ago, even more recently than that, in fact, it was the opinion of the average man whose judgment was worthy of respect that Mr. Taft's election was assured. Two weeks ago the odds in his favor took a slump, for reasons which have been cited from time to time in the Enquirer's dispatches, although he seemed to be safely in the lead.

Since then Mr. Bryan has been making steady advances, and if the two candidates are not running neck and neck—to borrow from the sporting man's vernacular—it looks very much like it.

It is easy to find Democrats who will loudly proclaim that Bryan is now as good as elected, but they would not bet their homes on it, which shows their lungs are stronger than their faith or convictions. Likewise there are Republicans who are absolutely sure Taft will win, but won't take a chance of losing their bank accounts on the proposition.

There are Democrats who conservatively assert that Bryan's prospects of reaching the White House are better than ever before during his long pursuit of the presidency. Mr. Taft's election, on the other hand, there are faithful Republicans who admit that there is ground for apprehension lest Taft may not reach the goal, after all, and this too, is a fact.

Utah for Neither.
But neither candidate has a clinch regardless of what his enthusiastic, though cautious, partisans may say. In other words, the outcome of the campaign is in doubt now. By the middle of October there may be a clarification of the political atmosphere sufficient to enable one to form a definite conclusion—one worth betting on rationally—but that condition does not exist today. No doubt some Democrats would prefer to have it said that Bryan is certain to win, as Republicans would like to hear it concerning their nominee. But both sides are better off if they understand the exact situation.

In summarizing the national situation early in the month I pointed out that one of the important problems confronting the Republicans was the determination of the precise attitude which labor would take in this campaign. This problem is yet unsolved, but Chairman Hitchcock and his aids are busily engaged upon it.

Trustworthy agents of the national committee are in the field and their preliminary reports are just beginning to come in. They are finding that the business and industrial depression, which forced many men into involuntary idleness, is a factor which must be reckoned with by the Republican managers.

Bryan has made an impression upon the minds of some of these men with his arguments that the Republicans party is responsible for their non-employment, and that if President Roosevelt could not prevent a panic Taft would be unable to do so. This impression, however, is not ineradicable, according to the canvassers, and henceforth much harder work will be done to offset the plausible contention of the Democratic nominee.

The Negro a Troubler.
Another important problem mentioned previously concerned the attitude of the negro voters. This, too, is receiving close attention, although the extent of their defection cannot be accurately gauged at this stage of the campaign. But enough information has been received to indicate that the vast majority of Northern negroes will vote for the party that gave them freedom and the ballot.

Scores of influential members of the race—preachers, lawyers and journalists—have volunteered their services to the Republican committee, and the democracy is going to be scourged by them during the month of October for seeking by wile and seduction to alienate the colored man from his once beloved vet nurse.

While the Republicans are fretting about empty dinner pails and Ethiopian faithfulness, the Democratic managers are still outgunning their nimble intellects over the attitude of business men who have been apprehensive lest the election of Bryan would unnecessarily delay the general resumption of industrial and commercial activity.

In spite of Bryan's repeated assurances that such a result need not be feared, doubt exists in the minds of many men who have a directing hand in keeping the wheels of industry moving. Nathan Straus, a New York dry goods merchant and philanthropist, whose brother, Oscar Straus, is a member of the president's cabinet, is protesting energetically among his associates and issuing pronouncements designed to mollify interests which heretofore have been unfriendly to and suspicious of the Nebraskan.

"New" Bryan Worries Radicals.
One of the amusing features of the situation—and there are many of them—is the alarm shown by some of Bryan's radical followers over his ingenious attempts to lure into his camp these very interests. They fear he has weakened his hold upon the radical elements of the West, and a troop of stump speakers are starting out to tell the faithful in the Mississippi valley that this "new Bryan" is a counterfeit, coined in the vicious imagination of unscrupulous Republicans.

Augustus Thomas, well known as a writer of plays, will make heavy drafts upon his dramatic powers in exposing it. He is going into Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and other places where the old Bryanism once had a firm foothold, and preach the doctrine of radicalism if somebody authorized to act for the Democratic chieftain does not lassoo him. Thomas, by the way, was one of the few men who urged Bryan to suggest government ownership of railroads when he returned to New York from his globe-trotting expedition of a couple of years ago.

It is the reluctance of certain business interests to rally to the support of Bryan and the Republican uncertainty in regard to the extent of labor disaffection and the negro revolt that contribute to the doubt now prevailing as to the result of the election. There are other causes, to be sure, such as internal dissension in the Republican ranks in several important states and the revelation of too intimate association of prominent men of both parties with corporations that for the time being do not bear the brand of rectitude and righteousness.

While the lull in the exchange of criticism is refreshing to many people who have deprecated its injection into the campaign, there is every indication that the spasm is not over. Bryan's spiteful allusion to the White House conference which led to E. H. Harriman raising $150,000 in October, 1904, and his naughty differentiation of his and the president's conception of political morality, doubtless will be followed by the uncoining of more vials of poison.

Parker First On Van.
Republicans evidently are preparing to see if a few drops on Judge Alton B. Parker, Mr. Roosevelt's opponent four years ago, will make him squirm.

The Judge continues to inject galvanizing volts into the charge he made near the close of his campaign, that the Republicans had leveled tribute against law-defying corporations, and as he stands upon the stage the picture of shocked virtue and repeats the horrifying story his audience sits entranced. Now, the Republicans, who cannot help being iconoclastic and irreverent under certain circumstances, are going to call upon him to explain how his campaign was financed. They are just mean enough to demand that he prove the money did not come from the coffers of Thomas Fortune Ryan, master merger of trusts, August Belmont, owner of such piles of cash one cannot see the top, and proprietor of race tracks, and other alleged malefactors of great wealth.

And if it didn't, why is he one of the attorneys of such plutocratic personages, etc.

The Republican party collected $1,900,000 in 1894, and spent all but $100,000 of it. It will be recalled that the Enquirer printed a recapitulation of the expenditures three years ago, and the writer is violating no confidence when he says he got his data from men who were officers of the committee at the time.

The Democrats, it is known, disbursed no less sum in the interest of Judge Parker, but those who handled it have always declined to produce any figures. It is but fair to state that, according to the present ultra-religious view of the matter, there was talent in some of the contributions to each party.

A philosopher once said that corporations have no souls. Perhaps he was right, for in the good old days preceding the hilarious moral awakening in the throes of which the country now finds itself, they were non-partisan in their political amours. The party that possessed the greatest charms from a business standpoint was fed on the hot birds and cold bottles.

REPUDIATES MCLAREY.

Republican Paper at St. James Supporting Congressman Hammond.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 1.—The Journal-Gazette, a Republican paper published at St. James, Watonwan county, has come out for W. S. Hammond, the Democratic candidate for congress in the Second district. St. James is Mr. Hammond's home.

The Gazette assigns as its reason for this, that it considers T. McLeary, the Republican nominee, an unsafe man to represent an agricultural district.

In a lengthy article the Gazette makes a bitter attack on the former second assistant postmaster general.

Cotton Men Want Legislation Against Unscientific Lumbering.

Saratoga, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Resolutions endorsing the work on the national commission for the conservation of natural resources were adopted at the final meeting of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, which has been holding its semi-annual meeting here.

The resolutions pledge the association to co-operate with the commission and recommended the passage of laws by the states that will "apply in connection of loss through fire, waste and unscientific lumbering, and encourage the planting of new trees necessary to replenish an increase in our wooded area."

TWINS THE REGULAR THING IN THIS FAMILY.

New York, Oct. 2.—Proud grandparents of Alvin, Jr., Mary, Richard and Robert Tuck do not regard the arrival of these four little folks in the family, up in Fort Washington Park, within eighteen months, as such a wonderful event, in light of the family history of both fathers and mother's side.

But twins in succession, all four of them strong and healthy, caused a stir in this country of "race suicide." When the parents are native American stock it sets one wondering.

N. Coe Stewart, father of Mrs. Alvin J. Tuck, says twins "run in the family," not only on her side of the house, but on that of the father. There has been, however, a generation on both sides that has not exhibited the trait.

Alvin J. Tuck, Jr., and his twin sister, Mary Stewart, are just eighteen months old. The second set of twins came three weeks ago, and were christened Richard and Robert. The mother, a handsome and perfectly proportioned woman, is the picture of health and gives all four babies her personal attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuck have been married about three years. Mr. Tuck is engaged in the real estate business.

LITTLE CHURCH AROUND CORNER

New York's Famous Edifice Will Have Celebration Sunday.

New York, Oct. 2.—Impressive services next Sunday will mark the sixtieth anniversary of the foundation of the church of the Transfiguration, popularly known as "The Little Church Around the Corner."

Eminent Protestant Episcopal clergymen will offer their congratulations and the sermon will be preached by the Very Rev. Dr. Wilfred L. Robbins, dean of the General Theological seminary, with the faculty of which the Rev. Dr.
George H. Houghton, the founder, was long connected.

Every communicant will be there and a host of visitors besides, for this is the house of worship which Bishop Greene described as "the homeliest of churches." It includes in its membership the wealthiest and the poorest, and all walks in life.

It was in the seventies that a distinguished actor, George Holland, died, and Joseph Jefferson, the actor, died, of a church then at Madison avenue and Twenty-eighth street, to see if he could make arrangements for the future there. The minister declined to read the service, and remarked that there was a little church "around the corner" that did that kind of thing.

"God bless the little church around the corner," said Mr. Jefferson, and that phrase gave the church its world-famous name.

Theatrical people have regarded it as their home ever since, and in the old days, Booth, the elder Wal-lack, Joseph Jefferson and other distinguished members of the theatrical profession attended. With its quiet plot of greenward, trees and shrubs, its gate and its fountain, it is one of the most picturesque spots in the city and is visited daily by thousands.

ABOUT TO ROB ROTHSCHILD?

London, Oct. 2.—A well dressed crowd filled Aylesbury petty sessions house the other day to see William Schombert, a short, smartly attired German of 54, with iron gray hair and mustache who was charged with carrying burglars' tools under circumstances which led to the suspicion that he was engaged in an attempt on Haiton house, Alfred de Rothschild's residence. Haiton house is filled with a priceless collection of art treasures including masterpieces by Gainsborough, Boucher, Turner, valuable antique examples of the goldenmith's art, ena-els, tapestries, books and silver plate.

Police Constable Frederick Walker said that about midnight, while patrolling the grounds of Haiton house, he noticed a movement of the shrubs at the luggage entrance of the mansion. Crouching among the bushes in the dark, he grasped Schombert and pulled him out onto the drive. At the same time another man dashed away in the darkness and escaped.

On his capture the officer found a bag containing a stock, an expensive center bit, a three-inch hole, several bits, a screwdriver, gouge, pliers, the pallet knife, brown paper and the sound of breaking glass, and a pair of gloves used to prevent fingerprints. He also found a return ticket for a railway ticket—Tring to Euston—and a bunch of skeleton keys.

Later silent shoes were noticed when he was taken to the station. In reply to the charge the prisoner said: "The tools did not belong to me, but to the other one, who has been a servant at the house." He was committed for trial.

NEW YORK ADMIRER IN DOUBT BY BISMARCK

Walter Wellman Analyzes Iron Chancellor Was a Great Lover of Shakespeare's Works.

Is Probably for Taft, But Movement Started to Establish an International Colonizing Agency.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Walter Wellman says in a New York special to the Record-Herald: With the election only five weeks away, no man can say with confidence what the Empire state is going to do, either as to the presidency or the governorship. The best that can be said at this writing is that the chances favor Taft carrying the state by a relatively small plurality and the defeat of Governor Hughes by a slender margin. But there are so many elements of uncertainty that it would, indeed, be a rash man, who at this time ventures any positive prediction one way or the other.

It is easy for the politicians to make claims. For instance, Chairman Connor of the Democratic state committee declares Bryan will carry the state by 100,000. The simple truth is that both men are guessing. They do not know.
The campaign in this state has only just begun.

There is a common belief throughout the country that New York is quite surely Republican. Probably most Republicans will be shocked to hear that there is any real doubt about the state.
They realize that if New York goes for Bryan, it will mean that the meaning of it is that Bryan wins the presidency. This dispatch is not intended to alarm such Republicans.
It is intended to be sensational.

It is not predicting that Bryan is going to carry New York. In fact, I think his chances are not so good as those of Taft. But having made extensive inquiries as to the state of public feeling here, I deem it my duty to point out that there is nothing surer about the verdict of New York. Doubt exists. It is not a matter of opinion.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT BLOOD HUMORS

The skin is not simply an outer covering of the body, but through its thousands of pores and glands it performs the great and necessary work of regulating our temperatures, and also assists in disposing of the refuse and waste matters of the system by the constant evaporation that goes on through these little tubes. To perform these duties the tissues and fibres which connect and surround the pores and glands must be continually nourished by pure blood. When from any cause the blood is impure, the pores and glands become clogged, and the skin loses its strengthening powers and begins to disease and irritate the delicate tissues, and produces Eczema, skin, Tetter, or some other itching, disfiguring skin trouble. S. S. S. cures skin diseases of every kind by going down into the circulation and neutralizing and removing the impurities and humors. It changes the quality of the blood to a cooling, health-producing stream, which, instead of irritating and inflaming the skin, cures and nourishes it by its soothing, healthful qualities. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may be used for any temporary comfort they afford, but skin diseases cannot be cured until S. S. S. has purified the blood. S. S. S. cures all skin diseases and any medical advice free.

It is presumed to be infallible, and highly efficient in quickly restoring in "nervous exhaustion," weak vitality, melancholia and the functions.

First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound; take home, mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene. Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring, followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings, and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full bounding health, and the happiness accompanying it, the above home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs whatever. MICHIGAN TIMBER LOSS LESS THAN REPORTED.

Ishteping, Mich., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—While thousands of acres of pine lands were swept by the first fires recently prevalent in Upper Michigan, and while estimates of the loss of timber run well into the millions of feet, it is the claim of woodsmen that the stories of the damage wrought have been greatly exaggerated.

A case in point is the reported destruction of 8,000,000 feet of pine in the lands of Hebard & Sons, in the Point Abkay district of Baraga county. The actual loss here, it is claimed, will not exceed 4,000,000 feet.

The reason for the smaller loss is that the fires were not so severe as those which have been reported. The fires were not so severe as those which have been reported. The fires were not so severe as those which have been reported.

WOLVES ARE IN EVIDENCE

Settlers Buy Ammunition to Kill Animals Prowling About Farms.

Believe Early Appearance in Packs is Due to Forest Fires.

Farmers living up the St. Louis river and back of West Duluth, who have come to West Duluth during the past few days to do their shopping, report that the wolves are very numerous about their farms. They also report that the animals are traveling in packs, which is unusual so early in the season.

Andrew Olson, who lives on a farm about seven miles west of Duluth, and reports that the wolves—not the large timber wolves, but the smaller brown wolves are very much in evidence in the woods about his place. He bought a supply of ten gauge shells loaded with buckshot, and a supply of poison, and says he is out after bounty.

Yesterday there were ten or more demands made at West Duluth hardware stores for buckshot loaded cartridges, and in every case the buyer stated that he was preparing for the wolves that are becoming troublesome but a few miles from the city.

It is claimed that the beasts are very bold and fearlessly appear in the open. At night their cries are incessant and sound as if they are running in packs. In explanation of their early appearance this year, settlers say the forest fires have driven them in. It is thought that the fires rounded them into packs and forced them to leave the more remote forest regions and seek safety in the clearings.

Two or three fair sized packs of ducks have been seen flying southward over West Duluth since the cold snap started a few days ago. This in no way indicates that the fall flight is on, but it shows that a few ducks are being disturbed from their summer haunts by hunters, are seeking new grounds, a little nearer to their southern destinations. They are but advance agents of the flocks to come.

Duck hunters have industriously hunted the St. Louis river ever since the first day of September, but they had but small success, from one to three birds being an average day's shoot. The biggest bag so far reported this season was brought to West Duluth a few days ago by Thomas Murphy. He shot thirteen ducks on the marshes of the St. Louis river.

Now that partridge season is on, West Duluth sportsmen are gathering the nearby wooded roads industriously, but little success has rewarded their efforts.

The question of having dinner and West Superior streets from Twenty-fifth to Forty-sixth avenues west, will probably be the business of the evening. Those asking that the board of public works make the roads needed on these streets, are being circulated, and it is expected that the club will appoint a committee to assist in securing names.

CASE GOES TO THE JURY TROUBLE IS IN THE AIR

Attorney for Ray Nichols "Report About Relief Committee is Fake," Claims Swindling is Wrong Charge.

The case of Ray Nichols, charged with swindling, on a joint indictment with Bert Moore, will go to the jury this afternoon. The arguments in the case were made this morning and the judge's charge was given at the opening of court this afternoon.

Nichols and Moore are alleged to have swindled Wallace Lapp out of $20 in a pool game in the pool room in the Selwood building. According to Lapp's evidence, he started to play pool with Nichols, Moore coming in later, introducing himself to Nichols and asking to get in the game. According to Lapp, he refused to play for the stakes prevailing, but when the games were over, the two young men claimed that he had lost $20 to Moore. He pulled the money from his pocket, to show them he had it, and Nichols took it from him and gave it to Moore.

The defense was based on the assumption that it was either a straight gambling game or a case of larceny, not of swindling. Assistant County Attorney Greene in making his plea to the jury, referred to it as the old fashioned game, worked thousands of times, in which the victim never had a show. He said he was glad Lapp "squealed," as it is American nature for a man to take his medicine and say nothing, letting the swindlers get away.

Attorney James A. Wharton for the defense dwelt on Lapp's "squealing." He said Lapp had lost his money in a gambling lot and sought to have it returned by claiming that he had been swindled. He said there was no attempt to deceive. Lapp played for money in a straight game and was swindled, and his only object in charging deception was to recover his money, which he did.

Nichols and Moore are well groomed young men, who have been all over the country. Nichols formerly sang in a moving picture show in Detroit, Mich. Moore was affected by his attempt to deceive. Lapp played for money in a straight game and was swindled, and his only object in charging deception was to recover his money, which he did.

needed in the relief work, and will not know until all investigations are complete. They will not be complete for some little time yet. Many contingencies are sure to arise, which probably will result in a much greater demand for money than is at present anticipated by some of those who have taken pains to spread the erroneous report that we would not need more than half the money subscribed.

May Hold Back Money.
"I admit we may not need it all, if reports of amounts subscribed are true. As a matter of fact, we have received no official notification that we can draw on certain funds said to have been raised in Minneapolis and St. Paul. It has been reported to us that about $70,000 is available in the two towns for the relief fund, but we have not been officially notified of that fact. In view of the reported surplus, it probably will now be impossible for us to draw more than 50 per cent of the Twin City fund, if we get any at all."

"There is less than $12,000 actually available for relief work in the fund now in Duluth. It was a serious mistake to allow any such statements to be made as got into the papers. These statements were entirely unauthorized. No one can as yet say what amount of money will be needed. The estimate of the local committee, for example, did not provide for the fire, cooking utensils, pillows, etc., for the houses there are many other little things in connection that might be named. The estimate did not include $6,000 that probably will be needed for the north shore fire sufferers."

"Our investigations are not complete by any means. Many settlers burned out haven't had an opportunity to put in applications for relief. The estimates given out was not based on any careful or complete investigation. The list is far from being complete. Many items must be added by the committee, and they will be needed."

"The commission will handle this relief matter, and nobody else. That is what we were appointed for. It is in our hands entirely. We are glad of outside assistance, but when it comes to have somebody else run the situation, it is going too far, altogether. More or less relief will be needed all winter. The commission has been placed in a position to see that the relief work is done in a thorough manner. Every case is to be investigated. The list of applicants handed in there was no question about, but there are many more cases where there was some question, that remain to be investigated more thoroughly. Some of them undoubtedly will be found to be honest and just, and in need of relief. We shall require a great deal more money than any superficial estimate can show at this time."

Cut Down Your Coal Bill

A cheap heating stove with its leaky joints, loose doors and poor construction not only wastes fuel, but it is a menace to your health. The Stewart Heater is no novelty, no experiment. For over seventy-five years it has been recognized as the best heater made. The Stewart heater has long been the most popular and widely used heater in the Northwest, where the rigorous climate demands quality, heat efficiency and long service. For simplicity of construction, beauty, quality and durability, no other heater is its equal.

If you have suffered the annoyance and discomforts caused by heaters with special freak construction (designed to overcome the deficiencies of cheapness), you'll better appreciate the simple, common sense construction of the Stewart Heater. The cold air is taken in at the center of the bottom of the stove and is heated so intensely that a match can be lighted by holding it twenty-four inches above the top. Remember we have Stewart Base Burners as low as $25.00, and the terms are $1.00 per week.

WE'LL MAKE IT NEW AGAIN

Quite likely there is somewhere among your belongings a piece of jewelry—a bent ring, a tongueless pin, or maybe a battered brooch—that you intended to have mended, but perhaps have forgotten. In our repair department there's a man who is expert in repairing such things, and who will, at very small cost, mend, clean and polish—make a new ring, pin or brooch of it. We have other men who are equally expert in cleaning and repairing watches and clocks. We don't hesitate to say that there is no better equipped watch and jewelry repair shop in the state.

OFFICERS ELECTED

The Children's Home Society Holds Its Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Children's Home society of Duluth was held this morning at the home, with an attendance of fourteen members and the reports of the committees for the year were presented.

During the year 444 children have been cared for, an average of 70 a month, being 122 more than in the year 1907. Of this number twenty-eight children have been placed in homes, one has been permanently adopted, and the other children have been given good homes and care.

The treasurer, Miss Jean Hubert, reported that forty-two children had been received from the Humano society, twenty-six have been sent to the state school, and fourteen children died during the year. Twenty-nine children under one year of age have been cared for at the home during the year.

In the report of the supply committee, presented by Mrs. M. E. Baldwin, chairman, it was reported that the expenditure for the year for groceries, meat, ice, milk and fuel was $3,953.44, with a per capita cost for the children of $4.74. The cost last year was $2,746.54, or a per capita cost of $3.31. The increase was explained by the greater number of children under one year of age who have been cared for, always at a higher expense than the older children, and the increased cost of milk and meat.

The treasurer, Mrs. A. D. Goodman, reported $14,783.32 as the total receipts and $12,559.23 the expenditures for the year, leaving a balance of $1,223.52.

The report of the house committee was presented by Mrs. J. H. Crowley; the clothing committee by Miss Hootson; the finance committee by Mrs. J. J. Davis.

Votes of thanks were given to Drs. T. L. Chapman, Frank Linneman, C. E. Lum, E. B. Daugherty, E. N. McGilfert and Frank Grawin, who have given their services during the year; to Mrs. T. L. Chapman, who has conducted a kindergarten at the home for the little children with great benefit; to the chairwomen of the finance committee; to the Rev. R. S. Read, who has held weekly meetings at the home to instruct the children and to the press of the city.

At the executive session which followed the general meeting officers for the year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. T. J. Davis; vice president, Mrs. C. B. Lum; secretary, Mrs. J. N. McKinley; assistant secretary, Mrs. Van Loo; treasurer, Mrs. A. D. Goodman; chairman of finance, Mrs. J. G. Williams; chairman of house, Mrs. A. C. Hubbell; chairman of supplies, Mrs. T. W. Hoopes; admission and dismissal, Mrs. J. P. Gordon; clothing, Miss Hootson; adoption, Mrs. J. E. Richards.

The advisory board is as follows: Messrs. C. A. Congdon, A. L. Orlean, Ward Ames, S. G. Knox and J. D. Edgison.

The board members elected in addition to those mentioned as officers or chairmen are Mrs. E. H. White, Mrs. S. E. Holden, Mrs. J. H. Crowley, Mrs. M. R. Baldwin, Mrs. John Knox, Mrs. John Pantan, Mrs. T. P. Cole, Mrs. H. Myers and Mrs. George H. Crosby.

KILLS HERSELF TO KEEP MAN ALIVE

Osaka, B. C., Oct. 2.—Sacrificing herself in the belief that by giving up her young life, that of Marquis Inouye, lying at Okitsu might be prolonged. Fukumura Takako, a 17-year-old orphan girl at Osaka, stabbed herself to death. Before taking her life the girl sent a post card marked with her blood to Marquis Inouye, in which she declared her intention of offering up her life. The message reads: "I am going to the eternal sleep in the place of the general. I am an orphan and there is none to mourn for me. By the time this is received I will be on my way to Heaven."

VALUES LEG AT $18,000

Father of Julia McKay Sues Street Railway Company.

Mary Carlson Wants $5,000 for Shock in Derailment.

Two suits aggregating $23,000 were filed against the Duluth Street Railway company in district court this morning. William McKay sues for $18,000 for injuries sustained by his daughter, Julia, and Mary Carlson sues for $5,000 for injuries she received while a passenger on one of the cars of the company.

The little McKay girl, who is 4 years of age, suffered the loss of her right leg by being struck by a car at the corner of Buchanan street and Lake avenue south, June 23, 1908. She, with other children, was playing in the street and ran in front of a moving car. Her right leg was so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. Negligence is charged in failure to watch for the children, who were known to be likely to get in the way of the cars.

Mary Carlson sues for injuries sustained by being shaken up when a car jumped the track on the Woodland avenue line, at the intersection of Anoka street, on Aug. 2 of this year. She claims that the car was crowded and she was unable to find a seat. The roadbed was rough, the complaint alleges, and the car was run at a high rate of speed, causing it to jump the track.

She claims that she was badly shaken up and on a number of the physical injuries and mental shock, has been under the care of a physician since, and has been unable to attend her regular duties. She asks for $5,000 general damages and $125 special damages.

John Jensen is the attorney for the plaintiff in both cases.

LOCAL FIRM CHANGES NAME

"Peyton Paper Company" Assumes Business of Zenith Paper Co.

An important change in local business circles is noted by the publication today's Herald of amended articles of incorporation of the Zenith Paper company, changing the name of the concern to the "Peyton Paper company."

The change is a result of a meeting of the stockholders held Sept. 22, at which the stockholders voted unanimously to change the name.

Under the new regime B. M. Peyton, who is well-known in banking circles at the head of the Lakes, comes into a controlling interest, and he will, it is understood, give the business his full attention from now on. The inclusion of new blood into the paper company, which is already so well known throughout the Northwest, will, it is believed, add to the company's prosperity to the concern. Mr. Peyton's experience with business and financial affairs has added to the company's management that he has now assumed.

During the many years of his association with the business it has gradually widened its territory until its representation is now found throughout all the district considered tributary to Duluth jobs. Mr. Peyton, it is understood, will continue the business with the same aggressive policy that has marked his administration of other business affairs at the head of the Lakes.

Captain O. H. Dockery Leaves Duluth After Three Years' Work.

Capt. Oliver H. Dockery, Jr., for the past three years in charge of the local United States recruiting office, left yesterday for Ohio, where he will visit friends. Capt. Dockery has been granted six months' leave of absence, because of illness, and until the time he joins his new command in the Philippines, will spend his time in Ohio and at his home in North Carolina.

Capt. Dockery was taken seriously ill last August. He was confined in St. Mary's hospital for the greater part of two months. Upon being able to leave the hospital he applied for four months' sick leave. The war department did an almost unprecedented thing, and informed the captain that an additional two months' leave had been added to his request.

During his stay in Duluth, Capt. Dockery has made many friends. He took an examination for promotion while detailed here, going to Fort Leavenworth, Kan., for the test. He was successful in the examination, being promoted from the rank of first lieutenant to that of captain. He was relieved from recruiting duty here on Aug. 1, but because of his severe illness, was obliged to postpone joining his regiment.

WANTED TO DIE IN JAIL

William Hutton Makes Pitiful Plea in Police Court.

"Send me to jail judge; I want to go there and die."

With a catch in his voice and sad, hopelessness in his eyes, William Hutton, an Englishman, 60 years of age, made this pitiful plea to Judge Windom in municipal court this morning.

He came into court voluntarily. He was not drunk or disorderly, and was not looked as a vagrant. He simply was a member of the down and out club.

The court was powerless to send the poor old man to jail, but he took it upon himself to call up the poor commission, and turn the stranger in a strange land over to it. The man was taken to the poor farm this afternoon.

He is sick and unable to work. It is believed his affliction is only temporary and that he will recover.

Hutton told a sad story to the court. Dressed in rags, with face deeply marked by trouble and care, he presented a sad spectacle. He claims to have people of prominence as relatives in England. He did not explain why, but said they had turned their backs to him and would have nothing further to do with him.

"I have been in this country eighteen months, Your Honor," he said brokenly. "I thought it was a land of promise. Maybe it is to a young man. But I am too old. Nobody wants me. I haven't a friend in the world. My people have turned me out. I have no place to go. There is nothing left for me but to die. Please send me to jail, but it is better than starving to death in the streets."

"I am not afraid of work. I have been trying to find work for months. There are no jobs for men like me. Employers look me over. They don't say it, but I can read their minds, when they say to themselves: 'He is old and decrepit and no good on earth. It would be folly to hire him.' I have tried, judge, oh, so hard, to find some honest employment. There is nothing, nothing, I am sick. I am afraid it is my last illness. I want to die. There is nothing left for me in life."

Our showing is not only comprehensive, but our prices are even lower than in past seasons.

Broadcloths, Cheviots, Serges and Imported Tweeds are materials mostly in demand. The favored colors are Blues, Grays, Browns, Greens, Blacks and rich stripes and mixtures. Early preferences of the best dressers indicate that the Suit Coats 36 to 40 inches long will be the favorites.

The Directorate models with their straight coat lines and hipless effects are also here in a large variety. Heavy trimmings of buttons and braid are among the most pronounced departures from last season's styles.

We show unusually good values at $17.50, $25.00 and $29.50, and more dressy models at from $35.00 to $50.00.

GETS GOOD REPORT.

The Mazatzal Copper Mine is Improving With Depth.

A. H. W. Eckstein of this city has received word from Joseph J. Shaw, the mining engineer and president of the Mazatzal Copper company, which has caused great satisfaction among the local stockholders in the Arizona mine. Mr. Shaw writes that at fifty-three feet they are getting good sulphides with native copper and red oxide of copper.

He says the stratification is pronounced and he believes the ore body is now forty feet wide. The new pump is handling the water in a few minutes, but the flow is light. The ground, Mr. Shaw says, is somewhat "travertine" as the miners term it. Mr. Shaw claims that the mine is improving with every foot of depth. He has been working in quartz, carrying a good deal of peacock copper. An assay of the poorest samples, cutting out rock showing copper to the eye, is said to have shown 3 1/2 per cent copper, 60 cents gold and 65 cents silver, and Mr. Shaw believes that an assay of all would easily hit an 8 per cent average.

POOR WORK ON BRIDGE

Repairs on Aerial Structure Were Not Properly Made.

Very Poor Results From the $1,700 Expenditure.

Recent repairs to the aerial bridge, completed only last week at an expense to the city of $1,700, were not made along the proper lines, and the structure is still sadly out of gear. It will take a good deal more of expensive work to put it in proper condition.

This is the report, in brief, of G. A. Rakowsky, expert engineer, who was hired to make an inspection of the bridge and ascertain where the trouble was. He says the big pile of steel, with its delicate machinery, has not been given the proper care, and that it is in poor condition as a result, despite the repairs, just finished.

A crew of men, supposed to be experts, worked for two weeks on the bridge, and then they over to the city, promising that it would run without interruption for at least three years. Incidentally, the repairs which were to mean so much, cost just $1,700. Two or three days later the bridge again went out of commission, and a ferry boat has been in service since carrying people and to across the canal. It is not known when the structure will be ready for use again.

According to Mr. Rakowsky, the experts' did their work wrong in repairing the bridge. He says it is still in need of a thorough cleaning. In hauling up their work the men in question, he charges, did not line up the bridge properly. Some of the nuts were screwed too tight, and others not tight enough. If the work had been properly done, there would have been no further trouble with the ferry.

He states that the bridge is safe, and that the machinery and structural work are in good condition, but that a general cleaning and more repairs are needed. He suggests that the services of a man better acquainted with machinery of this kind, with a practical working knowledge of the bridge, should be employed to run it, so that he might anticipate trouble, and make current repairs as they are needed, on the principle that a stitch in time saves nine.

It is also said the bridge is badly in need of repainting. In its exposed position it is said its life will be materially shortened if it is not kept properly painted.

Joseph Marlon was fined $5 and costs in municipal court yesterday for riding his bicycle on the sidewalk along Hurstfield avenue. He collided with August Heming while riding on the walk, knocking the latter down. The bad condition of the avenue made it impossible for him to ride the wheel any place but the sidewalk.

Is Big Success.

Harry Pileus, business manager of the Lyceum Theater, is all smiles today. He has just received word that his Wyoming which is owned and managed by him and J. L. Morrissey, is playing to capacity houses throughout the southern part of the state, where they are playing some fair dates.

The "Standing Room Only" sign was put out and hundreds of people turned away. The same was the case in Manitowish, where they played last night.

Devers, Pierce and Morrissey, are bringing their company to Duluth for one night, Monday, Oct. 6, enroute to the Pacific coast, where they are to play for twenty weeks, a week at Seattle, Portland, Fresno, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Denver and Kansas City.

Sailors Dance.

The second division of the Minnesota naval militia gave the first of a series of winter dancing parties at the Armory last evening. There were more than 500 couples on the floor. Flauten played an excellent program of dance music. The hall was prettily decorated with the signal flags from the gopher, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

Here's Luck for You!

Another big purchase—New York maker's surplus suits, good conservative styles. Choice clothes. On sale at $18.50 tomorrow at Gray-Tallant company's.

Arguments Are Made.

Arguments in the case of Nick Papkovitch against the Oliver Iron Mining company were made in Judge Dill's court this morning and a verdict will probably be reached before the end of the session of court this evening. Papkovitch sues for $15,000 for injuries claimed to have been received while in the employ of the company at the Canisteo mine at Coleraine.

Deserted Ten Years Ago.

A complaint was filed this morning in the divorce suit of Anna Anderson against August Anderson, in district court. Mrs. Anderson is now 82 years of age and her husband, whose whereabouts are unknown, is 40 years old. They were married at Cadillac, Mich. June 8, 1888, had a few short months of married life, and Anderson is charged with deserting his wife on Oct. 1, 1898. After ten years, Mrs. Anderson has decided she wants a divorce and the restoration of her maiden name of Anna Gustafson. There are no children.

Given Thirty Days.

Otto Eklund was brought to the county jail this morning on a commitment from the municipal court or Virginia. He was given thirty days for disorderly conduct.

Wide Awake Club Meets.

At 8 a. m. sharp at the $18.50 suit sale at Gray-Tallant's tomorrow.

Clean-up Campaign.

A general fall cleaning campaign will be instituted by the board of public works, Oct. 15. Crews of men, including the chain gang, will be employed to go over practically all the streets and alleys of the city, and everything will be cleaned up in good shape. This was decided at a meeting of the board of public works this morning.

S. T. Welch Better.

Stephen T. Welch, the well-known board of trade man, who has been dangerously ill for the past few days, was much improved this afternoon.

Business Doubled.

The report of the United States land office for the quarter ending Sept. 30, shows the total receipts to be $105,115.24, which was divided as follows: Fees and commissions, $6,819.20; sales of public lands, $98,105.16; sales of Indian lands, $1,000.88. This is considered a very fair report, as the amounts given are twice what they were on the occasion of the same report two years ago.

GOMPERS IN LIAR CLASS

—Taft.

Julesburg, Colo., Oct. 2.—The labor speech which Mr. Taft made at North Platte was well received by an audience largely composed of workmen.

Mr. Taft went after Mr. Gompers in rough shape, saying that the labor leader was responsible for the circulation of lies about himself. At Ogallala Mr. Taft was greeted with a watermelon by a man who declared himself to be a Democrat.

The candidate, "particularly that it is a melon and not a lemon."

JOHNSON MAY TOUR COUNTRY

Minnesota Democrats Plan to Have Him Offset Hughes.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 2.—(Special to The Herald.)—At a meeting of the Minnesota Democratic leaders last night the question of Governor Johnson taking the stump for the national ticket was discussed, and a majority favored it.

If their advice is acted upon, Governor Johnson within the next two weeks will be stumping the Dakotas, Nebraska, Montana and possibly New York in the interests of Bryan.

A special train has been promised him by the national leaders the moment he is ready to start, and an endeavor will be made to make the trip a spectacular one.

Governor Hughes' entrance into Minnesota is responsible, the governor's advisers holding that if the New York Republican candidate can leave his state at this time, Governor Johnson, who they hold is as good as elected, can drop his local campaign for a time.

MAJOR TELLS MAYORS PROHIBITION PAYS.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 2.—At the mayors' convention, one of the interesting addresses today was that of Mayor W. B. Joyner of Atlanta, Ga., who gave figures from the police and court records in his city. They show a falling off of more than 50 per cent in the arrests for drunkenness and misdemeanors primarily attributed to drink, since the establishment of prohibition.

Montreal was selected as the convention city for 1908.

SHOOT BEAR FROM PORCH

Bear hunting from the back porches in Lakeside is good.

H. M. Thomas bagged a 150-pound Bruin from his back porch last evening about 6 o'clock. The animal was seen there Wednesday night. Mr.

Thomas waited for him last night, and when he returned shot him.

"I am laying for another one tonight," said Mr. Thomas this afternoon. "There has been another one seen in the neighborhood, and I hope to be able to get him tonight."

REPUBLICAN TREASURER SHELDON MAY BE OUSTED

New York, Oct. 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—It begins to look as though National Republican Treasurer George R. Sheldon will be the next trust-tainted political official to be deposed from office.

National Democratic Chairman Norman E. Mack has come out in a bold attack on Sheldon, charging the latter with close affiliation with the wicked trusts, and President Roosevelt has received a report from Secretary Root, whom he sent to investigate New York conditions, that Sheldon is not doing his work satisfactorily and is putting over onto National Republican Chairman Hitchcock much of the work that he (Sheldon) should be doing.

That the Republican campaign in New York state is lagging, despite the apparent enthusiasm for Governor Hughes is admitted by the Republicans themselves, and Roosevelt in his statement, made through Secretary Loeb, said he would not take the stump unless the New York situation should demand it. It now appears the president will have to go to New York himself to boost things.

Root's visit was made unostentatiously. But his report to Roosevelt was convincing. He blames Sheldon in unstinted terms, and there will presently be something doing in the Empire state G. O. P. camp. The workings of the various departments of the Republican national committee were investigated, and a detailed report made to the White House.

Sheldon says he will not reply to Mack, who says: "The trust and corporation affiliations of George R. Sheldon for the past ten years make interesting reading, in view of the recent developments in the campaign."

"I wish to recall in this connection that because of these associations of his, Governor Odell in 1902 refused to permit the party leaders to put Mr. Sheldon in nomination for lieutenant governor."

"This cannot be denied. Most of the corporations with which Mr. Sheldon is identified are capitalized at millions. How much of their stock is of the liquid variety can be easily ascertained. Yet Mr. Roosevelt has defended him, and his resignation was not demanded when Mr. DuPont was invited to step down and out. Mr. DuPont was only identified with one trust, while Mr. Sheldon is at the present time intimately identified with no less than seven prominent financial concerns."

"One of these, the Bethlehem Steel company, does not employ union labor and has opposed the organization of its employees for the past sixteen years."

"Mr. Sheldon is a director of that company. He is also treasurer and director of the North American company, capitalized for $30,000,000, a concern known as the 'Mystery of Wall Street.' It is but a few years back since he was prominently identified with the 'whisky trust.' A glance at his connections with various companies for the past ten years will explain tersely the reason for his present position."

Following the attack of National Chairman Mack today on the corporation affiliations of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican national committee, the Democratic national committee is preparing to assail the corporation connections of Wm. Nelson Cromwell, member of the advisory committee of the Republican national committee.

ST. LOUIS STILL BAD

Grand Jury Indicts by Wholesale for Primary Frauds.

Men Who Persuaded "Repeaters" Will Now be Sought.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 3.—The September grand jury, which has been investigating primary and registration frauds in this city for several weeks, today returned its final report and brought the total number of indictments to ninety-three.

For the first time the names of all of the indicted men are made public. In its previous returns the identity of the individuals charged feloniously was suppressed, except in a few cases in which the men were already under arrest.

Three of these latter have already pleaded guilty and two have been sentenced to the penitentiary.

For the most part the victims of the grand jury findings were obscure "repeaters" from the lodging house districts.

The authorities promise, however, that the October grand jury, which was summoned today, will seek information as to the identity of the men who persuaded the "repeaters" and "repeaters" to commit their wrongful acts.

WOMEN GET NO GLIMPSE

Rise Early But Fail to See Nicholas Longworth.

Crowd Cries in Vain for the President's Son-in-Law.

Toledo, Ill., Oct. 3.—Between Canteen-loupe and omelette at breakfast today James S. Sherman made a 15-minute speech at Mattoon. This was a first stop out of Chicago in a wide sweep that the Republican vice presidential candidate will make through Illinois and into Indiana and a baker's dozen of speeches will be today made from the rear platform of his car Olivette as he swiftly swings along the route to Evansville, Ind., where the day will end in a big rally in the Hoosier state.

Among the towns through which the speechmaking party will pass are Toledo, Newton, Olney, Mount Vernon and Salem, William J. Bryan's birthplace.

When Mr. Sherman finished his talk at Mattoon the crowd set up an insistent demand to see Alice's husband, but Mr. Longworth had not arisen and the curious were disappointed, among whom were a number of women, called out at the early hour by their desire to catch a glimpse of the president's son-in-law.

In the first sudden onslaught one of the scouts was killed and two were wounded.

The company rallied, however, driving off the superior force with a loss of nine natives killed and several wounded.

POQUET BANK IS ROBBED

Brainerd, Minn., Oct. 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—The bank of Pequot, at Pequot, a small town twenty miles north of here, was burglarized at 2:30 this morning.

The safe was dynamited and the outer door blown off. The noise aroused the citizens and the robbers were compelled to leave before getting into the steel chest. They got about $100 in silver.

The robbers, evidently professional, had cut both telephone and telegraph wires both sides of town and had erected a barricade in front of the bank to fight from behind if necessary. They left town on an island car going south and were heard to pass Merrillfield.

It is thought they may have reached Brainerd in time to take the early train to the Twin Cities. The safe and building were damaged to the extent of about $500.

HELD FOR THREE DEATHS

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—In the official inquiry into the wreck of the ship Star of Bengal, charges of cowardice and desertion are made against F. Farrar and F. Hamilton, masters of the cannery tugs Hallie Gage and Kynk, which were towing the vessel when the wreck occurred.

Capt. Wagner has been directed to swear to his charges before the surviving inspector in Washington. The accused two boat captains will then be prosecuted for manslaughter.

CHICAGO VOTERS ARE REGISTERING

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Registration of voters in the city, made necessary by the law which compels a new registry list of electors every two years, kept the election officials busy today in the 12th precinct in Chicago.

Republican and Democratic chiefs declare unanimously that the registration to be on and it is estimated that 270,000 voters will file their names with the precinct judges. A second day for heated citizens to register has been fixed for Oct. 13 and the total registration is expected to reach the 410,000 mark.

Four years ago, the first day's registration totaled 263,271 voters, which was augmented by 143,144 additional names on the second day of registration, giving a revised list of 406,415 qualified electors.

New York, Oct. 3.—One man was killed and a woman probably fatally injured in an automobile collision today. The fire started in the kitchen of the Creethall hotel and spread to the cottages. The fire was extinguished by the fire department, but the damage was too great to save the buildings.

Hundreds of People Call During Day at Holy Apostles' Rectory.

The reception given last evening by the women of the Holy Apostles' Episcopal church, in celebration of Rev. and Mrs. Frederick J. Mooney's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, was a pronounced success. Hundreds of people called at the rectory yesterday afternoon and evening to offer their congratulations. Guests from all parts of the city, including many of the clergy, called during the day. As a mark of the esteem in which Rev. and Mrs. Mooney are held by their many friends, many beautiful gifts were presented to them. Among them was a silver coffee service, a gift from the women of the rectory, and a silver tray, given by the women of the St. Luke's church, of which Rev. Mooney is also rector. The Holy Apostles' rectory was prettily decorated with flowers of the same sort.

An informal musical program was given by a number of young people during the evening. The subjects were Mrs. W. J. Holmes and Mrs. J. A. Bowen had charge of the service in refreshments. Charles Matthews and J. A. Bowen, vestrymen, and J. A. Scott, senior warden, assisted at receiving.

New Town of Marble
in Three Months.Plans for $60,000 School in Mesaba's Youngest Town.

Towns on the Mesaba range have had mushroom growths in recent years, but the transition of the town of Marble from an idea in the brain of man to a reality on a waste, with streets, houses and a population of energetic people is about the most rapid in the history of the range, according to J. J. Wangelstein, the Duluth architect.

But three short months ago the town-site of Marble was laid out. Today the streets are being graded, dozens of houses have sprung up, others are in course of construction, and plans have been prepared for a brick town hall for the town of Greenway, in which Marble is situated, and for a brick bank building. Plans are under way for a $60,000 schoolhouse in the new town also.

Marble is not a town of makeshift shacks and pens, but is being built for permanency. The houses are substantial and the plans for brick buildings indicate that the people interested in the place have confidence in its future. The indications are that a substantial ore body exists in the vicinity of Marble, and the prospects are that the operations there will be as extensive and profitable as at the Canisteo mine at Coleraine.

The Oliver Iron Mining company, which has the mining rights in that vicinity, is boosting the new town. H. C. Dudley, who is in charge of the building of the town, and is rushing the work with a speed that is marvelous. People are gathered in the little town and before many months are past it will be a thriving village, vieing with the other towns for the supremacy in population and prosperity of that branch of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad.

The plans for the new town hall and bank building have already been completed and the contracts will be let under way, and it is expected the foundation will be laid this fall. Work on the superstructure beginning early in the spring. Mr. Wangelstein has drawn the plans for all three buildings.

Marble is on the D. M. & N. railroad, seven miles this side of Coleraine.

Wolf Walked Away With One, But Second Held Him.
Con Buckley Says Deer and Moose Tracks Are Numerous.

Con Buckley, a frequent visitor to the county, was taken to the county jail by two traps in this morning with the pet of a big wolf that he caught in his traps in the town of Normanna. Buckley, who is one of the most successful hunters and trappers in Northern Minnesota, has had more exciting experiences in the pursuit of his trade than any man in the business in these northern woods, perhaps. He knows the game conditions in almost every foot of Northern Minnesota and is enthusiastic over the prospects for the coming winter.

The wolf Buckley brought in this morning gave him something of a fight. Incidentally, the brute was caught in two traps. Buckley had his traps set for that particular wolf for some time. He set three traps in a circle on a path and took chances on catching one of them. Instead, the wolf walked into two. He dragged it along, and was caught in the other also. That held him securely.

He was so vicious that when Buckley came along, he tugged at the collar in an effort to get at his captor. A thick limb of a tree that Buckley poked at the captured beast was bitten in two by his snapping jaws, and a wolf, the pet of which he recently brought in. The beast was captured in a trap and the captor thought there was nothing to fear in approaching him. As Buckley drew near, the wolf leaped at him, carrying trap and all. The man jumped back and shot the brute, concluding not to approach too closely again.

Buckley says tracks of deer are numerous in Normanna township and other points in the vicinity. Moose tracks are also more numerous than usual at this time of the year, as the moose were recently driven southward by the forest fires and are nearer to the towns than usual. Wolves are traveling in packs and hunters and trappers are having good success in bringing them down.

Every citizen and inhabitant of this town is working for a bigger and better Chisholm.

NO GUSHER
But Tells Facts About Postum.

"We have used Postum for the past eight years," writes a Wisconsin lady, "and I can tell you it is a day. We never tire of it."

"For several years I could scarcely eat anything on account of dyspepsia, bloating after meals, palpitation, sick headache—in fact was in such misery and distress I tried living on hot water and toast for nearly a year."

"I had quite coffee, the cause of my trouble, and was using hot water, but this was not nourishing."

"Hearing of Postum I began drinking it and my ailments disappeared, and now I can eat anything I want without trouble."

"My parents and husband had the same experience. Mother would often suffer after eating, while yet drinking coffee. My husband was a great coffee drinker and suffered from indigestion and headache."

"After he stopped coffee and began Postum both ailments left him. He will not drink anything else now and we have it three times a day. I could write more but am no gusher—only state plain facts."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read, "The Road to Wellville," in packages. "There's a Reason."

HANSBROUGH CANDIDATE

for election to the position now held by Porter J. McCumber of Wahpeton.

Since the primary election, which Senator Hansbrough was worsted, he has been spending his time at Bemidji and Lake Simneton, Minn. On last Monday he returned to the state as a member of the W. H. Taft party.

His return here has been in consultation with prominent politicians of the state and the announcement of his candidacy to the United States senate is the culmination.

United States Senator Hansbrough has been a member of the upper house for eighteen years, serving his third term at present. The campaign for his re-election for the fourth term was one of the hottest ever waged in North Dakota, but with three other candidates in the field, he was defeated, with Thomas Marshall and M. N. Johnson.

Johnson resides in Nelson county, which adjoins Hansbrough's home county, Ramsey. With Hansbrough in the open, and L. B. Hanna of Fargo and Congressman A. J. Cronin of Dakota, there is little doubt but that the fight of two years hence will be one of the hardest ever waged in North Dakota.

McCumber will take the latter's place in the senate, and the latter, if elected, will be connected with Alexander McCumber is re-elected, would again be North Dakota's political boss.

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the joints, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention.

In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says: "I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mr. Pinkham: "I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman."

The Battle for Health

How to keep well.

This is the problem Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have helped many thousands of people to solve by reason of their extraordinary blood-forming and system-building qualities.

The only sure foundation for health is rich red blood and a vigorous nervous system.

Both of these result from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Even though you know of this great restorative as a cure for nervous prostration and paralysis, you may have overlooked it as a tonic to build up the system when it gets run down and you feel weak and miserable.

Dr. B. B. Eline, 25 Stewart street, Dayton, Ohio, states: "I felt debilitated, run-down, nervous, tired, lacked energy and strength. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills built me right up, gave me a restful sleep and good general health and energy. I gained seven pounds and consider them an excellent tonic."

BEAT HIS HORSE.

Henry Meyers Paid $28 for Privilege of Using His Whip.

Henry Meyers was found guilty of cruelty to animals in the municipal court Friday afternoon, and after a scathing arraignment by Judge Windon, was fined $20 and costs, amounting to $28.36, which he paid.

Meyers, who is a wood peddler, took a horse and rig and went to Superior Wednesday night after some harness. The mud was very thick on Garfield avenue and coming back the horse, which was in poor condition, was unable to pull the rig through. Meyers took to his whip and gave the horse such a severe beating that it fell to the ground and had to be helped to its feet again. Several boys from the Alger-Smith mill were attracted to the scene and they proceeded to tease and beat his horse any more. So much energy did Meyers display that the boys were raised on the horse's skin.

Cleveland, Oct. 3.—Cleveland defeated Chicago Friday in the most remarkable game of the year in the big leagues by the score of 1 to 0. Joss, pitching for Cleveland, not only shut Chicago out without a hit, but he did not allow one of his opponents to bat in the first base, although the visitors used three pinch hitters in the ninth inning.

On the other hand, Walsh, the Chicago man, pitched a sensational game, striking out fifteen men in eight innings. He struck out several times and Lajoie and Clarke twice each, and these three are Cleveland's best bats. Cleveland was able to bat but four times past the infield and only five of the locals reached first base.

Cleveland scored its only run in the third. Birmingham led off with a single. Walsh caught him napping off first, but he threw to second hit the runner in the lead and he went to third, whence he scored when Walsh and Schreck became crossed in their signals and a ball went to the grand stand.

With Joss at bat in the eighth, Schreck had a finger broken, which will keep him out of the game for the rest of the season.

The old City Bowling league of last year will be reorganized, a new league to be known as the Commercial league consisting of a number of the wholesale houses, and banks will form another while at the Y. M. C. A. a league from among the members will be formed.

Three full fledged bowling leagues in the city, there ought to be enough doing in it. The fans there leagues during the winter, and at the first of the winter, the three leagues will meet and roll for the championship of the city.

The all the different parts of the season are humming these days with the members of the different leagues getting ready for the coming year, and it now looks as though Duluth has yet to see the best bowling season in her history.

The Central league will be composed of the Fitts, Oak Hall, First National Bank, Central, Columbus and the Big Duluth. The Commercial league will be composed of the Fitts, Oak Hall, First National Bank, Central, Columbus and the Big Duluth.

The subject will be thoroughly gone over and if the other towns wish to go in, a meeting will be held about the first of November and plans made to start the league. It things go through managers will at once get busy in the matter of signing up men for next year, and the league fairly launched.

It was proven this year that poor ball will not pay, and the league, if organized, will make it a point to play first class baseball.

A meeting held at Brandon last week the managers from up north discussed the advisability of forming a new North Country league, consisting of the Washington, Wis., team of the Prairie, Edmontan, Calgary, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge. Duluth was asked to come in, but the Duluth owners said that they had enough of the far north this year, and do not care to venture into another such year.

DISPUTED GAME DECLARED A TIE

President Pulliam Makes Decision on New York-Chicago Game.

New York, Oct. 3.—After a week of deliberation, President Henry C. Pulliam of the National League of Baseball clubs last night rendered a decision on the protested New York-Chicago game played on the Polo grounds here, Sept. 23. President Pulliam rules that the game was a tie and that the Chicago club had no claim in equity to the game.

Perhaps there has been no game in baseball history that has caused so much discussion as this famous contest, which almost ended in a riot on the field. New York claims the game.

They want Bat Nelson to go to Europe to meet some fresh fellow over there who has a lot of money to bet on himself. "Bat" knows that $1800 a week in this country is pretty fair wages, but he says he will go to Oshkosh, Wis., to look after his property.

Ketchel says he will "come back" on the occasion of his fight with Papke next November.

Tom McCune, the well known fighter of hereabouts was in Duluth Friday, where he says that he is looking for Whitehead. He will take on anybody that will fight him for $1000 a fight. He says he will go to Oshkosh, Wis., to look after his property.

"Get after 'em Chicago," says the Duluth man, in his sleep, and then he wakes up and wonders who is going to win today.

THEY WILL TALK THE MATTER OVER Kuehnow, Lennon and Cantillion to Discuss Twin City Invasion.

Al. Kuehnow, the well known Duluth baseball manager for the past few years, left today for Chicago on business. On his way he will stop at St. Paul and talk with George Lennon, president of the St. Paul American league club, and Mike Cantillion, manager of the Minneapolis club, relative to the placing of Northern league teams in the two cities next year.

The project is not new to Duluth fans who have heard the entire matter thrashed out in the local papers over and over again. The talk is still going the rounds in the Twin Cities, and a great many of the fans there look favorably on the plan. The Twin City papers are boosting for the league, and as the new teams would only play open dates at home so that the league could be used, and the baseballists are anxious that the league be organized.

The plan now is to form an altogether new league, consisting of Eau Claire, La Crosse, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Superior and Duluth. The league would give the league a six club circuit.

The subject will be thoroughly gone over and if the other towns wish to go in, a meeting will be held about the first of November and plans made to start the league. It things go through managers will at once get busy in the matter of signing up men for next year, and the league fairly launched.

IT BEGINS TO LOOK AS IF THE TWIN CITY TEAMS WERE AFRAID TO PLAY THIS HUSKY ELEVEN

"RUSTY" HAROLD BOWEN, Half Back.

This afternoon, at Athletic park, Duluth and Hibbing are playing at football. Little concerning the Hibbing bunch is known, although their line is supposed to be heavy. They have been practicing for some weeks under a trained football man, and they are here to clean up the locals, or at least make them work hard for victory. Cummings is out of the game today on account of a badly bruised shoulder, and his position is being filled by Stevens, a new man. He has shown wonderful form in some of the practice workouts, and the coaches have a lot of confidence in his being able to fill the shoes of the regular.

With this exception the team is playing with the same line up that faced Two Harbors last Saturday. The cooler weather of the past week has enabled the men to get down to harder work, and given the coaches a chance to drive them harder. Some of the scrimmages this week have had all the ginger of the real game.

Coach Funnell is still working hard with the second team, and these young players, who are full of enthusiasm for the game, and are rapidly rounding into a great little fighting machine. A schedule is being arranged for them, and among the probable games are contests with Two Harbors and Eveleth.

Next Saturday the first big game of the year will be seen on the gridiron at Athletic park, when the big husky boys from Grand Rapids line up against the Central.

For the past two or three years Grand Rapids has put a football machine in the field that has succeeded in cleaning up everything in the North that would play them. They have always won all their games, and last year claimed the championship of the state, when a number of the stronger teams refused to play with them.

There was some talk of a game with Duluth, but it was so late in the season that it didn't materialize. This year they are coming down to make things lively for the locals, and from what they have done in the past, it is likely they will succeed.

NO HOCKEY THIS YEAR

Northern Hardware Team Will Not Re-Organize This Winter.

Several of the Men Planning to Go With Cleveland.

Is Duluth going to be without a hockey team this year? That is the way it looks now, and while the Copper country is making preparations for the biggest hockey year in its history, Duluth in the very midst of the hockey country, is to be without this interesting branch of winter sport.

The Northern Hardware team will not be in the field this year, according to Ray Johns, the manager of last year's successful team.

"Playing hockey as we did last year under the most trying circumstances, was not a bit satisfactory," said the ex-manager this morning. "The crowds would not patronize the games played so far from the center of the city, and in an open rink. Besides all this we went to the expense of leasing ground, building our own rink, and at the end of the season found ourselves several hundred dollars in the hole. We don't care to have this experience again. We did the best we could to give Duluth people good hockey. It wasn't satisfactory and the Northern team will let some one else do the experimenting this year."

Cleveland is after a number of the best men, and as there is to be no hockey here, they will probably go to that city for the coming winter. The curriers have refused to allow their rink to be used for hockey purposes, and as it has been proven that a covered rink is the only place in which the sport will pay, and as there is no one willing to take a chance on building a rink, Duluth will be without hockey altogether this season.

FIRST GAME SUNDAY.

Spalding Football Team Will Open Season With Billings Park.

The Spalding football team of this city will line up Sunday afternoon eleven. This will be the first regular contest the Duluth boys have played although they have had a number of scrimmages. They have been hard at work for the past two weeks, and they are going across the bay expecting to bring back the scalps of the Billings park warriors.

The team is playing under the auspices of the Spalding Athletic association, of which all the boys are members. They have already arranged for a number of games and hope to play one game each week until the end of the season.

Among the games arranged for are Two Harbors, Hibbing, Grand Rapids, a number of Duluth teams, and the city team of Superior.

JOE GANS AFTER SCRAP.

New York, Oct. 3.—Joe Gans, acting as his own manager, today made known his desire to take on any and all the 135-pounders that the Eastern promoters could pit against him. It is well understood here that Joe is down and out and is looking forward to the revenue from these fights to pay off the mortgage on his Baltimore hotel.

Joe is anxious to get on with Pockey McFarland, either in this city or in Philadelphia, and has wired the promoters there in the hope that they might close a match. Joe started light training soon after his arrival in Baltimore, and it is learned he will continue working right along. He has fitted up a gymnasium in his hotel, where he will work.

HOCKEY TALK FROM HOUGHTON

Cold Weather of Last Week Started Winter Sport Gossip.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 3.—(Special to The Herald).—Hockey interest is picking up in the Copper country. With the appearance of the first snow, and the advent of cold weather, this week all sporting interest, practically, was turned to hockey.

This year a six-team amateur hockey league will be organized in the Copper country. Last year's four-team league was a success in every way, and some of the best sport ever seen in this district was the result of the games between these four teams. Houghton, Hancock, Iron Jacket and Larium, the latter two being Cabinet teams. This year, however, now that it has been decided not to return to the old professional game as played by the Canadian stars in the International league, when Pittsburgh and the two Soos, with Calumet and Houghton made up the greatest hockey circuit in America, the sport will be of even higher class than heretofore.

At Mohawk, up in Keweenaw county, a big steel rink, to cost $25,000, will be erected this fall, and Mohawk will put a team into the Copper country league. Lake Linden will also likely have a team, that club using the Palestine rink at Calumet. The two largest hockey and covered skating rinks in the world are already located in Calumet and Houghton, and the new rink at Mohawk will be the third. All hope of getting Duluth people to erect a rink has been given up, and no overtures to Duluth people, to come into an amateur or semi-professional league with the Copper country teams, will be made. Games will be sought during the winter, however, with Duluth, Minneapolis,

MACK COOK,

St. Paul, Milwaukee and Soo teams. The D. A. C. and University of Michigan teams may also be brought to the Copper country, and Copper country teams will likely go to Detroit and Cleveland for challenge games, to decide the amateur championship of the Northwestern and Central states. A Duluth team, the Northern, brought to the Copper country last year, won two or three games played, being beaten only by the Red Jacket team. There will be many changes in the local teams this year.

MANY ENJOY FAST RACES

Opening Day of Tri-State Meet Was Largely Attended.

Coco and Gypsy Queen Win Honors on a Heavy Track.

The Tri-State Racing association furnished some classy races out at the Driving Park Friday afternoon, and the judges by ruling out those jockeys who didn't play fair, made a great hit with the large crowd in attendance. Hatcher, the driver of Alice C. was ruled out because the judges believed he was not driving out his horse. Another driver was taken out because he used unfair tactics, cutting a corner up off at one of the turns. The crowd, which was unusually large, plainly showed its approval when the judges took this action.

The track was not fast owing to the heavy rains of late, but this did not detract from the interest in the races. In the first race, 2:30 pace, Coco, a bay mare, driven by Bonnet, won in split heats, with Alice C. second. Wilston, a bay gelding, was third and The Kid, another bay gelding, driven by Matthews, was fourth.

Gypsy Queen, owned by E. J. Roehon of Winnipeg, Man., had an easy time winning the 2:17 pace, which she won in straight heats. Miss Hartford, owned by Elliott & Runquist did not show up as well as her owners had expected. Bessie Barolite, the Bemidji pacer, owned by Newby, made a good showing in this race, but the track was too heavy for her. Dan D., was also fast, but was outfooted nicely by the winner.

This afternoon the big $400 free-for-all pace will be the principal attraction in the Northwest will participate. The Third Regiment military band will be in attendance this afternoon, and the promoters of the racing meet in Duluth hope to make it a day long to be remembered by the lovers of horse racing in Duluth.

The summaries of Friday's races were as follows:

2:30 Pace—Purse, $300. Finish: Coco, b. m., Bonnet, 1 1 4 3; Alice C. b. m., Hatcher, 2 2 1 3; Wilston, b. g., Spencer, 3 3 2 3; The Kid, b. g., L. Matthews, 4 4 3 3. Time, 2:29½; 2:30½; 2:31; 2:32½.

2:17 Pace—Purse, $400. Finish: Gypsy Queen, b. m., Spencer, 1 1 4 3; Dan D., ch. g., Watts, 2 2 4 2; Bessie Barolite, b. m., Newby, 3 3 2 3; Miss Hartford, F. Matthews, 4 4 3 4. Time, 2:24½; 2:28¾; 2:29¾.

FRESHMEN VS. SOPHOMORES

Both Classes Are Getting Ready for Annual Football Game.

On entering high school this year the freshmen were a little timid, but now since they have found that they have a right to live, they are whooping it up for their class, and before long they will hurl their football challenge at the Sophomores in a way that will be proof conclusive to the upper classmen, that the first-year men mean business.

This annual Freshmen-Sophomore

HENRY BOYLE, Quarter.

football contest is a regular thing, and is looked forward to by the student body as one of the principal events of the year. The Freshmen get the most encouragement as they always do in such contests at every school, on account of being the entering class.

The Sophs are waiting patiently for the challenge so that they may get busy with their football men. The Sophs, with a very dignified look, also intimate that the "infants" had better think twice before they challenge, and go on to name the players in the second-year class available for a football team.

In the Sophomore class are Ford, Campbell, Bob Mars, Edwin Spencer, Chick Feetham and Asher Taylor, all experienced players, and others who have not so far turned out this year. The Freshmen are waking up to the fact that they have a wealth of material, and point with pride to the fact that they have a number of men who are playing as substitutes on the high school eleven.

The Freshmen have Helmer, a husky lad, who plays with the second team, Nightingale, who subs on the first team; Kelly, who took Boyle's place at quarter last Saturday, and Donovan, who was ruled off the first team.

SCHEDULES ARE COMPLETED

The Twin City teams have their schedules completed.

Following is some gossip from the Minneapolis Journal regarding the high school team:

"Cool weather put new life into the high school candidates this week, and the scrimmages at all the camps had the spirit which has been lacking during the last few weeks. All of the schools had full squads at the end of the week, and the coaches kept all of their men going hard."

Kidland put the two teams that were out at the South camp through a stiff scrimmage practice yesterday afternoon and the work of the men was especially encouraging. Joergenson, who played an end on the second team last year, has succeeded in getting his parents' permission to play and was out for the team yesterday afternoon. Joergenson is a good man and should be able to hold down one of the ends on the first team.

Chicken was out in uniform for the first time this year at the North camp, and although his knee is still bothering him he ran through the schedule. He did not participate in the scrimmage work, however. Coach Schuknecht had his men going at top speed yesterday afternoon and some lively practicing was done. Manager Hall has arranged for a game with St. Paul Central for Nov. 20, which is to be played in Minneapolis. North has lost her enclosed field and this lack is one that is bothering the North high supporters.

Signal practice and scrimmage work was the card at the other camps and the teams are beginning to run somewhat smoother, they are far from perfect yet, and it will probably be some little time before any of the coaches are satisfied.

The managers of the different teams met at the office of E. N. Dickinson, secretary of the Minneapolis ball park, last night and drew up a schedule for the season. The schedule is as follows:

Oct. 2—Central vs. Alumnal; East vs. Alumnal at Nicollet park.

Oct. 9—South vs. Mechanics' Arts at St. Paul; West and East at Nicollet; Central and North open.

Oct. 16—South vs. West at Nicollet; Central vs. Mechanics' Arts at Minneapolis.

Oct. 17—East vs. North at Nicollet in the morning.

Oct. 23—West vs. North at Nicollet; South vs. Central at Minneapolis.

Oct. 30—West vs. Central at Nicollet; South vs. East at Minneapolis; North vs. Oak Park at Chicago (probable).

Nov. 6—East vs. Central at Nicollet; North vs. South at Minneapolis; West vs. St. Paul Central at St. Paul.

Nov. 13—North vs. Central at Nicollet; South vs. Pillsbury Academy at Owatonna; West open.

Nov. 14—East vs. Mechanics' Arts at Nicollet.

AT THE LYCEUM

"IN WYOMING" MONDAY EVENING, FOLLOWED BY MAX FIGMAN IN "THE SUBSTITUTE" AND "UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES."

AN APRIL shower play is the most apt description of "The Substitute," the new comedy in which the splendid actor, Max Figman, will be seen at the Lyceum on next Tuesday and Wednesday, matinee and night. Tears and laughter follow one another in quick succession and all the emotions of pleasurable heartiness are aroused and sustained from beginning to end. "The Substitute" was written by H. M. Dix and E. W. Greenleaf, who wrote the strange play, "The Road to Yesterday," which fascinated New York audiences for months. The "Substitute" is described as a comedy with a story that is full of point and reason, but told in an odd way with lots of old ideas. The title role is Mr. Figman's personality happily and brings out all the qualities as an actor of character as well as comedy. Mr. Figman comes under the management of the Lyceum, which is the American tour of Madame Calve, Florence Roberts, Maude Feally, the comic opera success, "The Alaskan," and the latest Boston success, "Commenment Days," a story of girl college life. Seattle are now ready for Max Figman's engagement in "The Substitute," which promises to be quite a society event.

"IN WYOMING."

Play Owned by Duluth Men, Coming for One Night Only.

On Monday evening, Oct. 5 "In Wyoming," Harry Pierce & Co.'s big scenic production, will make a bid for local favor. This well known comedy of American ranch life has been touring the Northern states for the past five weeks playing to enormous business, and will stop over at the Lyceum for one performance only on route to the coast. The company which Messrs. Pierce and Morrissey have furnished is entirely capable in every way, headed by Cecil Kirke and Miss Harriett Dunsmore ably assisted by such well known players as Herbert Lawrence, Burt Crowell, Dean Smith, Frank Seymour and Nelson Leavitt.

Frank Patton, who is well known locally, comports the role of Hank Jones. Of the women of the cast Harriett Dunsmore, Marie Bonnell and Anne Gardner are seen in the principal female roles. This will be the only chance to see this play during the present season, as a tour has been booked covering all the large cities of the country.

"UNDER SOUTHERN SKIES." Play is by Same Author as "Way Down East."

Lottie Blair Parker, author of "Way Down East," and "Under Southern Skies," has a happy faculty in character drawing that is possessed by few dramatic writers of the present day. Especially is this true of her beautiful play of the South, "Under Southern Skies," that will be presented here Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Lyceum. The fineness of her characterizations in minuteness and fidelity to detail, will be easily recognizable to any one at all familiar with plantation life in the South. The hot headed fire eating colored, whose dignity is always being ruffled, and who considers it necessary to arrange a duel each time he thinks his "honor" has been assailed; the quiet, chivalrous, gentle, refined one of the word pictures of the Southern Cavaliers, who were famous a hundred years ago; and the mischievous child, "Anner Lizer," full of pranks, practical jokes and animal spirits. Another character in the play that makes a strong impression upon the audience is "Aunt Doshy," one of the familiar faithful type of servants who, when freedom came, elected to remain with the family to whom they had belonged rather than go among strangers. These and many other characters are drawn by Mrs. Parker in a life-like and natural manner.

LYCEUM NOTES.

News and Gossip of Attractions Coming to Duluth.

Among the musical attractions that Mr. Marshall has booked for the Lyceum this year are "Follies of 1907," "Fifty Follies," "From 'Til Then," "The Merry Widow," "The Land of Nod," "The Merry Widow," "The Land of Nod."

presented for the sixth consecutive season to record-breaking audiences by Miss Rose Melville, who originated the famous country girl character and gave it to the stage, there is an entirely new "entertainment" scene from the young ladies' seminary commencement. The songs are new and the dancing is delightful. The "pieces" which the girl pupils speak for the benefit of their visiting relatives are characteristic of the country seminary. "Sis Hopkins" comes to the Lyceum for two nights in October.

Here are a few more "deviants": No one doesn't love her husband. He must be either a genius or a very common man. Common men live so low that women are afraid that somebody will steal him at night through the window—and genius, well, that lives on the top floor—so many stairs—no elevator.

What's the time? Always means the husband. A woman's intuition invariably anticipates her husband's coming by ten minutes.

Double in everything and always at improper moments. It's funny that every time I come here you are helping some lady to take off her things.

The demand from all the larger cities of the country for "The Servant in the House," now playing at Powers' theatre, Chicago, has become so insistent that Henry Miller has decided to organize a third company to supplement the original "Associated Players" and the second company is now in process of organization in New York. The selection of players for the second and third companies is as good as made up. Both Mr. Miller and Charles Rann Kennedy, the author, refuse to trust the play to actors who are not equal in ability and experience to those who created the roles in the initial production. The lists for the two new companies will include the pick of the profession in both England and the United States. The remarkable success which the play has had in London and New York has far exceeded Mr. Miller's expectations. One of the companies will be seen in Duluth soon.

AT THE BIJOU

CELEBRATED SKETCH ARTISTS AND TRAINED ANIMAL ACTS ARE THE FEATURES FOR NEXT WEEK'S VAUDEVILLE BILL.

THE program of vaudeville that will be seen at the Bijou next week will be one of the best of the season, and will include the original "Dooley and the Diamond," the man around whom was written the once popular comic song, "Mr. Dooley." His name is Eddie Girard, who with Miss Jessie Gardiner is presenting his big vaudeville success entitled "Dooley and the Diamond," which is claimed to be the funniest sketch in vaudeville. Mr. Girard will be remembered by many from the fame of the once famous comedy, "Natural Gas," in which he played the principal role for several seasons. The following is a recent press notice from the Denver Times: "Eddie Girard and the Diamond were at the Orpheum in that city. A hit was made of the comedy, and the Diamond, the headline, in which Girard and Gardner are featured. Eddie Girard is one of the very funniest comedians before the public and is the original 'Mr. Dooley,' about whom the popular song was written. Jessie Gardiner, who is with Girard, is simply sparkling with fun and completely captivated the hearts of her auditors. Girard's cleverest work is where he goes under a hypnotic spell. Again he ludicrously impersonates a monkey and still again he takes the role of a policeman. In his eccentric dances and acrobatic work he is especially good."

A first-class juggling act will be presented by the Ader trio, who are the original jugglers. They introduced several new styles of juggling Indian clubs that make their act superior to most club juggling.

A considerable number will make his first appearance in Duluth next week in the person of Johnny Fields, Jr., who is not only a funny comedian but a good singer and expert dancer as well.

A pleasing number will be given by Brown and Hodges, who are Indian cartoonists. This act is different from the general run of acts of this kind as they introduce several singing numbers in the act.

As an extra added feature, the management presents Harry Lukens' trained bears, which is considered to be the greatest of all trained animal acts. A feature of the act will be the dancing of the bears.

Isadore Silver will sing one of his favorite songs, entitled "Just Because It's You." The music pictures for the week will be, "The Motor Boat Race," "War of Children," and the big comedy subject entitled "Never Again."

Matinees given daily at 2:45 and every night at 8 and 9:30. Seats may be reserved by either telephone. A special school children's matinee is given Saturday afternoon, and performances Sunday afternoon and night.

appeared on Wednesday evening, would not be presented at the Bijou until the following Monday. In this case the postponement was due to the fact that too much haste had been shown in the matter of getting the piece ready for production, and it was decided to defer the premiere until everything is ready for a first class performance.

Later on ten days was devoted to getting the new play ready. It was tried out at Hartford Monday night. The piece apparently was well received, but a trial performance showed that it needed some changes, which it was thought better to overcome before facing a metropolitan audience.

The postponement of "Father and Son" was due to the sudden illness of Maggie Fielding, who plays Mrs. Clancy in the new play. Her case became serious in the afternoon and a physician reported that she was suffering with acute indigestion and could not possibly appear. William Norris, who plays the leading part in the performance, himself appeared before the curtain after the audience was seated and explained why no performance could be given.

Blanche Bates made her first appearance at the Stuyvesant on Thursday night in "The Fighting Hope," by William Hurlbut, a new author, was Mr. Bates' choice. In his recent star, who last season announced that she was through with her old manager and would never again appear under his patronage. It is stated on reliable authority that Frank McKee, the manager, has a signed contract with Miss Bates providing for her appearance under his management this season. So, possibly, there may arise judicial complications, although McKee undoubtedly held an option on her services for a renewed period.

For some reason Miss Bates suddenly changed her attitude, and next came the announcement that she would remain a Belasco star for an indefinite time to come. "The Fighting Hope," this play, it is said, is in readiness for Mrs. Carter's use when the "Fighting" actress broke with her old manager two years ago.

Be that as it may, it probably served to cement the old relations between the actress and her manager, and consoled her for having to disappoint Mr. McKee, who has her contract away in his safe as a souvenir. If nothing else, the play affords Mrs. Bates an opportunity to get away from a line of roles in which she feared to become artificial. Great plays as were "The Darling"

Double in everything and always at improper moments. It's funny that every time I come here you are helping some lady to take off her things.

The demand from all the larger cities of the country for "The Servant in the House," now playing at Powers' theatre, Chicago, has become so insistent that Henry Miller has decided to organize a third company to supplement the original "Associated Players" and the second company is now in process of organization in New York. The selection of players for the second and third companies is as good as made up. Both Mr. Miller and Charles Rann Kennedy, the author, refuse to trust the play to actors who are not equal in ability and experience to those who created the roles in the initial production. The lists for the two new companies will include the pick of the profession in both England and the United States. The remarkable success which the play has had in London and New York has far exceeded Mr. Miller's expectations. One of the companies will be seen in Duluth soon.

In "Sis Hopkins," which is now being presented for the sixth consecutive season to record-breaking audiences by Miss Rose Melville, who originated the famous country girl character and gave it to the stage, there is an entirely new "entertainment" scene from the young ladies' seminary commencement. The songs are new and the dancing is delightful. The "pieces" which the girl pupils speak for the benefit of their visiting relatives are characteristic of the country seminary. "Sis Hopkins" comes to the Lyceum for two nights in October.

Here are a few more "deviants": No one doesn't love her husband. He must be either a genius or a very common man. Common men live so low that women are afraid that somebody will steal him at night through the window—and genius, well, that lives on the top floor—so many stairs—no elevator.

It ran the better part of the year at the playhouse and was succeeded by "Brown of Harvard," another success, and then, after one or two minor ventures, less fortunate, became the home of "The Great Divide," which ran throughout the theatrical season until the Shubert lease on the Princess expired and the theater was finally abandoned as a playhouse.

When Miss Anglin retired from the partnership and went to Australia last spring, the working arrangement between Miller and Shubert continued for a while longer. It was Margaret Anglin who discovered Nazimova, and induced Miller to present her. Then, after the Russian was a success, Miller disposed of his interest in her management to the Shuberts, and so the original trio gradually drifted apart.

In his second installment of articles upon the early stage struggles of Richard Mansfield, in the October Scribner's, Paul Wiltach gives in graphic detail the American experiences immediately preceding and including the first great personal triumph of that actor, when he sprang into fame in a night, by his vivid presentation of Baron Chevalier, in "A Parisian Romance." This story is a by-word with people who are familiar with the theater, but it has been told in so many forms and treated from so many varying viewpoints that it is valuable to have Mr. Wiltach's account of it. This, we are sure, is authentic, for he got his information from the papers and records of the event kept by Mr. Mansfield in his lifetime, and doubtless entitled to the writer for the very purpose to which he is now putting that information.

The interest lies in the careful manner in which the story is given us, Mr. Wiltach's own telling of how he came to relinquish the part and thus give Mansfield his great opportunity is quoted verbatim, and then follows a narrative of the conditions and how the time was ripe for the young actor to make his great impression.

Mansfield was a slave of his intuition. He was almost feminine in this. After reading Mr. Wiltach's second article, one is more fully convinced that the entire details of the Baron Chevalier success were mapped out in the active and resourceful mind of Mansfield and carried forward with that same attention to details that marked his impersonations of the most trivial characters. It was more than a triumph of the artist, it was the combination of art and mentality.

The Goodwin divorce suit, though a surprise that the action was precipitated at this time was not much of a surprise to those who have followed the actor with an eye to eventualities. It has been the common gossip of theatrical circles for the past five years that though keeping an outward appearance of their old relations, Maxine Elliott and the actor had been separated in spirit as if they had passed through the legal proceedings of getting divorced.

There is one simple justice due Miss Elliott, who has been the subject of some rather ill-timed and coarse humor since she refused to discuss her private affairs and go into any talk of the suit. In this Miss Elliott is entirely consistent. Since she became a star she has maintained that her life away from the theater is hers to do as she sees fit, and that the publicity of the phase of stage celebrities was very distasteful to her. In all of her tours this rule has been strictly adhered to. Miss Elliott does not go in for interviews and all that sort of thing, but she has recently stood by her principles in the face of some rather interesting attacks. Even now she is consistent, and the suggestion that it is a new whim is foreign to the facts and her past behavior.

It seems very much like timing it to bring forth the story of a discovery of Queen Wilde's long lost manuscript of "The Florentine Tragedy," and that is what the weekly developments include. From Boston comes the word that the publishing house of John W. & Co. after years of search and effort, has gathered all the Wilde writings together, and has secured the complete and authentic draft of this play. It has been hinted that at this time of Wilde's arrest the story which he had promised to write, his masterpiece, mysteriously disappeared. Whatever the facts pertaining to that incident, it is now announced that the Boston house is in control of the story, Coburn and Harris have secured the rights to the stage usage, and they are now planning a dual bill of Wilde's recent great successes. These will be "The Florentine Tragedy" and his version of "Salome," from which Richard Strauss took the libretto for his opera.

David Belasco, while in Pittsburgh recently, gave out the statement that he intends to build a theater there within three years, in order to have a place in which to play his attractions. The former insurgents have still two years' time by their old agreement with the Shubert interests whereby they can play the houses booked through these managers. By that time Belasco intimates that he and his associates will have their plans in such shape that they will be able to play their attractions in new theaters in most of the cities they care to enter.

Valdeska Stuart, who has been fitting from musical comedy to vaudeville and back the past season, has been engaged for a prominent role in "Miss Innocence Abroad," the musical piece which Anna Held is to bring out this season.

Blanche Ring will be the bright particular star of Joe Weber's company on tour this season. The Weber company will be seen in the burlesque of "The Merry Widow" and a travesty of "The Devil." The new bill opens this season in Pittsburgh October 12.

A new theatrical firm of promise has sprung into life this season in the combination of managerial interests of Joseph Brooks and A. W. Dingwall, whose first great success has been achieved with the Irish play with some called "Teggy Macree." In this Joseph O'Mara, the most famous tenor to come from Ireland in recent years, will be the star. Mr. O'Mara has purchased his release from Covent Garden contracts in London in order to make the American tour.

From Ireland next week in order to take up rehearsals for the opening. As evidence of the esteem for the fellow countryman Mr. O'Mara has been going the rounds of the Irish centers in the Emerald Isle and saying farewell. He has been conspicuous in his efforts to revive and glorify the old Irish folk songs and preserve the quaint and wonderful melodies of his people, and in his honor two great complimentary concerts are to be given the coming week in Limerick, his home town, and in Dublin. These are under the auspices of Cardinal Logue and Hon. Mr. O'Reilly, Lord Mayor of Dublin, which is the fullest assurance of the hearty co-operation of all the people of Ireland.

Mr. O'Mara sails on October 12. Miss Blanche Ryan, a popular American actress, will play the title part in his support in the romantic Irish play when it is brought out.

In addition to this big offering Messrs. Brooks and Dingwall will start the new firm off with a whirl. They have first call on the American rights to all the big Drury Lane successes of the preceding London season. These include the great triumph which was produced by Mr. Arthur Collins. It will be made into perfect shape for the American tour and given in this country on a grander scale than the original, if that proves possible. Then also there is the London success "The Merry Widow." This piece has just been brought out at old Drury Lane, and the English press is proclaiming it the greatest melodramatic offering ever seen upon the London stage. Mr. Brooks leaves this week for London, and will look over these two big plays, and will return with Mr. O'Mara in time to take up rehearsals of "Teggy Macree."

The firm is new only in the matter of combination. Mr. Brooks is a power in theatricals, and as the head of the once famous firm of Brooks and Dickson, is recalled at the directing genius of that time. Mr. Dingwall has long directed the affairs of all the theatrical interests of the late John L. and as the proprietor of the Broadway theater in New York and McVicker's in Chicago, as well as that wonderfully successful play, "In Old Kentucky," has demonstrated his mastery of the intricacies of the theatrical business.

Mrs. Carter will start out in November with a new play which is now being whispered about in Eastern circles. It is said the story is by John Luther Long and will outdo anything in the way of scenic splendor with which Mrs. Carter has ever been associated. When one remembers "Du Barry" this is quite a claim.

Jack Norworth, in addition to being a funny man himself, is married to Nora Bayes, the funny woman of "The Folies of 1908." Settling her theatrical precedents aside, Manager Ziegfeld has signed Norworth to play a prominent part in the big show in order to throw the happy couple together in their professional work this season.

Maud Adams, who has been abroad for some time studying her new role in "What Every Woman Knows," as well as holding consultations with M. Barrie, returns this week to complete rehearsals for her tour in the latest Barrie success, which she studied in England. Mr. Barrie also went over Joan D'Arcy with Miss Adams. She is preparing for a special performance of that play before the faculty and undergraduate body of Harvard university next spring, and the intention is to make it a memorable performance.

The Friars are brave enough and broad enough also to recognize a real rival, and having met one of late they are going to pay him the honor. Therefore, a complimentary dinner is to be tendered the members of the New York National League baseball team in that city on Oct. 4, by the members of the famous theatrical men's organization. It will likely take place at the Hotel Astor.

Ben Teal will have charge of the stage for the big show that Manager Tom Noonan will bring out at his new Garden Theater in Chicago. The first effort is to be called "The Winning Miss" and Manager Noonan is putting forth every effort to prove that the title is not a misnomer. Rehearsals will begin next week, and the pick of the Chicago theatrical colony will be raked for this new organization.

Adeline Gence, the famous little dancer who went back to England to play out some previously made contracts, will soon resume her American tour in "The Soul Kiss." She sailed last week, and is due shortly in New York, where her tour opens on Oct. 5 at the Grand opera house.

A letter from Toronto says that Edgar Selwyn is making a big hit there in his dramatic version of the Gilbert Parker novel, "Pierre of the Plains." The word is that this piece is likely to go into New York soon for an extended run.

David Belasco is said to have secured Eugene Walter's latest play, "The Eastward Way," and will soon produce it in New York, with Charlotte Walker in the stellar position. This means that Miss Walker will likely abandon her co-stellar place in "The Warriors of Virginia" when the time comes for trying out the newer play.

The announcement is made that Al Hayman has not signed any intention of retiring from the theatrical business because he is disposing of some of his holdings. The truth is Mr. Hayman has long been out of active participation and has devoted himself to traveling and collecting bric-a-brac in out-of-the-way corners of the old world. Mr. Hayman has recently transferred some of his theater holdings, but only to parties in the big theatrical combination, of which he has been a silent but potent force in the years since its formation.

Nazimova began her tour in Brooklyn last week, and will visit the big cities of the East and Middle West before she goes into New York again. She is using in her repertoire this season "A Doll's House," and "Hedda Gabler," and may in time do the scope of it, but just now the two Ibsen plays will suffice.

Miss Constance Collier, a famous English actress, has just arrived in this country, and will have the leading female part in William Gillette's company in the Bernstein play, "Samson," which was adapted to the English-speaking stage by the star. Miss Collier will play in this country the character originated in Paris by the famous Mme. Le Barq.

Margaret Illington is spending a brief time at French Lick Springs, Ind., taking a course of the waters and the outdoor life there before starting in the outdoor life of the difficult season "The Thief" as co-star with Kyrie Bellow.

Israel Zangwill arrived from England last week, and will remain here some time to direct rehearsals of his newest play, "The Melting Pot," which Walker Whitehead is to bring out the Columbia theater in Washington the latter part of next week.

Blanche Walsh has signed with A. H. Woods, the melodramatic producer, but she is positively unique. Robert Le Dailly takes Reeves' place and the former banjo-manager-Joker returns to his first love.

Arnold Daly as an actor-producer was picturesque, but as a star witness in his own legal proceedings in bankruptcy he is positively unique. Daly was on the stand most of a week testifying to inside facts regarding the deals he had made at times. A sample of the style of testimony is found in the actor's answer to a query regarding his relations with the Shuberts in the West he replied: "I have not sufficient command of the English language to assail the Shuberts."

Intimate friends of Ruby Dais, the Alabama songbird, profess to be shocked over the fact that this charming prima donna has been three times a widow in less than twelve months. Miss Dais's last offense occurred at the New Amsterdam theater when she stepped into the dainty slippers of a lady who had been there for the third time this year. Miss Dais obtained hasty divorce from "The Prince of Pilsen" last winter and assumed the fascinating Marovian dress of the "Merry Widow" last March in Chicago. A month ago she returned from a summer vacation, became a Boston widow in the Tre-

WHEAT THAT IS BIG PRODUCER

But Secretary Coburn Says the Product is Not Millable.

Topeka, Kan., Oct. 2.—A new "Miracle Wheat" has just been discovered, this time in West Virginia, and the promoters are trying to dispose of the wheat to Kansas farmers. The Kansas farmers know all about wheat, and when a new variety is offered to them they want to find out something about it. F. D. Coburn, secretary of the Kansas board of agriculture, received one of the circulars of the promoters and a few days ago the president of the company came to Topeka to show some samples of the wheat.

This wheat is called "Miracle Wheat" and it is a wonderful producer. A man by the name of Stoner found a stool of wheat growing from one seed in the yard of his home in West Virginia. He protected this stool of wheat, which had grown from one seed and obtained about 2,500 grains from this one seed. Then he sowed 2,538 grains the next fall and harvested a crop at the rate of 100 bushels per acre. The first grain was sown in 1904 and in the four years since that time 40,000 bushels of this miracle in wheat were produced. Now the promoters desire to get this wheat into the hands of the Kansas farmers.

Some Claims of the New Wheat
F. Olney McCormick of Philadelphia, Pa., seems to be the chief promoter of this company and is the man who is working the wheat for all that it is worth. He has a lot of lovely stationery with embossed letter heads and with a crest at the top of the letter. Besides that he uses a typewriter that writes script any prints important words in red letters.

According to the prospectus this wheat produces fifty-three stalks of wheat, and each stalk with one head from one grain of seed. On good ground the promoters say it ought to produce a hundred stalks and a hundred heads of wheat from one seed. It produces at the rate of thirty bushels an acre on poor soil and the promoters think it ought to produce from fifty to seventy bushels an acre on Kansas wheat lands. The wheat is to be sown in rows twelve inches apart, two pecks to the acre, and if the farmer desires he can cultivate the wheat just as he does corn and it will produce abundantly. Wheat in Kansas is ordinarily sown at the rate of five to six pecks to the acre and that produces a bushel. Refuse any but the finest wheat grown for milling purposes.

long has been in Mr. Belasco's mind, but the amount of work attendant upon succeeding new productions interfered with the practical development. Upon the receipt of this letter, however, Mr. Belasco immediately decided to carry it out and give the world of young playwrights the essence of his best knowledge of the art of playwriting. And who, of all the people in the theatrical profession today, is so well qualified to intelligently enlighten and instruct ambitious dramatists as the man who virtually has lived in the playhouse from childhood, and who stands today so far above his contemporaries? Many lectures have been given on the drama and on the reasons for the success or failure of plays produced, but never has a dramatist of David Belasco's abilities and genius agreed to lay bare the secrets and thousand and one details of play building which a life's study has accumulated. The subject is apparently inexhaustible, and the preparation for a lucid exposure of the hundreds of tricks of the trade of playwriting will claim a considerable portion of the great dramatist's time. Nevertheless, he has decided that he will give the subject thorough treatment, though it takes him months to arrange his notes. Mr. Belasco will probably dissect and explain scenes from his own plays, as well as those of writers in collaboration; instruct in the delineation of character, their relation and value each to the other, and the concrete details which go to make a play that will stand the test of criticism. It is a stupendous task, but Mr. Belasco is determined to lend every assistance to those he has started out to encourage, and as soon as his plays for the present season are launched he will begin to make his data. The first lecture will be given at the Belasco Stuyvesant theater some time next spring.

The eyes and hopes of all young American dramatists aspiring to the achievement of great things in the theater have lately been turned with redoubled interest in the direction of David Belasco, that wizard of the drama, who recently announced his intention of producing plays by untitled and unknown American playwrights. Many letters have been received by the author-manager, not only from the aspirants themselves, but from authors of renown, commending his new policy and expressing hope for its success. In one such message comes a suggestion as valuable as it is original, and after much careful thought, Mr. Belasco has decided to act upon it. The letter states that while the playwright receives his manuscript back from a manager to whom it was submitted, with a note to the effect that the work is unavailable, the disappointed dramatist is none the wiser as to why his work was rejected. He may think it is the greatest drama, or comedy, or tragedy ever put on paper, and he cannot conceive why the work was refused. To make sure of this, the point, therefore, is the purpose of the new plan. The writer suggests that David Belasco give a series of lectures at the Belasco Stuyvesant theater or elsewhere, on the subject of the construction and writing of successful plays.

There is also a considerable amount of Norway pine left in this state. It has been increasing in value from year to year, until now it commands a fancy price. There was a time when the lumbermen snuffed contemptuously at Norway pine, and refused to purchase it at all, so plentiful and cheap was the white variety. They have passed this stage now, however, and Norway is eagerly purchased. White pine that used to be passed by as unmarketable and worthless is now snapped up eagerly.

So great has been the increase in value of all grades of lumber, that every tree larger than a sapling can be put to good use. Even the despoiled jack pine is coming in for attention, and there are numerous camps which are cutting now as long as it is cut the winter

The forest fires this year will have some effect on logging operations the coming winter. Lumbermen figure that a forest fire does not injure the timber as long as it is cut the winter

A GIANT OF THE FOREST

A CHOICE GROVE

Minnesota is being rapidly stripped of her timber. Expressions along this line are often heard, but usually are inadequately comprehended. It may take twenty or possibly twenty-five years more to strip this section of the country of its marketable trees for it is a very big job. The average mortal hardly comprehends the vastness of Minnesota's pine forests. Although the lumberjack has steadily been hewing his way towards the heart of these forests for the past twenty-five or thirty years, there are still left standing millions upon millions of marketable timber. Lumbering operations really have been under way more than thirty years in Minnesota, but they scarcely can be said to have started in the northern half of the state more than a quarter of a century ago. What logging was done here prior to that time was scarcely worthy of the name, upon so small a scale was it, when compared with later operations. A good deal has been said and written about the disappearance of the lumberjack. To be sure, he is not so much in evidence around Duluth and other old lumbering centers as he was a few years ago, but there is still a lot of work for him to do, and he will not have disappeared from the Minnesota forests for twenty or twenty-five years more. There are men who have said that another fifteen years would see the northern half of the state entirely depleted of its wealth of timber, but other equally close observers of conditions maintain that it will take twenty to twenty-five years to get out all the marketable stuff, and in making this estimate they say they take into consideration the fact of the increasing demand for lumber, and the decreasing supply of pine timber elsewhere. Minnesota is now considered the white pine center of the United States. It is claimed there is more white pine here than anywhere else. Michigan and Wisconsin used to be in the same class with Minnesota in this respect, and even now there are considerable quantities of white pine in these states, but logging operations there were carried on quite extensively before they were even begun in Northern Minnesota, and consequently the available supply is being more quickly exhausted.

There is also a considerable amount of Norway pine left in this state. It has been increasing in value from year to year, until now it commands a fancy price. There was a time when the lumbermen snuffed contemptuously at Norway pine, and refused to purchase it at all, so plentiful and cheap was the white variety. They have passed this stage now, however, and Norway is eagerly purchased. White pine that used to be passed by as unmarketable and worthless is now snapped up eagerly.

So great has been the increase in value of all grades of lumber, that every tree larger than a sapling can be put to good use. Even the despoiled jack pine is coming in for attention, and there are numerous camps which are cutting now as long as it is cut the winter following the fire, for the flames merely kill the green trees, and seldom burn more than the outer bark away. If a dead tree stands a year or more it is hardly fit for lumber, but if cut within a few months, it is considered just as good as if the fire did not touch it at all. Thus the lumbermen are figuring on cutting all the burned timber possible this winter, and probably the forest fires will result in more men being employed than would otherwise be the case, for the dead timber must be cut, no matter how many camps must be established, if it is to be marketed at all. It is expected that logging operations will be conducted on a fairly extensive scale through Northern Minnesota this coming winter. Camps are already being built, and crews of men are being sent into the woods. It is believed about the same scale of wages will prevail this winter as last. Last winter they were not very high from the lumberjack's standpoint.

LAND IN NORTHERN MINNESOTA

Twenty Million Acres Offering the Best Inducements in Soil, Climate, Water and Markets to Settlers.

At the recent Farmers' National congress, held at Madison, Wis., George Walsh, commissioner of immigration for Minnesota, delivered the following interesting address:

It seems to me it is a belting time and place that the farmers of the United States, in convention assembled, should meet with one with the attainments of Mr. Hill, and discuss their mutual interests, as they are of necessity mutual, and in a measure co-operative. There is no one man in our state, Minnesota, who has done so much to develop the farming districts as has Mr. J. J. Hill. He has penetrated the undeveloped sections with his railroads and made it possible for settlement thereon by furnishing the means of transportation for the products raised. In addition, he has loaned his energy, experience and money to the education of the farmer with a view to bringing about better conditions upon the farm and increasing their productive value. He has furnished our farmers with seeds and pure bred sires, and in many instances has supplied them absolutely free of cost to the farmer who has shown a desire and ability to use them, and shown such an interest in their welfare that when I predict when he has laid down his life's work of usefulness there will be photographed upon the mind of every true, loyal Minnesotan a picture of J. J. Hill as his ideal of the truest type of American citizenship.

You have heard today a great deal of talk of most eminent men of the social condition of the American farmer. Reference has been made to his intellectual development, all of which has been said with the purest of motives, having but one end in view, and that is the uplifting and betterment of the condition of our American farmer; but I cannot agree personally with all that has been said. I do not believe the farmers of our great nation occupy any inferior position mentally, morally or intellectually to any other body of men in this nation. In fact, I believe that the great political and social questions confronting our nation today will be settled and settled aright because of the great body of farmers who give these matters a study such as are given by no other class of people, and who come to a conclusion unbiased by any other influence than the influence of right and justice to all mankind. I therefore believe that their part in the solution of these great questions will be more nearly right and just to all people than the part taken by any other class of producers, because of their unbiased reasoning between right and wrong. Personally I would feel absolutely satisfied and safe to allow these great questions to be settled by our farmers alone.

Only Creator of Wealth.

The farmer is the only creator of wealth, and I heartily co-operate with what has been said that we must look to him for the production of the nation's wealth. Our mines and minerals, forests and timber, lakes and streams are gifts of Providence intended for the benefit and use of the whole people. Great combinations of wealth have in some instances monopolized our natural resources, but they are legally seized of these properties and should be protected by law, but it is a lesson to us that in the future these natural resources should be protected for the benefit of future generations; conserve them, develop them, but see that they do not fall into the hands of a few for the benefit of a few against the many. Upon our farmers we must depend for the creation of the necessities of life for the human family, and it is therefore the duty of every good American citizen to give his best energies and thought to the uplifting, developing and betterment, generally, of the condition of the American farmer.

In the past little attention has been paid to agricultural education. In fact, it has been taught that the success of the farmer depends upon main strength and uprightness; but conditions have changed as they have in many other branches of industry, so that today in order to attain the highest degree of perfection and the greatest producing power from our lands, it is necessary that the man engaged in the tilling of the same must do it scientifically. This has brought about a system of agricultural education, which as yet is largely confined to the universities of our different states. They have done and are doing at the present time a noble and beneficent work, and we are very thankful for what we have received in this direction, but I do not believe it is enough. I am only too ready to be compelled to admit that it is true, that the great problem confronting the American people is how to keep our boys and girls upon the farms. You have heard discussed the troubles that come to the laboring people in the large and more congested regions, and how much better it would be if they were located upon our broad acres, hiving from them their daily bread. We are inclined to criticize our boys and girls for leaving the farm, and to try to get them to stay, but we are not doing as they were taught.

Our farmers' friends who are doing just what you have taught them to do. Your system of education has been teaching them away from the farm instead of to it. You have employed in your public schools teachers who have no sympathy with a farm. They hate a cow and dislike to meet a pig; in fact, they feel that it is a hardship needlessly imposed upon them that they should be compelled to remain long enough in an agricultural community to receive the fifty dollars a month for their services as teachers. If these teachers are a success they must necessarily implant in the growing child their own opinions and ideas. If they do not, then they have been a failure and should not have been employed at all. If they do, they are luring the mind and energies of your children away from the farms, so that I believe the time has come—in fact, I believe it came years ago—when the subject of agriculture should be taught in every school in our land; and when that time comes we will find our children with an insane desire to put into practice what they have learned in their school days, and farm labor will then become a pleasure, instead of being considered drudgery, as it is so considered today.

It has been demonstrated today by Mr. Hill in a most masterly way that our public lands have been largely taken up, and that in the future our increased production, which must come to maintain the millions of people, who are destined to inhabit our country, must be supported by making the present lands produce double the quantities of farm products they are doing today. More of our people who are now living in the congested centers of large cities must in the future derive their living from the products of the soil. It is therefore our duty as good citizens to find places on which these people can settle and work out their own destinies by tilling the land. We should therefore consider where it is best and where the best opportunities exist for these people and carry to them a message of the opportunities offered by any section or state in our country. It is just and right, I beg, therefore, with your permission to call your attention to a brief way to the opportunities for these people in the northern regions of the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Figures of Interest.

In 1860 the entire farm products in the state of Minnesota amounted to less than $3,000,000. The manufactured products at that time were less than $3,000,000, while the population was 125,000 souls. Mark the development. In 1906 the products of our farms amounted to upwards of $285,000,000, and our population had increased to upwards of 2,000,000 people. A splendid showing, indeed, but you will be surprised to learn that today not to exceed 40 per cent of our tillable lands in the state of Minnesota have ever been plowed. In the northern section of our state are 20,000,000 acres of good, fertile land, offering the best inducements in soil, climate, water and markets to the man who is willing to work and develop these resources. True, in a large measure, these lands are covered with timber, but the clearing of this land is a different problem than were similar lands tributary to the Great Lakes when brought under the subjugation by our forefathers. Timber of every kind and quality sells readily at the nearby railroad station, so that this land in many cases will be entirely paid for from the value of the timber thereon, leaving a farm capable of developing grain crops not excelled anywhere, but particularly adapted to the production of root crops, grasses and dairy products. Timothy and clover grow in abundance wherever seeded and there the sunlight can reach the surface; in fact, clover grows so abundantly that it is sometimes impossible to cure the hay because of the excessive amount grown upon a given tract, there not being sufficient room to dry it without mold. In addition to this land there is approximately 6,000,000 acres of what are designated as swamp lands which are easily drained and transformed into the most fertile farms. We have heard the advocates of the reclamation of desert lands, but from my experience I find it is a great deal easier to run water off the land than on, and it seems to me that more attention should be paid to the reclaiming of lands that have sufficient rainfall and only need draining ditches to make them the most fertile farms.

Indebted to Wisconsin.

I take this opportunity of expressing a debt of gratitude to our Wisconsin neighbors in the development of our dairy products. The first co-operative creamery ever built in the state of Minnesota was built in Freedom county in 1892. This was largely brought about by the influence and through the instrumentality of ex-Governor Board of the state of Wisconsin, and to such men as Board and Dr. Babcock we feel especially indebted. During this short period of sixteen years the development has been so rapid that today the farmers of the state of Minnesota receive annually $25,000,000 through co-operative creameries alone. In conclusion I wish to say to the farmers who are settled on good homes through the Mississippi valley, we can offer you probably no greater inducements than you now have, but to the farmers who are seeking better homes, we feel that the district mentioned offers you much brighter prospects and greater degrees of success agriculturally than some of the much advertised lands in the more northern regions where the flag of freedom does not float.

NORMAL NOTES

The Normal school students have been taking a great interest in the Shakespearian plays given this week at the Lyceum, especially the pupils in the literature classes. Miss Shosmith championed a party Tuesday night to see Macbeth. Those in the party were: Annabelle Dunning, Ruby Krause, Ruth Raleigh, Hildegard Snyder, Winifred Wright, Maude Grogan, Grace Alken, Margaret Grogan, Margaret Raleigh, Hazel Helmreich, Jean Stapleton and Edna Haggins.

At the junior party given Friday afternoon, the election of officers for the coming year took place. Margaret Baileigh was elected president; Fannie Lum, vice president; Vera Rockwell, secretary and Hildegard Snyder, treasurer.

Miss Quillard held a "Mothers' Conference" at 3 o'clock Friday. In the kindergarten rooms, Miss Quillard met the mothers monthly for the purpose of discussing the work for the following months.

The Third and Second year classes entertained the freshmen at a party Friday afternoon. The freshmen had little bells tied around their necks with green ribbon, to prevent them from being lost during the games that were played. Refreshments were served in Miss Carey's room.

Miss Pauline Rabinowitz and Miss

Minne Cohen spent the week end at Eveleth.

Miss Viola Helm spent Thursday night with Grace Alken at Washburn hall.

Mrs. Copp spent Friday and Saturday with Miss Eckhart at Washburn hall.

Miss Myrtle King spent the week end at Port Arthur.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irascibility disappeared and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. Sold by all druggists."

A knight in full panoply of martial array was a fearsome sight once, but he would only be a curiosity now—like the discarded, old-fashioned merchant who considers advertising to be beneath him.

FROM THE MINES AND TO THE SMELTERS

WORK BEGUN BY EAST BUTTE

Shaft, Now 900 Feet Deep Will be Made Deeper and Crosscutting and Drifting Will be Done at the 900.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 3.—Work has been resumed at the properties of the East Butte Copper Mining company, under the direction of Supt. Wall. Pumps were lowered a few days ago and installed, and the work of unwatering the mine was begun. The main shaft is more than 900 feet deep, and there are but about 250 feet of water in the shaft, so that the mine will in a few days be in readiness for a resumption of development work. The intention is to sink the shaft deeper and at the same time crosscut and drift on the 900, where a large stratum has been found. A fine ore body in a new vein was cut while the station was being made at the 900, and it is the belief that it will develop into a very important find. Considerable copper glance is contained in it. The main shaft of the East Butte, designed as No. 1, is one of the largest and best built shafts in the district and was sunk under the direction of Pat Wall, the former manager of the East Butte, who directed all the development work that has been done in the property. According to the report of James Neill, the mining engineer, there are twenty-one distinct veins in the East Butte ground, striking east and west, and some of them

Copper Rock of Great Richness Struck on Nineteenth Level of Hancock—Good Showing on Isle Royale's Property Renewed Interest in Section 16 Operations of Atlantic.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 3.—(Special to The Herald.) A heavy rain of several days' duration, the fore part of the week, was a blessing to this ore-infested district. The forest fires of the past month have been stamped out, and though the mining companies suffered no serious property losses, the danger threatened by the fire several times necessitated the partial shutting down of some of the mines in order that men could be had to keep the fire in check. The lumbering industries, however, suffered considerable losses in timber, already logged, in addition to time and the rather heavy expense of keeping men in the woods in an endeavor to keep the flames from spreading. During the last week of the fire, the smoke was so dense as to obscure the sun entirely, and at times lake navigation was almost at a standstill. Very little rain fall was experienced the past summer, and the drought has been so great that many of the mining companies were handling all their mine water on half barrels.

Hancock, in crosscutting west at the thirteenth level in the No. 1 shaft, encountered a large, rich, remarkable richness. The lode disclosed at this point, 375 feet from the shaft, is over 100 feet wide, and the faces of both the north and south drifts, in over fifty feet, are literally charged with small mass and silver, and the local stockholders at this level indicate that the lode is flattening. This, if continuous, will bring its disclosure at a depth of 1,200 feet in the No. 2 shaft, sinking vertically for the same lode, instead of at a depth of 2,300 as calculated. The probability of the underlying Hancock main lode and the Quincy lode also flattening to an equal degree, will, if so proven, save nearly 400 feet of shaft sinking to disclose them. The shaft sinking is now bottomed 1,275 feet from surface, and, sinking at the rate of ninety feet monthly, should encounter the West lode, already disclosed in the No. 1 shaft, between the tenth and thirteenth levels, within seven months. The West lode is the uppermost of the known lodes, and the prospects of the ventral shaft, sinking in practically virgin territory, encountering new copper bearing lodes, are good. This shaft is now working into a more settled formation than was found above the present depth. The No. 2 shaft will be the main working shaft of the future; its great size and style giving it the capacity to handle upwards of 3,500 tons of rock daily. The No. 1 shaft is now bottomed at the fourteenth level, and, for the present, will not be driven to greater depth.

Isle Royale continues to obtain a splendid showing of copper rock in the three shafts opened upon the southern extension of the Isle Royale lode, the showing at the No. 6 shaft, especially, creating a deal of favorable comment. The extension has been opened to an average depth of about 700 feet. Drifting is now in progress on three levels, and upwards of 8,000 feet of excellent stoping ground has been opened. The strike of Baltic lode has been definitely determined for a distance of two miles through the company's property, and test pitting has disclosed an encouraging amount of copper. A site for a new shaft has been selected, and preparations are underway for the immediate sinking of same. A shaft opened several years ago on what was then believed to be the Baltic lode, has been abandoned, and the shaft house and hoist are being dismantled preparatory to removing same to the new site.

Better Rock Needed.
Rumors to the effect that the Keweenaw Copper company was getting poor results in its mill test, has called forth a statement from the president of the company, in which he says that the rock is now averaging about sixteen pounds of copper mineral to the ton of rock stamped. This is equivalent to about twelve pounds of refined copper, a very poor return for even this district of low copper percentages. The stamp mill equipped with a single steam stamp, with capacity to treat 250 tons of rock daily, is operating only one shift of twelve hours.

New Boilers Being Installed by North Butte Company—Copper Production is at Rate of 50,000,000 Pounds a Year.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 3.—The North Butte company is installing new boilers aggregating 500 horse power at the Speculator shaft. The company is hoisting between 1,400 and 1,500 tons a day now and the statement is made that the copper production is at the rate of 50,000,000 pounds a year. Crosscutting to the veins is going on at the 2,000 and 2,200 levels. The Jesse vein will be reached in about six months, and the Edith May will be opened on both levels in about a month.

The Butte Coalition company will sink the Rarus shaft from the 1,800 level has just been opened. The company is also opening the 1,300, 1,400 and 1,500 levels of the Minnie Healey mine from the Transway shaft. The three levels make practically a new mine out of the Minnie Healey. They will have no connection with the old Minnie Healey shaft or with the upper levels, where the poisonous gases from the mine fires have prevailed for some time. Some fine ore bodies are being opened by the new workings in the Rarus and Minnie Healey. The miners' union of Butte has again demonstrated its good sense. Its members by a referendum vote have decided not to take part in the troubles of the Amalgamated employees in several of the lumber mills at Hamilton and St. Regis. When the financial panic made general retrenchment necessary, the miners went back to the old scale. Some of the lumber workers did likewise, but those employed at the Hamilton and St. Regis mills refused. The company closed its mills, but later new unions were organized and men went to work, while the strikers appealed to the miners' union to refuse to handle any lumber from any source in the Butte mills until the demands of the striking lumbermen were adjusted. The miners' union decided to submit the question to referendum, and by a vote of about 4 to 1 decided to keep their hands off the affair.

MINING IN THE BLACK HILLS

Important Change in Management of Branch Mint Company—Stamp Mill of Safe Investment Company Goes Into Commission Soon.

Deadwood, S. D., Oct. 3.—An important change has just taken place in the management of the property of the Branch Mint Mining company. A new company, known as the Branch Mint Mining company, consisting of heavy New York stockholders of the old company, has taken over the property at Deadwood, and will reopen operations at once. The new company is a large corporation, amounting to $200,000, was paid up this week, and a new force of miners is being engaged. The 50-ton cyanide mill, the second largest in the Black Hills, will not be reopened until the ore bodies are better developed. Otto P. Heyn and Michael Hecht of the New York city are the principals in the new company. James L. Hardin continues president of the Branch Mint Mining company. Eastern stockholders were in attendance at the annual meeting of the Branch Mint Mining & Development company, held here. The officers elected are: A. J. Kingston, Warren, Ohio, vice president; Charles Niles, Ohio, president; W. W. Conner, Columbus, Ohio, secretary and treasurer; Stewart Conner, Union, general manager, and A. M. Wheeler, Tinton, superintendent. Other directors chosen were Ernest Mueller, Deadwood; John McVeen, Terry; David Wagner, Deadwood; and J. A. Hammon, Columbus, Ohio. The property consists of 400 acres of land located on the 1,200 level of the Gem shaft is down 60 feet and two tunnels are being driven. The mine is very rich. The ore, of which there is a large quantity, runs from $5.20 to $8.20 in the footwall and is a large amount of timber on the ground.

ORE SHOWING IS PROMISING

Recent Ore Strike at Bullion Mine Makes Property One of the Best Prospects in the Black Rock District.

Prescott, Ariz., Oct. 3.—Taking into consideration the number of feet of development the ore showing in the Bullion mine is among the most promising in the Black Rock district, according to the statement of P. S. Wren, general manager of the Golden State Mining company, in which the title of the property is vested. The Bullion properties include the greater portion of the ground covered by the former town of Bullion, known as Bullion station. It has been considered valueless and run over by prospectors for more than a quarter of a century until discovered by Judge Wren, who won possession of the town of Gilbert passed a year ago. He found the croppings of what he considered copper and commenced sinking a shaft. The shaft is now down 112 feet and the face of the vein shows a continuous ore shoot the entire depth of the shaft and the length of the drift. The shoot averages five feet in thickness. Some of the ore carries 70 per cent in copper and from $4 to $6 in gold.

THE BOSTON CONSOLIDATED

Annual Production of 20,000 Pounds of Copper Promised After End of Year—Dividends Declared by Several Utah Mines.

Salt Lake, Utah, Oct. 3.—During August approximately 25,000 dry tons of ore was put through the Boston Consolidated's milling plant at Garfield. A total of 1,555 tons of concentrates was made, containing about 600,000 pounds of copper. The extraction was approximately 12 per cent. Since March last there has been a change in the method of mining, and an immense sum has been expended in order that the better grade of the mountain porphyry ore might be made available in unlimited quantity. The managers assert that before the end of the year the mill can easily be supplied with ore to keep it running at capacity for an indefinite period. Only four months of the year have been in operation. By Christmas it is expected the entire twelve will be in operation, when an annual production of 20,000 pounds of copper is promised.

The report of the Newhouse Mines & Smelters corporation for the year ended June 30 shows a balance above operating expenses of $11,321, with receipts from the sale of copper of $89,835. Expenses for the year were $80,152. On Oct. 1 the company was able to market copper, the production was reduced to 10 per cent of normal. On Dec. 1 the force was increased to 50 per cent of normal and since then gradually increased. The Skyline mine of the usual complement is employed now. A total of 176,766 tons of ore was mined of which all but 10,014 tons was milled. The mill produced 1,247 tons of concentrates, a total of 1,244,175 pounds of copper, 1,721 ounces of gold and 48,555 ounces of silver annual assessment work for ten years.

ROCK STRIKE AT THE GLOBE
Six Per Cent Copper Ore Found on the 1200-Foot Level of the Gem and Shipments to the Old Dominion Smelter to Begin at Once.

Globe, Ariz., Oct. 3.—The series of remarkable copper strikes made in the mines of the Globe district during the past few months have been so numerous and the disclosures so rich that the interest in the district has been more frequent and more sensational in its importance than any other district in the country. The continued improvement of the ore bodies in the Globe district has been a matter of great interest to the owners of the Globe Consolidated company. The Gem shaft, which has been extensively worked on the 1,200 level of the mine, the vein is so wet and soft that the work has been very slow. The opening, and the management has decided to drive an extraction drift in the footwall and the face of the vein, drifting on the same vein from the Gem shaft, and the vein will be the ore every fifty feet. The Gem vein shows steady improvement in size as well as in the quality of the ore. Sulphides on the 1,200 level have yielded to five per cent in copper and from $4 to $6 in gold.

Ground has been broken for a three compartment working shaft to facilitate the development of the mine.

LAKE SUPERIOR IRON MINES

Increase of Activity Noted in Nearly All the Fields—Practically Every Marquette Range Mine Will be Operated All Winter Encouraging Outlook on the Menominee Range.

Presumably preseeing a material change for the better in the iron and steel trade, an increase of activity is noted in the Lake Superior mining region. Ore has been moving more freely of late and there is seen a tendency on the part of the producing interests to enlarge operations. Evidence of improving conditions is to be found in almost all the fields.

On the Marquette range a larger tonnage of ore is now being shipped from the mines at Ishpeming and Negaunee than at any previous time this season. It is from these mines that comes the bulk of the production of the district. The three railroads serving the properties are working from five to seven switch engines and crews each, and practically every steam shovel on the range is engaged in loading ore from stockpiles. Not all the ore in stock will be shipped this year, some of the piles being of very large proportions, but there will be a considerably less tonnage remaining than appeared likely some weeks ago.

With the exception of two open-cut producers, practically every mine on the Marquette range will continue in operation throughout the winter. There may even be an increase in working forces, particularly at the Steel corporation's Regent grade at Negaunee. These latter properties have been wrought on a single shift for almost a year past, having curtailed operations at a time when it was not possible to prosecute mining work to advantage because of the extensive surface improvements under way. The program of betterments has been carried out now, and the Regent mines late the development of the Great Eastern ore body and also to explore the vein bodies of the Keyes and the Old Dominion fault—the Collins and Doyle ground, and the site of the Keyes and Doyle mines. It is said to be an ideal one, affording an ample level grade for the extension of it of the Arizona Commercial plant, ample room for the machinery and building apparatus to a plant of sufficient capacity, plenty of water and what is of greatest importance, especially well located for the rapid and economical development of an important ore body. The Great Eastern crosscut on the 430-foot level is being driven at the rate of five feet a day, and within a very few months should reach the level of the mine. The new shaft from which an upraise will be started will be at that level. The equipment of the shaft, to be completed by the end of the year, will be a matter for early consideration and Mr. Probert may go to Washington, Mich., to consult with the officials of the Superior & Boston company as to the type and capacity of the machinery to be installed.

The east drift on the 430-foot level of the Great Eastern mine continues in high grade ore, which is now opened to the point beyond the main crosscut on the 430-foot level, and about sixty feet farther east than the main crosscut. The vein has been sunk to connect with the east drift on the 430-foot level should soon be in place.

At the Gardner shaft, ground has been broken for the excavation of the 400-foot level station.

Ninety men are now on the payroll of the Gardner mine, and the force is to be further increased.

The Orphan Copper company has opened a two and a half-foot vein of chalcopryite ore in their shaft, at a depth of 175 feet. The vein is carried in a gangue of lime spar and in sufficient quantity to make an average value of 12 per cent in copper. The ore was encountered several feet above the 175-foot mark, at which depth it leaves the shaft. Samples of the ore are being taken and the rock is being collected on exhibition at the Dominion hotel.

B. F. Crawford, on his recent trip East, succeeded in bonding to Kansas City and Boston parties the property of the Powers Gulch Development company, and a number of claims owned by individuals, all situated at the head of the Powers gulch, in the Pinto creek section. Included in the deal was the claim of the late Mr. Johnson, who owned the claim, and the individual owners being Lee and John Mattison, John Hoffman, J. H. Messier, O. B. Crawford, and others. The price to be paid for all the claims is $75,000, payments to be made Jan. 1 and July 1, 1909, and Jan. 1, 1910.

The striking of sulphide ore in the Keystone property means that on all the properties now open to the public, but the Eureka and Live Oak properties, also, carry the sulphide ore body opened in the Miami and Inspiration mines. The drill hole in which the ore was struck in the Keystone is about 100 feet south of the Red Rock shaft, where the Miami company has a body of oxide ore, and there is every reason to believe that the sulphides extend without a break through the intervening Keystone and Eureka ground, and in all probability continues on into the Live Oak.

Anaconda, Mont., Oct. 3.—Throughout the district from the head of Flint creek to Georgetown, Cable and Silver lake there is now more general activity than there has been for some years.

Heretofore when one property is being worked extensively, most of the others have been idle, or nearly so, but just now it is different and there is a strong probability that many of the mines, prospects and mills will be kept in motion during the fall and winter.

Levi Davis, well-known in Western Montana, has recently purchased the Theodora, a claim that is situated on a mountain between the famous Pyrites and the Luxembourg.

There is a tunnel on the ground which is on the vein, but in order to gain greater depth Mr. Davis has started a winze about fifty feet into the tunnel opening. This winze is now down about fifty feet, and is all the way in one following the granite foot wall. Water is now coming in so strong that a pump is necessary for further sinking, and the prospect is being installed, being encouraged to do so by the fact that he has an 18-inch vein of quartz carrying $28.00 in gold. It is the general belief of miners that the property is a valuable one.

The Milwaukee Gold Extraction company now has 40 men employed in the mine and mill, with every probability that the work will be continued during the winter, possibly with an increased force. The reports are to the effect that the company has plenty of high-grade ore, and that the mill is doing excellent work.

The Red Lion property, situated just below the Milwaukee properties, is under lease to George Gordon. He has eight miners employed and is getting out some good ore.

Charles Hardt has secured a lease on the Pyrites tailings and has made a deal with the Jackson Bros., who have control of the Glenn mill, to work it. It is understood that he will intend to begin work moving the tailings at once.

The Jackson Bros. have secured a lease on all of the gold properties of James Glenn of Cincinnati, including the mill. Some men are employed just now in the mining operations, and it is expected that the work will be worked before the winter opens.

Between the boarding house and the mill, on the Southern Cross ground, a new vein has been discovered which is 60 feet in width, and for the first time in the history of the mine, a granite footwall has been found. A new shaft has been put down and crosscuts run showing, as stated, a vein 60 feet wide. The lowest sample taken from this immense ore body assayed $6, and the highest $80. There are 30 men employed in the development of this new find. The Southern Cross mill is not now being operated.

THE FIRST PAYMENT IS MADE

On Big Stock Option of the Butte-Montana Copper Company—Ten Thousand Dollars Go Into Treasury—Control Involved.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 3.—The first payment on the big stock option of the Butte-Montana Copper Mining company has been made, and it is now certain that all the payments will be met, the stock taken up and control of the company pass to Eastern capitalists. The latter are represented by R. A. Kerr, of Duluth, a mining engineer, who is in Butte and who makes the first payment of $10,000 into the Butte-Montana treasury. More than 300,000 shares are included in the option, including treasury and individual stock.

The Alex Scott is an exceptionally well situated property, being surrounded by producing mines of the Amalgamated company. It is developed by a shaft 1,200 feet deep, and a number of levels opened. Stations have been cut from the 400-foot level. The level has been cut to the 200 level, the 400, 500, 600, 700, 800, 900, 1,000 and 1,200. From the 700 down, the levels are connected with the shaft of the West Colusa, an adjoining mine owned by the Weston & Montana company. The latter company, under an arrangement with the Butte-Montana, did nearly all of the connection work and also deepened the shaft in order to produce ventilation for the West Colusa.

The shaft is two compartments down to the 800 station, and is three compartments below that. The mine has commercial ore on the 600, 800, 1,000 and 1,200 levels, and is stated yesterday that Mr. Kerr is in Butte to make arrangements for a resumption of work at the mine this week.

The Butte-Montana also owns a mining property in the Walkerville district which has produced considerable silver in its time.

CRIPPLE CREEK DISTRICT

Important Discoveries Expected in Crosscut From Moon Anchor to Corundrum—Shipments to Mills and Smelters Average 2,300 Tons Daily.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Oct. 3.—The 30-cars of ore monthly. It averages 440 a ton.

The Mattie L. mine is shipping through losses $40 to $100 ore. The shoot carries about 100 tons of gold and sylvanite. The production is two cars weekly.

Important discoveries are expected in a crosscut started from the 1,000 foot level of the Moon Anchor shaft to connect with the workings of the Corundrum. The territory is virgin, but is supposed to contain rich ore. A monthly production of 500 to 800 tons is maintained in the Corundrum workings of Moon Anchor, Corundrum and Elton.

An electric hoist capable of 200 tons in twenty-four hours is being installed on the intermediate shaft of the Moon Anchor deep drainage tunnel. A more powerful plant is being placed at the portal of the tunnel.

The Homer lease on the Lucky Gus mine of the Republic Iron & Steel company of Hibbing, has practically been abandoned by the Republic Iron & Steel company. The lease was an annual one, containing only 225,000 tons, and ground is being opened up. A shipment of 10,000 tons of ore is being made. Exploration continues at the McCollman and Gibbs properties. The Vivian mine at Guinness is idle, and has been for upwards of a year. Its ore is of a quality little demanded at this time, although shipments have recently been made from the stockpile.

The Gogebic range mines are sending out rather more ore than previously this season. The stockpiles at the larger properties are being reduced at an encouraging rate. The Steel corporation's Norrie group and the Tilden, Ferdinand Schlesinger's Newport, the Cleveland Cliffs company's Ashland, Corrigan, McKinley & Co.'s Colby and Ironston, and the properties of Pickands, Mather & Co. are all on the active list and are employing good sized forces of men.

Mining is not being pushed with the unprecedented activity witnessed last season, but much development is in progress and the range will be prepared to make a record-breaking production next year. It is not expected that all the ore in stock will be moved this season, but the stockpiles will be reduced it is practically assured there will be no reduction in underground working forces the coming winter. In fact, it is altogether likely that in some few cases more men will be added to the payroll.

The Alexander mine, which is in the so-called Keweenaw group, southwest of Hibbing, has practically been abandoned by the Republic Iron & Steel company. The lease was an annual one, containing only 225,000 tons, and ground is being opened up. A ship-

Probably 100 dumps are being treated by plants located in the central part of the district. The Humphreys-Thompson Leasing company, while drifting on an old vertical vein which produced a fortune for former lessees, has encountered good ore on the Little Clara vein. Several seams show sylvanite assays of 100 to 150 per cent. The vein is distinct from the flat vein which yields cars of $50 ore monthly.

The Gold Sovereign mine is outputting 1,200 tons of $1 to $75 ore monthly. The Hill lease on the 1,000-foot level is 1 1/2 miles short of 400 feet between walls, the ore averaging $20 to $30 a ton.

The Modoc company has opened a mine, and promising vein at 500 feet depth, while crosscutting north of the main workings at 600 feet depth. The Hill lease on the 1,000-foot level is 1 1/2 miles short of 400 feet between walls, the ore averaging $20 to $30 a ton.

LONG TERM IS FAVORED

Water and Light Department May Sign New Gas Contract.

Will Bind City to Furnace Company to January 1, 1922.

The city water and light department will very likely sign a new contract soon with the Zenith Furnace company for the furnishing of gas from its plant at West Duluth. The board heard the proposition of the Zenith Furnace company officials at a special meeting a week ago. The members are now considering it individually, and will probably take some action at a meeting in the near future. The present contract between the water and light department and the furnace company entered upon its fifth year August 1. The board of the city attorney, who is now negotiating a new contract from the furnace company at this time on account of contemplated improvements at the plant. The company intends to spend half a million dollars in improvements, but before doing so, wishes to have the city bound to use its gas for a longer term than the present contract, which will expire Aug. 1, 1914, covers.

In the opinion of the city attorney, the board has no right to make a contract for a longer period than the present one, but it is the right to make a contract not to become effective some time in the future, covering ten years. The furnace company asks that the city make a contract continuing in force until that time. In that way, the city will be under contract for a period of about thirteen years from the present time.

It is believed the board will sign the contract under these conditions. Three years before it becomes effective are asked for the completion of improvements, which may be made in less time, but may not, on account of the necessity of raising bonds and the time which will be consumed in the preliminaries. Under the proposed contract, the city will pay 40 cents per 1,000 for commercial gas and 75 cents per 1,000 for gas for department uses, the rates being the same as those at present in force.

The members of the board do not see where the city will lose anything by the new contract, but they are certain to have the prevailing price of gas maintained, whereas the price of labor and coal are certain to be on the increase. They think the terms are reasonable and the contract will very likely be signed, insuring the present relations between the board and the furnace company until Jan. 1, 1922.

WILL OPEN A DULUTH STORE.

Harry Mitchell, the Well Known Twin City Tailor, Leases Building.

Harry Mitchell, the well-known tailor, who has stores in St. Paul and Minneapolis, Minn., whose business extends all over the Northwest, has taken a long time lease on the former Y. M. C. A. building, on Superior street, between Lakes and First avenue east, and will open a Duluth store within a few days.

Mr. Mitchell was the first man in the tailoring business to advertise that clothes made to order could be sold as cheaply as ready-made clothing, and he has built up an immense business in proof of his ability to give the public clothing made to order at ready-made prices.

Buying as he does, wools from the largest and best mills of America and Europe, Mr. Mitchell carries more clothes in stock than many other establishments.

It is his intention to make the Duluth store a very important branch of his business and, toward that end, a large stock of choice woolen fabrics will be carried and a large force of skilled tailors will be employed.

Judge Cant Upholds Assessment for Oneota Street Pavement.

Supreme Court Will Now Recide Case on Its Merits.

The right of the board of public works of the city of Duluth under the charter to levy an assessment on the property owners on two streets forming a continuous thoroughfare for an improvement petitioned for by 25 per cent of the property owners of the paving district taken as a whole, was upheld by Judge Cant in district court this morning. The decision was given after arguments on the appeal of the paving district, which was made by the board of public works, and the assessment for the paving of Oneota and Ramsey streets from Forty-sixth to Fifty-fifth avenues west. A. E. McManus appeared for the paving district, and E. M. Morgan for the city.

The decision opens the way for the paving of the streets, which has been in dispute since the paving board was organized. The decision of Judge Cant is a final one, and the paving board will now proceed with the paving of the streets. The board has no right to make a contract for a longer period than the present one, but it is the right to make a contract not to become effective some time in the future, covering ten years. The furnace company asks that the city make a contract continuing in force until that time. In that way, the city will be under contract for a period of about thirteen years from the present time.

Joseph Mattson Fined $10 and Costs in Police Court.

For shooting off a revolver on Lower Lake avenue last evening, and otherwise annoying the public, Joseph Mattson was fined $10 and costs of $5 in police court this morning. The city judge, Judge Cant, said that since Mattson was fined $10 and costs of $5 for shooting off a revolver on Lower Lake avenue south, and was kicked out of the city, he should be fined $10 and costs of $5 for shooting off a revolver on Lower Lake avenue north, and was kicked out of the city. A policeman saw him and he was arrested.

AN ENDOWMENT FUND STARTED

Children's Home is Making Preparations for the Future.

An endowment fund for the Duluth Children's home has been started. Thanks to the interest of generous friends, $2,000 came to the home during the past year, most of it as a legacy from Mrs. Clara E. Beck. To this has been added $500 of J. G. Williams' donation, which has been in the savings bank for several years past.

A further addition to the fund has been made from the sale of a lot donated to the home twenty years ago, by the Lakeville Land company. This makes a total of $3,900 as a starter for the fund. The proceeds of the sale of the lot have been raised to make up the deficit in running expenses, and also a substantial fund to make permanent repairs.

IS INSANE FROM FEAR

Henry Johnson, Lost in the Woods, Loses Mind.

Is Raving Maniac When Found by His Comrade.

Insane with terror as a result of being lost alone in the woods at night, Henry Johnson was brought to Duluth today strapped and on foot to a carriage seat—a raving maniac. Johnson and Henry Erickson were working together building a house at Island Lake. Yesterday Johnson was said to have become intoxicated and he started to walk to Duluth. He lost his way, and in the morning Erickson started out to find him. He came across Johnson playing in the middle of the night, and showing every sign of insanity. Erickson attempted to get him into the carriage, but he refused to get in. Three settlers happened along and they assisted Erickson in getting the maniac into the carriage. In this way he was brought to Duluth, and taken before Judge Cant this morning.

Johnson is said to have some nephews living in Duluth, but they have not yet been located. He is about 50 years of age.

MANY BIRDS BEING SHOT

Police Are Keeping Close Watch for the Offenders.

The police are still receiving many reports of shooting within the city limits. Men and boys with guns are playing havoc with the birds around the outskirts of the city. The birds seem to be in their annual flight, and in some parts of the city the execution among the innocent birds is being carried on with great violence. Many one caught shooting at them will be given a stiff fine in police court. In spite of all the warnings that have been issued, the shooting continues to violate the orders of the police, and break the provisions of the city ordinance.

It is expected that the deal will be consummated within a few days, and the Western Union company will then establish offices in the range towns.

Very Few Serious Offenses Against Law During September.

According to the monthly police report, there were 36 arrests in Duluth during the month of September. Most of these were for very ordinary offenses. Sixty-five per cent of the money reported lost or stolen was recovered. The amount of property recovered was $1,000, including cash and articles of value and $1,040 of this was recovered. One hundred and ninety-four men were arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct, three for forgery, thirteen for petty larceny, eight for trespass, eighteen for vagrancy, three for being in the public ordinance and seven for threatening assault. Two hundred and fifty-eight arrests were responded to, thirteen lost children were found, 119 lodgers were commended at headquarters, the patrol wagon traveled 291 miles, 149 men were taken to the prison, and one hundred and one were reported. Only ten burglaries were reported during the month and five grand larceny cases. Considering the fact that Duluth is full of returning harvesters and lumberjacks preparing to go to their winter work in the woods, remarkably good order is being maintained in the city. There is a large number of rather rough class of transients in Duluth, more or less trouble might be expected of them.

A Well-Known Duluth Contractor

An Ex-Mayor and Proprietor of Two Large Dye Houses, Three Cases of Catarrh Relieved by Gas-Ka

Very Few Serious Offenses Against Law During September.

M. Fitzgerald is a well-known Duluth contractor. He lives at 123 E. Fifth street and says: "I have taken a great many medicines for catarrh, but this CAS-KA is the only thing I ever took internally that helped me. I have taken three bottles and I don't have that clogging up in the throat any more, and for the bowels it's one of the finest things I ever took. I am recommending CAS-KA to all my friends."

Ex-Mayor Capt. E. C. Davis of Crookston, Minn., says: "I can certainly recommend CAS-KA, as I have a daughter that I have spent hundreds of dollars on for medicine. She had the catarrh so bad that it impaired her hearing. She started to take this medicine, CAS-KA, but never for a moment expected it to help her deafness. Anyhow, she had taken only two bottles when her hearing returned. CAS-KA has also helped me for kidney trouble."

These three cases of catarrh go to show that what CAS-KA will do for one it will also do for another. Capt. E. C. Davis, ex-mayor of Crookston, is one of the best known men in Minnesota. His daughter took this medicine in December, a year ago. Write him or anyone in Crookston about this case, or if you really can't see any time at his place of business, the Fargo Dye House and Northwestern Dye House, Fargo, N. D., write him.

Yes, I know CAS-KA has been a great help to me for catarrh, although when I bought the first bottle I was taking it for a lame back which I had for six years. The first bottle relieved my backache. I have now taken five bottles and my backache is gone. On account of my catarrh I have been hard of hearing for the past twenty-one years, and I was surprised to discover my hearing was coming back. I have three rooms here in my place of business and formerly when the telephone would ring I could not hear it even when I was in the same room with it. After I had taken two or three bottles of CAS-KA, Mrs. Kelly asked me one day why I was not answering the telephone. I told her that I could not hear it. She said that I should be called through I was in the same room with the phone. Then I began to think about whether CAS-KA was doing it or not. I have watched my improvement by going into the back room and have some one ring the phone, which I can now distinctly hear. I know CAS-KA has helped me greatly for catarrh and deafness, and you can tell everybody about it. I am telling everyone I know who has catarrh or backache what CAS-KA has done for me."

If you are so situated that you cannot come twice a day to try CAS-KA, free, you can get one of the $1 bottles for 35 cents, and if you don't notice any benefit for catarrh or rheumatism, you can come twice a day and try it free until Oct. 17th.

RUNAWAYS WHO HAVE BECOME FAMOUS

By JOHN S. HARWOOD

Of former runaways in Anselm Joseph McLaurin, junior toga wearer from Mississippi, and George Cluncent Perkins, California's senior representative in "the most august legislative body of the world." The house of representatives is far weaker in runaways; it can boast of but one, George Washington Cook, who represents the state of Colorado at large.

Anselm Joseph McLaurin of Mississippi ran away from home when he was 16 years old, not to go to sea, as did Senator Perkins, but to go to war. The latter part of the year 1848, when their son and heir was a few months old, the parents of the future senator removed from Brandon, Miss., where he was born, to a farm in Smith county, Miss. On this farm the boy grew up, attending occasionally the neighborhood schools until he was 16. When he had reached this age the great struggle at arms between the North and the South came on. Young Anselm, like the rest of the youth of the country, was filled at once with a martial fire. His parents wanted him to continue on with his studies, but he was too young to go to war, anyway. But the boy took matters into his own hands, slipped out the first good chance he got, and enlisted as a private soldier. All through the war he carried a musket.

At the close of the struggle he made up his mind that he had had enough experience for the present and wanted an education more than anything else.

His career as a soldier had made him hardy, it had shown him the seamy side of life, it had strengthened his character and caused him to look from a new point of view upon the actualities of life. He went at once to a then well-known Mississippi academy and studied for two years. Also, he studied law and was licensed to practice in 1868. Three years later, when he was elected district attorney, he was unanimously launched on a political career that put him in the senate when the present century opened.

When McLaurin, the runaway soldier boy found out exactly what he wanted to do in life, he did not let the grass grow under his feet; he made good because he carefully considered each step of his career after he had made his first impulsive step of joining the Confederate army. Also, he worked hard. To educate oneself in general branches in two years, and at the same time to acquire a knowledge of law sufficiently extensive to be admitted to the bar is no small thing. And ever since he did this mental task McLaurin has been a worker. The father of ten children, seven of whom are still living, a presidential elector, a delegate to the constitutional convention of his state, and now with a seat in the senate of the United States, prosperous and respected, Anselm Joseph McLaurin, once a runaway boy, accounts his success in life to the fact that he not only worked, but worked with a definite end and purpose in view all the time.

Of a Fighting Family.

While McLaurin was running away from home to enlist in the cause of the confederacy, George Washington Cook, representative at large from Colorado, was bidding his paternal mansion a surreptitious farewell in order to link his fate with the cause of the Union. Cook was born in Indiana, and his family has such a fighting history that it is a natural thing he should insist upon going to the war with or without the consent of his parents. His father, who was an officer of the Union side, died from the effects of disease contracted in the Civil war, and his mother was a daughter of an officer who served with distinction in the war of 1812. His brother, a bugler in his father's regiment, at the age of thirteen, died for his country at Montgomery, Ala. Of course

George Washington Cook could not be kept a thome under the circumstances. And then, too, there is his name, that of the country's first great patriot and father.

Representative Cook was twelve years old when he took matters in his own hand and enlisted under the flag as a drummer boy and went to the front with an Indiana regiment. At the age of fourteen he was company clerk, the youngest according to the records of the War Department, who ever held that position in the history of the great army that Lincoln called into being.

When the war was over young Cook realized, as did so many other boys who had run away from home to enlist, that what he most needed was an education. Therefore, the first move he made after he had returned to the family roof and doffed his uniform, was to take up his school books again. The tasks therein finished, he went into business, first in the foreclosures of the Western mining camp. He-elect, the town nominated him for a third term by acclamation, but he declined the honor because of his business interests, they demanding his full time. Until he was made Colorado's representative at large in the sixtieth congress this was the only political office he had been called upon to fill.

Naturally, this former 12-year-old runaway takes a great interest in Civil war organizations. He has been department commander of the G. A. R. for Colorado and Wyoming; in 1905 he was unanimously elected senior vice commander-in-chief of the G. A. R.; he is a member of the Loyal Legion, and at one time was president of Colorado's Soldiers and Sailors' Home. Wherever veterans of the Civil war congregate to talk over old times, and the talk drifts around to "babies" who went to the war willy-nilly, as far as their parents were concerned, some one is pretty apt to spin the story of George Washington Cook, who today, at 56, but was only 9 years old when Fort Sumter was fired upon. His career as a runaway and in many other respects has been much like the career of Senator McLaurin, and to the fact that after the war he, like Senator McLaurin, worked hard and for a definite purpose, not stopping to loiter on the way to success is attributable. When George Cluncent Perkins, United States senator from California, heard the sea calling.

At the mature age of 12½ years took fortune by the forelock and ran away to sea, his family were naturally distressed. Born on a farm near Kennebunkport, Me., the boy heard the sea calling him. Go to sea he must. The "destric" school did not appeal to George Cluncent. He dreamed of the sea at night and talked of it by day. Then one day he shipped himself on board a sailing vessel bound for New Orleans. The lot of a youth who leaves home for the first time to ship as a sailor upon the bounding deep is not all beer and skittles. It is highly probable that the future senator from the great state of California felt now and then during the career, which he chose for himself, the correcting and soothing influence of a rope's end or a belaying pin.

It seemed for a time as if Perkins was not going to turn out one of the runaways who made good. For four years and over, until he had become a big boy of 17, the lad knocked about in the foreclosures of the Western ocean packets. In the year 1855 young Perkins shipped before the mast in the sailing ship Galates, bound for San Francisco. It was the autumn of that year when he arrived within the Golden Gate, which was destined to be golden, indeed, for him. "The days of old, the days of gold, the days of 'forty-nine" had not entirely vanished from California when Perkins arrived there. The state swarmed with opportunities if only a young man had the sand and level-headedness to take advantage of them.

Young Perkins saw these opportunities looming before him. He severed his connection with the good ship Galates, and took his trunk ashore for a full day. The runaway sailor boy had not taken into very seriously before, but now, like Grace in New York and Peru, he thought the matter out with himself and decided that if he was ever going to amount to anything it was about time to set about it. He got a job in a store, he saved money, he went into the shoekeeping business himself; he started a bank; he went in for farming and for mining. In fact, wherever he saw an opportunity Perkins seized upon it. Today he is a millionaire. Then he took a prominent part in the affairs of his adopted state and city, finally taking in the United States senate. As he grew in years and wealth and importance Perkins began to educate himself. He felt the want which had not been supplied by his few years at the Maine district school or by the education afforded by the foreclosures. He is an example of what can be done by a boy who really means to do it. Director of the San Francisco Art association and the California Academy of Sciences, Perkins is distinctly a runaway boy who has made good.

Two Modern Dick Whittingtons.

The Dick Whittington of New York city was the late William R. Grace, twice elected mayor of the old city, and in John Weaver, its executive head for four years, Philadelphia has its counterpart of London's most famous lord mayor. Grace was born in Dublin, and was attending one of the city's schools when he up stakes from the auld sod. Weaver comes from Whittington's own native land.

Young Grace's family was in fairly prosperous circumstances, and he undoubtedly would have been well started in life by it had he cared to remain at home, but the city of Dublin and the neighborhood thereof did not appeal to the adventurous spirit of young William. He used to wander along the water front and watch the ships go out, longing to go with them. This he did for several years. Then, one day, when he had arrived at the age of 14, the boy boldly went on board a vessel bound for America and asked for a position as cabin boy. He was a stocky, sturdy lad, well spoken and polite. His only stipulation was that he should be allowed to leave the ship when he arrived in New York.

To him, as to many of his countrymen, America was the land of gold, the promised country, and it was here that he expected to find his fortune. But the streets of New York were not paved with gold, even in the days of the "idle and splendid forties." Young William regretted exceedingly the comforts of his father's house when he found himself alone and penniless in New York. But he had a great amount of stick-to-it-iveness; he would not go home until he had made good—had shown that he could support himself and make his way in the world.

For a while he boarded with a shoemaker, helping the cobbler out in his work to pay partially for his board. He worked for a printing house. He turned his hand to anything that came his way. Finally, he got a job in a shipping house. Then his career was shaped. Four years after he had landed a penniless boy in New York, he had been so saving that he was able, at the age of 18, to return back across the water and establish himself in Liverpool under the firm name of W. R. Grace & Co. It was a shipping firm, and though it promised well, the business did not come up to the ambitious expectations of young Grace. The runaway boy, of course, could now visit his relatives in Dublin. He had made no great fortune, but to be the head of a business house at 18 was no small thing.

While he had been away from home Grace's father had lost a considerable part of his fortune in South American ventures. Young Grace had a longing to try to retrieve some of those losses. He branched the matter to his sister, who was a woman of considerable means. The runaway had already made good and had proved that he could do things, and his sister agreed to back him in his South American venture. He went to Peru and opened in the city of Callao the mercantile house which became so widely known as Grace Brothers. The runaway boy, who had dreamed of greatness in New York, saw now the rapid fruition of his hopes.

Returns to New York.

It was not long thereafter that William R. Grace came again to the island of Manhattan. The shores which a few years before he had trod as a runaway sailor boy he now stepped (Continued on page 20, third column.)

PITTSBURG-NEW YORK COPPER COMPANY

This is what the Butte Copper Age says of the Pittsburg-New York gold property:

Umatilla Group is Attracting Wide Attention.

W. H. Lindsay returned this week from a trip of several days' duration to the Umatilla group of mining properties near Birdseye, eight miles west of Helena. Mr. Lindsay brought back with him some of the dirt or pulverized rock as colors was obtained from the double handful of material he took from the workings and brought home in a paper sack. It was estimated that at least 25 cents' worth of gold was obtained from the pound of dirt panned out. The material was it came from the mine where operations are now being carried on near the surface by the Pittsburg & New York company, the new owner of the claims.

With a granite covered picnic the sample of dirt was washed and a lengthy string of panned just as it came from the mine and much better results would have been obtained if the rock and dirt had been crushed and a regular gold pan used. The sample Mr. Lindsay had contained values which would yield about $500 to the ton. The samples was taken at random from a streak about two feet wide in the vein, which is from 4 to 6 feet in width along which a drift has been run for a distance of 100 feet.

It is said that excitement still is high among Helena mining men as to the future of the district in which the rich strike was made about two months ago. The five-stamp mill for treating the free milling gold is in steady operation and arrangements are being made to place five more stamps in commission as soon as possible. The cyanide plant is now about ready to handle cyaniding ore and very soon the revenues from operations will be piling up for Pittsburg & New York company stockholders.

One of the attractive features of the Umatilla group of ten claims is that an abundance of water and water-power is at hand to operate the mill and treat the ore. At present the richest ore is being sacked for shipment. The district has been staked for several miles around, and the locations are awaiting the installation of sufficient stamps in the Pittsburg

& New York mill to handle custom ore.

Mining experts who have examined the vein on the Umatilla group say that it is probably a continuation of the famous Drummond vein, from which Thomas Cruse of Helena took out millions of dollars some years ago. Those who have located on the vein for a distance of several miles are getting good results. In early days the Umatilla mines produced more than $100,000, and the new strike is looked upon as one of the most important gold discoveries near Helena in recent years.

Harry Bush, a well known mining man of Montana, with a number of years' experience in gold and placer mining, made a thorough examination of the district in which the Umatilla group is located, and this is what he says in the Treasure State of August 15:

"A great porphyry dyke runs from Umatilla mine through to Unionville, thence to Spring Hill, and is determined and well defined. Underneath this great outcrop lies the continuation of the Drummond vein, now being opened up by the Pittsburg & New York company of Butte, who have acquired the property and will push work fast and furiously. Already contracts for shaft sinking and tunneling have been let, and the results showing in bottom of shafts and face of tunnel cannot be conceived with new stamping equipment, additional cyaniding tanks and the camp generally on the run, with new locations every day making fresh discoveries. I advise Helena people to look to the new greatest gold camp discovered in thirty years, where there is ore going into the hundreds of dollars per ton, free gold to be seen and taken out at will, and bequests to anyone who wishes to investigate for the benefit and the future of the Capital city. One hundred and sixty feet of drifting has been accomplished in a short time and much ore exposed, with a streak of 8 inches to 2 feet in a vein five feet wide, the lowest assay given being $36 and up to $480. In the shaft, the same thing occurs, and the ore is being sacked that would surprise mining communities at large. The camp is resuming a new feature under the new ownership, and Butte is becoming lively in anticipation of its new baby, which bids fair to become the favorite offspring of a vigorous community."

See the water power and the Butte mill. The Pittsburg-New York company own seven claims in South Butte and ten gold claims near Helena, capitalized at $1,500,000, with $800,000 in the treasury, will bear all investigation and has the earmarks of becoming a favorite investment. Work is progressing, but further equipment is necessary and I can strongly advocate the purchase of these shares at the very reasonable price asked, viz: 15 cents for a limited number. The secretary, Mr. Lindsay of the forthcoming. I have further information upon Butte-Montana that it is in evidence a new organization is on the cards, with a change from $1 shares to $10 and that a large cash deposit is available for View shows magnificent water power on Umatilla claims.

Butte-Montana and the Pittsburg-New York companies will be in Duluth Tuesday, and will be able to furnish and substantiate the situation, and for information upon these properties, and it will be the extensive opening up of the Alex Scott. Butte-Montana is a very great buy anything under the dollar, and Pittsburg-New York needs immediate attention and very little recommendation.

WEST END

ANDERSON WILL SAY FAREWELL

Pastor to Preach Last Sermon in Swedish Methodist Church.

Rev. John A. Anderson will conclude a pastorate, which has extended over nine years, tomorrow, when he will preach his farewell sermons as the minister of the First Swedish Methodist Episcopal church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street.

Next week Rev. Mr. Anderson and his family will move to Marinette, Wis., which town will be his headquarters as superintendent of the Lake Superior district of the Swedish M. E. conference. Mr. Anderson returned today from Marinette, where he has been spending a few days in making arrangements for the removal of his family and household goods there.

At both the morning and evening services in the First Swedish Methodist church tomorrow, Mr. Anderson will be in the pulpit.

Mr. Anderson has been a resident of the West end ever since he came to Duluth, and has always taken an active part in its promotion and a deep interest in its welfare. At the First church, he will be succeeded by the clergyman, who during the past year, has had charge of the Swedish Methodist congregation at Norway, Mich.

ACTIVITY RESUMED.

The Bema Club Will Have a Meeting Next Week.

After a recess of several months, the Bema club, the West end's debating society, will resume activity next week.

The first meeting of the season will be held Monday evening in Dr. Oredson's office, with President George M. Jensen in the chair. Plans for the coming winter's work will be laid. The chances are that the members ship limit of the club will be increased. The organization was a great success last year, and this year finds a number of applicants for membership. In addition to the regular business meetings and debates, the club plans to give some social functions. Last year, the banquet, to which the ladies were invited, was one of the hits of the season.

West End Shortfalls.

William Sussman has returned from a business trip to the Twin Cities. The Swedish Christian Sick Benefit society held its regular monthly meeting last evening in Sloan's hall. Miss Josephine Caronoff, of Calumet, Mich., left for her home yesterday, after a visit with friends in the West end. James Abbott of Clear Lake, Minn., is visiting relatives in the West end. Rev. H. C. Munson is in St. Paul, attending the funeral of Rev. Mr. Jacobson, who died just after the conference there. From St. Paul, Mr. Munson will go to Lachine, Wis., where he is to be pastor of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church.

Miss Edna Harper, of the Green block, is visiting friends in St. Paul. Mrs. J. W. Preston and daughter, Jessie, have returned from Southern Wisconsin, where they spent the summer.

Rev. James Sanaker and family have arrived from Minneapolis, and will make their home in the West end. Mr. Sanaker is the new superintendent of this district of the Norwegian-Danish M. E. conference, succeeding Rev. H. C. Munson. He will preach tomorrow in the First Norwegian-Danish church in private and is now trying for the scalp of the other teams in the West end and out of it.

The Adams alumni football team has been giving some energetic rehearsals in private and is now trying for the scalp of the other teams in the West end and out of it.

THEY MAKE NEW BALLOTS.

Supply Runs Out and Illegal Method is Followed.

St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 3.—(Special to The Herald).—Additional charges in the holding illegal voting case came to light today. Some of the friends of Rastetter, the defeated candidate for county commissioner in the Second district, claim that many of the ballots used were not according to the form prescribed by law.

According to their statements the non-resident 500 employees brought the number of voters so high that the supply of ballots ran out. Additional ballots were then made and it is claimed that not all of the names of the candidates were written on these ballots, but just those who were favorable to the men in charge. The time limit for asking for a recount of the votes has already passed and the only method left to contest the election is to secure an injunction restraining the county auditor from publishing the name of Herman on the ballot.

Mr. Rastetter, however, has not decided whether to push the case. He believes that such an action would cost more than the office is worth.

COMPANY HAS GOOD BACKING

Butte-Montana Mining Company Controlled by Strong Syndicate.

In view of the fact that the Butte-Montana Mining company has been sold and the control of strong Duluth and Pittsburg interests who intend placing the property on a producing basis within a short time, the following article published in the Copper Age, giving details of the transaction and a description of the property, will be read with interest by the large number of local investors:

At last the Butte-Montana Mining company has been firmly financed and control given into the hands of strong Duluth and Pittsburg interests, thus insuring the placing of the property in the list of producers within a short time. Option on the treasury stock and enough private stock to give control has been taken up by Robert A. Kerr, who represents the syndicate that will have charge of the affairs of the company, and the first payment of $20,000 is said to have been made. Other payments will be made according to the terms of the option agreement and in the meantime operations will be commenced and carried on both on a commercial and development basis, that is, development will continue while commercial operations are carried on. Mr. Kerr is expected to arrive in Butte at once and assume charge of the company's affairs. The Butte-Montana company is the owner of two claims in the Butte district, the Alex Scott, a copper mine, and the Little Annie, a silver mine, both of which are situated on a good deal of surface ground, and the Little Annie, a silver mine, was located about thirty miles from the Alex Scott mine. The Alex Scott mine was a good deal of attention on account of the excellent surface showings and the ore that was found at shallow depths. The mine has been worked with more or less success by private individuals as leasers since the location was made, and at the present time leasers are working the upper levels with profit.

The Alex Scott adjoins the West Colusa, one of the good producers of the Amalgamated mines and owned by the Boston & Montana company. More than a year ago a contract was made with the Boston & Montana company to sink the Alex Scott shaft from the 1,200-foot level. The Alex Scott & M. company put down the shaft and made three crosscuts at the 800, 1,000 and the 1,200-foot levels to the West Colusa workings, so as to have communication with the West Colusa without expense to the Butte-Montana company, and the Alex Scott mine, the Boston & Montana company upwards of $65,000 to sink the Alex Scott shaft to the 1,200-foot level. The Alex Scott & M. company put down the shaft and made three crosscuts at the 800, 1,000 and the 1,200-foot levels to the West Colusa workings, so as to have communication with the West Colusa without expense to the Butte-Montana company, and the Alex Scott mine, the Boston & Montana company upwards of $65,000 to sink the Alex Scott shaft to the 1,200-foot level. By its arrangements with the Boston & Montana company the Butte-Montana company has secured the Alex Scott mine, and the Alex Scott mine, the Boston & Montana company upwards of $65,000 to sink the Alex Scott shaft to the 1,200-foot level. The Alex Scott & M. company put down the shaft and made three crosscuts at the 800, 1,000 and the 1,200-foot levels to the West Colusa workings, so as to have communication with the West Colusa without expense to the Butte-Montana company, and the Alex Scott mine, the Boston & Montana company upwards of $65,000 to sink the Alex Scott shaft to the 1,200-foot level.

The Alex Scott has a large area of surface ground than the famous Minnie Healy, which was valued in the courts at from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000. The Butte-Montana company is capitalized at $1,000,000 in shares of the par value of $1 each. This capitalization includes the Little Annie mine, a very valuable silver property north-west of Walkerville. With proper development the Butte-Montana holdings should be worth considerably more than the Alex Scott mine. The company has paid for the ground and the Alex Scott mine is equipped with a good surface plant capable of sinking to the 1,300 or 1,400-foot level. This equipment will probably be strengthened for deeper sinking and the capacity increased for more extensive operations. The claim is 300 feet long and has four well defined leads, and the property and running from end to end, thus giving a great amount of commercial working ground. The Little Annie claim is situated between the famous Goldsmith and the Little Annie. Some of the Alex Scott mine was a good deal of attention on account of the excellent surface showings and the ore that was found at shallow depths. The mine has been worked with more or less success by private individuals as leasers since the location was made, and at the present time leasers are working the upper levels with profit.

Being only about two years old, the Butte-Montana company has made excellent progress in its development and the results reflect great credit upon the management. This company and the Tuelonne will probably make a record in the Butte-Montana development to the producing stage.

The officers of the company are: T. N. Burdick, president; J. P. Brown of Butte, vice president; John E. Chapman, secretary; and W. H. Lindsay of Butte, assistant secretary and treasurer.

Stockholders of the company who desire quick results should be grateful to the management for closing a deal with the strong Duluth and Pittsburg syndicate, for it means that the property will be fully developed at once and placed upon a producing basis within a short time.

LABOR LICENSED BY BUREAU

Williams Would Have Employment Agents Under State Supervision.

Working for Such a Law—Child Labor Conditions.

An effort will be made when the state legislature meets this term to get that body to pass a law which will adequately protect laboring men from dishonest employment agencies. This statement is according to State Labor Commissioner W. H. Williams, of St. Paul, who is in the city on official business.

Mr. Williams is back of the movement to eliminate the dishonest employment agencies, and he has been working for the passing of a law, which will make possible that end. He suggested that instead of the cities being vested with the power of granting licenses to employment agencies, that the state free employment bureau have the authority, and also the right to withdraw them when they see fit.

"The city is in no position to investigate cases where agencies have misused their licenses," said Mr. Williams. "In our work we are in constant touch with labor and the labor bureaus of every state, and so can better learn the truth when charges are brought against the pay agencies."

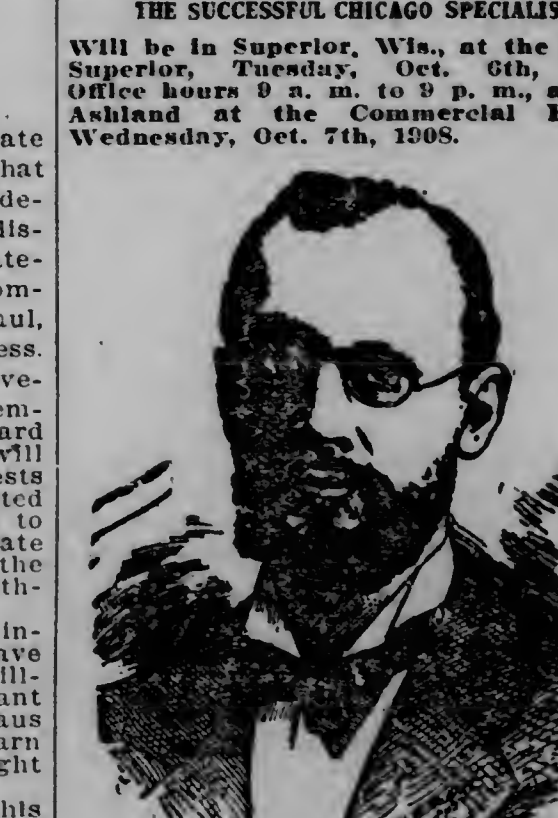

"Some action should be taken in this matter directly, for laborers are regularly being victimized by pay agencies in the cities of Minnesota. I recently received a letter from a labor commissioner of Montana, that state is overworked with idle men, and still more men are being sent in, many of them from Minnesota, with the idea that jobs are open to them here. He asked that I do all in my power to put an end to it in this state. I received that same from North and South Dakota when the harvest season started, and I went and investigated there myself. I found the conditions as represented. There were more men than jobs and more men being shipped in regularly by agencies. The agencies were not so bad in that case as were the railroads, which advertised in the Eastern papers that there were jobs for thousands of men in the Northwestern harvest fields. At that time I got a letter from the mayor of Lincoln, Nebraska, stating that if there was plenty of work in this part of the country he could easily furnish us with 5,000 men. I wrote back, 'keep them, we have more here than we know what to do with.'"

"Things are getting a trifle better now, though, in Minnesota. At the state free bureau in Duluth, James Walsh, manager, is doing an increasing business daily. In Minneapolis this month we have given more men work than during any time since the panic started last fall. We have this month employed about 1,000 men, which is about up to our old standard. The factories, wholesale houses, and mills are beginning to refill their crews again. But things are not yet what they should be. Last year the labor commission of this state started an organized campaign against child labor continued by Williams. We then placed approximately 1,000 children in school. This year we will be even more vigorous in our crusade against boys and girls being put out to work. I am in Duluth now to talk with Supr. R. E. Denfeld about the conditions here and to see if he thinks that the truancy officer needs some one to help him now while the school season is just starting. If he has more than he can do I will see that he has some one to assist him, at least until things are straightened out. I have just lately placed a man at Hibbing to see that every child old enough is attending school there and not working for a living."

EAST END PROPERTY IS BEING CLOSELY HELD

Demand for East Superior Street Business Property and Choice East End Residence Sites Causes a Tightening in the Market—"Own Your Own Home" Cry Grows Louder.

A few deals in Superior street business property and a few more transfers in choice East end residence property, composed the bulk of the trading in real estate circles in Duluth during the past week. Incidentally, dealers find that the East end situation is tightening up. The demand continues just as heavy and good prices are always to be obtained for desirable pieces of property, but few of the holders are most sought, are losing their hold, with the result that many good offers are going begging.

The "Own Your Own Home" cry, the slogan of real estate dealers, architects and builders, hasn't had entirely satisfactory results this fall, and it is being emitted more loudly than ever by everybody concerned. The man who timidly suggests that he will probably put off the building of that little nest until spring, is taken into a corner, given a talk that would arouse emotion in a clear store Indian and, if he isn't altogether impervious to the eloquence he is swung around into an avowed exponent of the "Do It Now" doctrine.

It is pointed out that conditions will never again be so good for the building of homes. Labor is cheaper than it will be next year, material is cheaper and the prices of desirable lots are always on the ascent. The man who acts now, is saved in the opinion of the dealers and builders, but he who procrastinates will find himself digging for several extra hundreds next spring, when he begins to build that nest of his own. There will be a rush of business and the law of supply and demand will set prices shooting skyward.

What is considered by many a modest price, was paid this week for a choice piece of East Superior street property. The investment company, identity unknown, purchased from Godfrey J. Hodges the property on the northeast corner of First avenue east and Superior street, consisting of lot 17 and a westerly one-half of lot 19, East Superior street, Duluth proper, first division, with a seventy-five foot frontage on Superior street. The consideration was $3,000.

Hert Fessler has sold to William B. Shively, lots 13 and 14, block 7, Harrison's division on the north side of First street between Twenty-fifth and was $23,333.34. There is a two-story brick building on the property.

H. C. Fulton has purchased from the Higgins estate the property on the north side of East Superior street near Sixth avenue east adjoining the old city tool house. The deal has not been fully closed and the papers filed, so that the consideration is not public. Mr. Fulton says he bought the property for investment and has not yet decided whether he will build, or will lease it to some other party.

A row of three houses, known as 1525-1527 East Third street on lot 7, block 85, Endion division, was sold this week by the Savings Union Real Estate company to Mrs. Josephine Butchart Fairfax for $3,500. Mrs. Fairfax also purchased the property at the corner of Sixteenth avenue east and Third street from the Duluth Home company for $7,150. There is a house under construction on the property.

The longest lease ever drawn on Duluth property was made this week, giving the Furness Realty company control of the southeast corner of Second avenue west and Third street. The lease runs for 198 years, twice the length of life of ordinary leases on business property, and is on a basis of 4½ per cent, on a valuation of $130,000, with a revaluation at the end of each thirty years. The property is owned by the Winston Pillsbury company of Minneapolis and has a 200-foot frontage on the street and 140 feet on the avenue. Thomas Furness and Thomas A. Merritt are directors of the Furness Realty company and it is said that they contemplate the erection of an Orpheum theater on the site secured.

The Hanford Investment company has sold to Margaret A. Harris the southerly 4½ feet of lot 16, block 20, Highland Park addition, being the northeast corner of Eighteenth avenue east and Sixth street. The consideration was $3,000.

Hert Fessler has sold to William B. Shively, lots 13 and 14, block 7, Harrison's division on the north side of First street between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth avenue east, for $3,500.

L. W. Bordman has sold to Charles Olmorth westerly one-half of lot 427, block 84, Duluth Proper, Second division, on Second street between Twenty-first and Twenty-second avenues east, for $1,100.

Frank J. McEntee has sold to Stella A. Thomas lot 14, block 6, Highland Park addition, on Third street between Twenty-first and Twenty-second avenues east, for $1,100.

John Lloyd has sold to George Anderson the easterly one-half of lot 333, block 144, Duluth proper, second division, on the north side of Fifth street, between Twentieth and Twenty-first avenues east, for $2,000.

The board of education of the city of Duluth has purchased from four different owners lots 1, 2, 3, and 4, block 20, Endion division, on the southeast corner Sixteenth avenue east and London road, as a site for the new Salter school. Lot 1, owned by Frank H. Preker, was sold for $2,000, lots 2 and 3, owned by Anna E. McIntyre and the $1,600 each, and the board paid Horace H. Jenks $1,500 for lot 4.

Charles S. Green has sold to E. G. Gridley lot 4, block 86, Endion division, on the south side of Third street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth avenues east, for $1,250.

The Felix Investment company has sold to Alfred W. Tausig lot block 6, Wooster division, on the south side of Third street between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth avenues east, for $1,500.

A. M. Nichols has sold to Victor Hurwitz lot 56, East Fifth street, Duluth proper, first division, on the south side of Fifth street between Third and Fourth avenues east, for $3,650.

Anna M. Willard has sold to M. H. Alworth lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 13, 14, 15, 16 and the easterly one-half of lot 12, block 7, Willard's addition, being a portion of the block between Fifth and Sixth streets at Twenty-sixth avenue east, for $6,845.

The West Duluth Land company has sold to the Union Match company lots 7, 13, 14, 15, and 16, block 209, West Duluth, rearranged division, near the factory of the company at Nicolet street and Fifty-first avenue west, for $1,500.

Joseph Schmidt has sold to the Hillard Construction company lot 6, block 146, Portland division on the north side of Seventh street, between Eleventh and Twelfth avenues east, for $1,500.

Through N. J. Upham & Co. Mrs. M. E. Colman has bought for improvement lots 1 and 2, block 12, Harrison's division, for $850. The same company has sold to Linus Svenson a lot on Fifth street, near Twelfth avenue east, lot 7, block 9, Highland Park division, for $750.

Jacobson Bros. have been excavating at Fourth avenue east and Superior street for a one-story lot, 60 by 60 feet, for 2, 7, Mullin. The building will contain two stories, one of which is under lease to the Wagner's Store works.

Through C. L. Raymond & Co., Christine Olson has bought for improvement lots 1 and 2, block 12, Harrison's division, for $850. The same company has sold to Linus Svenson a lot on Fifth street, near Twelfth avenue east, lot 7, block 9, Highland Park division, for $750.

AN OLD ENGLISH HOME WHICH WOULD COST $7,000 IN DULUTH

ANTHONY PUCK ARCHT

In the accompanying illustration are the floor plans and perspective view of a house designed in the English style. The exterior, treated with brick stucco, half timbered, is interesting in its lines and very attractive. Its surfaces are pleasingly broken by the unique uses of the materials mentioned, true to the English spirit. The man, who laying brick is used, laid in white mortar, which gives a very attractive appearance, instead of a cold and uninteresting brick wall, so commonly seen.

The stucco is perfectly smooth and white, contrasting sharply with the darkly stained timber work. Shingles are used for the roof and are stained to be harmonious with the rest of the house.

The interior has been arranged in a compact manner. A covered porch at the entrance and a large terrace are a notable feature. The porch is reached from the living room, through a French door. BULGARIA PROCLAIMS INDEPENDENCE; HER ARMY AND TURKEY'S PREPARE FOR WAR; AUSTRIA THREATENING TO GRAB European Powers Involved in Crisis That Suddenly Arises.

Prince Ferdinand Assumes Title "Czar of the Balkans."

CAUSE OF WAR THAT IMPENDS:

Bulgaria, long yearning for freedom, takes advantage of recent weakening by Sultan Abdul Hamid in granting new constitution, and daily refuses to surrender Oriental railway. This refusal, however, is regarded as only a pretext for the declaration which followed early today, in which Bulgaria announces her independence and Prince Ferdinand assumes the title of "Czar of the Balkans." Austria, always hungry for Turkish territory, at once threatens to seize the Serbian provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina, which involves Germany and hence the other great European powers. The British press is already denouncing what it terms an "Austrian-Bulgarian plot against Turkey," and John Bull will probably take an early hand in the proceedings.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The Temps today publishes a dispatch from Vienna stating that the Bulgarian army is marching towards the frontier and that the Turks also are moving forward to the encounter.

Austria-Hungary is mobilizing two army corps.

Sofia, Oct. 5.—The proclamation of Bulgaria as an independent kingdom, was formally made at Tirnovo today. Prince Ferdinand and his ministers were at Tirnovo when independence was proclaimed, having reached there last evening.

Turkey Blames Germany. Constantinople, Oct. 5.—Turkey is convinced that Austria, backed by Germany, is the cause of the crisis.

JEROME PROBES CHARGE THAT TAFT'S BROTHER WAS IN PANAMA CANAL DEAL

Charles P. Taft Said to Have Attempted to Get Bonds.

New York, Oct. 5.—That Charles P. Taft, brother of the Republican nominee for president, was in on a deal to buy the Panama canal bonds and then sell them to the United States government at a profit of $36,000,000 is the latest sensational charge in the campaign.

District Attorney Jerome is investigating a case placed before him by W. J. Curtis, of the firm of Sullivan & Cromwell, of which William Nelson Cromwell is one of the partners.

Mr. Curtis has visited the office of the district attorney and represented that men he named were endeavoring to obtain money from Cromwell because of his interest in the transactions leading up to the purchase by this country of the Panama canal.

Curtis told Jerome it had been represented to Cromwell that the Democratic national committee was considering the advisability of making public a statement that William Nelson Cromwell, in connection with M. B. Nauvau, a French speculator, had formed a syndicate at the time it was evident the United States would take over the rights of the French bondholders in the De Lesseps canal.

This syndicate, it was said, included Charles P. Taft, brother of William H. Taft, and Douglas Robinson, brother-in-law of President Roosevelt. Men prominent in the New York world of finance also were mentioned.

It was charged in the alleged statement that the syndicate made about $26,000,000 on the transaction.

Mr. Lawson was unconscious when taken into a nearby drug store and attended by a physician. Later he was removed to his home, Dr. Wood, in an automobile. He did not recover consciousness until late at night.

GOMPERS HITS BACK AT TAFT

Declares Nominee Has Lost His Temper and Dignity.

Washington, Oct. 5.—A galling fire of caustic denunciation of W. H. Taft poured from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. His firing to right and left caught James S. Sherman and Joseph G. Cannon.

Gompers' fire has been raised by reports that Taft has charged him with lying. He charges the candidate with "going from bad to worse" and with "losing his temper as well as his manners and dignity" and declares that "he cannot meet the truth and justice of labor's contention," but has "resorted to the well-known policy of the pettifogger," and says that "Taft evidently believes that by accusing me he can excuse himself from a bad situation." Gompers attacked the Republican platform and Taft's anti-injunction decision and said that Justice Gould, of the district court, recently cited the Taft opinion in the injunction case against Gompers brought by the Bucks Stove & Range company.

SAY ROOSEVELT WILL TAKE STUMP

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 5.—That President Roosevelt intends to take the stump for Taft is the information received at Fairview from the East. The advice came from persons upon whom reliance can be placed, and are to the effect that Roosevelt is planning to make at least six speeches in the course of a trip from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the concluding speech to be delivered at San Francisco.

New York, Oct. 5.—Ten persons were killed, more than a dozen injured and thirty escaped death by the narrowest margin, in an incendiary fire which wrecked a tenement house at 71½ Mulberry street, early today.

That a deliberate attempt was made to destroy the house and its occupants as well, the police and firemen do not doubt. Three barrels stuffed with rubbish soaked with oil, were blazing fiercely in the lower hall, cutting off the escape.

WARSHIPS IN TYPHOON

Fleet Outrides Fierce Storm on the Philippine Coast.

Manila, Oct. 5.—The battleship fleet has safely out-ridden a hurricane which swept Manila bay for 12 hours and did much damage ashore.

It was impossible to hold the cutters and launches belonging to the fleet because of the danger of smashing them against the steep sides of the battleships, and the little craft were driven to the shore.

The first volume, dealing with events prior to the decisive battle of Tsushima straits, has been completed.

In a perfect score for the remainder of the season lays New York's only hope of winning the National league pennant, when play began today. With three games remaining to be played, New York had to win all, even to tie with Chicago in the pennant race, unless the league directors should vote to give the New Yorkers the disputed game scrap was evidenced at the outset at American League park today, when Detroit and Chicago, respectively first and third place in the race for the pennant, crossed bats. Chicagoans who yesterday saw the Cubs beat Pittsburgh in the National league game, and who went to the match upwards of 30,000 strong, today turned their undivided attention to the contest of the American League champions, and before the case could be fought out in the courts the season would probably be too far advanced and the weather too cold for baseball.

The remarkably close race for the American league honors continues to grow closer as the season nears its end. By losing to Chicago yesterday, Detroit's hold on the leading position was slightly weakened and any of the three leaders—Detroit, Cleveland or Chicago—may finish the season in the coveted position.

New York, Oct. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the knowledge that it must be a win-every-game program they must follow out, the New York Giants started today's game with Boston in a series of determination. McGraw had had the best care taken of every detail of the game, and they trotted onto the diamond as fresh as so many young colts. McGraw fulfilled his promise of earlier in the day and put Ames to do the twirling, with Roger Bresnahan behind the bat. The Bean Eaters had Luckey and Bowerman at the points and Klem and Johnstone did the umpiring. The crowd was the biggest yet and continued to admonish the locals to "forget Chicago."

The first part of the contest was a pitchers' battle, pure and simple, with neither side having any of the best of the argument. The first inning ended 0 to 0.

In the second the Boston batsmen fell before Ames and Luckey and did not baffle his name when he took the slab. Neither side scored and the board still registered 0 to 0.

A scratch hit and a bit of clever base running netted New York two in the third and then the rosters broke loose. The home team made so much of a demonstration that even the players could not hear the umpire's decisions, some of the time, while Boston, which had failed to register in the third took another try in the fourth.

The try was futile and the visitors took the field and got near-revenge by again administering a whitewash, so that at the end of the fourth the score was 2 to 0 in New York's favor.

With so narrow a margin those who had been confidently announcing that Boston will be the victor in the pennant aspirants were mute. A shutout in the eighth by getting a run. Score, 8 to 1.

New York did not have to bat in the last inning. Score 8 to 1.

BRUSH MAY TAKE THE GAME TO COURTS

New York, Oct. 5.—The statement was made here today that in case the National league directors uphold President Fullam's decision of a tie in the game of Sept. 23, and New York loses the championship, thereby, John T. Brush, president of the New York club, will take the case to the civil courts. If this happens the world's championship series may not be played. The mode of procedure would be to obtain an injunction preventing any other team than the Giants from engaging in a series with the American league champions, and before the case could be fought out in the courts the season would probably be too far advanced and the weather too cold for baseball.

HEAVY HITTER OF THE CLEVELANDS

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—That it was going to be the real thing in the way of a baseball scrap was evidenced at the outset at American League park today, when Detroit and Chicago, respectively first and third place in the race for the pennant, crossed bats. Detroit's battery was made up of Sam Rice, who scored in the opening inning and, with a zero-to-zero start, the game was on. The first break came in the second inning, when Chicago made one run. Score, 1 to 0.

Chicago swatted out three in the fourth and one in the fifth, and in the sixth Mattin went in to pitch for Detroit. Score, 5 to 0.

The White Sox gained another score in their half of the seventh. Total, 6 to 1.

No more runs were made and the game ended 6 to 1 for Chicago.

CLEVELAND TUSSELS WITH THE BROWNS

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—With six points keeping them from top place in the American league standing, the Cleveland team, Lajoie and all, went into the fray with the St. Louis Browns, fourth place, this afternoon before a big crowd. Batteries: For Cleveland, Liebhardt and Reimer; for St. Louis, Diven and Stephens.

The locals made one in the first, but after that for several innings both sides failed to score. Cleveland tied the score in the fifth and the deciding runs were made by St. Louis in the sixth. Score, 3 to 1 for St. Louis.

In the second game the batteries were: Cleveland, Foster and Land; St. Louis, Howell and Spencer. Final score: Cleveland, 5; St. Louis, 3.

SHORTSTOP TINKER, OF CUBS, ARRESTED

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Joseph R. Will be Given Jury Trial.

J. R. Joyce was arrested yesterday on the charge of keeping his saloon open and selling liquor on Sunday. His place of business is 14 Second avenue west.

Officer Bonham played the role of a plain clothes man, and about noon rapped on the side door of the saloon and was admitted. The officer says there were several men in the place, and Mr. Joyce asserts that only himself, the bartender and porter were on the premises. He refused to sell Bonham any liquor.

The officer opened the door and admitted Sergeant Toewe, and Policeman Bradley was also admitted. They arrested Mr. Joyce and took him to headquarters. He claims he was cleaning out the place, and was not selling any liquor.

In municipal court this morning Mr. Joyce pleaded not guilty. He will be given a jury trial in the regular calendar this month. The exact date has not yet been set.

Country Has Plenty of Money to Finance Crop Movement.

William I. Prince, cashier of the City National bank, returned this morning from the American National Bankers' association meeting at Denver, with the statement that the financial condition of the country is not only very prosperous, but that it is steadily improving.

At the Denver convention there were more than 2,000 bankers from every section of the country in attendance. Every state was represented. The reports of the various bankers, as well as an excellent opportunity to judge of the prosperity of the country, as viewed by the banking industry at least.

"The reports of the various bankers were to the effect that the finances of the country were in a most prosperous condition," said Mr. Prince. "There is plenty of money in the banks, enough to finance the great crop movement, and an efficient insurance safety against any emergency that might possibly confront the country."

"The guarantee of bank deposits, as recommended by the Democratic party, was disapproved of by the Denver convention. The bankers indicated that they were in favor of the present plan of the Federal Reserve bank."

Several sessions of the convention were devoted to the consideration of the plan of the Federal Reserve bank, which was presented by Mr. Prince. The bankers believe that the plan of the Federal Reserve bank is a good one, and that it will be adopted.

Man Who Discovered Rube Waddell Giving Burlesque Trick Feats.

St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—Billy Alvord, a time baseball player, will put on a burlesque race track performance at the Elks' hall Tuesday evening.

Alvord years ago was famous as a third baseman in the National league, having played seventeen years, and is now a walking wonder on the "boys of the old brigade."

It is not generally known, however, that Alvord is a great pitcher. It was back in '95. Alvord drove into the country town of Eau Claire, Pa., and there first laid out on the big awkward country boy who was playing on the town team. Rube had a catcher up against the wall and Alvord was slugging him at him. Alvord quietly watched him for awhile, and then asked Rube to bend over a little way. Thinking him an easy mark the southpaw started his artillery, firing curves without warning.

ROOSEVELT GIVES OUT COPY OF NOTE HE SENT GOV. HASKELL

Washington, Oct. 5.—President Roosevelt has made public a letter he wrote to Governor Haskell relative to shipments of whisky into prohibition territory. Haskell in a recent statement mentioned that he had such a letter from the president, and intimated that the writer might not like to have it given publicly. This aroused interest in prohibition quarters and there were many inquiries as to the contents of the letter, which reads:

"I have received your letter and shall give it careful consideration. The matters of course, concern congress primarily, and legislation is now under consideration to decrease the amount of assistance which violators of the local prohibition statutes can obtain from the rules necessarily protecting interstate commerce and the use of its mails."

Guthrie, Ok., Oct. 5.—Governor Haskell has thus far received $3,000 in response to his appeals to the people of Oklahoma for funds with which to fight President Roosevelt, W. R. Hearst and others.

An agent of the interior department was in Guthrie last week looking up the records of the Prairie Oil & Gas company, and also the records in the libel suit recently brought by Governor Haskell against Omer K. Benedict, editor of the Oklahoma City Times.

They took their residence in East Grand Forks. The bride has visited friends in East Grand Forks on several occasions and is well and favorably known.

The Directoire Styles In Tailored Suits

At $39.50, $45, $52.50, $65, $97.50

The latest and loveliest expressions of the world of fashion. In a word, it is a showing that meets every need of a woman's wardrobe, and meets the requirements of each individual taste with that originality and charm possessed only by the exclusive creation. For instance, the variety of suits at $39.50 and $45.00 and $52.50 offers a wide range of unusual charm whether in the strictly tailored suit of imported broadcloth, the choice novelty weaves or the suit trimmed with the utmost elegance.

At $65.00 we mention but one of the many rare gems in artistic effects. This is a new "Koch" model of chaotic imported broadcloth, a Directoire coat 48 inches in length, trimmed with bias bands, large oval buttons and fancy pockets; modified sheath skirt gored to fit closely, demi train.

At $75.00 we mention a suit in satiny black broadcloth, Directoire coat is richly trimmed with soutache and military braids and lined with cream satin. Skirt is in the "Pannier" model with circular fold down front and around sides.

At $95.00 a beautiful creation by "Solovici" in taupe broadcloth, three-piece effect, princess gown with lace yoke and sleeves, girdle and sash of moulure silk to match skirt and yoke, finished with coral trimming—42-inch semi-fitted coat with loops and buttons, hand embroidered standing collar.

At $97.50 a beautiful imported demi-couture by "Perdoux," of finest French broadcloth, Empire skirt with girdle, 48-inch train coat, hand embroidered on bottom of skirt, revers and cuffs.

Beautiful Empire Gowns $27.50 to $65

We have just received a number of handsome Empire gowns in messaline satin and chiffon, finished taffetas, long sleeve effects with sash tied in front, bug ends.

Broadcloth Coats
$25 to $45

News for the woman who demands specially designed garments. By that we mean more than the ready-made styles and ready-made prices; they are ready for the service of those requiring tailoring of the highest character. The coats are made for us from the most immaculate French broadcloths and tailored in a way that insures permanent shapeliness and long wear. We cannot say more than that the most expert tailors in America fashion these coats. We lay particular stress upon the quality of satin used for linings, the wear of which is absolutely guaranteed.

LONG SLEEVES

Are the authoritative decision of fashion. To most of our patrons this is a known fact, but it behooves the informed woman to "know" better still, to be absolutely safe, lean on the store whose integrity in matters of style is a household word. It is, to say the least, distressing to see the woman of average purse inveigled into accepting a short sleeve garment with the assurance that short sleeves and long gloves are "correct dress."

Has No Authority.
The board of public works has been having trouble lately because of the impression among property owners that the city should stand for the expense of repairing unimproved streets and alleys. The board has no authority to make repairs where the streets and alleys are unimproved. Such work has to be done directly under permission from the council. The board has supervision only on alleys and streets that have undergone improvements in the way of paving.

No Cause for Complaint.
Certain property owners have been objecting to the board of public works that they have been compelled to pay for sidewalk repair work where the city in other cases has done the work without expense to the property owners interested. As a matter of fact, none of these improvements are free to the property owner. The cost is either assessed against property benefited or a charge is made outright. In no case is the cost free.

TAFT TALKS TO STOCKYARD MEN
Cheers for Bryan Come From Crowd Hearing Ohioan.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 5.—The real Taft invasion of Missouri began today. The candidate will speak constantly in the state until tomorrow night, concluding then with a demonstration at St. Louis. The first Missouri audience was composed almost entirely of voters, men who work in the stockyards at St. Joseph, where Mr. Taft spoke in the rain from the steps of the stock exchange. He was presented by President John J. Donovan of the exchange, who said he did not appear under false pretenses. He was, he added, a Democrat, but he knew Taft to be a thorough American in every particular and to have a clean record of great achievements. Mr. Taft said:

"The word Democrat is a historical description. It does not mean that a man who is a Democrat will always vote the ticket of that party."

As is his usual custom to labor audience, Taft analyzed the labor situation with reference to the two parties. He referred briefly to his own labor record, and again declared himself to be the friend and not the enemy of labor. What he said was cheered, but there were noticeable on the edges of the crowd whose his voice did not reach, straggling cheers for Bryan.

NORTON NOMINATED.

Mr. Norton's net gain up to the present time is forty-one votes over the official count, giving him a plurality of forty-six votes. Twenty-nine ballots will be referred to the court. Of these fourteen will probably be void; five are doubtful; eight are likely to go to Norton; and two to Adams.

WILLIAM G. TAYLOR DIES

Former Duluth Railroad Man Passes Away in Detroit.

News of the death of William G. Taylor at Detroit, Mich., reached Duluth today. Mr. Taylor was employed by the Duluth, Missabe & Northern railroad from July, 1893 to Nov. 1895, being finally compelled to give up his position by the illness that resulted in his death.

In speaking about Mr. Taylor, W. A. McQuonage, under whom Mr. Taylor was employed, said that he was one of the best employees I have ever known. He continued in this position for a long time, and was compelled to seek an outdoor life. He entered the exploration service of the Oliver Iron Mining company. His health improved somewhat, but he was unable to return to work. Later he was compelled to seek treatment under Dr. Higgs of St. Paul. He was able to return for a short while.

"One of the first lessons in foot reform was that a small, tight shoe does no good, but that a large, comfortable shoe is a necessity. A short, sturdy body should have a short, wide foot. If she is built on the proper plan, it is far more beautiful to have feet in harmony with the rest of the body than to have small feet which do not match."

Some years ago I worked in an establishment where a separate charge was made for every foot blemish that was treated. Women and young girls would come in whose bills would amount up to five or six dollars for a treatment, so many were the defects.

Now the New York Sun, in a better condition. American women have not the slender exquisite feet of the Italian or the Spanish women. An American woman finds it hard to wear a Paris shoe, which is so narrow across the instep that one might think a foot built on that plan would be completely out of proportion. But it is in proportion to the French woman's build and body.

"The Arabian women and those of Spain have beautifully arched feet, and this in spite of the high heel which the Spanish slipper always has. The foot seems to be very much a matter of deal and is laced and buttoned in snugly most of the time.

"Use does not make the foot more beautiful any more than it does the hand. When a woman has an illness which keeps the weight of her body from her feet for a few weeks she finds that her feet are larger and stouter, her feet blue veined and white and strong and white.

"Many women wear sandals without stockings for a few hours a day in their dressing rooms. It gives air to the feet and allows the muscles to become pliable, for it must be remembered that the foot is used a great deal and is laced and buttoned in snugly most of the time.

"On the other hand, women who use long, narrow feet, not at all pretty, but they walk better than women of other nationalities. They never hurry or take short steps. They wear rather fancy shoes in the street, but then they use hosiery a great deal on their way to and from the shopping districts. We hear a great deal about the English women being great walkers, and no doubt they are in the country. But they do not walk at all in London, Hyde Park, on Sunday morning is the extent of the London woman's walk.

berries again. It was the stain around your mouth that led me to suppose that I saw that your hands were scratched and the lower part of your face colored purple and I thought to myself, "That boy has been over his again, in spite of the express prohibition of his parents and in defiance of the law. I am going to ask you forgiveness for my injurious suspicions."

The little boy dug the toe of his sandal in the dust of the road, but made no reply.

"I suppose some mad bull chased you and hooked you in the back of your attire," hazarded the old gentleman. "Tossed you into a crate of berries as you were passing the market, didn't he? We've got to do something to keep mad bulls off the street, and that's all there is to it. They're getting to be a nuisance. Was it a mad bull, Johnny?"

The little boy shook his head. "Why, no," he said. "That wouldn't explain the scratches on your hands. I suppose that ferocious kitten of Bate-man's got after you? Still, a kitten couldn't tear your clothes in that way. There must have been something else."

"Come to think of it, it wouldn't be," said the nice old gentleman. "Cellar doors don't make a fellow's mouth purple unless they've been painted purple and a fellow puts his face on it. That was a bad guess, wasn't it? I expect it was Willie Saunders. He must have come up behind you with his jack-knife and attempted to stab you. Failing in that, he must have thrown you down and tried to poison you with a package of aniseed dye. The young scoundrel! If something isn't done with that boy he'll come to the gallows, and that's almost as bad as going to the penitentiary, where they put boys who steal blackberries. You're quite sure you didn't swallow any of the dye, are you Johnny?"

"It wasn't Willie done it," said the little boy. "I kind o' tore 'em getting through a fence."

The nice old gentleman raised his eyebrows. "A rail fence, Johnny?" he inquired. "I hope and trust that it was not a barbed-wire fence. Don't tell me that!"

The little boy began to whimper. "Well, well," said the old gentleman. "Tut, tut! Dear me! Johnny, was I right, after all, and have you been in the Simmons' berry patch?"

"I won't do it again," said the little boy.

"Johnny," sighed the nice old gentleman. "I don't know what's going to become of you, I'm sure. You don't seem to have any faculty of invention whatever."

CHROME MINING IN ASIA.
London Globe: For many years chrome mining has been pursued in Asia Minor. The chrome is usually found on mountains from the pits to the railway station or market on the backs of donkeys and camels.

But while chrome in the neighborhood of the mines is a very valuable commodity, it is not in itself a very valuable commodity, being in this respect like anthracite, that it scarcely pays to mine it, and certainly not in districts remote from the mines. As the chrome is a rare commodity on the world's markets that of Turkey, whose mines have never been worked on a scientific basis with up to date machinery, must necessarily decline in value.

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

The Kind One Mother Will Never Get.

The other day I heard a mother of sons inveighing against the girls of the period.

"They are all of them horrid!" she said. "I find, incidentally, concocted self-sufficient, atrocious manners! Don't you think so?" appealing to me. I must own to have met a few like that. I admitted, "But I find them the exception. The girls I know best are nearly all very lovely—considerate, gentle, deferential—quite the sort of girls I would like my daughters to be, if I had daughters."

Yet when I came to think it over I wondered if any of them would do to be the one. Which would I choose for my future daughter-in-law? asks Christine Herrick in Woman's Home Companion.

One is sweet and gentle, but not especially intellectual. Another has good looks, but is not good to look at, and is, besides, hampered by a brusque, unpleasant manner. A third is everything desirable in herself—but her family! I am afraid I could never "fellowship" with them to use the expressive New England phrase. This one is not fit to be a poor man's wife, that one has had a Bohemian bringing up. No, I am afraid I will have to seek further to find a girl to suit my views.

But do I demand so much? Clean blood, good health, the right sort of birth and breeding, enough religion to help her to live and to help me to live, a good education, familiarity with books and people, a medium of tolerance and adaptability, a little pin money of her own—and her hair shall be what color I please! Good!

I am afraid I would go further, and choose a whole orphan. It would be very nice to have her turn to me as her only mother—solitary wretch that I am!

With all the qualifications I have named, of one thing I am very sure—that my son will choose to suit himself, and not to please me. Happy though I believe I would make a match for me to be satisfied with his choice, he will never marry a girl for the sake of securing a daughter for his mother—and I would have no respect for him if I did.

I am positive—or hope I am—of another thing, that I shall love my future daughter-in-law whether I like her or not. She will not be marrying me, but my son. If she makes him happy, if she keeps him up to the standard in which I have tried to train him for her, what more could I want? Only to fit myself to be the sort of grandmother who will not insist that her granddaughters shall be brought up by the methods she found successful in rearing her own children.

DIRECTORY OF AMUSEMENTS

As Mrs. Dalley with H. E. Pierce & Co.'s New Production of "In Wyoming" at the Lyceum Tonight.

WHERE TO GO TONIGHT.

LYCEUM—"In Wyoming."

Tonight at the Lyceum theater Harry Pierce & company's new production of the well-known Western play, "In Wyoming," will make a bid for popular favor. The cast is headed by Cecil Kirke and Miss Harriet Dunsmore, ably assisted by such well-known players as Herbert Rawlinson, who will be remembered as Canby, the ranchman, in "Arizona," which appeared here two seasons ago; Frank Patton, who is well known here; Nelson Leavitt, who plays the head in "Texas" for three successive seasons; Burt Crowell, Dean Solah, Frank Seymour, Miss Mary Bonnell, Anna Gardiner, Flossie Moisan and others. The entire company, with a 50-foot baggage train, will leave after the engagement here for a nine months' tour of the United States.

"There are not too many nice people in this dull hole."

"I do not put comfort before principle," responded the colonel, sternly, "and I am a little surprised, Charles, that you should take such a view of the question."

Charles laughed. He was a handsome youth of goodly stature, and his blue eyes twinkled with unflinching

"Very well, dad, keep your principles and be as uncomfortable as you like. But when I'm gone you'll find your principles rather dull company."

"You must allow me to be the best judge of that," said the colonel, sharply.

"Certainly! I'm going for a stroll now to think over this troubling situation. Perhaps I can find a way out."

As he passed the garden of "Kuroki cottage" Evelyn looked up and smiled.

"Lieut. Revel, isn't it?" she blushed. "Have you quite forgotten me?"

"If I could ever forget you," said the shameless Charles, "I should deserve anything Fate might choose to send me."

"I don't believe you remembered me in the least, but I am very glad you have come. Of course your father has told you all about the quarrel?"

"I suppose you are just as obstinate."

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

ALLEGED HE WAS SHORT

Hempstead Said to Have Owed the Farmers Elevator Company.

Banker Alleged to Have Killed Himself on That Account.

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 5.—(Special to The Herald.)—With the revelation that John Hempstead, the suicide cashier of the Farmers' State bank at Emerson, is said to have been at least $12,000 short in his accounts with the Farmers' Elevator company, of which he was cashier, comes to light another proposition which would tend to show that the self destruction had been planned for a long time.

Seven months ago Hempstead secured $2,000 in life insurance, the policy containing the six months' suicide clause, thus putting the clause into effect just about three weeks before the suicide was committed. Though Hempstead had long planned the suicide, he had never spoken of it to members of his family or business associates, keeping his secret till the day of his death.

The announcement of Hempstead's shortage was made after an investigation of the Farmers' State bank had been made. While the exact amount of the shortage has not been ascertained, it is asserted it will be between $10,000 and $12,000. There are also several other propositions in the case which have not been thoroughly investigated as yet, and further shortages may exist.

Just how Hempstead used the money is not known, but it is supposed he made some deal in the automobile business, which he was interested. The bank cashier had been taking certain notes on automobiles sold by I. J. Scott, and it is thought that he failed to realize on a number of them. He had been engaged in the practice of taking up Scott's notes the past two years or so.

It develops that the suicide, shortly before death, had transferred his property interests in the Farmers' State bank to two days before killing himself he had made the last payment of $1,700 on his residence, but it is understood that payment on the check had been stopped.

TURKEY APPEALS

To Powers to Crush Bulgaria's Move for Independence.

Sultan Tells Ferdinand Berlin Treaty Must be Respected.

Constantinople, Oct. 6.—The council of ministers had a long session this morning to consider the action of Bulgaria in declaring her independence of Turkey at Thessalonica yesterday. It was decided that it is impossible to accept any proceedings that violate existing treaties and that Turkey shall address a circular note to the powers pointing out the necessity of taking measures to enforce respect for the treaties of Berlin.

Replying to the telegram sent the Turkish government by Prince Ferdinand in which he said that Turkey shall address a circular note to the powers, he had been compelled to respect the voice of the nation and expressed the hope that the friendly relations between the two countries would continue. Turkey says she has invited the powers to confer on the situation and as for rights are guaranteed by the powers, she will look to them for their defense. The Yemal Gazette, organ of the Grand Vizier, says today:

"We are ready to defend our rights without our strength. As the action of Bulgaria is not only directed against us but against all the powers, we should ask the powers to defend their interests and protect the provisions of the treaty of Berlin."

According to the same journal, Austria-Hungary has informed the powers of her intention of withdrawing her troops from the Balkans of Novibazar.

Powers Discuss Congress.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—The intention of Russia to convene a congress of powers to discuss the violation of the treaty of Berlin was the subject of long conferences between the foreign ministers of the powers. These included the Turkish, British and Austro-Hungarian ambassadors. The Russian government is insisting today, and the diplomats are insisting, that the powers should not discuss the possibility of a Turkish declaration of independence, but the general impression is that Turkey will not remain a neutral state, which was taken in the case of Bulgaria. (Continued on page 5, fifth column.)

DULUTH GIRL
LOSES DIAMOND

Chicago, Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Miss Coy Nelson of Duluth left a diamond ring in a drug store when she was making some purchases. Duluth town took it, but was arrested, and the ring was recovered.

Miss Nelson was formerly employed as telephone operator by Gay & Sturges, stock brokers.

TRAIN KILLS DEAF MUTES.

They Were "Talking" and Did Not Hear Its Approach.

Darlington, Wis., Oct. 6.—Two well known deaf mutes of this city, Robert Williams and Fred Hines, were instantly killed Sunday by a Milwaukee passenger train about a mile out of the city. They had been taking a stroll and were in animated conversation and in consequence did not become aware of its approach until the oncoming train was upon them, too late for them to get out of its way. The engineer of the train had been in a train wreck the day before but no blame, it is said, is attached to him. Williams leaves a wife and two children but diverse proceedings are pending. Hines is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters.

800,000 WOMEN TO FIGHT CONSUMPTION

Washington, Oct. 6.—Great impetus was given the anti-tuberculosis movement when the American federation of women's clubs enlisted in the cause yesterday. With a membership of almost 800,000, this organization's active support in the campaign of education is being felt.

MRS. PHILLIP N. MOORE.
She was elected by Mrs. Phillip N. Moore of St. Louis, Mo., the president at a public meeting of women's clubs at the New National Museum, where the tuberculosis exposition is being held.

WEST AIDS
HIS VOICE

Hughes Tells South Dakotans This is Great Country.

Governor Opposes Bryan's Remedies Because They Are Untried.

Waterloo, S. D., Oct. 6.—Sweeping across Dakota in his tour of the states of the Northwest, Governor Charles F. Hughes of New York, in a speech here this morning declared he had become thoroughly westernized. "An Eastern man is lucky when he gets into the West," said Governor Hughes, "you Westerners may have some prejudice against the East, personally I like the Western air, I agree with you. It has restored my voice. There are many of us on the Atlantic coast who look longingly toward the great Northwest. It is here to which we look for moral courage, vigor and intensity of purpose. I myself feel like a westerner born in the East. I have left my own state to come out here because of my interest in the present campaign."

The business of electing a president is not a mere matter of tactical choice. I perceive that many of you are agriculturists, your interests and the interests of the merchant and manufacturer are bound up in this. You cannot divide the people into two sections and say you will do this for agriculture, this for labor and that for the banker. We have all got to get together, or we shall all go down together. What we want is a wider opportunity for honest enterprise."

MRS. FLYNN GOES ON FREIGHT CARS

Chicago, Oct. 6.—On a freight train, all the way from New York, came "Miner" J. A. Jones and his wife, to attend the annual convention of the Industrial Workers of the World. Mrs. Jones was better known as Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, before she married Jones. The couple met at the Haystack trial and were wedded last night.

Jones and his wife came from Philadelphia to Chicago in 55 hours via the freight train. Mrs. Jones, who is known in New York as the "East-side Joan of Arc," arrived in Chicago yesterday and a long, romantic journey such as this might have been in the forest of Ardennes, she carries a camera and a book of prayers.

Among the convention delegates not more prominent than Mrs. Jones, who in New York is hailed as the "East-side Joan of Arc," arrived in Chicago yesterday and a long, romantic journey such as this might have been in the forest of Ardennes, she carries a camera and a book of prayers.

MILKMAN DELAYS
THE FIRST TRAIN

Butte, Mont., Oct. 6.—The first regular passenger train from Butte to Chicago over the Pacific coast extension of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway left this morning several minutes late because of a tardy milkman, who failed to supply the combination cafe and observation car on time. The train waited for the milk vendor. It carried a goodly number of passengers.

WOMAN LEAVES HUSBAND.

Alleged to Have Elope With the Star Boarder.

Calgary, Alberta, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Thomas Merriman, with her 12-year-old daughter, eloped yesterday with a boarder in her house named Ben Reece. The couple headed for St. Paul, leaving all the furniture in the house to a Chinaman for $30, and leaving a note for Merriman, who was working in the mines, to take effect.

UNCLE SAM IS COUNTING TREES

Washington, Oct. 6.—The national conservation commission has caused the first comprehensive attempt at a census of the trees in the United States ever undertaken. The commission needs the information to help complete its inventory of the country's natural resources, which it will include in its report to the president, and since the first of next year, it needs the information at once. In consequence the census has been started with a rush and is now well under way. Estimates as to the amount of standing timber in the United States range all the way from $22,862,000,000 to two trillion dollars.

TAFT TALKS
AT ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—St. Louis was the Mecca of the Republican presidential candidate today. After short speeches at Meramec, Mexico, Montgomery, Warren and St. Charles, St. Louis was reached shortly after noon. An elaborate program of entertainment was prepared.

Mr. Taft made an extended address in the Coliseum in the afternoon. He will witness the parade and attend the ball game at the Municipal stadium. He will also witness a public reception at the Planters' hotel. He will leave for Chicago at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr. Taft was awakened by a train in the night, and he was in long ahead of time, and the populace was ready for him before the appointed hour. He was escorted up to the hotel, where he was met by a large number of people. He was then taken to the hotel, where he was met by a large number of people. He was then taken to the hotel, where he was met by a large number of people.

ROBBERS FOILED;
ONLY $35 TAKEN

Minneapolis, Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A genuine Western hold-up, pulled off in Minneapolis, in the good old-fashioned way, was perpetrated last night by two well-dressed young men, heavily masked with heavy army helmets, in the section of Peter Belline, 1629 Washington avenue north.

The bandits secured a little over $35, and were prevented from securing $300 more by a desperate dash for the rear door by Belline, at whom the robbers fired as he vanished.

Peter Twombly, a brother-in-law of Belline, was the only other person in the saloon at the time of the hold-up. He received an ugly gash across his forehead, as the result of not raising his hands above his head in exactly the manner ordered.

The police secured the city in search of the men, of whom they have a good description, but were unable to find the slightest clue.

CAMPAIGN—PARKER

Baltimore, Oct. 6.—When President Roosevelt was sweeping condemned Haskell for his alleged connection with Standard Oil, he perhaps forgot that in 1904 his (Roosevelt's) committee received $100,000 from Standard Oil for the campaign fund, and spent it.

This statement by Alton B. Parker of New York brought to their feet, in a burst of wild applause, 8,000 Democrats who assembled last night in Richmond Market hall to hear him.

GOVERNOR
JOHNSON

Will Visit Iron Ranges and Speak at the Armory.

Exact Date of Duluth Speech Has Not Been Decided.

Arrangements have been about completed by the St. Louis county Democratic committee for the appearance here of Governor John A. Johnson. The date for the Duluth speech of the governor has not been definitely set, but according to the present plans the governor will appear either the latter part of next week or the first part of the week following.

The appearance of the governor was originally set for next Monday, but the presence here of Governor Cummins of Iowa on that date made the postponement of the Johnson speech advisable as the armory had already been secured by Governor Cummins and there was no other large hall available.

Governor Johnson will spend two or three days in Duluth and on the ranges. Elaborate preparations are under way for the appearance of the governor. A torch light procession will be held; the Third Regiment band has been engaged, and there will be a political rally that promises to be the biggest event of the local campaign.

SPRAY USED ON SHERMAN

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 6.—With his voice almost used up owing to the excessive speaking of the last ten days, James S. Sherman, Republican candidate for the vice presidency, today reduced the number of towns in his daily itinerary to two.

Yesterday he made two speeches, every one to out-of-door audiences, and the strain of talking in the open air severely affected his throat. Although sprayed after every speech, the speaker's throat gradually grew hoarse, and at the night meeting the address was short, and Mr. Sherman returned to his private car thoroughly exhausted.

But two addresses will be made today, one at Bryan in the afternoon, and another at Toledo at night. The candidate has promised to take up new issues.

THREE THOUSAND
RESUME LABOR

Red Lodge, Mont., Oct. 6.—All of the coal mines in this district, except the Bear Creek mines, resumed operations yesterday with increased forces, about 3,000 men returning to work. The local dissenations have arisen at Bear Creek. The Bear Creek mines furnish most of the coal for commercial use throughout Montana, and the shut-down is working a hardship.

ENGINEER TORN TO PIECES.

Horrible Fate in California of Lake Linden Man.

Lake Linden, Mead, Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Details have been received from Helena, Cal., of the horrible death that came recently to John Heipert, once a resident of Lake Linden, who was torn to pieces in the California town where he was employed as engineer at the Huntington power house.

He was killing engine No. 2 preparatory to making its night run, and either did not hear the chief engineer's signal of two whistles, which repeat three times before the big 800-horsepower engine can start, or delayed too long after the warning was given. He was caught in the machinery and literally torn to atoms before the engine could be shut down.

One agonizing cry was all he gave, and when his fellow-workmen hurried to his aid they beheld his lifeless body being torn to pieces by the flying engine which threw fragments of flesh and bone in all directions.

For two hours and thirty-five minutes the men gathered together the small bits of the dismembered body, some of which had been hurled through the windows and were picked up thirty feet distant from the building.

Registration Decreases.
New York, Oct. 6.—A general falling off in the number of voters registered on the first day of registration, as compared with the last presidential year, 1904, was noted when the totals were received from the various assembly districts in Greater New York, last night. The apparent apathy is explained in a great measure, however, by the new formalities required to be gone through this year by intending voters.

Dick to Aid Family.
East St. Louis, Ill., Oct. 6.—To prevent his wife and eight children from becoming impoverished by his own illness, August Figi cut the arteries in his wrists and died. The last thing he said to his wife was:

Although the lead of the Chicago National league team was slightly weakened by New York's victory over Boston yesterday, the situation remained practically unchanged when New York began play today. As on yesterday it is purely a question of New York playing practically faultless baseball in her remaining games even to tie Chicago for the leading position in the National league race. Of course there is a possibility that the decision of the National league directors in the case of the New York-Chicago game, now under dispute, may upset some of the present calculations, as any percentages thus far have been figured on the basis that the game was a tie. Neither Chicago nor Pittsburgh has any more games to play this season in the regular schedule. New York, however, met Boston today and will again tomorrow on the Polo grounds here.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Detroit today won the American league pennant for the second successive time, defeating Chicago handsily by a score of 7 to 0.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Frenzied fans, keyed to the wildest enthusiasm by the critical stage of the American league series, in which today's game between the Chicago club and the Detroit team decided the championship, discussed the weather bureau's prediction of rain and long before the hour when the game was called, hurried to the South Side ball park.

For the second time in three days Chicago faced a championship game, and American league enthusiasts predicted that the wild scenes of Sunday's contest, between the National league teams of Chicago and Pittsburgh would be repeated in the contest between the Chicago and Detroit.

The figures showed that in the event of a victory for the Chicago team their percentage would be .585, white defeat for Chicago would mean that Detroit would capture the pennant with a percentage of .528.

CONCEALING WOMAN.

"Come in," said the fashionable girl to her dearest friend, "and sit you down while I fashion me a stylish coiffure."

The dearest friend was chosen with reason. She wore her hair slicked back behind her ears, and glasses through which she gazed earnestly on life, captivated.

"How are you going to fix your hair?" she asked.

"In a Psyche knot," mumbled the golden-haired one through a mouthful of hairpins. "I think they're stylish."

"How?" she asked when she had deposited the pins on the dressing table and she was admiring the shower of hair that fell over her shoulders. Then she removed the pins from beneath the shower of hair, and tucked the ends of the golden shower into a velvet bag, and drew it out, and said, "I'll not need them," she said.

Then she parted her hair in front, and slicked it down for about an inch and pinched it severely on each side of her head and let it rest its soft tresses with lack of a Psyche knot. If by any chance these rather barrowing details of the toilet are being read by you, you will be told that it was not the kind of (rather pillow upon which one sleeps, it is a much different arrangement.

The follower of fashion then pulled her hair far on the sides and gathered it up in the back, and pinned it there securely. The golden-haired one then had been slipped hard right on the top of her head. Then she drew from a convenient little place another shower of hair of the same beautiful golden shade as her own. She fixed her hair and wound it deftly into a beautiful soft knot which in classic language is known as Psyche knot, and which vulgar small boys call a pig-tail. She put it at the back of her head and the top of the pillow in line with her nose.

"How does it look?" she asked.

"Do you want me to say what you want me to say, or just what I think?" asked the person who was asked.

"What you honestly think," said the golden-haired one, "I'll say that."

"What?" she asked, looking at her cheeks.

"What?" she asked, looking at her cheeks.

HELEN V. BOSWELL

To Tell of Woman's Life and Work at Panama.

The speaker on the program at St. Cloud, meeting of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs, has revived interest in this wonderful woman's work at Panama.

The following sketch of her activities, compiled from various sources by Mrs. C. S. Akers of the program committee will be of interest at this time:

Life among the Americans on the canal zone has many peculiar features, for while the men are busy and often with much responsibility, the wives of these same men have little or nothing to do. Some of them board, others do housekeeping, in a light way, in houses or apartments furnished by the government, provisions being supplied by the federal commissaries. The result was that soon after the census were established social bickerings arose among the women. Many became unhappy and dissatisfied with life on the zone, and at once set about to persuade their husbands to give up their work and go back to the states. Many men with families did return, but the government had always to be sending down new engineers, clerks, artisans and laborers, to take the place of the discontented ones who had moved away, thus entailing considerable extra expense.

At last the situation became intolerable, and Secretary Taft saw that something must be done to change or modify social conditions, and as he is a man of resource, he decided to call the lines of social and public effort of the modern American woman, he thought himself of clubs, and appointed Helen Varick Boswell, who has a charming personality and a genius for organization, to go down and form clubs among the women.

Some of the most interesting classes, so that there are now one or more clubs in every American settlement. All of them are members of the local federation, which holds regular meetings at the Yvoni, one of the largest hotels on the zone. Literature and the live questions of canal life form the topics discussed. Through them all social distinctions dependent on money are being eliminated, and women are learning to appreciate more and more sterling mental and moral worth.

KEEP AT IT

To Rob Dishwashing of Its Terrors.

One of the most discouraging features of the canal zone is that of having many cooking dishes staring one in the face after getting a meal.

If one will make it a rule to wash up as many dishes as possible as she uses them this will be avoided. The use of a dish brush is not to be used; do not put it aside to wash after dinner has been prepared and eaten, but wash it at once. This rule followed carefully, dishwashing, especially at night, will lose many of its terrors.

HATS AND GOWNS

Of Season More Elaborate Than Ever.

While the gowns this season seem to be more elaborate in design and color than ever before, they are eclipsed by the hats.

There is such a diversity in models and modes of trimming that there is a host of men. Promptly at 2 o'clock he came down fresh and pink from breakfast, read the morning paper, and then he began to write. He dictated the answers to his letters to the hotel stenographer, and a fresh cigar at the cigar stand, and then he repaired with sprightly steps to the bar, where he seated himself in a favorite corner and began the serious occupation of the day by ordering a "gentleman's drink of whiskey and other drinks followed at intervals during the morning, varied in strength and frequency by the character and numbers of the other visitors.

By the time of noon he had reached a stage of mellowness that developed a rare play of risk and spicy wit. It was beneath the manhood of the major to approach the dining room while in his cups. When 6 o'clock came, his dinner was served to him at his particular table in the corner of the bar, and the sitting, more often than not, was continued until midnight.

With all his rollicking habits, the major should not be hastily concluded that the major led an entirely useless or purposeless existence. Many were the tales of his generosity. When "Dah," the old head porter, was laid up with rheumatism, it was the major who visited him in his little hovel of a home on The West Side, provided for his family and paid his doctor's bill. Then every one knew of his kindly and sympathetic interest when Miss McFee, the old maid stenographer, took pneumonia and died.

And then the new stenographer came. She was a lump of a girl, as round as a pigeon, with frank, brown eyes seemed to challenge respect and civility by their very innocence. Her voice was soft and respectful, and it was an inspiration to see her personal and complete interest in her patrons.

Miss Mitchell was her name, and it was hard to keep from becoming conversant with her at the very first interview.

Almost from the first, the sharp observers among the frequenters of the Windsor, noticed that it took the major some time to get acquainted with the new stenographer. One day in the midst of the letters, Miss Mitchell came in and sat down at a lady who was passing through the lobby.

What an exquisite bunch of violets," she said.

"Very pretty," replied the major, following her glance, and then they went on with their work.

The next morning a neighboring noble boy placed a fine bunch of Eng-color generally appeals. However, even here, the effect may well be lightened, say, by a single flower. The Alpine hat, trimmed with a long curling, brightly colored tulle, conveys a pleasing suggestion of travel and general readiness. It is an especially fitting hat.

AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Mrs. Taft Entertained There in Girlhood.

Mrs. William H. Taft will move amid familiar scenes, if she has been the first lady of the land and is at the head of the White House ménage. Mrs. Taft is a daughter of John H. Herron, who was the law partner of former President Rutherford B. Hayes. The Hayes and the Herron families were closely connected by ties of friendship and to Miss Herron, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were always "Uncle" and "Aunt." Miss Herron spent many of her holidays from school with the Hayeses at the White House. In a recent conversation, Mrs. Taft said: "Nothing in my life exceeded the climate of human bliss which I felt as a girl of 16, when I was first entertained at the White House. The things that seemed remarkable to me was that although the Hayeses occupied the most exalted position in the land, they were just as they had been at home in Ohio. They weren't changed a bit. I couldn't understand it then, for I supposed I took my place with their manners must change with their advent to the White House, to be in keeping with my conception of the alteration in their position in life."

A morning came on which he attended to his correspondence with more than usual care. In addition to the regular grind of business he wrote some long delayed missives to old college friends—dashing, brilliant, unconventional letters they were, full of the boyish spirit which the major still held, notwithstanding his acknowledged age of 38 years. When he had quite finished, he drew from his pocket an important looking paper.

"Miss Mitchell, I have a very particular matter I wish to speak about. No, you needn't take my words on paper—I'm not dictating. The fact is, I'm thinking of you, and giving you the chance of dictating some to me, if you think proper."

"Why—what do you mean, Mr. Ebsbourne?" she asked, her large, heavy-lashed eyes looking the utmost wonder.

"It's a very simple matter. Miss Mitchell—I used to think it was when I observed the symptoms in other folks. But—don't you see, you're taking notes; some you will see and some you won't. Don't start at me, if it's anything improper, you mustn't say it, Mr. Ebsbourne. She was plainly agitated.

"Not the very least improper, little one, but I use to think that ever occurred to me in all my wild, warm-scarum life. No, listen calmly; if what I say is not pleasing you, I will stop, and we will not talk about it any more. I love you. Don't start at me, Miss Mitchell, I have loved you ever since the first time you looked at me with those clear, liquid, honest pure eyes of yours. AS TO RIDING ON PASSES.
The Albert Lea Standard recently issued this challenge to the Jacobson press of the state: "While ranting on the stump against the railroads in the campaign two years ago, Jacobson was riding on free railroad passes. Somebody please deny it. Still silent? Then we dare you to deny it."

Nobody has denied it, least of all Jacobson. Neither will he deny it. Two years ago, when Mr. Jacobson was stumping the state for Cole, it was shown that he was riding on free passes. One of them was Omaha pass No. 5304. Shortly after this disclosure, Mr. Jacobson came to Duluth, and The Herald, thinking he might wish to deny the charge, gave him a chance. He refused to take it; he refused to deny it; neither did he seek to justify his action.

But instead of denying the charge, here come newspapers like the Preston Times and the Ortonville Herald-Star, and demand: "What of it?" The weakening influence upon moral fiber of the bad example of a man high in the councils of a party is clearly shown by this, because if you would go back in the files of these various newspapers you would find them filled with righteous indignation against the use of passes by public officials and in political campaigns. They said then that passes were bribes; that railroads did not give them for nothing, and that those who accepted them were guilty of bribery. Now they are silent.

But instead of denying the charge, here come newspapers like the Preston Times and the Ortonville Herald-Star, and demand: "What of it?" The weakening influence upon moral fiber of the bad example of a man high in the councils of a party is clearly shown by this, because if you would go back in the files of these various newspapers you would find them filled with righteous indignation against the use of passes by public officials and in political campaigns. They said then that passes were bribes; that railroads did not give them for nothing, and that those who accepted them were guilty of bribery. Now they are silent.

The Preston Times explains that when Jacobson rode on passes the anti-pass law had not yet been enacted, and it was no crime to ride on a pass. Technically, perhaps, it was no crime; actually, it was. It was no technical crime, perhaps, to kill a man before society enacted a statute against homicide. It was no technical crime to crush competitors and rob them of their means of livelihood by forcing stealthily rebates before the anti-rebate law was passed. On the same hypothesis, it was no crime to ride on a pass before the law made it a public offense.

In all the years of Jacobson's work in the legislature, he was the loudest, most excited opponent of free passes. He accepted none himself; so he said, at least. He declared that when some rode on passes the plain people had to pay the bill, and that this was discrimination. He said that to accept passes was to become obligated to the railroads. And in these things he reflected the conscience of the people, which later matured into statute law.

Yet not long after he got out of the legislature, and before the echoes of his condemnation had died away, he was found riding on passes. He says that he stands where he stood fifteen years ago. Yet he has since not only accepted railroad passes from the railroads, but he has accepted a nomination for governor at their hands, with the help of other predatory corporations and selfish interests. He has condemned all these things, and afterwards embraced them.

THE MONOTONY OF HUNTING ACCIDENTS.

The fall hunting season is now on, and readers of the news are no doubt steeling against a succession of shocks resulting from the customary series of hunting accidents. A curious thing about this regular annual list of accidents and deaths is the monotonous character of the causes. Hunters—some hunters at least—never seem to learn the lesson of caution. They seem singularly unsuspicious to the influence of the experiences of others. Every year many lives are snuffed out to pay the cost of criminal carelessness which seems quite as common in one season as in another.

For instance, the other day two Mesaba range men were hunting ducks. One of them, hurrying to prepare for an approaching flock, pulled his gun out of the boat by its muzzle. The trigger caught in some projection and the gun was discharged, the contents taking deadly effect in the hunter's arm. He might have been saved had the party been near surgical assistance, but on the way to town much blood was lost, and the injured man died in the hospital. Though hundreds of men have been killed by such reckless handling of firearms, there are still other hundreds who will lose track of consequences and hurriedly grasp a loaded gun by the muzzle, just as there are hundreds who will fire at the first rustle of leaves in the brush, who will get drunk on a hunting trip and drown their judgment in alcohol, and who will carry loaded guns with their muzzles pointed at their companions.

NELSON ON DEPOSIT GUARANTY.

Mr. Bryan having taken up the bank deposit guaranty idea as a part of his program of campaign issues, it straightway became necessary, under the strict rules of the game, for the Republicans to oppose it. This has been rendered rather difficult by the fact that before it became a campaign issue a great many Republicans had declared in favor of it. The Fowler currency bill, which had the support of many prominent men throughout the country, including thousands of bankers, involved a plan for the guaranty of bank deposits. The Aldrich bill, which passed, did not contain such a provision, but Senator Nelson of Minnesota offered an amendment providing for it, and urged strong reasons in behalf of his amendment. The only trouble with his plan was that it did not provide money enough to make the guaranty fund a sufficient assurance to depositors, since the amount it provided might have been swallowed up by the failure of one or two banks. But the principle was there just the same, and to it Senator Nelson committed himself in vigorous sentences.

In offering the amendment Senator Nelson said that a money panic is distinguishable from a money stringency. A money stringency arises because of a temporary scarcity of currency, while a panic, such as that of the fall of 1907, always originates in a run by depositors alarmed as to the safety of their funds. In 1907, to protect themselves, the banks practically closed their doors. In fact they suspended cash payments to all practical purposes. This condition was brought about not because of a stringency of currency, but because the public became panic-stricken in its disbelief in the soundness of the banks. When a panic sets in and a run starts on the banks, money becomes scarce because depositors withdraw their money and also because people who heretofore were content to get their pay in drafts and checks now demand cash. Thus the supply of cash is depleted while the demand for currency increases. The banks are therefore compelled to call in loans from customers and must refuse further accommodation. All this is caused by a panic-stricken public. Continuing, Senator Nelson said:

"Now if you can by legislation provide a fund for the protection of depositors, so that they will feel easy and confident and will not become panic-stricken, you to a large extent cure such evils as we had last fall. To my mind these evils arose from two sources. First, from the want of confidence on the part of depositors, in consequence of which there was a run on the banks. And in the next place because the banks themselves were even more cowardly than the depositors; because the big banks throughout the country practically suspended payment." In short, Mr. Nelson argued that the establishment of a guaranty fund would create confidence in the minds of depositors, and would thereby eliminate panics and runs upon banks.

At the time, The Herald praised Senator Nelson for his views, and its attitude toward the plan was based largely upon an appreciation of the cogency of his arguments. The fact that Mr. Bryan and the Democratic party subsequently took up this plan and urged it upon the country has not caused this newspaper to change its mind. Apparently it has caused some Republicans either to change their minds or to still their tongues on the subject.

AN IMPROVED MILK SUPPLY.

Definite and tangible gain to the community appears to have come from the recent flurry about the milk supply of Duluth, during which it was shown that conditions were not by any means what they ought to be in some of the dairies from which Duluth gets its milk.

At last evening's council meeting Health Commissioner Patton reported that the eighty-five dairies within the city limits and the seventy-five dairies outside from which this city buys its milk are in a sanitary condition. Since the first of the week in August the department has examined 160 dairies and inspected 2,553 cows, finding that the milk tests were all satisfactory save in the cases of twenty-one dairies outside the city limits, and that the dairies inside the city have improved greatly since the previous examination. The health commissioner finds the dairymen willing to co-operate with the authorities, and a number of them who had been straining milk in the stables have erected houses for the storage of the milk.

So far, this is very good. It is no longer necessary to say that much depends upon the integrity of a city's milk supply, for the authorities and the public are awake to the dangers that lurk in impure milk. Too often, however, flurries of interest such as we have had in the milk supply are succeeded by periods of indifference and negligence. Matters are put in proper shape and then, being left to themselves, degenerate into their old evil ways again. Eternal vigilance is the price of a clean milk supply and therefore of public health, no less than it is of liberty.

AN ILLUMINATING JOKE.

This is a funny campaign anyway, in some respects, but nothing funnier has happened than an incident that occurred down in Omaha the other day.

The Omaha Bee, published by Victor Rosewater, member of the Republican national executive committee and of the Republican publicity bureau, picked a sentence out of one of Mr. Bryan's speeches, referring to the tariff, and proceeded to rip it to pieces. The Bee did it very well, too. It hopped on that innocent-looking paragraph and smashed it to atoms. It scattered the atoms to the four winds of heaven with its vigorous onslaught.

But the joke comes in when you know that the sentence criticised was the declaration on the tariff in the Republican national platform, which Mr. Bryan had quoted for the purpose of commenting upon it. It follows: "In all tariff legislation the true principle is best maintained by the imposition of such duties as will equal the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad, together with a reasonable profit to American industries." Regarding this, the Bee said: "Nothing prettier in the catch-all line has been offered in this campaign. The most hidebound standpatter in the country can accept that as satisfactory and the rankest free trader can find delight in it. The declaration means simply nothing. An attempt to legislate along that line would simply open the way to interminable wrangling as to what constitutes a 'reasonable profit,' for hair-splitting on wages in one industry, price of raw material in another, rebates and drawbacks in a third and so on through the list of thousands of articles that are now on the tariff lists. Bryan's revision would serve only to halt industrial and commercial progress and keep business unsettled during his term of office."

Bear in mind that this scathing criticism is directed at the tariff declaration of the Republican party by a Republican newspaper which is laboring under the delusion that it is attacking a statement by Mr. Bryan. It is very illuminating as to the effect of viewpoint upon judgment.

The only flaw to be picked in the Bee's able attack upon the Republican tariff plank is its statement that "the declaration means simply nothing." When it first appeared last spring in the Ohio state platform, to be copied in the Iowa state platform a few days later, The Herald, first of all the newspapers in the country, called attention to the fact that it was a marked innovation in Republican tariff declarations, and that it had a sinister sound. All these years the Republican party has been talking about a tariff to cover the difference in cost of production at home and abroad, in the interests of American labor, and actually giving a tariff that provided a "reasonable profit to manufacturers"—allowing, of course, the manufacturers to use their own judgment about what constitutes a reasonable profit. This year's Republican declaration on the tariff seeks to crystallize into Republican doctrine the iniquitous, "socialistic" and oppressive proposition of guaranteeing the profits of manufacturers—which sounds well coming from a party that refuses to guarantee the security of bank deposits, in which there is no profit at all to the depositors.

HOTEL GOSSIP.

Samuel T. Owens of St. Paul, who is at the St. Louis hotel, says Johnson's campaign is shown there to be stronger this year than it was the two previous occasions Governor Johnson ran for office.

In fact, Mr. Owens is of the opinion that Johnson's campaign is the only strength that he will show, being in the country districts.

They have organized Johnson clubs all over Ramsey county, according to Mr. Owens, and he believes that Ramsey will give the governor a bigger vote than he has upon the other two occasions Governor Johnson was before the people as a candidate.

While not declaring that Bryan will carry the state, as some people believe, Mr. Owens is of the opinion that the Democratic party will win the election. He says that the Democratic party will win the election, and that the Republican party will lose it.

Mr. Owens says that among sane and conservative voters, who look up to the outcome of the approaching state election from every possible angle, there is no doubt of the election of Johnson. He says that the election of Johnson is the only thing that will save the state from ruin.

ican Society of Equity having a membership of 100,000, met in annual convention in Milwaukee today.
The society is made up of farmers and its object is to regulate the price of farm products. It is the first of its kind to establish elevators and warehouses in different parts of the country, and by levelling grain and other produce in store and placing it upon the market as there is a demand for it, it is hoped to regulate prices.

FIVE JOINT DEBATES.

Hammond and McCleary Decide on Their Talkfest.

Mankato, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hon. James T. McCleary and Congressman Hammond held a conference in the former's room at the Bauhinia hotel yesterday for the purpose of arranging dates for their joint debates in the Second congressional district. Mr. McCleary was attended by Carl Gilmore of Pipestone and W. R. Geddes and J. E. Reynolds of this city, and Mr. Hammond was assisted by C. E. Wise and C. O. Dalley.
It was finally decided to hold joint debates in five of the second district cities, and Fairmont, Pipestone, Luverne, Windom and Mankato were chosen.

cupants Escape.

The Herald.)—Talk about luck. Messrs.
Bergren and Moe, two Lake Park contractors, are shaking hands with themselves that they are alive, after being involved in a collision with a train at Moorhead yesterday. The automobile was wrecked and the occupants were injured, but escaped with their lives.

ENTERTAINMENT AT CARLTON.

Will be Given Tuesday Evening for Methodist Church.

Carlton, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—A very interesting musical and literary program will be resented this evening in the village hall, for the benefit of the Methodist church.
Mrs. F. A. Watkins, Miss Aitkin and others will take part. Refreshments will be served.

Rev. A. E. Richardson left yesterday for Litchfield to attend the Northern Minnesota annual conference. Rev.
Richardson, who has been the pastor here for two years, will be sent to some other field. This will be very generally regretted here, where Mr.
Richardson has many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Crandall of Duluth were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Martin at Chuk Lake Sunday. Miss Gertrude Edholm returned to her home at Stillwater last Wednesday, after having spent a month at the home of Rev. Mr. Magney.

TWO COUNTIES NAME HIM.

Iron Mountain Democrat Enjoys Unusual Distinction.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The unique distinction of being a nominee for the office of prosecuting attorney in two counties, is held by William H. Burley, lawyer of that political faith in the county of Iron Mountain. There not being a law of that political faith in the county of Dickinson, he is the Democratic nominee for that office.

ANATOMY HALL GONE.

Former College Medical Building is Burned.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 6.—Anatomy Hall, formerly the medical building at the Minnesota State university, was totally destroyed by fire last night. Only the thick walls remain of the building, which was visited by destructive fires three, four and five years ago.

The fire also leaped over the Millard hall, about three feet south of Anatomy hall, and caused a damage of about $1,600. The damage to Anatomy hall and its contents is estimated at about $15,000.

When the blaze was first seen, it was thought that it was from a gas plant in that vicinity, and there was some delay in sending in the alarm. The firemen also had difficulty in finding a hydrant, owing to their unfamiliarity with the campus, so that the fire had gained great headway before any streams of water were thrown upon the building.

The building has for several years been used by the medical classes for dissecting, and thirty bodies were destroyed in the fire.

AGREE UPON CANAL.

Cut-Off Ditch in Aitkin County Decided Upon.

Aitkin, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The legal machinery has been placed in motion that will mean the digging of the much-talked-of cutoff canal, from the point below Wal-decke to Pine Knoll.

Acting upon the advice of the state drainage board, the proceedings entered upon will be under the judicial ditch law, and the state board, in addition to paying its full share on the state lands, has appropriated $15,000 and the services of the state drainage engineer to carry on the work.

Judge F. W. Hall, acting for the people most vitally interested, last week drew up the petition, which is signed by Wallace Barker, C. W. Tib-bitts, G. D. Davis, Harry Stobie and
E. P. Jacques, with C. H. Barr and H.
J. Petraborg as sureties on the bond of the foregoing.

The petition is directed to Judge McKenahan, and recites that the land affected includes all of townships 48-26, 48-27, and sections 1 to 20 in 47-27.
This represents 3,400 acres, which at an assessment of $2 per acre would more than realize the amount estimated as its cost. But as the entire village of Aitkin is included in the affected territory, it will readily be seen that the cost to the farmer will be comparatively slight in comparison to the benefits he will derive from the improvement.

CHAFIN AT STILLWATER.

Prohibition Presidential Candidate Speaks in Church.

Stillwater, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Eugene M. Chafin, the Prohibition candidate for president, spoke here Sunday evening in the Swedish Lutheran church to a fair-sized audience, being introduced by Rev. Carl Benson, pastor of the church.
Mr. Chafin and August H. Hochne of this city were schoolmates before the war. Mr. Chafin is now a high school teacher in the city of Milwaukee. The candidate for president was the guest Sunday evening of Mr. Hochne for lunch at the Pilman house. He left after speaking here for Appleton, Wis. The address was not a political one, but was devoted to advocating temperance and wiping out the saloon evil. He is an enthusiastic speaker.

Mr. Chafin made a strong appeal for united effort in stamping out the liquor traffic through legislation. He savors electricity to the legislature men who will put down the saloon evil. He paid a tribute to the coming American type of manhood.

In his appeal for a better citizenship he exhorted his audience to "get up out of the dust and mire, and stand up on the platform of the future."
The traffic in human souls he forever stamped out. "When this is done," said
Mr. Chafin, "it will be a simple matter to take the world for Christ in thirty years, and a time, in fact, that most of us could live to see it."

WILL BUILD ELECTRIC LINE.

Thief River Falls-Roosevelt Road is Going Ahead.

Thief River Falls, Minn., Oct. 6.— (Special to The Herald.)—An important railway meeting of the promoters of the Thief River Falls-Roosevelt Electric railway was held in this city Saturday evening in conjunction with the business men of Thief River and several farmers through whose lands the survey of the proposed line runs. The fact that the Great Northern is at present hurrying the completion of their Thief River branch through Roseau county to the Lake of the Woods, will have no effect on the construction of the former railway as, after leaving this city they suddenly diverge and at no point thereafter in their courses are they within less than forty miles of each other.

The territory through which they run is also well settled and under a good state of cultivation, so that there will be business for both and without competition between them.
The promoters of the electric road have the financial backing to construct their line as soon as the survey and the securing of the right of way are accomplished. These are now about settled and it is stated on good authority that construction work will begin as soon as some of the swamps freeze up.

ST. PAUL MAN LOSES
LIFE WHILE HUNTING.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The accidental discharge of a shot gun resulted in the death of Carl G. Johnson of South St. Paul, at Spring Lake, two miles west of Hastings, Minn. He was in a skiff with two companions, hunting ducks, at the time of the accident. In some manner the gun was discharged and almost severed the right leg just below the knee. It was taken to Hastings, where he died as the result of the hemorrhage.
Johnson was 29 years old and unmarried.

LIES, LIES, LIES, LIES!

So Says Monnett of the Standard Oil's Attorney's Statement.

Latter Denies Any Attempt Was Made to Bribe Monnett.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—Frank S. Monnett, ex-attorney general of Ohio, was in Kansas City last night to address a Democratic meeting. The statement of the Standard Oil company's attorney at Cleveland was read to him, and he said:

"What a pack of malicious lies!"

He then dictated a statement in which he took up in detail and denied S. H. Tolle's statements as to the Supreme court proceedings. He concluded:

"This same S. H. Tolle who gives out this interview in company with Larry Nott, both attorneys of record for Standard Oil, were the attorneys I referred to in my interview as asking the court to have me stop taking the depositions before E. B. Dillon of Columbus."

No one ever said Standard Oil called a meeting of the board of directors and ordered anyone to be arrested, but I did intend to show whether Squires had received a telegram from Mr. McKinley or whether Charles N. Haskell or Rockefeller had been at any time at Squires' house, or whether Squires had been in town with them or whether Haskell or McKinley had offices in New York at 42 Broad street at that time.

I did intend to find out, if possible, how Squires knew Senator Foraker had a conference with me at Washington on the Standard Oil case, and how he knew a settlement was contemplated by the Standard Oil company through Foraker. If he was drumming all of this, it was a happy coincidence and a psychological standpoint.

Mr. Tolle's forgets to quote all of Squires' interview in the New York World, where he says he knew all of those parties for many years prior to the statement when Squires corroborated my original charge that he was to have immunity if he gave up the real parties.

"And he forgets that Squires claimed he was being packed in his Manhattan fire insurance company case by Standard Oil people, and I forgot that Squires remained out of Ohio, as far as I have been able to ascertain, and has remained in New York ever since the attempt at bribery."

The Tolle Statement.
Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 6.—S. H. Tolle of Klein, Tolle & Co., attorneys for Standard Oil, has issued the following statement giving the Standard Oil company's side of the charges of attempt to bribe F. S. Monnett, ex-attorney general of Ohio:

"The charge that Mr. Monnett had been making a large sum of money to drop his prosecutions against the Standard Oil company was first made public by one George

Rice, in an interview at Marietta, and given to the newspapers on March 2, 1908. The charge at that time received no credence. Mr. Monnett himself was at first reported to have denied the charge, but afterwards made some general intimations that there might be some truth in it. The particulars of the attempt were carefully concealed by him.

"The public press at once began to demand that he name the guilty person or persons, and he filed in the supreme court of Ohio a document styled a bill of particulars. This was merely a rambling statement that somebody had approached him with a suggestion that there would be at least the sum of $100,000 for him if he would agree to discontinue proceedings against the Standard Oil company. He named no body."

"The attorneys for the Standard Oil company immediately filed with the court a motion requiring the attorney general to name the man who he claimed had approached him, and to appoint a disinterested person to investigate and report promptly to the supreme court upon the truth or falsity of the charge."

"After twenty-two days, he filed a second document in which he named as his friend who had attempted to bribe him, C. E. Squires, (who had never in any manner been connected with Standard Oil) formerly of Cleveland, named, promptly and of his own motive, publicly denied the charge and since his recent revival, in a signed interview appearing in the New York World of Sept. 28, 1908, again prominently and emphatically stated that the charges of Mr. Monnett were absolutely false."

"In the signed statement, he further said that after the supreme court stated that the attorney for the Standard Oil company that the name of the alleged bribery he made public, Mr. Monnett came to him, stated that he was in a corner and asked the privilege of naming him, as the briber."

Stricken From the Files.
"Neither of the documents filed with the supreme court directly charged the Standard Oil company, or any of its officers, agents, or employees, with any complicity in the alleged bribery. The amended statement simply stated that the said court stated that the attorney for the Standard Oil company that the name of the alleged bribery he made public, Mr. Monnett came to him, stated that he was in a corner and asked the privilege of naming him, as the briber."

"No charges having been made upon which it could act, the supreme court, on the 13th day of April, A. D. 1898, he struck from the files the charges, and there is any competent evidence to connect the defendant with the alleged offer to the attorney general."

"This was the action not of a single judge, but of the entire court. The statement has appeared as emanating from Monnett that twenty-three boxes of evidence, which had been burned. This statement is absolutely false. The Standard Oil company at any time that a single ledger, day book or account book of any kind whatever, had been burned, and the depositions which Mr. Monnett took in his effort to establish that fact, utterly failed in their purpose."

KERN'S RAILROAD PASS MADE ISSUE BY HEARST WHO ALSO HITS DEPEW

Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—Thomas L. Hisgen, Independence party nominee for president, and William R. Hearst, addressed a large audience here last night.

The speech of Hearst was devoted almost entirely to an attack on John W. Kern, Democratic candidate for vice president. He returned to the recent finding of a pass on the Big Four railroad, made out in the name of Mr. Kern, and pointed out that the Big Four was a branch of the Vanderbilt system, which, he said, had been successfully prosecuted by the Federal government for granting rebates to the American Rolling company and fined $16,000. He also devoted much attention to Mr. Kern's employment by Thomas Taggart as his attorney, and discussed in detail the alleged gambling at French Lick Springs, Ind.

He read affidavits from two newspaper men, who were in attendance at the Democratic national convention at Denver, who stated that Mr. Kern said to them that he was indicted for his nomination to Mr. Taggart.

Mr. Hearst read only one Standard Oil letter. This was addressed to United States Senator Chauncey M.

Depew, by John D. Archibald, and was as follows:

"25 Broadway, New York, Feb. 10, 1902. 'My Dear Senator: Permit me to thank you most cordially for your very kind note of the fifth, with the accompanying complimentary pass. Believe me that I appreciate your kind expression in connection with this courtesy very highly indeed, and only hope that opportunity may offer for such reciprocation as will give evidence to you and your great corporation, of the friendliest sentiments I entertain."

"Very truly yours, 'JOHN D. ARCHIBOLD.'"

The railroad pass, the receipt of which the letter purported to acknowledge, Mr. Hearst stated, was over the New York Central line, of which system he said Mr. Depew was the representative in the United States senate.

Hearst referred to the resignation, retirements and withdrawals of public men, seeming to be much in vogue at present, and continuing, said:

"Mr. Kern, who has achieved fame as the railroad pass candidate and who aspires to represent the Big Four railroad in the government of the United States, seems eligible for the retired list, on the face of these returns and without the presentation of any further facts."

THE ESMOND WINS FIGHT

West End Hotel is Finally Granted Saloon License.

Strong Opposition, But Majority of Aldermen Favor Application.

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.

Granted saloon license to the Esmond hotel, by a vote of ten to five.

Received report from Health Commissioner Patton, showing great improvement in dairies supplying Duluth with milk and cream.

Authorized employment of additional dairy inspector to be steadily employed in inspecting outside dairies.

Fixed tax levy, with practically no changes from the recommendations of the conference committee.

Directed city engineer to make a survey of a sanitary main trunk sewer from the north end of Crosey park, Fifty-fourth avenue east, to Lake Superior.

Received petition with fifty-four signatures attached, asking that contagious hospital be built on the site of the old Esmond hotel, at Thirtieth avenue west.

Mrs. Lizzie Tierney filed notice of a claim of $5,000 damages for the death of her husband at the city incinerator.

After a warm debate which was a strong reminder of old aldermanic sessions of last spring in the matter of saloon licenses, the common council last night granted Frank J. Bannock, a license to operate a saloon in the Esmond hotel, 28 South Twentieth avenue west, by a vote of ten to five. Two other men have been refused licenses at the same place.

Those who last night voted in favor of granting the application were: Alderman Blodgett, Ellstrahl, Rubenstein, Jordan, Mueller, Ribbeck, Shartel, Tiesman, and Trevillion.

The Esmond hotel has borne a very unsavory reputation during the last few months, and several weeks ago, it was reported that the hotel was to be turned down, because of violation of the law.

The city attorney was instructed to draw up an ordinance prohibiting the storing of powder in more than 500-pound lots in the city limits.

The Salvation Army asked for an exemption of taxes on its building and lot at the corner of Seventeenth avenue west and Superior street, except for $5,000 on two stores in the building, on the ground that the property is used for religious purposes. The matter was referred to the city attorney for investigation.

Mrs. Lizzie Tierney, widow of Patrick Tierney, who was burned to death recently by the city incinerator, filed a claim for $5,000 damages for her husband's death. The communication was referred to the city attorney.

The tax levy as fixed by the conference committee was adopted without question. There were a few minor changes in one or two of the funds, a little money being taken from one to swell the total of another, so that certain improvements might be made. The council approved the raise in the fire fund for the purchase of a new engine for West Duluth.

On motion of Alderman Mueller the board of public works was directed to circulate a petition for the grading of the proposed Sunday road, from Duluth to the district back of the hill.

Andrew Wilson applied for a license to run a saloon at 132 Commonwealth avenue, and was backed up by a petition signed by thirty-five residents of West Duluth. The matter was laid over for one week, so the aldermen may find the sentiment in the suburb regarding another saloon there.

The rental of the old town hall at Lakeside to the ladies of the Lakeside Presbyterian church for $25 a year was authorized.

The board of public works asked for authority to spend $850 in the building of a spiral staircase to the top of the aerial bridge, so the upper works of the structure can be more safely reached.

RALPH EDDY IN ARMY?

Report Says Man Who Disappeared on Wedding Day Enlisted.

Wooster, Ohio, Oct. 6.—A report has been circulated here to the effect that Ralph Eddy, who has been missing since a few days previous to the time set for his marriage in August to a Miss Warren, a sweetheart since both attended college, has enlisted in the United States army at Milwaukee.

The reappearance of the counterfeiter alarmed the secret service, who supposed the die had been destroyed.

PRETTY SCHOOLGIRL

Attempted to Take Her Life by Swallowing Chloroform.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 6.—Miss Jessie Robinson, a pretty 13-year-old school girl, attempted to end her life by swallowing a quantity of chloroform as she was walking along the street. She is in a precarious condition. The cause of her act is shrouded in mystery. Dr. J. M. Heber, who gave Miss Robinson attention, says she was brought to his office by two young men and another man, but that he did not know them, and that they left his office at once. It is believed the four were lovers out for an afternoon stroll, and that after a quarrel with her sweetheart, Miss Robinson attempted to end her life. The police, however, are making an investigation of the affair.

When Your Stomach Hurts Take a Little Kodol

The pain will then cease—your stomach will feel good. Kodol stops the pains of indigestion and dyspepsia quickly, because it digests all the food you eat.

Kodol is a pleasant, palatable, liquid preparation, that helps the stomach to do its work in a natural way. Being a liquid, it starts digestion at once.

Kodol supplies the same digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach. This is why it will stop the pains of indigestion quickly.

Your stomach, being weakened, probably, by over eating or over work, is unable to do its work properly, and the natural result is indigestion, sour stomach, gas, or belching, which will soon result in chronic dyspepsia unless the stomach is given help.

Nervous indigestion or dyspepsia. It is not only annoying, but dangerous. If left alone, the result generally is gastritis, or sometimes that fatal affliction—appendicitis.

Don't neglect your stomach. Don't take any chances. There is no need for you to suffer, because a little Kodol now and then, will keep the stomach well, healthy and strong. Do not diet or starve yourself. That is not the way to get help.

Eat what you want of the food you like, and let Kodol help the stomach to do its work. You can't get well unless you eat and unless you enjoy your food. You can't get nourishment from your food, unless you digest it. Take a little Kodol now and then. That is the only safe and sure way.

You do not have to depend on Kodol all the time. You only take it when you need it.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you are not satisfied, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate. Druggists know that our guarantee is good, and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

SNAG FOR ALESHIRE

All Bond-Aided Pacific Roads Have Paid Their Debts.

As Result, Transportation
Fund is Getting Dangerously Low.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Quartermaster General Aleshire, who is presently engaged in getting his estimates for the quartermaster general's department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, into shape for submission to the secretary of war, has run up against a snag that will add thousands to the demand of the service. In the transportation of officers from the East to the West and vice versa the bond-aided railroads have been favored because of the pecuniary interest the government has in them. It was not so very long ago that the West was grinding pretty nearly with railroads whose construction had been made possible by the aid of friendly federal legislation. Gradually, however, in the presence of prosperous times, these government-aided railroads have been paying back to the government the aid which they received from the government.

One Bond-Aided Road Left. But there remained one bond-aided road, the connecting link between the East and the West, the Central Pacific, and it was an easy thing for the quartermaster general to transport the army, if need be, from the Missouri river to San Francisco via the Central Pacific and charge up the transportation on the treasury books against the subsidy bonds issued by the government in aid of the road's construction.

Every quartermaster general for years has figured on this transportation in his estimates to congress, asking only appropriations for the movement of troops, animals, etc., as covered by the railroad companies which are independent of the government's aid. It was comparatively easy to look after this branch of the department in consequence, and there was usually enough money in the transportation fund to meet exigencies, but a rude awakening has come to Gen. Aleshire. He has to readjust his transportation estimate, for the Central Pacific has ceased to be a government bond-aided road nearly a year ahead of time, and all the figures on this subject, to be sent to congress, have had to be revised and the transportation fund is getting dangerously low. The unexpected has occurred.

Paid All the Debt. Under an act passed with the officials of the treasury department

FOUR THOUSAND DROPS OF RHEUMALINE

A POPULAR REMEDY DISSECTED
BY COUNT.

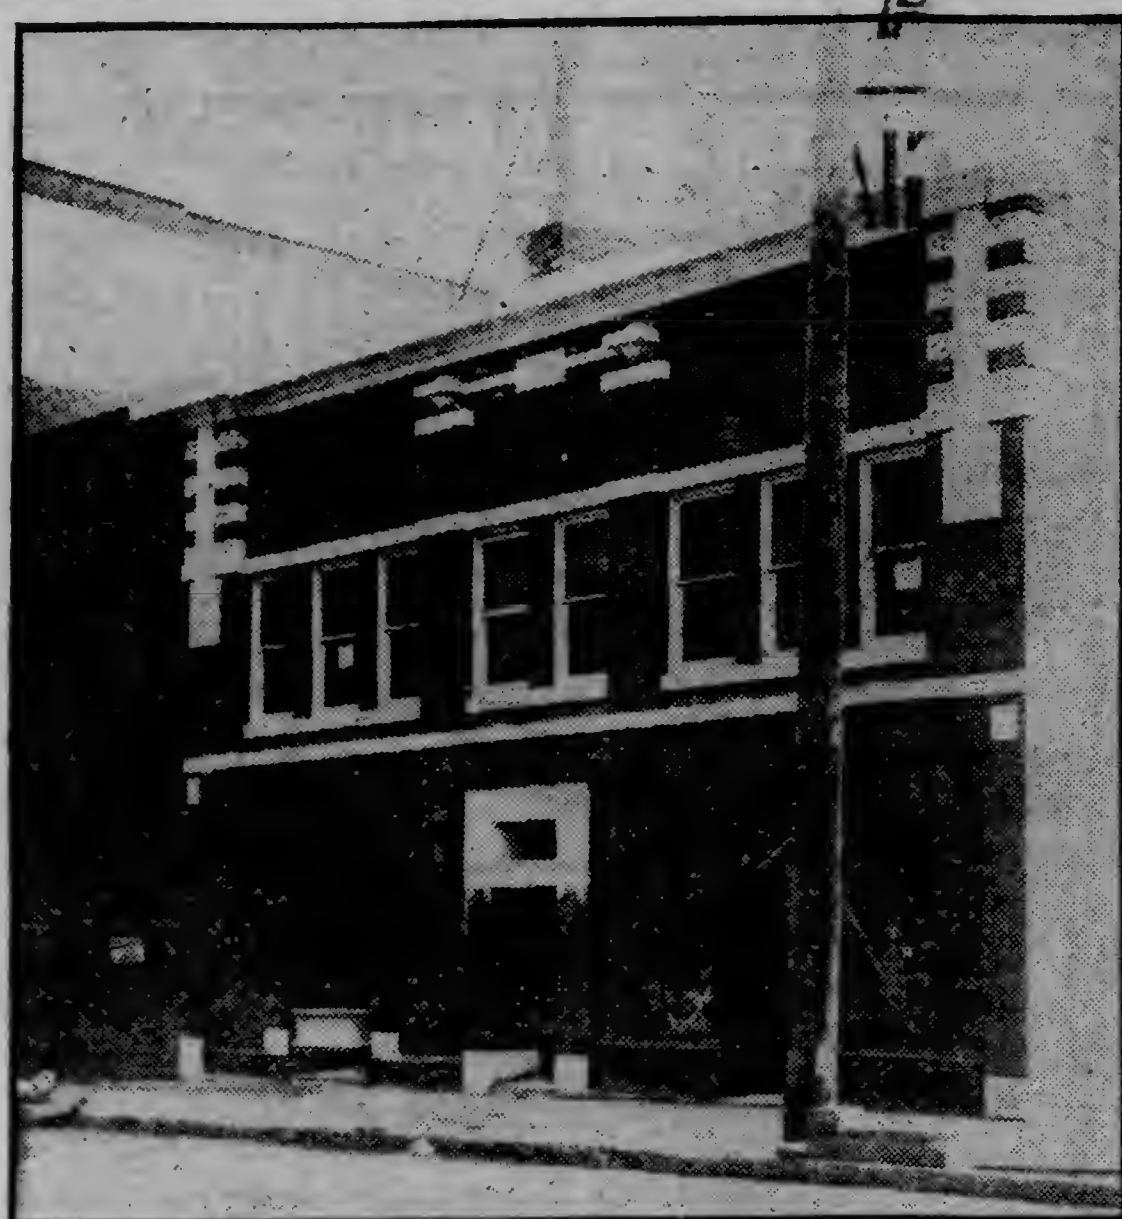

When a sufferer of rheumatism has purchased a bottle of Rheumaline, they have procured for $1.00 a full week's treatment for their rheumatism, which in many instances has proved more than enough to furnish a permanent cure. There are forty teaspoonfuls in a bottle. Each teaspoonful is a dose. That is forty doses. To each teaspoonful there are 100 drops. Each drop is a perfect Uric Acid solvent. That is 100 perfect Uric Acid solvents to a teaspoonful, or 4,000 to a bottle. Use your common sense and make your own deduction. You can readily see that rheumatism can't stand long against such a scientific and positive array as that. And then the price. Only $1.00 for 4,000 drops. You can't afford in justice to yourself to let the opportunity pass by. Rheumaline was placed in the Lyeum Pharmacy a short time ago by The Lyeum Co. of Chicago, and its unparalleled success shows that Duluth residents are alive to the proposition and have seen the good to be derived from such an opportunity for obtaining a positive relief for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Gout, and any disorders arising from Uric Acid, for such a reasonable price.

Rheumaline Capsules cost 50c per box, and should be taken with Rheumaline to obtain the best and quickest results. They are to relieve intense pain, while Rheumaline is to root the disease.

While taking Rheumaline, the least signs of constipation should be met by Rheumaline tablets, for it is essential that the bowels be kept free, while taking the treatment.

Drop into the Lyeum Pharmacy today and be an ex-Rheumatic by procuring Rheumaline. It removes the cause.

Governor at St. Paul Argues Against Guaranty Plan.

Says Bryan Did Country
Service by Being Defeated.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 6.—"Mr. Bryan did the country a great service by being twice defeated. Had he been elected twelve years ago, he would not be a candidate now, but would have gone down in the disaster of his own fallacies."

In a speech here last night, Governor Charles E. Hughes of New York, this summed up why he is working for the defeat of the Democratic candidate for president, Mr. Bryan's proposed remedies for the correction of national evils, said Governor Hughes, were "impossible panaceas and curables." He continued:

"The reason I oppose Mr. Bryan's compulsory guarantee of bank deposits scheme is because I regard it as unsound in principle. I believe that the banks should continue under the sanction and control of the state and the nation, and we should not inflict upon the innocent the consequences of the recklessness of others. It is inevitable that under Mr. Bryan's plan the reckless, careless and dishonest would take advantage of it. The plan would encourage loose banking."

As to Mr. Bryan's attention to the working man, what the workingman needs is not more than a solution of the problem as to the procedure in a contempt of court action, and if there is any one who is especially protected in an incontestable enforcement of the law by the courts, it is the workingman."

LUMBERJACK VOTE HURT SCRIBNER

Court Rules It Out and in Favor of R. M.
Funk.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—The election contest for county attorney of Cass county was heard before Judge McClenahan here, yesterday. The contest was brought by R. M. Funk, of Cass Lake, who was defeated at the primaries by J. S. Scribner, the present incumbent, by a majority of two votes. Funk contested the precinct of Cuba in the northern part of the county, on the grounds that this precinct was in the national forest reserve and that the voters there were of the "lumberjack class."

The judge's decision, although not final, was in favor of Mr. Funk, and there is little question but what that part of the statute which makes provisions for the lumberjack vote will knock County Attorney Scribner out of his office. Attorney Fryberger of Duluth appeared for Funk, and DeLury of Walker, for Scribner. The decision has a wide sweep over Northern Minnesota, as the illegal votes cast by lumberjacks have been a matter of argument for several elections past.

PICTURE PHOTOGRAPHED

On Glass of Door by Lightning
That Killed Alabamian.

Decatur, Ala., Oct. 6.—A strange case of photographing by lightning, which took place some weeks ago, has just been discovered at a residence in West New Decatur.

On the afternoon of Aug. 7 lightning struck a house in West New Decatur, killing S. W. Gore and badly shocking his wife. Mr. Gore was standing in the door of his house at the time the flash came. There was a large glass in the front door, where Gore was standing. It has just been discovered that there is a perfect photograph on this glass. The picture shows Mr. and Mrs. Gore. Gore's head is slightly elevated, as if he was watching the storm. Mrs. Gore's lips are parted, as if in the act of speaking when the flash came that killed her husband. The picture on the glass also shows a portion of the front yard fence, a large figure bush in the front yard, two telephone poles, about 100 yards away, a house and a skirt of woods a quarter of a mile distant.

WILL ATTACK LAW.

Grand Forks Man Questions Right to Charge Filing Fee.

Grand Forks, N. D., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—H. J. Johnson expects to start a suit to test the validity of the law requiring that candidates for offices shall pay a fee of 1 per cent of the salary to be received before they shall be entitled to a place on the primary ballot, just as soon as he has secured a sufficient number of accounts to justify him in going ahead.

He has some county officers on his mind now, but will have to get a good many more before he will go ahead. He will start the action as a citizen. Two years ago he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for county treasurer in Grand Forks county. He carried the fee, case to the supreme court, and won. The legislature of 1907 amended the law so as to require 1 per cent instead of 2.

HOUSE WORK

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to do housework. In order to keep the home neat and pretty, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. A female weakness or displacement is often brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse, knowing well that they ought to have help to overcome the pains and aches which daily make life a burden.

It is to these faithful women that LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND comes as a boon and a blessing, as it did to Mrs. F. Ellsworth, of Mayville, N. Y., and to Mrs. W. P. Boyd, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who say:

"I was not able to do my own work, owing to the female trouble from which I suffered. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully, and I am so well that I can do as big a day's work as I ever did. I wish every sick woman would try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

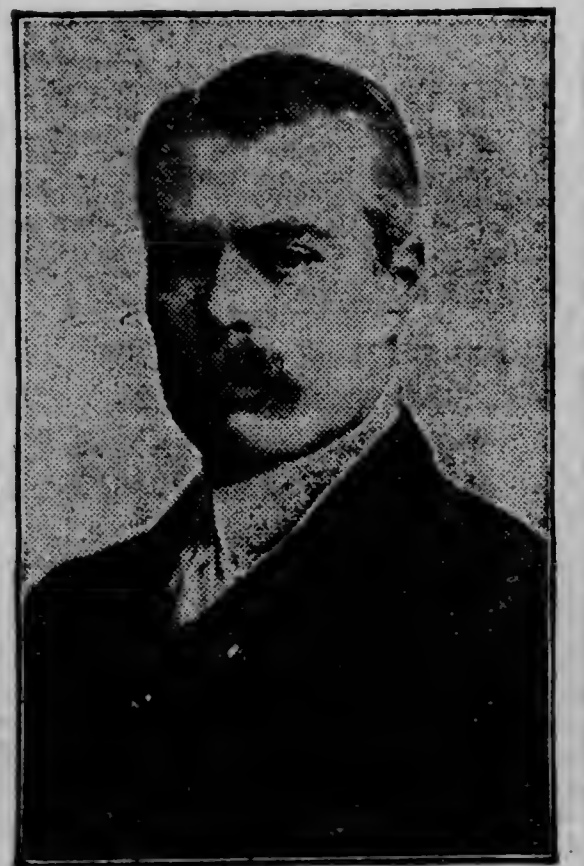

CONTEST IS DISMISSED

C. E. Adams Satisfied
John H. Norton Was Fairly Nominated.

Board Will Not Re-count
the Remaining 300 Votes.

The mistake of the election board in the Third precinct of the Seventh ward of the city of Duluth, which was discovered by the recounting board, and which gave John H. Norton sixty more votes than he had been credited with on the first returns from that precinct, practically put an end to the contest brought by Charles E. Adams to determine the nominee for the office of county attorney at the primaries, Sept. 15. Mr. Adams last night conceded Mr. Norton's nomination and called off the contest, which was this morning dismissed by the district court, on stipulations by the attorneys for the contesting parties.

The discovery in the Seventh ward practically decided the contest. Mr. Norton had led by five votes on the report of the county canvassing board and, with so small a margin to overcome, Mr. Adams' friends were hopeful of his success in a recount. As the count of the city of Duluth progressed, Adams gained steadily and at the time of the disclosure in the Seventh ward, led by eleven votes. The count of the remainder of the city and most of the range precincts included in the contest did not change Norton's majority materially, and yesterday morning the board did not resume count. There were still about 300 votes to be counted.

The counting board, consisting of James A. Hanks, William A. Hicken and Thomas J. McKeon, began work Sept. 20. Mistakes were discovered in thirty precincts of those counted, but Mr. Adams doesn't believe the remaining precincts would show mistakes serious enough to overcome the lead of his opponent. The expense of the recount falls on Mr. Adams, but he says he is satisfied now that it is certain Mr. Norton was fairly nominated.

BERT MOORE IS ALSO CONVICTED

Jury Finds Him Guilty of Swindling Wallace Lapp.

Bert Moore, who was indicted with Ray Nichols on a joint indictment charging swindling, was convicted of the charge by a jury in district court yesterday afternoon. Moore's defense was the same as that offered by Nichols. He claimed that it was a gambling proposition, pure and simple, and that Wallace Lapp, whom he was alleged to have defrauded, lost his money betting on the games. The jury couldn't see it that way. Nichols was convicted last week on the swindling charge.

Corporation Officials Say Business Does Not Warrant Increase.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 6.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hearings of the representatives of public service corporations occupied the attention of the state board of equalization today.

Judging from the nature of the questions put to the representatives, there is an element in the state board that favors an increase in assessments and, while many of the corporations put up a strong plea for no increase and gave figures to show that in the present state of affairs their companies are not doing business which would warrant the board in making any large increase, it seems within the range of possibility that certain of the corporations, notably street car companies and the steel companies may come in for substantial raises.

Representatives of the following companies were heard today before the board: Minneapolis, St. Paul & North Star, represented by J. O. P. Wheelwright; Duluth, represented by a company, represented by its president, A. W. Hartman; and the Duluth & Superior, represented by its treasurer and manager, Luther Mendelhall and Herbert W. B. B. B.

The Duluth street railway assessment is going to be increased. The present assessment is $750,000, an increase over the previous year of $24,000. Luther Mendelhall says a history of the company from its incorporation in 1882 during which time he has been connected with the company. He claimed that since its incorporation the company has paid to officers for salary and that the stockholders had received no dollar in dividends. The present company is living on hopes of the future growth of Duluth, and he said that he was down in the hope that some day it may be valuable.

Representatives of the newspapers of the Twin Cities and Duluth produced facts and figures to show that assessments on their journals ought not in justice to be put any higher.

BARBERS HAVE THEIR TROUBLES

Union is Being Ignored; Members Won't Pay Fines.

It begins to look as if there would be no recognition of the barbers' union in this city. At a meeting of the union last night it was resolved to annul the fine against the shops for removing their union cards, but at the same time to enforce the fine against the men for not taking part in the labor day parade. The union card was removed, and the men who did not take part in the labor day parade.

Barbers who have become foremen will be subjected to a fine of $5 for working in shops where the union card was removed. All workmen will be fined a similar amount for the same offense, with the additional fine of $1 for not marching in the labor day parade.

It is said that the barbers will not pay the fine. It will then be up to the union to enforce matters. It is said that the way the matter stands at the present time, it looks as if the union would be entirely disregarded and that its ruling will not be obeyed.

At the present time it is said that the shops at the Spaulding and the St. Paul are keeping open until 10 p. m. This condition continues. It is probable that every shop in the city will meet this condition. At a meeting of the union last night it was resolved to annul the fine against the shops for removing their union cards, but at the same time to enforce the fine against the men for not taking part in the labor day parade. The union card was removed, and the men who did not take part in the labor day parade.

It is further said that an annulment of the fines against the shops for removing their union cards up to the barbers to fine the men for working in a shop where there was no card, and for not taking part in the labor day parade. It is stated that the men under the circumstances some of the barbers are of the opinion that the union will not be further recognized.

JOHNSON HERE TO GET AID

Wants $3,000 for the Grand Marais Fire Sufferers.

Charles Johnson, a banker of Grand Marais, who has been working in behalf of the fire sufferers of Grand Marais and the north shore, is in the city today to secure money for families that were rendered destitute by the fire.

Mr. Johnson states that there is one Indian family and four or five white families who have been made penniless by the fire. He believes that $3,000 would supply the wants, and will ask Mayor Haven, a member of the state relief committee, to do what he can to secure the much-needed funds.

Eugene T. Loe, general secretary of the Associated Charities of Minneapolis, has been at Grand Marais investigating conditions there. Mr. Loe went at the instance of the state relief committee, and will make his report to the members of the committee.

It is probable that action of the committee looking to the relief of the destitute families will be taken.

NO LOOPHOLES THERE.
Eugene T. Loe, the extraordinarily successful young playwright, said at a recent dinner in his honor in New York.

"The playwright, to succeed, must make his point inevitably. Every point, by fair means or foul, must be captured. Not a loophole, for failure to creep in, may be left."

"In fact," said he, "the playwright must be as sure of his point as was the young lady who took advantage of the present Leap Year to propose."

He gave an account of a friend, a husband explained afterward to a friend. "She said: 'Will you marry me?' I have you any objection? Thus, whether I said yes or no, she had me cornered."

"Well, you might have kept silent," said his friend.

"That's what I did," the other replied, "and she flung herself on my breast, murmuring that silence gave consent."

Calumet Mining Company Asks Injunction Against Hyams-Bigelow.

Insists on Right to Vote the Osceola Stock.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 6.—A bill in equity was filed in the United States circuit court here today by the Calumet & Hecla Mining company, asking that A. S. Bigelow and H. M. Hyams, respectively, president and manager of the Osceola Mining company, be restrained from interfering with the rights of the Calumet company in voting stock of the Osceola company which it holds, at an adjourned Osceola meeting next month.

By a recent United States court decision in Michigan, the Calumet company is permitted to hold this stock, amounting to 62,601 shares, and the Calumet company desires to vote it.

It is said that the Calumet company issued an order of notice for a hearing on Oct. 26. The case was heard in the circuit court in this last February and the matter has been in litigation since that date.

BANKRUPT ELECTRIC CO.

Firms Ask That Head of Lakes Co. be Adjudged Bankrupt.

A petition of the Marshall-Wells, F. A. Patrick, and Panton & White companies, was filed with W. H. Pressnell of the United States district court this morning, asking that the Head of Lakes Electrical company be adjudged bankrupt.

They claim that the company owes debts to the amount of $1,000 and over, and that much money has been paid out in many suspicious ways, with, as they believe, an intent to defraud the real creditors.

In their petition they say that the company has made over most of its stock and fixtures to H. A. Segewick.
